SOUNDS LIKE THEORY

Stranger than fiction is the story told in London of how a missing will was discovered. In one house there was an old bureau which had been handed down as a heirloom for nearly a century. In an air raid this bureau split down the center, and a secret cabinet revealed. There were found a number of papers, and among them a will which will have an important effect upon the present holders of the property.

Reasons!

Why you should use Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles, have been shown in thousands of letters from actual users of this medicine, who speak in personal experience, of the results obtained by other women before so many years have passed. Why not give Cardui a trial?

Take CARUI

Mrs. Mary J. Irvin, of Cullen, Va., writes "About 11 years ago, I suffered untold misery with female trouble, bearing-down pains, headache, numbness, etc. I would go for three weeks almost bent double. My husband went to Dr. for Cardui... After taking about two bottles I began going around and when I took three bottles I could do all my work." E-8

Twelve-year-old Tommie was helping his uncle gather tomatoes from the garden. He started to work energetically, but by the time his basket was half filled he grew tired and put it down on the ground. For several minutes he stood still without doing anything. "Well, Tommie," said his uncle, "I'm afraid you are not a very good worker. You must work faster than this or I'll have to fire you!" he added, laughing. After a few minutes he looked up again. Tommie was still standing in the same place, watching him intently. "What's the matter, Tommie?" his uncle asked. "I'm waiting to be fired," said Tommie.—Youth's Companion.

Why Father Worked. A boy of twelve asked his father the other day if he liked to work. "Of course," was the reply, "but that's a queer question; why do you ask it?" "Because I want to hear your answer." "I like to work for one reason: because I've got to work to earn money so I can take care of myself and family. Who'd take care of you and mamma if I didn't work?" "What are poorhouses for?" "They're not for lazy people who can work and won't. Besides, if I didn't work there would be no fun in loafing."

BEFORE THE COOLNESS.

"Aw! I wuz a flossy guy wunst. I aster smoke quarter cigars." "Wot wuz de matter—wuz de sports too stungy to trow away half ones?"

A Nation's Soul. A nation's very much like a man. Its courage often needs a test. From trials of the soul we can determine which loves honor best.

Undoubtedly True. A new horror of war is indicated in the following bit from an English publication: First Tommy (in front line trench)—Hark, Bill! I can hear Fritz advancing. Hear it—squish-squish all the time. Second Tommy (after listening for a second)—You're wrong, Jim. That's only the Americans chewing their gum.

Reassuring. The accident had happened and the victim lay comfortably at the hospital and was beginning to take notice. After an inventory of himself he found nothing had strayed or was loose. His lawyer came in. "Say, Smith," began the victim, "do you think I'll recover?" "Recover? Why your case is good for $15,000 if it's worth a cent."

Filling a Need. "Does your husband play golf?" "Yes." "Then I'm sure you will be interested in this set of 38 volumes I am selling. It will help to whittle away many a lonely hour."

WHAT HE THOUGHT OF IT. "Is this the fastest train on this line?" "It's the limited, sir." "Well, it's the limit, all right."

Selective Draft. Envy, meeny, miney, moe; Which one goes to fight the foe; Which one stays at home to get his thrills; Paying wartime grocery bills?

Method. "How did you get the reputation of being so wise?" "I talk with a man till I discover something he doesn't know anything about. Then I pretend to explain it to him."

Accurate Designation. "What was that selection your daughter played on the piano?" "That wasn't a selection," replied Mr. Cumrox. "Nobody chose it. It was forced on us."

Refuge for the Shabby. "An Eskimo wears the same suit of clothes all the year round." "I've heard so," replied the man with the shiny coat sleeve. "Sometimes I'm tempted to move way up North where that sort of thing is fashionable."

House Many Centuries Old. What is believed to be the oldest inhabited residence in the world is a mansion in Germany that was built in 700.
