

From Far-Off Japan Come Beautiful, Low-Priced Silk

These Are the First Arrivals of Many Large Purchases Made by Holmes Representatives Now in Japan on a Special Buying Tour

Holmes' main Canal street window is gorgeous with a display of rich pongee silk just received from Japan.

These fabrics are the first fruits of a characteristic Holmes enterprise, the sending of two store executives to Japan for the purpose of buying needed Japanese goods direct from the producers.

We commend to women who know dress goods values a close examination of these silks, which are described and priced below.

- 33-Inch Natural Pongee; all silk; good weight for waists and dresses; yard59c
33-Inch Pongee; all silk; well woven; desirable shade of tan; yard69c
33-Inch Pongee; all silk; an exceptional quality in natural color; yard79c
33-Inch All-Silk Pongee; smooth surface; brilliant finish; suitable for dresses, waists and men's shirts; yard1.25
33-Inch All-Silk Pongee; Medium weight; perfect weave; natural color; yard1.50
33-Inch All-Silk Pongee; rough or smooth surface; for dresses and skirts; yard1.65
33-Inch All-Silk Pongee; heavy weight; beautiful color for skirts and suits, yard2.00
33-Inch Men's Wear Pongee; all silk; heavy quality, will launder perfectly; suitable for men's suits and women's skirts; yard2.25
33-Inch Men's Wear Pongee; all silk; durable quality; for men's suits, yard2.65

Holmes Dress Goods Section—Main Floor

D. H. Holmes Co. LIMITED

Paris, New York, Berlin, London and Florence. Established April 3, 1842.

Swat the Bugs!

Various kinds of small vermin cause lots of worry to the careful housewife. Bedbugs, cockroaches, spiders, worms, flies, rats, mice—all these pests and you should exterminate them at once with safe and sure poison.

Menace Your Health

Tell us your bug troubles and we will give you something to eradicate them—Sure!

You get what you ask for

CALDERARO'S PHARMACY

(Successor to Peter Rupp) Cor. Bermuda, Eliza and Verret Sts.

Capital $5,000,000.00 DIXIE Greatest Homestead South Phone Main 786

Notice

We pay 3% semi-annually on both full-paid and current shares.

All payments made on current shares or savings on or before July 5, 1919, will earn six months dividend December 31, 1919.

Full paid stock issued only to the applicants on file.

We are the only Homestead or Building and Loan Association in Louisiana that lends money at less than 7% and no bonus.

Our low rate of interest to home purchasers gives us a choice of loans and a higher grade risk.

Think it over, Mr. Investor.

Our growth is adequate evidence that our citizens approve and adopt our teachings.

Resources Over $1,017,000.00 in 11 1/2 Years

Come in and discuss with us the purchase of your new home—no obligation on your part.

Dixie Homestead Association

William J. Sonneman, Sec.-Treas. Macheca Bldg. 830 Canal St.

Members Will Please Send Their Passbooks for Audit

Conjugal Felicity. My wife and I never argue, so we get along beautifully. How do you manage it? When anything goes wrong I always figure that it was my fault and she never disagrees with me.—Boston Transcript.

Gnat a Source of Musk. To the list of sources of musk must be added a kind of gnat, order hemiptera, class redavidae, genus amullus (stol), which is so common in the Australian bush at times as to fill the air with a musky odor.

CIVIL DISTRICT COURT.

E. A. Mequet et als vs. Algiers Manufacturing Company, Limited, motion of appeal.

B. H. Kearns vs. N. O. Ry. & L. Co. motion for bond for costs.

Succession of John Schroder, possession—Robert O'Connor.

ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACTS.

Eureka Homestead Society owner, from Hugh A. O'Keefe contractor, property Opelousas, Pacific Elmira and Evelina—Cousin.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFER

David W. Gouner to Stella Mary Gouner his wife, lot Bermuda Alix, Seguin and Pelican, Donation—Private.

Prudential Savings & Homestead Association to Mutual Building and Homestead Association, lot Pacific, Elmira, Evelina and Eliza streets, $3,000 cash—Gurley.

Purchaser to Mrs. Jane W. Comeaux, same property, $3,000 terms—Rebentisch.

Conservative Homestead Association to Dr. Chas. V. Kraft, five lots, Nunez, Magellen, Hancock and Bringer, $5,300—Buchmann.

Henry Holt and Chas. Ernest to Zion Calvery, lot Lamarque, Socrates, Belleville and Elmira Avenue, $225 cash.—Humphrey.

Acme Homestead Association to Dahir Hanna, lot Opelousas, Slidell and Elmira Avenue, $1300 terms.—Legier.

Frank Giammalva to Cologero Giammalva, two lots, Maison, Monroe.

Homer and Newton, $1800 terms—Marinoni, Jr.

Mrs. Widow Ferd Streuby to Mrs. Manuel Delala, three lots, Newton, Odson, Detatur and an Alley, $400 cash.—Humphrey.

Elie Hymel to Security Building & Loan Association, lot Opelousas, Olivia, Verret and Evelina, $1000 cash—Loomis, Jr.

Purchaser to Vendor, same property $1000 terms.—Loomis.

Succession of Earl C. Brown to Succession of Mrs. A. C. Koester, lot Opelousas, Belleville, Slidell and Vallette, (Delivery of Legacy.)—Mahoney.

The Phoenix Building & Homestead Association to Mrs. Minnie L. Teal, lot Jackson, Homer, Elmira and Belleville $1300 terms.—Hubert.

A. T. Wainwright to Cyrus Broussard, lease of property No. 800 Pelican Avenue between Belleville and Elmira for the term of 12 months ending September 30, 1919, $35 per month.—Private.

Union Homestead Association to Mrs. Bessie E. Vinet, two lots Pacific, Elmira, Opelousas and Slidell, $2975 terms.—Gurley.

Mrs. Marie Clark to Eureka Homestead Society, lot, Delaronde Olivier, Pelican and Verret, $1800 cash.—Benedict.

Purchaser to Mrs. Henry W. Clark, same property, $1800 terms.—Benedict.

Mrs. Eliza Brunner et al to Third District Building Association, lot, Bermuda, Morgan, Lavergne and Delaronde, $4000 cash.—Wegener.

Purchaser to Mrs. James H. Owens, same property, $3,00 cash.—Wegener.

ers. She carried pink carnations and roses, tied with pink tulle.

The groom had, as his best man, Mr. Burnett Glancy, and his groomsmen, Mr. Thomas Mine, a brother of the bride, Mr. August Linquist and Mr. John Hogan served as ushers.

The groom and his attendants wore full dress suits.

Little Florence Kleinkemper, flower girl, wore a dress of white flowered net over cream satin, trimmed in hyacinths. She carried a flower basket of pink carnations and pink roses.

The ring-bearer, Master Albert Mine wore a white linen suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow trimmed in lace and hyacinths.

As the bride entered at the side of her father, who gave her into the safe keeping of the groom, the wedding march was played by Professor P. Herbert. During the signing of the register, Miss Annie D. Sadler rendered the selection "The End of a Perfect Day", Miss Eleanor Mitchell sang "Ave Maria".

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home.

Refreshments were served. Music was furnished and dancing was enjoyed.

The happy young couple, who are the recipients of many pretty gifts are at home to their many friends at 616 Delaronde Street.

MARRIAGES.

WITHERS-McDONALD.

On last Wednesday, the marriage of Miss Louise Genevieve Withers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Withers to Mr. John J. McDonald, was celebrated at the Church of the Holy Name of Mary by Father McGrath.

GRAND-LANDS.

A very pretty and quiet wedding of the past week was that of Miss Helen Louise Grand, daughter of Mrs. E. Grand, of 334 Belleville Street, to Mr. Edward Lands of Opelousas Avenue, which took place Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. J. A. Petit, officiating.

The young bride, who was given away by her brother, Eugene Grand, was very prettily dressed in a tan tailor-made suit. She wore a tan hat and tan slippers and stockings.

The maid of honor, Miss Lillian Koch, a cousin of the bride, wore a white voile dress hemstitched and tucked. She wore a flesh-colored Georgette crepe hat trimmed with very small flowers.

The groom had as his attendant, Mr. Richard L. Grand.

After the ceremony, the young couple left immediately for a short honeymoon at Biloxi. Upon their return they will be at home to their many friends at 334 Belleville Street. Mr. and Mrs. Lands received many lovely gifts from their friends.

MINE-ADAMS

Among our later June weddings was that of Miss Eugenia Mine, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mine of Verret street, to Mr. Davis Adams of Franklin, which was quietly celebrated at the church of the Holy Name of Mary last Thursday at 6 p. m. Father J. A. Petit officiating.

The bride, who is a very charming young woman was very prettily attired in a white beaded dress of Georgette crepe over princess satin. Her veil of illusion was caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses, white carnations and lilies-of-the-valley, with maiden's hair ferns. The streamers, tying the bouquet were of white tulle, tied into little "love knots".

The maid of honor, Miss Katie Grundmeyer, wore a flesh-colored crepe de chine dress hemstitched and prettily beaded in pink. Her girle was of blocked pink and blue satin. She wore a flesh-colored Georgette crepe hat with flesh-colored and blue streamers. She carried pink carnations and pink roses with streamers of pink tulle.

The bridesmaid, Miss Mary Mine, the sister of the bride, wore a flesh-colored beaded Georgette crepe dress over flesh-colored taffeta, trimmed in ruffles. She wore a hat of the same material, with flesh-colored stream-

WATTIGNY-TEAL.

On last Wednesday at 4 p. m., at the Church of the Holy Name of Mary, Miss Leona Estelle Wattigny of 603 Wagner Street was married to Sidney Teal of 803 Slidell Avenue by Rev. Father McGrath.

The bride who was given away by her brother, Ulysses Wattigny, wore a pretty dress of white organdy trimmed daintily ruffled. Her dress was girdled with a white satin sash and her hat was of white Georgette crepe trimmed in white satin ribbon.

The bridesmaid, Miss Lurline Wattigny, a sister of the bride, wore white organdy, trimmed with small ruffles and piquoted. She wore a pink sash and a Georgette crepe hat with pink satin ribbon trimming.

After the ceremony, a quiet reception was held at the bride's home for the immediate family.

The happy young couple are the recipients of many presents, among which are many beautiful pieces of cut glass.

Mr. and Mrs. Teal have taken up their residence at 803 Slidell Avenue and will be glad to see their many friends there.

YATTER-FELIX.

Among the pretty home weddings of the week was that of Miss Esther Yatter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yatter, and Mr. Arthur M. Felix, which took place at the residence of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. M. Felix, 1015 Eleanor street, Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock Rabbi Emil W. Leipziger officiated.

The house was prettily decorated with palms, ferns and roses, and the ceremony took place under an arch of palms and white roses. Miss Yatter had as her attendants, Miss Sadie Juliette Levy, as maid of honor; Miss Rose Felix was bridesmaid and Mrs. Sigmund Block of Texas, was matron of honor. Little Janet Weil carried the bride's veil.

The bride was gowned in white Georgette over satin, embroidered in white beads and pearls. Her veil was draped in cape effect. The maid of honor's dress was pink Georgette with white beads over cloth of silver. The bridesmaid's dress was flesh Georgette. The matron of honor lavender Georgette.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix left Thursday morning for a short honeymoon along the Gulf coast, and will be at home soon with the bridegroom's mother, 1015 Eleanor.

BRÄUNER-MOORE.

Claiming more than usual interest in most exclusive circles was the wedding of Miss May O. Brauner, a charming young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brauner to Mr. Edmund C. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Moore of Alabama, which was beautifully celebrated on Wednesday, June 25, 1919 at 4:00 o'clock at the church of the Holy Name of Mary. Rev. Father Edward P. McGrath performed the ceremony according to the sacred rites of the Catholic Church.

The church was brilliantly illuminated and was decorated with a quantity of ferns, palms, and daisies. They were banded within the tabernacle and arranged in an arch at the foot of the altar. White satin ribbons were stretched across the aisles.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Professor Herbert as the bridal party entered and during the ceremony, many beautiful selections were rendered on the organ by Professor Herbert, accompanied on the violin by Miss Anna D. Sadler. During the signing of the register, Miss Herbert Malain sang "Ave Maria".

Miss Brauner's attendants were her sister, Miss Mildred Brauner, as maid of honor, Misses Annie Rupp, Anna May Brechtel, and Vera Moran of New Orleans as bridesmaids.

The little ring bearer was Master Christian John Brauner and little Miss Alberta Molaison was flower girl.

Mr. Joseph Brauner acted as best man for the groom while the groomsmen were Messrs. George Brauner, A. E. Israel and John B. Murphy.

Messrs. Ansell, Moran, James Murphy, Claude Evans and Charles Allison served as ushers.

Algiers will always claim Miss Brauner as one of its loveliest brides. She was becomingly attired in a white Georgette crepe dress over sublime satin, which was prettily pearl beaded in butterfly effect. It was neatly hemstitched and was trimmed with real lace. Her veil of illusion was arranged in cap effect over her wreath of orange blossoms. The veil fell gracefully to the end of her train which was of duchess satin. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses with maiden's hair and asparagus ferns tied with tulle streamers. Miss Brauner entered with her father, who gave her into the safe keeping of the groom.

Her maid of honor wore a gown of white net over satin and carried an arm bouquet of deep pink Killarney roses. The bridesmaids were charmingly dressed in gowns of differently colored organdy. Miss Rupp was attired in pale blue organdy. Miss Brechtel wore peach-colored organdy and Miss Vera Moran flesh-colored organdy. The dresses were made with ruffles and tucked neatly hemstitched and piquoted edged around the neck and sleeves. All carried arm bouquets of pink Killarney roses with tulle streamers.

The groom, the bride's father, the best man and the groomsmen wore white linen suits, some with the waist band effect. The ushers also wore white suits, two of which were white dress uniforms of the Navy.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Joseph Brauner, was tastefully gowned in white voile, hemstitched in pale blue with blue ribbon belt to match. She wore a large white Milan hat trimmed with white wide ribbon and wings.

The little ring bearer was dressed in a white linen suit and carried a white satin pillow, to which was attached a white satin ribbon, holding the two rings.

The flower girl wore a dress of white organdy and silk socks and slippers. A great bow of white ribbon was in her hair.

This wedding meant one of the smartest gatherings of the social world this season. Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents in Pacific Avenue. The spacious rBraune home was decorated with hydranums, daisies, roses and ferns of all kinds and the entire lower floor was cleared of the furniture and brilliantly illuminated for the occasion. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour and Jarcoeur's Jazz Band was in attendance. Champagne punch and delicious cream and cake were served in abundance.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund C. Moore are the happy recipients of many handsome presents. The young couple left for the next morning on the 4:30 train for parts in Alabama to spend their honeymoon. The bridal party escorted them to the train, showered them with rice and Mr. and Mrs. Moore left with the best wishes and congratulations of their many friends.

The bride's travelling dress was navy blue crepe de chine, hemstitched and beaded in red by one of her bridesmaids. She wore a large black Milan hat prettily trimmed with black ribbon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, Mr. M. Farris and son, Lawrence, came down for the wedding.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Moore will be at home to their many friends and relatives at 337 Pacific Avenue, where they will, for a short time, reside.

The groom has recently received his honorable discharge from the U. S. Navy.

Those present at the reception were Misses Anna Mae Brechtel, Vera Hotard, Stella Roselli, Vera Moran, May Hellen, Amy McCarthy, Margaret Holle, Anna D. Sadler, Lena Dinapoli, Marion Holle, Louise Palliser, Marion Harris, Hilda Coyne, Lucille Beron, Ada Hoffman, Edna Dalgie, Phyllis Coyne, Odessa Brechtel, Audrey Nessin, Julia Birney, Catherine Rupp, Agnes Biehler, Lillian Moran, Ruth Brauner, Virginia Sperier, Mildred Coyne, Beatrice Hill, Clemence Sperier, Gladys Brauner, Inez Clement, Gladys Newchurch, Annie Rupp, Amy Richard, Lillian and Clark, Carrie and Mildred Brauner, Messrs. John B. Murphy, Ernest Brune, Russell Moran, E. A. Israel, Arthur Sperier, Fergus Moran, A. B. Clark, O. Clarke, George Holle, C. F. Chapman, Jeff Gerrets, Charles Allison, Claude Evans, Cleveland Laskey, John Birney, Foster Ryan, George Brennan, Robert Kay, Larry Kirn, Jr., James Murphy, Raymond Curran, Albert Kissinger, Oswald Brauner, Gerard Rupp, William Main, Sydney Gaudin, Philip Mangaraino, Lawrence Farris, Joseph Brauner, George Brauner, George F. Brauner, Jr., Fred John, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund C. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Birney, Mr. and Mrs. Gillis Molaison, Mr. and Mrs. J. Brauner, Mr. and Mrs. E. Folse, Mrs. K. Ryan, Mrs. Geo. F. Brauner, Mrs. Peter Lamber, Mrs. George N. Brauner, Mrs. E. J. Curran, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brauner, Mrs. T. Birney, Mrs. M.

Shrine, Mrs. F. John, Mrs. G. Manet, Mrs. Lacaze, Mrs. P. Rupp, Mr. A. M. Farris, Mr. and Mrs. Bergeron, Mrs. A. B. Clarke and many others.

MARTIN-PEROVICH.

On Monday morning, at 11:30 o'clock, a quiet wedding took place, the contracting parties being Mrs. George Martin and Mr. John Perovich of the city. The wedding took place in Gretna by Judge Trauth.

Mrs. Martin wore a white, crepe meteor dress, beaded, and a white Georgette crepe hat, trimmed with crushed roses. She wore a corsage bouquet of white and pink bridal roses with maiden's hair ferns.

The attendants were Miss Pearl Olsen, Mrs. Sadie Aciot, Mr. Charles Kirsch and Mr. Frank Van Sessa.

Miss Aciot wore a white satin skirt and white crepe de chine waist, prettily beaded. She wore a pretty white Milan hat with white ostrich plumes.

Miss Pearl Olsen wore a peacock blue satin dress trimmed in Georgette crepe of the same color. She wore a white Milan hat trimmed in blue flowers.

The groom and his attendants wore white palm peach suits.

After the ceremony, the bridal party left for West End. Mr. and Mrs. Perovich are the recipients of many beautiful presents. They are at home to their many friends at 501 Elmira Avenue.

BUTCHER-BOURGEOIS.

One of the most beautiful events of the season was the wedding of Miss Melba Butcher, formerly a belle of Algiers, to Nolan A. Bourgeois, son of A. A. Bourgeois, of L'Ourse, La., at the home of her aunt, Mrs. L. G. Dandelin 1307 Pleasant Street, on Wednesday, June 25th, 1919.

Promptly at 6 o'clock the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march was heard, the groom entering from an anteroom, with his best man, Ensign J. Leddy and the Rev. Sidney Vail. They stood under a beautiful arch made of palms draped with valley lilly tulle ribbon, awaiting the arrival of the bridal party.

The bridal party was led by beautiful little Loraine Humphrey, who was a perfect picture dressed in pink Georgette frock, carrying a basket of daisies and ferns, then followed another flower girl pretty Mary Louise Leddy, cousin to the bride, dressed in cream lace and blue ribbon, she also carried a basket of daisies. They entered the maid-of-honor, Miss Rita Humphrey, the only attendant of the bride, looking very lovely in apricot pink Georgette trimmed in bands of duchess lace. She wore a big picture hat and carried a shower bouquet of pink bridesmaid roses, lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern.

The very beautiful bride entered on the arm of her handsome cousin Childs Dunbar, who gave her into the keeping of the groom.

She was handsomely gowned in white Georgette over satin, her only ornament being a string of pearls a gift of the groom.

The court train was of white satin, over which the veil of illusion was draped and caught up with orange blossoms, the cap effect and orange blossom wreath enhanced the bride's natural beauty. She carried a graceful shower bouquet of brides roses, lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern.

The men all wore white, the groom looking particularly handsome in his. Mrs. Alfred Meister, sang "Because" during the signing of the register. Following the wedding an informal reception was held at which time the wedding cake was cut, excitement prevailed, each girl hoping she would be the lucky one to secure the ring.

Miss Bourgeois cousin to the groom was the happy one to get the ring.

Miss Rita Humphrey looked rather sad when she saw her ribbon held the tumbles, and she was doomed to be an old maid, Miss E. Ziegler pulled the dime, and also caught the bouquet when thrown by the bride.

The couple left on their honeymoon, the bride wearing a lovely travelling suit of silver tone, cloth, and small black hat trimmed in blue plumes. Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Bourgeois will be home to their many friends after July 3rd at 1307 Pleasant Street.

SURPRISE PARTY.

A very agreeable surprise party was given Mr. Luke Gillin, by Misses Doris Aycock and Evelyn Cross on Saturday night. Miss Aycock, who represented his friends, presented him with a gold collar pin and a fountain pen.

Dainty refreshments were served and dancing was indulged until a late hour. Music was furnished by Mr. Edwards.

Those present were Misses D. Aycock, E. Cross, M. Finley, A. Wiegman, A. Le Bouef, B. Oswald, C. Guillot, A. Kerker, C. Kerker, L. Hunn, M. Rooney, H. Aycock, C. Mothe, F. Aycock, S. Gerrets, J. Wiegman, C. Cummsky, V. Luft, L. Koenig, M. Gillin, L. Thibaud, Masters E. LeBouef, L. LeBouef, C. Gerrets, L. LeBouef, C. Terbonne, S. Teal, H. Brown, B. Treadaway, C. Davidson, H. Davison, E. Mothe, G. Zatarain, A. Guillot, L. Gillin, C. and B. North, J. Johnson, A. Edwards, N. Whitmore, J. Hunn, L. Gillin, Miss E. Lawrence, Mrs. W. P. Kermer, Mr. and Mrs. F. Wiegman, Mr. and Mrs. S. Gillin, Mr. and Mrs. L. Gillin, and Messrs. A. and P. Delcazel.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

On Monday evening at the home of Capt. and Mrs. C. T. Clasen, the tenth anniversary of their young daughter Bernice, was celebrated. Many games were played by the children. Music and dancing were enjoyed. Refreshments were served in abundance. The little hostess received many pretty gifts from her young friends. Those who helped make Miss Clasen's birthday merry were Misses Ella and Elsie Oswald, Frances Dulcich, Henrietta Holt, Imelda Ernest, May and Camille Cottoms, Lilly Bergau, Lea and Loretta Casey, Leona Smith, Clara Essinger, Mildred Bengert, Bernice Clasen, Masters Floyd Hoffstetter, Dennis Cochran, Howard Smith, Harold Davidson, Henry Holt, Wilbur Meyer, Son Paternal, Charles, William and Craig Clasen, Misses Juanita Hoffstetter, Sophie Benoit, Tillie Mutz, Isaphene and Thelma Clasen, Mrs. A. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Smith, Capt. and Mrs. T. C. Clasen and many others.

DELIGHTFUL OUTING.

On last Sunday, Miss May O. Brauner, a charming young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brauner, and Mr. Edmund C. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Moore of Alabama, which was beautifully celebrated on Wednesday, June 25, 1919 at 4:00 o'clock at the church of the Holy Name of Mary. Rev. Father Edward P. McGrath performed the ceremony according to the sacred rites of the Catholic Church.

The church was brilliantly illuminated and was decorated with a quantity of ferns, palms, and daisies. They were banded within the tabernacle and arranged in an arch at the foot of the altar. White satin ribbons were stretched across the aisles.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Professor Herbert as the bridal party entered and during the ceremony, many beautiful selections were rendered on the organ by Professor Herbert, accompanied on the violin by Miss Anna D. Sadler. During the signing of the register, Miss Herbert Malain sang "Ave Maria".

Miss Brauner's attendants were her sister, Miss Mildred Brauner, as maid of honor, Misses Annie Rupp, Anna May Brechtel, and Vera Moran of New Orleans as bridesmaids.

The little ring bearer was Master Christian John Brauner and little Miss Alberta Molaison was flower girl.

Mr. Joseph Brauner acted as best man for the groom while the groomsmen were Messrs. George Brauner, A. E. Israel and John B. Murphy.

Messrs. Ansell, Moran, James Murphy, Claude Evans and Charles Allison served as ushers.

Algiers will always claim Miss Brauner as one of its loveliest brides. She was becomingly attired in a white Georgette crepe dress over sublime satin, which was prettily pearl beaded in butterfly effect. It was neatly hemstitched and was trimmed with real lace. Her veil of illusion was arranged in cap effect over her wreath of orange blossoms. The veil fell gracefully to the end of her train which was of duchess satin. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses with maiden's hair and asparagus ferns tied with tulle streamers. Miss Brauner entered with her father, who gave her into the safe keeping of the groom.

Her maid of honor wore a gown of white net over satin and carried an arm bouquet of deep pink Killarney roses. The bridesmaids were charmingly dressed in gowns of differently colored organdy. Miss Rupp was attired in pale blue organdy. Miss Brechtel wore peach-colored organdy and Miss Vera Moran flesh-colored organdy. The dresses were made with ruffles and tucked neatly hemstitched and piquoted edged around the neck and sleeves. All carried arm bouquets of pink Killarney roses with tulle streamers.

The groom, the bride's father, the best man and the groomsmen wore white linen suits, some with the waist band effect. The ushers also wore white suits, two of which were white dress uniforms of the Navy.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Joseph Brauner, was tastefully gowned in white voile, hemstitched in pale blue with blue ribbon belt to match. She wore a large white Milan hat trimmed with white wide ribbon and wings.

The little ring bearer was dressed in a white linen suit and carried a white satin pillow, to which was attached a white satin ribbon, holding the two rings.

The flower girl wore a dress of white organdy and silk socks and slippers. A great bow of white ribbon was in her hair.

This wedding meant one of the smartest gatherings of the social world this season. Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents in Pacific Avenue. The spacious rBraune home was decorated with hydranums, daisies, roses and ferns of all kinds and the entire lower floor was cleared of the furniture and brilliantly illuminated for the occasion. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour and Jarcoeur's Jazz Band was in attendance. Champagne punch and delicious cream and cake were served in abundance.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund C. Moore are the happy recipients of many handsome presents. The young couple left for the next morning on the 4:30 train for parts in Alabama to spend their honeymoon. The bridal party escorted them to the train, showered them with rice and Mr. and Mrs. Moore left with the best wishes and congratulations of their many friends.

The bride's travelling dress was navy blue crepe de chine, hemstitched and beaded in red by one of her bridesmaids. She wore a large black Milan hat prettily trimmed with black ribbon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, Mr. M. Farris