

We pay more for Ferrage than we pay for taxes. Help remove this extra tax.

VOL. XXVI.

THE HERALD.

Devoted to the Upbuilding of the West Side of the River. "A very live and creditable weekly newspaper."—MANUFACTURERS' RECORD.

NEW ORLEANS LOUISIANA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1918.

No. 17.

PERSONALS AND OTHERWISE

Miss Evelyn Corbett expects to leave for Chatawa, Miss., where she will attend St. Mary of the Pines College for the next session.

Miss Muret Giordano has returned to her home in Irton, after spending a few weeks here.

The many friends of Mrs. Joseph Adams are glad to see her out again, she being ill for the past two months.

Mrs. Charles E. Dickey and little son, Leo Val, are home, after a delightful stay of two weeks near Hammond.

Mrs. J. W. Morrison and daughter, Edna, attended the Twickler-Herbert wedding at Thibodaux on Tuesday.

Miss Katherine Schabel returned to St. Louis Saturday, after spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. W. Schabel.

Mrs. R. A. Tansey and little daughter, Juanita, and Misses Dorothy and Charlotte Kraft returned from Chatawa, Miss., last Saturday.

Miss Irma Wardrop has returned from New York and will take up her residence in the city.

Mrs. Albert Diket and children are home from Galveston, where they spent several weeks.

A sanitary drinking fountain is to be placed in the corridor of the Algiers Courthouse.

Miss Julia McCluskey and niece, Miss Meredith McCluskey, have been spending the past two weeks in Houston and Galveston.

Mrs. Ed Foley and niece, Mrs. Myra Foley of Lafayette are visiting the former's nephew, Mr. J. L. Cunningham of 239 Eliza Street.

Mr. H. T. Malone has returned from a business trip to New York.

Mrs. Frank Galvin was the soloist at the sacred concert at the First Baptist Church Sunday when the new $400 pipe organ was dedicated.

Miss Faye Stumpf has returned from Bogalusa, La., where she spent a month with her sister, Mrs. George W. Stumpf.

Mr. William Martinez is home, after a few weeks' stay in Arkansas.

Mr. Walter Martinez is spending a few weeks here with his sisters, Misses Annie and Anna Martinez.

Misses Zella Huckins and Lois Grant returned Sunday from a trip through the principal cities in Tennessee.

Mrs. L. G. Daudelin has returned from Sewanee, Tenn.

Lieut. W. B. Nash, who has been stationed at Camp Pike, Ark., spent a few days here, the guest of Miss Marvel Walter. Lieut. Nash has been transferred to Camp Perry, Toledo, O.

Miss Bessie Conklin left for her home in Morgan City, after spending a few weeks with Mrs. J. P. Walter.

The Blue Jackets Social Club will convene at their semi-monthly dance on Friday, September 6, at the Avenue Dancing Academy.

Misses J. O. Stewart, T. V. Casanova, J. E. Huckins, E. Salathe, Frank Grant and son, and Dr. C. V. Kraft spent a few days at Bay Adam this week.

Miss Cornelia Murphy left Sunday for Thibodaux, where she is bridesmaid at the Twickler-Herbert wedding.

Mr. Lillian Daniel is spending a few weeks at Hot Spring, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Christy and child and Lucille Christy, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Christy are spending the week at Bay Adam.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Daniel and child, who have been spending the past few weeks here, left yesterday for their home in McAllen, Tex. They were accompanied by Mrs. Daniel's mother, Mrs. A. Cararas, who spent a few days here. The trip home will be made in their auto, stopping enroute at all the principal Texas cities for a few days.

Miss Julia Twickler left Tuesday for Thibodaux, after spending a few weeks here with Mrs. Cornelia Murphy.

Miss Lawrence Twickler and Joseph Twickler left Monday for Thibodaux to attend the Twickler-Herbert nuptials.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pont and children are spending their vacation at San Antonio, Houston and Galveston.

Miss M. L. Wilcox returned Saturday, after spending a week at St. Louis.

Mrs. Beagan of Delaronde Street returned to Mississippi City.

Miss Sydney Olyod is spending a few weeks at Heartsease Park.

Misses Dorothy Murtagh, Louise Twickler, Evelyn Corbett, Vivian Vallette and Evelyn Peterson leave Sunday for Chatawa, Miss., to attend St. Mary of the Pines College.

Misses Hart and Schwarzenbach have returned from Houston, Tex., where they spent several weeks.

Mrs. T. L. Munsterman of New Orleans spent a few days here with relatives enroute to Mandeville.

Miss M. Murtagh and sister, Miss May Lasky, expect to leave Sunday for Chatawa, Miss., to spend a few days there.

Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Perry and family enjoyed a pleasant motor trip to Little Wood.

The Friday Night Euchre Club will have its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Richards in Verret Street at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. A. Richards.

Mrs. Mary Traub entertained the Euchre Club last week. The successful players were Mrs. J. A. Garland and Mrs. Charles Hoffstetter. Miss Traub received the consolation.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. A. Garland.

Mrs. Althea and Evelyn Donner returned to Chatawa to attend St. Mary of the Pines College.

Misses Borne and sister, Miss Mary Borne, returned to Pointe-a-la-Hache a few days ago.

Misses Borne and sister, Miss Mary Borne, returned to Pointe-a-la-Hache a few days ago.

Misses Borne and sister, Miss Mary Borne, returned to Pointe-a-la-Hache a few days ago.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 12, REGISTRATION DAY

Between 35,000 and 40,000 men between the ages of 18 and 45 years are expected to register in New Orleans on Thursday, September 12, according to conservative estimates made Saturday by government officials and the officers of many of the local boards.

In our district the chief registrars in the different precincts are: 1st, Mark Amuedo; 2nd, Sam Boylan; 3rd, Geo. Hahn; 4th, Thos. Fox; 5th, John Moynagh; 6th, W. L. Manning; 7th, Aug. Gaspard.

YOUNG MEN WHO REGISTERED WITH LOCAL BOARD NO. 13 FROM ALGIERS, ON AUGUST 24.

Lucien Lombard, 617 Vallette St., colored.

Bernard Johnson, 1124 Verret St., colored.

Miles Chanel Donnelly, 311 Alix St., white.

Alonzo Lombard, 917 Elmira Ave., colored.

Gabriel Jules Olivier, 119 Olivier St., white.

John Ross Gillan Farm, Lower Coast, colored.

Thomas Henry Leatham, 827 Pacific Ave., white.

Theodore Flemings, 1222 Wagner St., colored.

Eustace Prosper Voegtlin, 605 Belleville St., white.

David Anthony Adams, 616 Delaronde St., white.

Norris Davis, Farragut St., white.

Frank DeRoche, Newton and Orleans Sts., white.

Robert Joseph Teal, 826 Belleville St., white.

George Hotelina Escousse, 349 Belleville St., white.

John H. Hildebrand, 732 Pelican Ave., white.

Raph Anear, P. O. Box 50, colored.

Francis Jansens Jones, 437 Slidell Ave., white.

Arthur Joseph Gayaut, 1042 Verret St., white.

Charles Lauffer, 426 Powder St., white.

Aldor Kraemer, 717 Atlantic Ave., white.

Herman George Difford, 605 Wagner St., white.

Tony Campagne, 303 Homer St., white.

Hiam H. Harvy in Atlantic Avenue.

Mr. George Munsterman has returned to his home in Buras, La., after spending a week here with relatives. Little Miss Grace Rihner is spending awhile in Buras with relatives.

Mrs. J. M. Thorning and daughters, Susie and Mildred, returned from Mandeville Saturday, where they spent the summer.

Mr. Paul Rihner was a visitor to Buras last Sunday.

The many friends of Miss Mildred Himmelreich regret to learn that she was operated on at Hotel Dieu Monday for appendicitis.

Miss Alva Salathe left Monday afternoon for Covington, La., to be the guest of Miss Olga McNeely for a few weeks.

Mrs. Wm. Heuer and little son, returned from Bay Adam, after spending a pleasant three weeks vacation there.

Mrs. H. P. McNeely spent the week-end in Ocean Springs, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Heath, who is summering there.

Orange Grove No. 9, Woodmen Circle will hold their regular meeting Thursday, Sept. 5 at the Pythian Hall.

Mr. A. M. Barry of Houston, Texas, spent the week-end with his son, Mr. M. E. Barry of Seguin, Texas.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schunke was christened at the St. Joseph's Church, Gretna, on Sunday, Sept. 1.

The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Hardy. The name given to the little child was Lillian Agnes.

Wm. Barker left Tuesday morning for Concordia College, Conover, N. C., to take up the study for the ministry.

Capt. and Mrs. C. H. Hoke and their daughters Iona and Mrs. Frank Kucera and her little son Carlos, have returned after spending their vacation on the Gulf Coast.

Eunice Robichaux who is now working in Bogalusa came in for a week-end visit to his parents; also to attend the Labor Day parade.

Mrs. Charles Adams and daughter Elise and Roy Luft, spent a few days at Bay St. Louis, the guest of their grandmother, Mrs. Hy. Luft.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Martinez spent Sunday at Chatawa, Miss. They were accompanied by their little daughter Althea and Evelyn, who will attend St. Mary of the Pines Convent this session.

Ed Hebert left Wednesday morning for Pensacola, after spending a few days with his parents.

Mrs. V. Olivier and sister, Miss C. Albert left for Washington Sunday, to visit the former's son, Victor Olivier.

The canning class that has been meeting at Belleville School will not have a meeting until after the middle of this month. Due notice will be given.

Mrs. P. O. Caffero entertained the 500 Thrift Club at the K. of C. Hall. The successful players were: Mrs. C. Lagarde, Mrs. J. Thorning, Mrs. P. Caffero, Mrs. R. J. Williams, Miss Clairia Richards, Mrs. D. Galenne and Mrs. G. W. Pollock. Mrs. C. Corbett will entertain at the next meeting.

Mrs. Ed Lilly returned yesterday from Louisville, Ky.

The marriage of Rev. W. H. Hafner to Miss Gertrude Oertel will be celebrated this evening at Trinity Lutheran Church. All friends are invited to the church, but we understand that owing to mourning in the bride's family, the reception after the ceremony will be private.

Little Genevieve Pittari of the Lower Coast who was operated on Monday at Hotel Dieu is doing nicely.

Mrs. Frank Pittari is convalescent after undergoing an operation.

The Thrift Stamps Club will give a dance at Masonic Hall on Monday evening from 8 to 12 o'clock for the benefit of the club. The price of admission will be fifteen cents.

UNCLE SAM'S PARTNER

Planting home gardens, producing more food, and saving food are all war-time efforts of this government in which the women of America have co-operated loyally. We are all in the home army; the home army here must help the fighting forces and home armies over there; 120 million Allies must eat.

POLLING BOOTHS

The following are the locations of the polling booths and an accurate description of the election precinct in our ward for the special election to be held next Tuesday, Sept. 10th:

First Precinct—From the river to the river side of Pelican avenue, and from the river to river side of Verret street. Location, 215 Bermuda street.

Second Precinct—From the wood side of Pelican avenue to the river side of Opelousas avenue, and from the river to river side of Verret street. Location, 606 Seguin street.

Third Precinct—From the wood side of Opelousas avenue to boundary line of the parish of Jefferson, and from river to river side of Verret and Hermosa street. Location, 306 Slidell avenue.

Fourth Precinct—From river to river side of Alix street, and from lower side of Verret street to upper side of Whitney avenue. Location, 104 Oliver street.

Fifth Precinct—From wood side of Alix street to river side of Opelousas avenue, and from lower side of Verret street to upper side of Whitney avenue. Location, 530 Elmira avenue.

Sixth Precinct—From wood side of Opelousas avenue to boundary line of Jefferson parish, and from the lower side of Verret and Hermosa street to upper side of Whitney avenue. Location, 709 Vallette street.

Seventh Precinct—From lower side of Whitney avenue to boundary line of parish of Plaquemine, and from the river to the woods. Location, 1900 Newton street.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO OPEN SEPTEMBER 16TH.

The public schools of New Orleans open for the term of 1918-1919 on Monday, Sept. 16, and Prof. J. M. Gwinn, superintendent Saturday sounded the warning that every child should be prepared to enter the schools at 9 a. m. that morning.

Prof. Gwinn, with the aid of the City Board of Health and the medical profession, has mapped out a program for the vaccination of pupils. A child who has not been vaccinated will not be permitted to enter the schools.

Physicians will be at McDonogh No. 4 school, corner Alix and Bermuda Sts., between 9 and 11:30 a. m., on the following dates to vaccinate all children who are going to attend school free:

September 9 and 10, for white pupils of the fifth district.

September 11 and 12, for colored pupils of the fifth district.

STABBED WITH ICE PICK

Webster Orma, a negro of 1023 Vallette St., was stabbed with an ice pick in the right breast by Joseph Calderone, saloon man, at 405 DeArmas street, Thursday, and was sent to the Charity Hospital for treatment. Orma first accused his brother-in-law, Henry Green, but Calderone gave the police the facts when they started an investigation. Orma had assaulted Green with an umbrella, then turned on Calderone, who was trying to put him out of the saloon, when Calderone used the ice pick.

SOLDIER OVER SEAS.

A card was received from Bemiss H. Williamson of Gulfport, Miss., announcing his safe arrival over seas. Mr. Williamson is formerly of Algiers, and his many friends wish him good luck and a safe return. He is a brother of Mrs. J. A. Pruitt.

FALLS FROM TREE.

Armand Ose, 11 years old, of 432 Bony Street, fell from a tree at Bermuda and Pelican Avenue, Friday evening at 6 o'clock and sustained a fracture of the skull. He was taken to the hospital at the advice of Dr. J. R. Adams, who was called to attend him. He is being brought home again and is doing nicely.

LOCAL PLAYGROUNDS REPRESENTED IN PLAY WEEK.

A patriotic pageant in which forty diminutive floats depicted an important incident or character in history was staged at City Park Sunday afternoon as the opening feature of a week's program planned for children's celebration of play week, September 1-7, under the auspices of the women's committee, State Council of National Defense.

Our local playground was indeed fortunate having come off with two prizes out of three offered.

Miss Ura Babin, as "Liberty" was accorded second prize and Miss Wilona Gouner as "Betsy Ross," third. Other entries from the Algiers Playgrounds were Evelyn Cross as "Joan of Arc" and Jos. Lennox as "Uncle Sam."

On Tuesday there was folks dancing at the City Park and the following from our playgrounds took part: Camille Mothe, Myrtle McCloskey, Daisy Whitney, Juliette LeBlanc, Evelyn Cross, Marguerite Spahr, Alice McCloskey and Hannah Glucksmann.

SENT TO PARISH PRISON.

Edward Roach, a negro, giving his home in McDonoghville and who admits he was drafted from Algiers and obtained exemption on the ground that he was supporting a wife and child, was sent to the parish prison by Recorder Goff, Friday, and the federal authorities were notified of the case. Roach admitted that he has not lived with his wife for four years, but said she had gone before the local board in his behalf.

ENTERTAIN IN HONOR OF MISS TWICKLER

Mr. and Mrs. T. Fox entertained Miss Julia Twickler and her bridal party at a supper on Tuesday of last week.

The table was beautifully decorated and filled with all the delicacies of the season. All present had a most enjoyable time.

Those present were, Misses Julia Twickler, Cornelia Murphy, and Clara Vaise; Messrs. Ed Herbert and Albert Twickler, Mr. and Mrs. R. Walsh and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fox.

SIXTEENTH ANNIVERSARY.

On Aug. 29th a most delightful evening was spent when Mr. William Nolan of 610 Belleville Street was tendered a surprise by his many friends in honor of the sixteenth anniversary of his birth. As his home was not large enough to accommodate the large crowd, they proceeded to Electric Park where dancing was indulged in and refreshments were served. The music for the dancing was furnished by Frayle's Military Band.

The table from which the refreshments were served was beautifully decorated with flowers and the patriotic colors. The large birthday cake occupied the center of the table and was decorated with small pink candles and holders and miniature American flags.

Each guest received a pretty souvenir. The young host was the recipient of many handsome presents from his friends.

Those present were Misses A. Trahan, I. Schaefer, L. Schaefer, W. Walker, L. Walker, M. McCloskey, E. Mitchell, M. Hausknecht, C. Rehage, J. McQuilling, L. and I. Nolan, Messrs. N. LeBlanc, A. Trahan, G. Dairie, W. Rice, W. Gulott, C. Stassi, H. Walker, E. Usey, R. Grand, O. Lodenzer, J. Pope, E. Daigle, J. Charbonnet, M. Donald, M. Howe, V. Crawford, B. Shields, M. Short and Mr. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Rehage, Mr. and Mrs. J. Choate and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Rostrop, Mrs. F. LeBlanc and children, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Smith and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Borden, Mrs. E. Short, Mrs. Jacobs, Mrs. A. Tutts and Mrs. J. M. Nolan.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

Miss Cornelia Murphy entertained at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Julia Twickler, one of our most popular young ladies, who was married Tuesday at Thibodaux.

The Murphy home was decorated with bells, ferns, and emblems of good luck.

As the bride-elect entered, her attendants were there to arrange her wreath and veil. Lohegrin's wedding march was played and the bride marched in, taking her place in the center of the room beneath a large wedding bell. There she was surrounded with pretty gifts. After looking at all the pretty gifts everyone joined in a most delightful game "Key to My Heart." Mrs. T. Fox won the prize for the game.

After the game, refreshments were served. Those present were, Misses Stella Charleville, Bertha Olsen, Margaret Shannon, Bessie Pyle, Julia Birney, Ally O'Sullivan, Anna Mae Tierney, Naomi Lynch, Cleora Keenan, May and Nellie Herbert, Grace Lennox, Imogen Barrett, Inez Clement, Eloise and Albertine Lecourt, Cora Shields, Endolie and Edna Verneuil, Malvina Dwyer, Nettie Fabares, Josie, Eulaie, and Christine Giblin, Mamie and Marguerite Haggerty, Clara Baltz, Cornelia Murphy, Frances Niefmann, Katie Lynch, Nettie Worley, Emily Fallon, Frederica Stansbury, Margaret and Sadie Carland, Estelle Hibben, Mary and Ethel Hennessey, Mary Collins, Vic Hymel, Katherine Clarke, Mamie Morrison, Camille Mitchell, Anna Martinez, Mildred Morse, Claire and Gertrude Finley, Katie and Anna Crowley, Nella Boudreaux, Ruby and Grace Legendre, Erminie Hopper, and Angie Riordan, Mesdames E. Eble, H. Lecourt, W. Lilly, L. Murphy, A. J. Herbert, L. F. Toffins, R. Walsh, T. Morrison, M. E. Barry, Lester Brooks, Ralph Nolan, T. A. Fox, J. Morrison, Hennessey and Olsen.

ENJOYABLE EVENING.

A most enjoyable reception was given on Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barker in Bony St., in honor of Messrs William Barker and Leonard Hoffman, two of our local boys, who are studying to become Lutheran ministers.

The evening was most enjoyably spent in playing games and dainty refreshments were served. Each one of the young men was presented with a handsome traveler's writing folio.

Those present were, Misses Anna Gultz, Gladys and Juanita Munsterman, Thelma and Myrtle Clusen, Anna Mae Gould, Emma Sutherland, Dora Essinger, Anna Hoffman, Velma Borne, Inez Weber, Lulu and Ruth Thalheim, Ora White, Irma and Marguerite Reagan, Alice Dilzell, Carrie Barker, Ida Krogh and Renata and Gertrude Oertel, Rev. W. H. Hafner, Messrs. Richard White, Henry Thode, John Welp, Chas. Hantel, Reims Brehler, John Klienpeter, Emile and Leonard Hoffman, John Hildebrand, John Hambacher, Eddie Burns, and Wm. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Tappel, Mrs. and Mrs. McCauley, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Chas. Davis, and Mrs. Shields.

LARCENY OF CLOTHING.

Lawrence Williams, who is known by the alias "Up Jump the Devil," was arrested by Corporal Hyde and Patrolman Hoffman at the head of Morgan Street, Friday, on a capias from the First City Criminal Court, where he is charged with the larceny of clothing, while he is alleged to have stolen while engaged in the pressing and cleaning business.

HELP ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

The Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense will send out invitations to the 4368 fighting men stationed in the City who will be the guests of New Orleans residents Thursday, Sept. 12th.

The day will be known as War Camp Community Day. The dinner plans are under the care of Mrs. J. H. Hoerner. Each family willing to entertain men for the dinner, is asked to dine two men. The dinner to be between six and eight o'clock.

Car owners of each district are asked to lend their cars to help transport the men to their homes, so any owner of a car in Algiers who is willing to do his little "bit" please telephone Mrs. K. M. Vallier, Captain, Algiers, 288-L. Also any family who would care to entertain two of our fighting boys can also telephone Mrs. Vallier, and the invitation will be sent in to headquarters. These invitations must be sent in by tomorrow (Friday) Sept. 6. We hope that Algiers will not fail to do its share.

NEXT THURSDAY IS MILITARY DAY

In harmony with the plans of the New Orleans War Camp Community Service plans, Mayor Behrman has issued a proclamation setting apart Thursday, September 12, as Soldiers' and Sailors' Day, when the freedom of the city will be given to the men of war and the citizens will combine in the true New Orleans spirit to make the day one of special enjoyment to them.

The men of the various camps near the city, numbering some thousands, are to come to New Orleans at 10 o'clock in the morning, being met at Lafayette Square by the mayor and representative citizens, who will direct them to the various places where entertainment will be given.

Canal street will be decorated in carnival style and the carnival spirit of fun is to rule.

A varied program of games, sports and fun-making has been planned for Canal Street, which is to be the center of the day's activities.

At noon the men are to be taken to the homes of the citizens for lunch, returning in the afternoon for more fun and frolic on Canal Street. Again at 6, the men are to go to New Orleans homes for dinner, returning to the center of the city for the night program, the curtain of which rings down at 10:30 o'clock.

THEIF MAKES GOOD HAUL.

The Algiers police were informed Tuesday of the theft of a diamond ring valued at $175 and a pair of leather slippers worth $8 from the home of Louis Sierra, 809 Opelousas avenue, Monday. The ring was taken from a dresser in a front room supposedly while Mrs. Sierra was busy herself about another part of the building.

HIGH SCHOOLS TO OPEN ON MONDAY.

All High School pupils in New Orleans must report for the fall term next Monday, at 9 a. m.

Instructions in regard to making elections of studies will be given, condition examinations will be held and also examinations for pupils applying for admission. Election blanks will be distributed Monday and are due for return Tuesday. Pupils not presenting their election blanks on Tuesday, may not be able to get the courses they desire.

Should sickness or absence from the city prevent pupils from being present, election blanks should be mailed to the school so as to get there by Tuesday.

Pupils are not detained after Tuesday and report for regular classes on Monday, Sept. 16.

SHOWER.

On Friday, August 31st, a miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Miss Emma Sutherland in honor of Miss Gertrude Oertel, a bride-elect of the season.

The home was beautifully decorated and dainty refreshments were served. As the honoree entered the wedding march was played by Mrs. McCauley and Miss Oertel was then showered with many beautiful presents.

Those present were, Misses Gertrude and Renata Oertel, Velma Borne, Inez Weber, Ida Krogh, Hilda Hantel, Norma Weber, Anna Hoffman, Dora Essinger, Emma Lange, Irma and Marguerite Reagan, Myrtle and Thelma Clusen, Elita Norman, Juanita and Gladys Munsterman, Ida Lahusen, Myrtle and Emma Sutherland, Mrs. B. Tappel, Mrs. L. Rogers, Mrs. H. Harding, and Mrs. McCauley.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

There's something good in every thing— This war will give us anyway A brand new crop of veterans To speak on Decoration Day.