VOL XXVI MARCH 20, 1919 No. 45

THAT AX-MAN'S LETTER.

No doubt by this time the Times-Picayune is content with the publication of the mysterious letter signed "The Ax-Man," in which he promised all kinds of things on Tuesday night of this week to those who would not comply with his requirements of having a jazz band play in their front yard. It is very evident that the man who wrote this letter is one with more than ordinary intelligence and it can readily be seen that it is written more as a joke than anything else. In fact, it looks to us that someone put one over on the Times-Picayune. Undoubtedly, the letter made good Sunday reading for those who like to read articles of a sensational character, but we must stop to think of the great amount of harm it has done to the ignorant classes who are superstitiously inclined and believed to a certain extent that this ax-man would visit certain families who did not have a jazz band. It has been shown repeatedly throughout the United States that certain weather calendars predicting storms on certain days have caused intense fear, which was often followed by insanity among those who believe absolutely in these predictions. Instilling fear into people through the publication of articles of this kind (especially affecting the ignorant classes) should not be resorted to in an effort to grab news that will make interesting reading. There are already several instances in different sections of the city where women, and some men, have been frightened very severely by the announcement made through this letter from the "Ax-man."

We are told that several families in the city made arrangements to combine their strength for protection on Tuesday night by gathering in one house for this purpose. If the T.-P. would have devoted the same amount of space in an effort to capture the man who is causing these murders, it would have served the public to a much greater advantage than the publishing of this joke-letter, which caused a great deal of uneasiness and worry among the ignorant classes. So satisfied was the T.-P. with this "scoop" that it gloated over it Wednesday morning by publishing a cartoon showing one of the many families in a state of fright, the mother piteously trying to soothe the children by playing jazz music in compliance with the order of the "Ax-man." We fall to see the joke.

WHY? AND WHY NOT?

Armed strikers recently rushed into a clothing factory at Roselle, N. J., drove out the workers, many of them women, wrecked the machinery, smashed the windows, fired revolvers and threw acid upon a number of employees, blinding one of them. Restraint of trade.

Hundreds of sailors recently were landed in New York from France and sent to camp without a dollar in their possession, the government not having paid them. Patriotic women of New York, hearing of their dilemma, personally visited the camp and distributed $2 bills to the needy ones.

Secretary of the Interior Lane states there are over 7,000,000 persons in the United States above ten years of age unable to read or write English. He says: "Americanization must reach beyond illiterates and foreign groups to be effective."

Fourteen Protestant denominations are planning to raise $10,000,000 for after-the-war emergency needs of their churches. Among the objects of the fund are extending religious and social service among American soldiers and sailors during demobilization, Americanization work among the foreign-born, and reconstruction of church buildings in the war zone.

Lloyd Taylor, chairman of the Universal Military Training and Membership Committees of the National Security League, says: "The millions of stars placed on our service flags denote that men of peace have gone to the front to defend their country. Let us, as these men return, replace each star with an employment star, a white circle covering up the star denoting that a man has again entered the ranks of peace."

G. R. Washburn, of Louisville, Ky., says: "It would be economically wise, as well as in the interest of efficiency and expeditious handling, that the natural and manufactured products of the Southern and Southwestern States intended for trans-Atlantic shipment should pass through such ports as Galveston, New Orleans, Pensacola, Tampa, Jacksonville, Savannah, Brunswick, Charleston, Norfolk and Baltimore, instead of bearing the long-rail haul and cluttering up the docks at Philadelphia, New York and Boston."

Mount Olivet Church

There are no times in life when blessings descend so richly upon the soul as in the quiet, meditative hours of self-examination, when, alone with God, the soul learns more of duty, and finds ways to fulfill it—of privileges, and enters upon their enjoyment.

You will realize the awful character of sin, and will shun it as you would a drink of deadly poison. You will have learned how "to keep the body under," how to break every habit that has gained control over you; and will rejoice over the "conquest of self."

You will have gained a deeper insight into truth, and a better knowledge of God and your relations to Him. Your character will be purified; your spiritual power will be increased; your Christian life will be filled with richer experiences of prayer and devotion.

Looking upon the Cross, you will realize that you have been bought "with a price," and that your talents of mind and body belong to Christ—your time, influence, money, life—all are Christ's; and you will more fully consecrate them to His service.

Your heart will be touched with sympathy for your Redeemer; and you will love Him with an intense love, and give Him the allegiance of your life.

You will love the Church better than ever before—"Her sweet communions, solemn vows, Her hymns of prayer and praise."

Are not these results worthy of your effort this Lent? Lenten Services at Mt. Olivet daily, 8:15 a. m., morning prayers and Scripture Reading. Wednesdays and Fridays, 7:30 p. m., evening service and sermon.

Sundays—7 a. m.—Holy Communion. 9:30 a. m.—Church School. 7:30 p. m.—Evening Prayer and sermon.

United Lenten services at 4 p. m., as follows: Mondays—St. George's Church. Tuesdays—Annunciation. Wednesdays—Trinity. Thursdays—Grace.

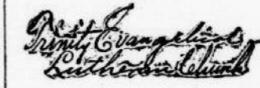

In answer to the appeal of the New Orleans Chapter, American Red Cross, Mt. Olivet Parish House will be ready to receive used clothing, shoes and blankets for the refugees that are pouring back to devastated homes in the Allied countries.

Clean!

Luzianne is a clean coffee. It is not touched by hand from the time it is first received in New Orleans until you serve it on your table.

LUZIANNE coffee The Reily-Taylor Company New Orleans

Every day clothing for men, women and children will be received. If you desire to send direct to the Red Cross, deliver your articles to the Salvage Department, 617 Baronne St. It is the purpose of the Red Cross to distribute the clothing among the refugees in Northern France, Belgium, Italy, Czechoslovakia, Roumania, Greece, Poland, Macedonia and Albania. This great collection of discarded wearing apparel will be made during the week of March 24-31.

There are four classes of churchgoers: 1. Spasmodic—Attend when they feel like it, but do not control the feeling. 2. Periodic—Attend Christmas, Easter and festival days, but afraid of the habit. 3. Occasional—Attend when nothing prevents, but easily satisfied with an excuse. 4. Loyal—Allow no excuse to keep away that would not keep from business. To which class do you belong?

The sermon topic for Thursday evening is "Today shalt thou be with me in paradise." Come and bring your friends. Friday evening the Waiter League Community Chorus meets at Zion's School Hall. You are invited to attend. Take Carondelet car and get off at Washington. A special meeting of the Helping Hand Circle was held Wednesday evening, March 19. This meeting was called in the interest of the Lutheran Layman's League Campaign for a permanent endowment fund of $3,000,000.00. Circulars are being distributed after each service, acquainting the people with the purpose of this campaign.

Chapel of the Holy Names of Mary

Rev. Canon Cabanal, chaplain of the "Blue Devils," one of the finest fighting regiments of the French army, visited the Fathers of the Holy Name Rectory on Friday last. The distinguished visitor spent three years and a half in the front line trenches, and those who have read the glowing accounts of the "Blue Devils" can easily imagine the scene of bloodshed and honor that Father Cabanal has passed through. That their chaplain was in no way inferior in bravery to the rest of the division is vouched for by the numerous decorations for heroism he wears. He won the "Croix de Guerre" and the Legion of Honor. He was cited for bravery on eight different occasions. Father Cabanal is a member of the French High Commission and is touring the country in the interests of his government.

It may interest the local Knights of Columbus to know that Father Cabanal is a member of their order, having taken the third degree in Portland, Ore. Rev. Michael Larkin, nephew of the Very Reverend Rector, came down from Jefferson to see the play on Monday evening.

Mr. Thomas Devlin and his daughter, Mrs. Begley, relatives of Father Larkin from Philadelphia, are in Algiers on a visit to the Very Reverend Rector.

Rev. G. C. Wier, Pastor, Residence, 236 Olivier Street, Phone, Algiers, 138. Last Sunday was marked by interesting services. The Junior Choir rendered good music of special mention was a violin solo by Miss Orrie Summers and a vocal solo by Miss Ida

Harvey. At night, the Mizpah Choir, rendered the nicest music that we have had at night in a long time. It is a great privilege to have dependable helpers. At the morning hour, Miss Thelma Cayard presented the Centenary Centennial interests in part as follows: "It is the day of the young! They have saved the world from autocratic domination, and on them rests the burdens of the world's future. They have within them the impulses for larger sacrifices, their vision is broad and clear, and they are not handicapped with the conservatism that so often comes with age. And when the Church looks to them so confidently for the fullest success of the Centenary Movement, she follows a true instinct. The confidence which the Church rests in her young people is drawn from a true knowledge of their qualities, and from a recollection of their past achievements. Our missions in Africa and Korea are both monuments to the Epworth Leaguers. From them came the first motive, preliminary finances and the vanguard of the workers. The Centenary still entrusts Africa to them for fully half of the missionaries who will man all our fields. And time will surely demonstrate that these responsibilities were not misplaced. As the Leaguers have such a prominent part in conducting the operations of the Centenary, so they are privileged to keep their share in bringing the Eighth Day Drive to a successful conclusion. They will canvass and be canvassed as are all other Methodists, and they will throw their shoulders to the wheel in a supreme Methodist effort, in which all subsidiary lines of organization are wholly ignored. But the Leaguers have desired to do more than that. "What do ye more than they?" is a question to which they are giving consideration, with characteristic loyalty. And so while as members of the Church they will do their full duty in the drive, as members of the League they will also raise $28,000,000 for their special work in the Belgian Congo. This sum will be raised through the League Chapters and will represent an addition to the amount raised by the Church in the drive. But at the same time it may count on the quota of the Church; and when the combined congregation raises the quota assigned to it, the sum from the League will represent that much "over the top." They are resolved that their African sacrifice shall be in addition to their duty to the Church. We have somewhere read that the reward of faithfulness in one field did not excuse one from the responsibilities elsewhere, but on the contrary it brought added duties. When ye have been faithful in a few things, I will burden you with the task of larger things. God's rewards are not in the form of lessening ones burdens, but increasing them. This is a strange kind of process, but it is God's plan. And when men use the discharge of one duty as an argument for evading others, they are on the plane of the physical world, and not on that of God. So if the Leaguers should take advantage of their African attempt in order to "escape the draft" of the general drive, they would be acting in a manner entirely unworthy. But this has never been their fashion. They have always welcomed, even sought, to "do more than they." And so they will do in the Centenary." The Centenary was presented Thursday night by Mr. Jno. B. Miller and Sunday night by Capt. C. J. Zatarain. Both gave a good personal exhortation in regard to the movement.

PERSONALS. When Mr. Geo. Kirkpatrick moved across the river, our congregation lost some active helpers. Misses Anna Belle and Irene were both members of Second Methodist Church School, the former was a member of Mizpah Choir and the latter of the Juniors. We will miss the whole family.

Last Sunday night, at the close of the services, a friend expressed his appreciation by giving the President, Mrs. Jessie Summers a nice offering to buy new Easter music. The regular attendants appreciate our music as do the strangers of whom there were many Sunday night. Last Sunday, March 16, 1919, the following children were baptized by the pastor assisted by Rev. J. A. Alfred of Second Methodist Church; Carrie and Franklin Benjamin children of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Flanders of 117 Vallette St. Master Franklin sent in the following offerings: New Church $1.00, Parsonage Fund, $1.00. One of our Sunday School boys, Gussie Woolverton of Newton Street, had an accident last week, breaking his nose in a fall. He was able to attend Sunday School.

Mr. E. E. Cayard, by invitation of the pastor, Rev. A. I. Townsley, went to Felicly Sunday night and made an Epworth League talk and installed the officers of that League. The Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at the Algiers Naval Station sent a special invitation to us to send workers down there Sunday afternoon. The Junior Choir went down and sang two anthems. The Pastor, Dr. and Mrs. T. P. Bell accompanied them. Rev. A. I. Townsley made an interesting talk on "The Soldier's Religion." Next Sunday the Carrollton League will go down to the Naval Station. Mrs. Alfred Decuir and children and Miss Henrietta Decuir of Marksville, La., are the guests of Boatwoman and Mrs. E. L. Borden of 612 Pacific Avenue. Sergeant Henry E. Albrizze has received his discharge and is at home again.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. Prayer Meeting to-night, subject, The King of Kings, Psalm 111. Services next Sunday at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. At the morning hour the subject will be "The Temptation of Jesus."

Boy Scouts Troop No. 18, will meet Friday to make final arrangements for attending the big Scout meeting Saturday night. Mr. Hoyt Chief Scout executive will be over.

SUNDAY SCHOOL. We are still striving for a greater attendance at Sunday School. If you can come and help us please do so. The delegates to the Orleans-Jefferson Parish Association Convention are reminded that the first session begins at 4:30 Friday afternoon and lasts until 6:30. Between 6:30 and 7:30 there will be a box supper, and everyone is asked to bring their own lunch. Coffee will be served free. Saturday the meetings will be the same as on Friday. If you can attend any of these meetings do so. They will help you. The place is the Coliseum Place Baptist Church, corner Camp and Terpsichore Streets.

EPWORTH LEAGUE. The monthly meeting was held Tuesday evening at the parsonage and the business of the League discussed. Miss Roberta Hafkesbring was appointed first department superintendent temporarily.

McDONOGH NO. 4 NOTES. Our telephone has at last been installed in the principal's office. We are very glad to have this convenience at our disposal, because its use will facilitate many important matters. Civic Leagues have been formed in the different departments and much good civic work is being accomplished.

A circular has been received informing us that on specially appointed days of each week our boys may visit either the Wiltz or the Behrman Gymnasium for special practice in athletics. We hope many of our boys will take advantage of this opportunity. A few picnics are being planned to take place in the near future.

FILLOL-VANDERLUIJ. A very quiet but pretty wedding took place on February the 15th, at 7:00 p. m., the contracting parties being Miss Mary Vanderluis and Mr. Joseph Fillool, Justice of the Peace. Nanez performed the ceremony in St. Bernard Parish. The witnesses were Mrs. Lawrence Roy and Mrs. Mrs. Alvin Lawson. After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Lawson, in Delery Street. Many handsome presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Fillool who will reside at Delery Street.

MISS MEGGETT SURPRISED. On Sunday last the faculty of McDonogh No. 5 tendered a most pleasant surprise to Miss Catherine Meggett, their former popular principal. The little surprise party was held at her home in Burdette street. It was the second time that Miss Meggett and all her former teachers were to gather since her transfer on January 2. As a token of love they presented an armful of Killarney roses to one of the most highly-esteemed principals in the city. With music, talking and a dainty luncheon, the pleasant afternoon soon slipped by. It will long be remembered by the faculty of McDonogh No. 5. Those present were Miss Meggett, Miss Marie Norra, Mrs. R. Tanner, Misses Emma Reneau, Helen Berger, Lillie Ott, Juanita Heitmeier, Hilda Vonau, Esther Hale, Georgina Johnson, Ella Hotard, Gem Mitchell, Irene Laskey, Etta Pettigrove and Mildred Morse.

PIT PARTY. On Sunday a pit party was given at the Tulane Theatre in honor of Miss Martha McNeely of Covington, La. The musical comedy "Chin-Chin" was greatly enjoyed. Those who participated were: Misses Martha McNeely, Olga McNeely, Christine Giblin, Claire Wilson and Alva Salathe. Mrs. W. P. Salathe was the chaperone.

Optimistic Thought. Retirement is the punishment of the fool, the paradise of the wise. Keeping Warm in Finland. In many ways the Finns are a very queer people. It is during the terrible cold months that the Finns revel in the mighty ovens that fill one corner of every kitchen and often loom up large and vastly impressive in the other rooms of a Finn home as well. The tops of these monster stoves are perfectly flat, and steps lead up on one side. When the weather becomes bitterly cold and bleak, the entire Finnish family will take quilts and pillows and mount to the top of the big heater, spread down their bedding and contentedly sleep very comfortably and contentedly on the hard hot bricks until morning.—Nevia C. Winter, in Christian Herald.

K. OF C. DANCES.

Rev. Father Petit, of the Knights of Columbus but at the Algiers Naval Station, desires to announce that the regular Tuesday night dances will continue throughout the season of Lent. The last dance was given by the Yoemanettes and a large crowd was present. This coming Tuesday, a dance will be given at the K. of C. Hut by the Ladies of Isabella, of New Orleans. On account of the great number of ladies that will be present at this dance, very few invitations will be issued to the others who usually attend the dances. Father Petit also asks that all who desire an invitation to the dances on Tuesday night should call Thursday night or Sunday afternoon at the H. N. G. C. for their invitation. Secretary M. S. Rigg, also of the K. of C., will issue invitations for the next and subsequent dances.

McDONOGH No. 5.

On Friday afternoon the Third and Fourth Grades met and organized a Civic League. The members promised to care for the gardens and to see that the yards and basements are properly kept. Marc Cossich was elected president and made a short address to the members, urging them to work for the good of the school. The other officers elected were: Ezra Bauer, vice president; Lucille Barton, secretary; Marjorie Schroder, treasurer. Meetings will be held every Friday afternoon, one of each month being in the form of an entertainment.

MISS MEGGETT SURPRISED. On Sunday last the faculty of McDonogh No. 5 tendered a most pleasant surprise to Miss Catherine Meggett, their former popular principal. The little surprise party was held at her home in Burdette street. It was the second time that Miss Meggett and all her former teachers were to gather since her transfer on January 2. RED CROSS NOTES.

Now that great emergency calls are a thing of the past and the "spectacular" feature entirely eliminated from the work of the American Red Cross, it is refreshing to find some women in Algiers humane enough to give their time, in a quiet and unobtrusive way, to the demands still made upon them.

The making of a Belgian baby's layette is one good day's work, a trifle when you consider the amount of happiness this day's work will bring into the life of the poor little Belgian mother who has so little to relieve the misery of her existence.

The following is a complete list of the ladies who, up to date, have volunteered their services in the making of these layettes: Mmes. E. Healy, chairman; Stansbury, R. Charles, G. Beilanger, Tallon, Kunder, Harby, Morrison, Skelley, J. McGivney, J. Finley, Cognovich, Rousselet, Owens, Lyncker, Murtash, McDonald, Bell, Ramey, Sadler, J. Duffy, Benoit, McGehee, Charleville, J. P. Nolan, G. Reilly, and the Misses Viola Barrett, M. Knowles, C. Albert, D. Hennessey and Evelina Hotard.

There are still one dozen layettes to be distributed and these can be had by calling any night after church at 313 Olivier Street.

GARMENTS.

The Red Cross is calling for garments for refugees of Northern France, Belgium, Italy, Czechoslovakia, Roumania, Greece, Poland, Macedonia and Albania. The campaign will be conducted the week of March 24-31, and in the name of suffering humanity we make this an appeal for devastated Europe.

Every kind of garment, for all ages and both sexes, is needed. All kinds of cloth, especially caution flannel to make baby clothes, sheeting, ticking and shoes of all sizes, are called for. These countries are looking for the American Red Cross to fill their urgent need, and we sincerely hope that Algiers will come forward. All garments or other contributions may be sent as soon as possible to 428 Deleronde Street, to be delivered to the New Orleans Chapter, A. R. C., headquarters.
