Methodist Church Notes

Rev. C. C. Wier, Pastor, Residence 236 Oliver St. Phone Algiers 138.

Last Sunday morning a large congregation listened to the Pastor, who has just returned from Conference and has begun the fifth term as pastor of the church. The text was Matt. 5-13, "Ye are the salt of the earth; but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under the foot of men."

At night the congregation was not so large, which was the result of the bad weather. The music was very pretty; one feature being a vocal solo by Mrs. J. Summers.

PERSONALS. Rev. J. B. Grambling, president of the State Epworth League, was the guest of Mr. E. E. Cayard last Sunday and worshipped with our congregation.

JUNIOR LEAGUE.

On Friday, Nov. 19th, the Junior Leaguers will conduct the service for the week of prayer. All members are urged to attend and bring their friends. Tracy Entwistle will lead. The program will be as follows: Voluntary—Violin solo, Naomi Hafkesbrink; accompanist, Heloise Hebert.

Song 672—Congregation. Prayer—Naomi Hafkesbrink. Bible Lesson—The Boy Jesus in the Temple. Luke 2:40-52, Leader. Song 682—Congregation. A contest of the Days at Vashiti—Majorie Blakeman. "A Lovely Little Girl"—Margaret Duffy.

A Song—Juniors. "The Homeless Baby's Prayer"—Loretta Miller. Short Story About Miss Isles—Lula Flanders. The Picture That Cured the Kodak—Heloise Hebert. "A Girl Who Had Grit"—Mildred Duffy. Offering Song—Congregation. Dismissal.

SENIOR EPWORTH LEAGUE. The Senior Epworth League will conduct the service Thursday night. All Leaguers are urged to come and help make the service a success.

ILLUSTRATED AFRICAN LECTURE. On Monday evening Rev. J. A. Stockwell will give a thrilling illustrated lecture on Africa. Over ninety pictures, illustrating different phases of native life, will be shown. Brother Stockwell was the industrial missionary who went out with our first party and helped found our Congo Mission. He will show us the everyday life of one of the wildest tribes in Central Africa just as they were before the advent of the white man, then with a series of pictures we will see what our own mission has accomplished with such unpromising material.

We make a specialty in draped photos for ladies. C. Bennette Moore, opposite Jesuit Church.

MCDONOGHVILLE METHODIST CHURCH. Rev. S. D. Roberts, Pastor. Residence, 1125 Jefferson Street.

Pastor Roberts preached his farewell sermon last Wednesday night at prayer meeting. We were very much pleased at the attendance.

The Ladies' Aid gave Mrs. Roberts a Friendship Circle pin as a small token of remembrance.

The Epworth Leaguers presented Mrs. Roberts with a lovely chain of beads. We are very sorry to lose Bro. and Mrs. Roberts from our League.

Saturday night the Leaguers gave Miss Alice Curry a miscellaneous shower. The Leaguers met at the home of Miss Ida Whitaker and then called on the bride-ede. Many beautiful presents were received.

Mr. Max Mitchell is expected in this week.

The wedding of Miss Alice Cuny to Mr. Max Mitchell will take place as soon as Mr. Mitchell arrives.

Mr. W. H. Black held both services Sunday.

Mr. Black announced Sunday that our new pastor, Rev. J. D. Harper, would preach his first sermon at prayer meeting Wednesday night.

Rev. and Mrs. Roberts and Elkins left Saturday for their new home in New Iberia. We pray that Bro. Roberts will have a great year in New Iberia.

Union League held a business meeting at First Methodist Church. Next week we will give the name of the League winning the banner, as our notes will be sent to press before the meeting Tuesday night.

Second Department was in charge of League devotional service Sunday.

Church of the Holy Name of Mary

The Holy Name Society of Algiers was well represented at the Grand Rally held last Sunday in St. Joseph's Church. The Rev. Father Cotter was the orator of the day and preached a most eloquent sermon on the occasion. Father Hayes, the Spiritual Director of the H. N. S., in Algiers was also present with a delegation of twenty men.

We had as a visitor during the week, the Rev. James McKenna, S. M., of the Marist Seminary in Langhorne, Pa. He is on his way to take up the duty of professorship at Jefferson College. He was struck with the beauty of Algiers, saying that all the green of Pennsylvania had faded long ago.

The Forty Hours Devotion will start in our church on Friday morning and close Sunday night. The programme will be as follows: Friday, 7 A. M.—Mass of Exposition; Procession of the Blessed Sacrament.

7 P. M.—Rosary Sermon by Fr. Hayes. Benediction.

Saturday—7 A. M.—High Mass. 7 P. M.—Rosary Sermon, by Fr. Cotter. Benediction.

Sunday—10:30 A. M.—Solemn High Mass. 7 P. M.—Rosary Sermon, by Fr. McGrath. Benediction.

The Guards of Honor on Friday will be the Children of Mary, Mrs. the Holy Angels, the St. Joseph Boys, on Saturday, the Altar Society, the League of the Sacred Heart, the Third Order, on Sunday, the Children of Mary, Srs., the Knights of Columbus, the Daughters of Isabella, the Holy Name Society, the St. Margaret Daughters. As many as can are kindly requested to bring flowers for the decoration of altars.

On Tuesday, Nov. 23rd, in the H. N. G. C., there will be a holiday gift sale for the benefit of the new school by the Daughters of Isabella.

The Boy Scouts of Troop 60 again distinguished themselves in the Armistice Day parade. They had a float of their own depicting a camp scene and a wireless outfit. Three scouts passed the 2nd class tests, Malcolm and Fred Schroder and Robert Partlin. Joe Leze, Troop Leader passed an examination for entrance into the Marines.

Job Might Be Done Better. Little Marion was suffering from swollen tonsils, and the attending physician advised an immediate operation to remove them.

The Woods THE PLAYGROUND.

The city street, the city street, Lies heavy on the town— An awful avenue of heat, Whose rays of yellow summer beat Upon the stones of brown, Where little children's weary feet Creep slowly up and down.

The houses rise, the houses rise, Beside the thoroughfare; Their windows look with bloodshot eyes O'er huddled roofs to smoky skies, And find no promise there; And childhood's voice of laughter dies In pestilential air.

The city great, the city great— It is so big a thing! From city gate to city gate, From somber dawn to even late, It throbs with marketing; It has no moment it may wait To hear the children sing.

The little ones, the little ones, The buds that never bloom, (While underneath the breathless suns The stream of life forever runs Through arteries of gloom), Look on your stately Parthenons And find so little room!

There is a street, another street, Beyond the city's wall, Beyond the corridors of heat, Where waters pure and waters sweet In crystal cadence fall— And to the children's tiny feet Their liquid measures call!

Its tenements, its tenements, Are neither grim nor gray; And from each verdant eminence Their crimson-throated residents Pour music to the day, Their choristing inhabitants Sing loud a roundelay.

O fairy shores, O merry shores, Away from slime and sin!— With leafy roofs and grassy floors, Where robin nests and swallow soars When summer days begin— Oh, let us open wide the doors And ask the children in!
