Rooney had accumulated a very respectable string. Among them W. W. Hastings, one of the best sprinters at the Fair Grounds; Benefactor, Azelia, Vision and J. W. Walker. His wide acquaintance made him a much sought individual when any of these horses ran, and he gave as his reason for retiring as an owner that he had not the time to devote to racing that was necessary to maintain a successful stable.

SOLDIER'S LETTER HOME

Roland Gayaut, of the U. S. S. Aphrodite, gives his folks some more good news. Last week, Roland wrote his ship being mined in the North Sea. This time, he takes us on a trip to several German ports. Although, he is not allowed to flirt with the German, "Fraus," Roland don't mind being in Germany.

His letter follows: U. S. S. Aphrodite, Portsmouth, England, January the 27th, 1919.

Dear Folks—Here we are at Portsmouth after the most adventuresome trip since I have been in the Navy. We are just going into dry dock to repair the damage done our ship by that mine on January the 10th. I'll never forget that blowout because it occurred on my (depleted) birthday.

Now for the trip. We stopped at Heligoland to take on a pilot who took us to Wilhelmshaven, a big German Naval Base. The people gave us a hearty welcome there and were more than glad to see us. We were surprised to see how many of us could speak German for we would never admit it before. We talked to many German sailors who told us the sailors and soldiers were well fed but the civilian population was literally starving. The people told us that shortly after the war, they were reading in the newspapers that the German Army had captured New York and Washington and were marching on Chicago without any resistance. The newspaper had them believing there was no resistance but when the American prisoners began coming in, they thought they must be some resistance and they thought right. It was acts and scenes like this that led up to the final curtain on the Hohenzollern stage.

We were in Wilhelmshaven for 3 days, when we left and the next day, we went through the Kiel Canal. The canal is 61 miles long and for us a passage between the North and Baltic Sea. We stopped at Kiel Canal, which is on the Baltic Sea of the Canal for three days. We then went to Warnemunde, took a spin around in the Baltic Sea then back through the Canal to Harwick, England and here we are at Portsmouth. We are going back to Germany as soon as we get out of dock. This time it will be an excursion down the Rhine.

CITY TAXES MAY BE PAID IN JULY.

City taxes will be collected this year early in July. The speeding up will enable the Board of Liquidation to meet payments on the city's bonded debt on time. The advantage to the public in the new system will be that it will make only one trip to the tax office as realty and personal taxes may be paid at the same time, with the poll tax window only a step away.

The details were arranged by the committee appointed as the result of the peace conference in the mayor's parlor on Saturday.

SULLIVAN AND WILLIAMS BUY SUBURBAN STORE

Took Possession Monday Morning

Two of our popular young men have entered the commercial field in Algiers, namely, John P. Sullivan for six years connected with the drug store of Peter Rupp, as pharmacist and Raleigh J. Williams of our town.

The deal for the place was closed some time last week and Mr. Williams and Mr. Sullivan took formal charge of the place, on Monday morning.

John Sullivan is very well known in Algiers on account of his long association with the drug store of Peter Rupp, where he made many friends. Mr. Sullivan has been in the drug business in his own hometown at Lake Providence, La., and came here to take charge of this place as part owner.

Raleigh J. Williams is also well known in our town, having been in the Railroad business for a good many years, being one of the confidential employees of the S. P. Company.

Their many friends wish them good luck in their new undertaking.

COMPLETES RED CROSS COURSE.

The following entered the McDonogh No. 4: Messrs. George Brown, William Gahn, Emilie Rosamano, Salvador Schillici and Raymond Treadaway.

ADOLPH MEYER.

The regular monthly meeting of the Adolph Meyer Co-Operative Club will be held on Wednesday, March 5, 1919, at 2 o'clock p. m. It has been found more advantageous to have the meeting at 2 p. m., than at 3:15 p. m., as heretofore.

All parents having children who will be six years old by April 1st, 1919, are earnestly requested to have them vaccinated and report this week, as the time for entering beginners expires on March 3rd.

The student body is very much enthused with Red Cross work; though the school has not quite reached the 100 per cent mark, we hope to do so in the very near future. Several departments have scored 100 per cent and we sincerely hope that parents will encourage the children in this grand work, so we can soon go "Over the Top."
