OBITUARY

BARROSSE.—On Sunday, at 6 o'clock a. m., Catherine Foley, wife of the late Eugene Barrosse, died at the age of sixty years. Deceased was a native of New Orleans. The funeral took place Tuesday morning from her late residence, 317 Pacific avenue. Interment was in St. Bartholomew Cemetery.

HINYUB.—On Monday, at 4:20 o'clock a. m., Armond W. Hinyub, son of Elizabeth Bowen and John E. Hinyub, died. Deceased was a native of McDonoghville and was eleven years old. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence, 319 Gallatin street. Interment was in McDonoghville Cemetery.

LUFT.—Entered into rest on Monday, Nov. 1st, John Henry Luft, son of the late Hy. Luft and Fredericka Kuntz, age 54 years, a native of this city. The funeral took place from the residence of his sister, Mrs. Claude Brewer, 3620 Annunciation St. Interment in Lafayette Cemetery. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. C. Brewer and one brother, Fred G. Luft, a step-mother and other relatives.

LADIES OF BAPTIST CHURCH ENTERTAIN.
 The Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist Church entertained at a Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heitkamp, in Delaronde St., last week. The house was beautifully decorated with Halloween favors and colors. Refreshments were served in abundance and games appropriate to Halloween were played.

Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Massey, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Tisdale, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robichaux, Mr. and Mrs. Guy, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McIntosh and children, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heitkamp, Misses Zoe Gay, Lillian Tuft, and Ward, Mr. D. Young, Miss A. J. Gay, Mrs. Tuft and Mrs. Williams and child.

Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church

Next Wednesday night the Trinity Lutheran Society will meet at the home of Miss Anna Hoffman. Business meeting begins at 8 o'clock. Please be on time. Make it your business to be present at 8 o'clock. On Friday night, November 12th, the voting members will meet at the parsonage.

The envelopes for the L. L. L. Fund may be deposited on the collection plate, or may be given to Mr. Ed. Warnken or the pastor.

Mount Olivet Church

Cor Pelican and Olivier Sts., New Orleans, La.
 Rev. Thomas Bennett Clifford, Pastor, Telephone, Algiers 312.

Services for next Sunday as follows:
 7:30 A. M.—Celebration of the Holy Communion (Full Choral) and Sermon.
 9:30 A. M.—Sunday School.
 7:30 P. M.—Evening Prayer and Sermon.

The Rector has returned from his vacation and all services of the Church will be conducted as formerly. Attention is directed to the Parcels Post sale to be held in the Parish House Wednesday night, December 8th, at 8 o'clock.

The regular monthly meeting of the Wardens and Vestrymen will be held at the rectory next Monday night, November 8, at 7:30 o'clock.

On Sunday morning, November 7, between 9:30 and 11:30, there will be a missionary shower in the Sunday School. Every one is requested to bring one useful and one joyful gift for the mountain children. These gifts will be sent in a Christmas box to the Episcopal Mission in Tennessee.

MT. OLIVET CHOIR ENTERTAINS.
 On last Saturday evening, the choir of Mt. Olivet Church gave a Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Gillis on the Lower Coast.

The house was appropriately decorated as were the large yard and barn. Games were played, apples were ducked and dancing was indulged in. The evening was a most enjoyable one. Refreshments were served.

Those present were, Misses Florence Borne, Florence and Mary Clifford, Florence Richards, Dorothy and Carlotta Kraft, Bessie Pyle, Irene Brookes, Josie Welsh, Myrtle Roberts, Idella Lehman, Claire Keenan, Corinne Hughes, Susie Thorning, Emma George and Zaida Huckins; Mrs. Heindel, Mrs. J. Koenig, Messrs. Eldridge Gillis, George Cunningham, Roy Keenan, Henry Albrizze, W. Anderson, M. Murtagh, A. Weibacher, F. Ryan, H. Adams, H. Guthens, F. Sadler, L. Hawkins J. Jaundot, N. Townner and F. French.

PERSONALS

The Pastor left Tuesday night for the La. Conference, which convenes in De Ridder, Wednesday, Nov. 3.

Boatswain E. L. Bordelon spent the week end at his home 612 Pacific Avenue. He remained over until Tuesday to exercise his right as an American citizen.

Last Monday, Mr. E. E. Cayard and the Boy Scouts Troop No. 18 went on a fine hike to the woods. Miss Thelma Cayard and the girls of Magnolia Troop No. 1 also enjoyed the woods. They enjoyed the hike, but they all agree that the ride in the Maxwell on their homeward journey was great. Some one was kind enough to crowd them all into the car and let them have a fine ride.

Eldred Drumm reached home last Friday and will be here for a few days.

Elliott Hafkesbring writes glorious letters of the joy and adventures of the sea.

Mrs. B. F. Bounner of Houston, Texas, spent last Thursday with Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Wier.

Mr. A. May, who has made a recent voyage to England is expected home today.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Algiers Congregation sent a perfect report to the Conference. Everything was paid in full. This small congregation raised for all purposes during this Conference year, $5795.00.

Prayer meeting tonight led by the Epworth League.

Rally Day programme next Sunday at 10 a. m. Missionary programme at 7:30. The speakers will be Misses Berta Ellison and Ruth Bryerly. The public is invited.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.
 The League service will be conducted next Sunday by the Missionary Department. Will you be there?

We wish to make special mention that the Union League meeting scheduled for next Tuesday evening at the First Methodist Church will not take place until the following Tuesday, which is the 16th. The change is because of conference not being over at the time the meeting was first called for. Please make note of the change.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.
 Next Sunday is Rally Day and we will begin our service at 10 o'clock instead of 9:30 as usual. The lesson period will begin at 10 and last until 10:30 and then the Rally Day program will start. There will be no church service this Sunday, our pastor being out of town attending conference.

Methodist Church Notes

Rev. C. C. Weir, Pastor,
 Residence 236 Olivier St.
 Phone Algiers 138.

Last Sunday was one of intense interest at both services. It was the last Sunday in the Conference year and the congregations at both services were large. The choir had prepared appropriate music for the occasion, consisting of anthems and at the morning hour Miss Heloise Hebert rendered a piano solo; and at night Mrs. T. P. Bell a violin solo.

At the morning hour, the Pastor's text was Hebrews 13:14, for we have no continuing city, but we seek one to come. He took occasion to refer to the fact that he was finishing his twenty fifth appointment as a Methodist minister. He recounted briefly the various appointments that he had filled; among these years were four while handling the Orphanage at Ruston. He emphasized the fact that the first part of the text was self evident to anyone; and that it did not take long for us to learn that we did not stay here long. That on All Saints' Day all could have the same lesson of mortality. The unbeliever could see that as he visited the graves of his loved ones, but it took the eye of faith to look beyond the tomb and see the eternal city, the house not made with bonds eternal in the heavens. It takes faith to see the eternal city as St. Paul saw it II Cor. 5:1, "For we

McDONOGHVILLE METHODIST CHURCH.

Rev. S. D. Roberts, Pastor. Residence, 1125 Jefferson Street.

Last Thursday Rev. Snelling, presiding elder, held quarterly conference at the church. Reports were made from all departments of the church, and from all indications our church has been working hard during the last year. Rev. Snelling was well pleased with the reports and said that some of the larger churches did not have such good reports.

Pastor Roberts preached his farewell sermon Sunday night, as conference has ended.

The Board of Stewards held a short meeting at the parsonage Sunday night. After the meeting Pastor Roberts left for annual conference at De Ridder, La.

League conducted prayer meeting service Wednesday night. Mrs. S. D. Roberts lead.

Mr. W. H. Black lead League devotional service last Sunday.

Sunday night we took in two new members in our League.

Little Elkin Roberts was ill last week, but we were glad to see him at church Sunday night.

Church of the Holy Name of Mary

Girls of the Confirmation Class surprised Father McGrath last Friday with a big fruit shower.

Father Larkin spent Monday and Tuesday with us. He is looking fine and likes the quiet country atmosphere of Convent, La., but his heart is still in Algiers and he is always glad to have an opportunity to visit here.

Father Guinan is now at the Mater Dolorosa Church taking the place of Monsignor Prim.

On All Saints Day was held the annual procession to the cemetery and the blessing of the graves. A very large crowd visited the resting places of their dead. Father Cotter blessed the graves and preached a very impressive sermon. Father McGrath was in charge of the procession and was assisted by the Holy Cross Sisters. Mr. Lehare had the cemetery looking like a flower garden.

On All Souls Day a solemn Requiem Mass for the dead of the parish was sung by the children. Father McGrath was celebrant and Fathers Cotter and Hayes were deacons.

On Monday a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Father Cotter for the Irish martyrs.

The Boy Scouts of Troup 60 attended the benefit party of the Lower Coast Church in a body last Saturday night. And on Sunday they went to Westwego and were the body-guard of the Archbishop at the solemn blessing of Father Koenig's new church.

The Holy Name Society will hold their sixth annual benefit at the H. N. G. C. on Sunday night, Nov. 7. Tickets dated Oct. 26th will be good on this night. One of the best pictures ever seen in Algiers will be shown at this benefit.

TAKE PART IN BLESSING NEW CHURCH.

The Knights of Columbus band of our town and the Boy Scouts of the Holy Name of Mary attended the blessing of the new church in Westwego last Sunday morning.

Rev. T. J. Larkin was sub-deacon at the mass.

PLAYGROUNDS NOTES.

Playground athletes have shown an improvement over 1919, according to figures compiled of the physical efficiency test conducted on all playgrounds from September 1 to Oct. 27 inclusive, according to L. Di Benedetto, manager of playgrounds.

With five playgrounds yet to be completed, the figures show that 88 more boys than 1919 took the test and 56 more qualifying than last year. The girls also show an increase there being 15 more to take it and 27 more to pass.

K. AND K.

Miss Sarah Davis was hostess at a Halloween party given last Friday night to the members of the K. and K.

The Davis home in Delaronde St. was appropriately decorated and games were played and "spooky" stories were told. Refreshments were served.

Those present were, Misses Sarah Davis, Doris Drumm, Imogen Barrett, Cora Shields, Helen Ehlers, Roberta Hafkesbring, Luella Cherbondier, Edna Rosner, Ethlyn Gelbke, Lois Gravois, Zaida Huckins, Ruth Dela Cruz, Carlotta Kraft, Georgiana Reaney and Dr. Aldan Maher.

GIRLS SCOUTS.

On last Friday the Girls Scout Troop No. 1 held a very interesting meeting, at which time it was decided to hold their meetings every other Friday.

After the business session the troop enjoyed a Halloween party. Bobbing for apples and games were played. The place was prettily decorated with lanterns, crepe paper, brownies and black cats and witches. Every girl had her fortune told and after the refreshments were served many gruesome ghost stories were told.
