THOUGHT HIM DEAD, MARRIES ANOTHER

Destiny That Separated Young Couple in Russia Reunites Them in America.

MODERN ENOCH ARDEN

Young Russian in United States Army Meets Wife, Who, Believing Him Executed in Russia, Had Wed Again.

San Francisco.—The same destiny that tore William Shavchenko from his seventeen-year-old bride, Dora, in Russia six years ago and led her to believe that he had been executed for a political crime against the czar, has restored him to her in free America.

But now she is the wife of Michael Bakanoff and the mother of his three-year-old son.

Shavchenko is in the United States army, a private at Camp Fremont, near here. And Dora Bakanoff loves this modern Enoch Arden just as she loved him when they were married in Rostov-on-Don.

Wants Her Child. Mrs. Bakanoff has left her present husband and sued for the possession of her child. She says she will ask an annulment of her marriage to him in 1914.

After Shavchenko had been carried away by the czar's troops and presumably executed his young wife came to the United States, where she married Bakanoff. Shortly after the birth of their son they quarreled and the wife left her husband.

She obtained work in a home near where Camp Fremont now is, and a few weeks ago an officer from the camp, accompanied by a private, came to visit at the home. The private was Shavchenko.

"Our maid is a Russian," said the hostess when she learned of Shavchenko's nationality. "Suppose you talk together."

Truth Dawns Upon Them. As they were about to be introduced the eyes of the Russian couple met and when the truth dawned upon them they rushed into each other's arms, much to the alarm of the army officer and his hostess.

Then Shavchenko told his story. He had escaped from the Russian guard,

MAN ROBS HIS BENEFCTOR. When Sight Returns He Steals Pocket-book of Woman Who Befriended Him. Albany, N. Y.—Clinton Townley, twenty-one, of this city, became blind when in the navy. He was sent home on a furlough and a blind woman here, Mrs. Theekla C. Beck, befriended him and gave him instructions in her home to enable him to earn his living. His sight began to improve until he was able to see her pocketbook. He took it. He has pleaded guilty to the theft.

The pastor of the Thomas Cat is not able to say. He has seen all the pictures of her, and has never discovered anything on her yet.

Another reason why we send our sons to college is because when they graduate they can come home and sneer at how little we know.
