JOHN P. MURPHY TO OPEN BIG STORE AT THE CORNER OF PELICAN AND PACIFIC AVENUES

Another one of our live wide-awake boys will go into business in his own home town.
John P. Murphy, one of the most popular young men in the fifth district throws out his business banner to the commercial breezes of Algiers and in return for which he is expecting and deserving of his friends and the residents in the vicinity of his new enterprise—their patronage.
While Mr. Murphy needs no immediate introduction to the Algiers public, we feel that it is only just to him, now that he is starting in business to tell his townsmen who he is and what he has been and that we expect of him a very great success.

JOHN B. MURPHY.
Born in Algiers on December 2, 1894; son of the late James F. Murphy, well-known labor leader and popular Algerine; has lived in Algiers practically all his life.

YEOMANETTES ENTERTAIN.
There was a jolly crowd at the K. C. Hut Saturday night, the "yeomanettes" of Building 11 entertained the sailors and marines of the Algiers Naval Station. Games were played, among them "Going to Jerusalem." Ask any of the boys who enjoyed their trip to the holy city and I'm sure you'll want to take the trip too. After the games everyone joined in the "Old Virginia Reel" which ended in one-step, waltzes and fox-trots. Ice cream and cake were served. Among the yeomanettes "Building 11" are Misses Camille Mitchell, Anna Martinez, Mae Bowers, Anna Ockrasna, Mabel Tolley, Martha Harte and Cornelia Murphy.

By the way we must not forget to tell you one of the remarks that was passed by the boys. They were frequently heard saying, "These are the finest bunch of girls on the station." How can the girls of Building 11 help from being the "finest bunch" when they have the "finest boss" on the station—Mr. Chas. Dickey? With Mr. Dickey at the head, Building 11 will always be at the top.

RECEIVES FRENCH WAR CROSS.

Lieutenant Vernon Bourdette husband of Margaret Pope, formerly of our town, but now residing in Galveston, Texas, has been decorated for special bravery shown in the Chateau Thierry fight. He has been presented with the French War Cross the "Croix de Guerre," by General Petain of the French Army.
Lieutenant Bourdette is now in a small town, on the Rhine between Coblenz and Cologne. The men serving in his division with him in the Marine Corps, were the first to raise the American flag on the Rhine.

"HOSPITAL IN NEW YORK."

Conrad V. Frisch of the S. S. Momus is confined to the Marine Hospital in New York city. Mr. Frisch suffered contusions, due to an accident on his way to New York a couple of weeks ago. It is stated that he fell through one of the hatches and received injuries that will keep him in the hospital for several weeks. A letter from him recently stated that he is painfully injured but not seriously.

FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

On Sunday, February the 9th., a delightful party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carroll at their residence, 333 Pacific Avenue, in honor of their daughter, Iver Naomi, the occasion being the fifth anniversary of her birth.
Many games were played, the most interesting one being the "Donkey" game. The first two prizes, which were 1 pound boxes of Elmer's chocolates, were won by Ruth Gomez and Wilbur Daikle and the consolation and booby prizes were awarded to Maxine Kessler and Nicholas Beninate respectively.
The grand march to the dining room, was led by Miss Iver Carroll and her little playmate, Master Christian J. Brauner. A beautiful birthday cake, adorned the center of the table while two smaller ones occupied the ends of the table. Delicious refreshments were served in abundance. Each child received a red heart as a favor. Miss Iver was the happy recipient of many pretty presents.
Those who participated in making this evening a success were: Misses Iver Carroll, Alberta Molaison, Carrie Richard, Maxine Kessler, Patricia O'Neil, Marion Schiro, Ruth Gomez, Louise Richard, Ora Lee Carroll, Serita Beninate, Velma Choate, Masters Christian J. Brauner, Wilbur Daigle, Raymond Fields, Emile Trompet, Henry Choats, Arthur Fields, Joseph Kessler, Harry Neufus, Eddie Charbonnet, Nicholas Beninate, Lloyd Gomez, Misses May O. Brauner, Leona Iver, Annie Rupp, Mildred Brauner, Mrs. Fritz John, Mrs. Joseph Brauner, Mrs. E. J. Curran, Mrs. Mollie Schrine, Mrs. Sam Gomez, and Messrs. Fred John and Gus Iver.

After a most enjoyable evening, all departed voting the little Miss a most charming hostess.

MCDONOGH No. 4 NOTES.

McDonogh No. 4, having deposited $596.67 in the bank this week, again has first place and has secured her second red star. We hope that we will remain "On Top."

The completing exercises of the Eighth Grade A class will take place Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at the Folly Theatre. All parents and friends are invited, through this medium, to attend our exercises, and we will strive to entertain them to the best of our ability.

We regret that there are only six boys to complete the eighth-year course, but we are proud of these six, as they are all fine, manly boys, and we hope to see them do some excellent work in the future and become fine men. Their names are: Milton Acker, Joseph Folsie, Ralph Gerrets, Alvin Hofmann, John Kramme and Marcel Serpas.

Our Manual Training Department is occupying the attention of the members of our Co-operative Club, and they intend to use every means at their disposal to induce the School Board to either enlarge the room used for this purpose or build us a new and larger one. A committee was appointed to present a petition to the Board, asking them to consider this matter. Mr. Ortland is a very enthusiastic worker with the boys and he thinks that under better conditions they can accomplish better work.

Last night the club entertained the Eighth Grade A girls of Belleville School, their teachers and their principal, Miss A. M. Harte. Miss M. Vaughan, principal of the Adolph Meyer School, was a guest also. Dancing was indulged in and dainty refreshments were served. The March Band kindly furnished appro-

LADY MACCABEES

Algiers Review No. 22, of the Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees initiated four new members. This is a growing membership. You should join.

The lodge installed, the following officers on Saturday night: Commander, Corinne Hughes, Lieutenant Commander, Lillie Decker; Past Commander, Maggie Quinlan; Record Keeper, Lilla Collins; Finance Auditor, Alfreda Voestlin; Chaplain, Marie Angelo; Lady-at-Arms, Catherine Indelicato; Sergeant, Abelia Warren; Sentinel, Antonia Indelicato; Picket, Rosa Indelicato.

The ladies of Algiers Review will give a pit party on Friday night, the 14th., to see David Warfield in "The Auctioneer," which is playing at the Tullane Theatre this week. All who wish to go will be at the ferry at 6 o'clock sharp.

Mrs. Warren will entertain our members at her home, 507 Pelican Avenue, on February 25th. All come.

prate music and the McDonogh No. 4 Co-operative Club greatly appreciates the kindness shown by these young gentlemen. This is only one of the many things Mr. Oscar Marcour has done to help our boys and their school. Everyone present spent a very enjoyable evening.

MCDONOGH No. 5.

McDonogh No. 5 is still without a principal and we are eagerly awaiting the appointment of Miss Meggett's successor.

On Friday afternoon, the children of the third, fourth and fifth grades had an excursion to the War Exposition at Helmenann Park. The afternoon was a most interesting and enjoyable one.

After school Wednesday afternoon the children and teachers walked down the coast on a picnicing and kodaking expedition. The evening was a beautiful one and everyone enjoyed it in the utmost.

The report to the treasurer of the United States War Work campaign was made Monday, and was most gratifying. The children are doing well in fulfilling their "Victory Boy" and "Victory Girl" pledges.

Among the visitors of the past week were Mr. Paul Habans assistant superintendent, and Mr. Gora, superintendent of supplies.
The attendance is improving with the improvements of the weather and health conditions in the community.

SWEET GIRL GRADUATES.

Algiers Well Represented Among Esplanade High School Class of 1919.
Monday night was the gala night and a memorial one to the thirty one young ladies who completed their High School education, when they took part in the graduating exercises which were held at the Esplanade High School building.

Algiers was well represented in the class this year, graduating six of the entire thirty-one of the class. The programme was very interesting, especially to the parents of the young ladies. Mr. George F. Bartley, the Assistant City Attorney, was the principal speaker of the evening.

Miss Ida Riordan made the address for the class and she acquitted herself very creditably.
Miss Olga Gonthier who recited, "In Flanders Field," was also greatly applauded.

Miss Zella Huckins, soprano soloist, attracted considerable attention and she was applauded again and again for her efforts.
Miss Lois Gravois deserves special mention as a graduate in this class as she has made successful efforts in skipping different classes and she is one of the youngest graduates of this class of 1919. She also very creditably rendered, "Every Man's Land."

The graduates from Algiers were: Margaret Garland, Lois Gravois, Helen Josephine Graham, Thomastie Kraft, Zella Huckins and Dorothy Kraff.

NORMAL NOW OPEN TO ALL PREP SCHOOL GRADUATES.

Any graduate of the normal preparatory schools may now enter the Normal School, according to an announcement Wednesday by Superintendent of School Gwinn.

Heretofore only students graduating from the preparatory school with a grade of 85 or over could enter the normal. The new ruling will permit the entrance of those who finish the preparatory school with a grade of 70 or over.

PRESIDENT WILSON IN PARIS

President Wilson and President Poincare are here seen driving through the thronged streets of Paris to the house of Prince Murat.

COLLECTING THE FLOATING MINES

A recent photograph of the British auxiliary patrol collecting mines that have washed ashore by gales. The task of collecting all the mines that are washed ashore during the war and clearing the seas of these mines is extremely important, and is but one of the tasks that must be accomplished by the Allies.
