Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church

Our annual lecture series begins with to-night's service. The first of these lectures will be delivered by the local pastor. The topic is "The Bible Doctrine of the Good Angels." Come and bring your friends. The lecture period is very short this year owing to the early beginning of Lent. But the pastor will endeavor to have some of the pastors, who will not lecture here during the regular series, to deliver their lecture in our church after the Easter season. If there is a topic on the list which you are interested in especially, please, make your wish known to your pastor.

Our catechumens meet every Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday afternoons from now on. It is the earnest wish of your pastor that all the children be present at every lesson, and that they always be present on time.

A few of those who had announced themselves for Communion for last Thursday have not attended. If you are one of them please let your pastor know.

Next week, Friday night at 7:30 the voting members of our congregation will meet at the parsonage.

The Trinity Lutheran Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Rogers, Behrman Ave., Lower Coast, the coming Wednesday night, Jan. 12; meeting begins at 8:00 p. m. sharp. Mr. William Hoffstetter is the host.

Mount Olivet Church
Cor. Pelican and Olivier Sts., New Orleans, La.
Rev. Thomas Bennett Clifford, Rector. Telephone, Alg. 312.

Services for next Sunday as follows:
7:30 A. M.—Celebration of the Holy Communion (Full Choral) and Sermon.
9:30 A. M.—Sunday School.
7:30 P. M.—Evening Prayer and Sermon.

The regular monthly meeting of the Wardens and Vestrymen will be held next Monday night, January 10th, at 7:30 at the Rectory.

The annual Christmas tree celebration took place Friday night at the Parish House. There was a large tree beautifully decorated and each child present received a box of candy. A following delightful program had been arranged and was enjoyed by all: "A Christmas Eve Pilgrimage"—"Jack," Roy Keenan; "Jill," Lillian Koenig; "Two Outlaws," F. Hawkins and C. Puckett; "A Miser," R. Briel; "Two Orphans," Jos Koenig and Nellie Honnibal; "Miss Selfishness," H. Lauman and "Xmas Spirit," Margaret Roberts. Then there was a song, "Tip-toe," by the primary class and several solos by Miss Evelina Lorrente.

After the program, candy was distributed and the following scholars received medals for attendance: Gold Medals—Marion Forsythe, Edmond Schorr, Catherine Guillot, Floyd Fernandez, Myrtle and Annie Forsyth, Gilbert Manson, Mary and Lee Menke, Nellie Honnibal, Frances North, Jos. Koenig, Eva Angelo, Lillian Koenig, Clifford Angelo, Roy Keenan, Horace Harris, Henry Lehmann, Susie Thorning, Alma Hawkins, Martha Ponti and Mary Clifford. Silver Medals—Helen Sease, Mae Carr, Roland Briel, Hazel Lauman, Idella Lehmann, Florence Richards, Dorothy and Carlotta Kraft.

There will be a "Get-To-Gether" dinner at St. Paul's Church, Saturday evening, at 6 o'clock, for boys between the ages of 12 and 18 years. The cost will be twenty-five cents a plate. It is hoped that Mt. Olivet will be well represented at the dinner.

Sunday morning after Sunday School, the following officers were elected by the Sunday School teachers: Mr. Adolph Spitzfaden, superintendent; Mr. Geo. L. Cunningham, assistant superintendent; Miss Dorothy Kraft, secretary-treasurer and Mr. Lloyd Hawkins, assistant secretary-treasurer.

Church of the Holy Name of Mary

The collection taken up in church last Sunday for the starving children of Europe amounted to more than $200, and we expect this to be the biggest sum given by any other church in the city. Again we thank our people for their generosity. We are sure they will be more than doubly blessed by the prayers offered up by these 3,500,000 suffering innocents.

Great hopes for the success of the Seminary Drive was shown Monday night by the enthusiastic meeting of the Ladies of the parish. It was a great gathering of willing workers, determined to set to work in earnest, to visit every family and to collect every cent that can be spared for the greater honor and glory of God. We trust that when they make their final report, we may still be able to boast: "Algiers always ahead." Great aid will be rendered these ladies if all the men and boys turn out and work in the parade on Sunday. They will all meet at the H. N. G. C. Sunday afternoon, at 1:30 P. M. Young men don't be slackers! Just as you responded to your country's call, so come forth now at the call of your church, and help swell the ranks of her loyal sons and defenders.

Thursday afternoon and night confessions will be heard in preparation for the 1st Friday.

Thursday evening at 7:30 P. M., there will be a special meeting of the Holy Name Society, at which the installation of officers will take place. January 9th is Communion Sunday for the Holy Name men. It is beginning of a New Year—of a year which from the present outlook is sure to bring forth events of tremendous importance to everybody. It is the wish of the National Director, that every Holy Name man offer up his communion that God may direct the turn of human events to bring about true peace, happiness and contentment among men and nations especially to our own America.

We are glad to have Father Larkin with us and hope he will stay as long as possible. This bit of information is published for the benefit of his innumerable friends who have been constantly inquiring about him.

Methodist Church Notes

Rev. C. C. Weir, Pastor,
Residence 236 Oliver St.
Phone Algiers 138.

Last Sunday was a gloomy, rainy one, but our services were well attended, especially at the morning hour; at which time there was one of the largest morning congregations we have had for a long time. We have made a good start on the New Year.

The attendance at Sunday School was good, and the Epworth League was very interesting.

PERSONALS.

Among the interesting occasions, during the holidays, was when the members of Mizpah Choir presented Miss Roberta Hafkesbring, the efficient organist with a beautiful breast pin, as a token of esteem and appreciation of her devotion to her duty.

On New Year's Day, the Pastor was presented with a handsome cash offering, accompanied by a note that said in part: "Dear Pastor:—This little gift is from your congregation and expresses their affection and gratitude because of your having been returned to the Algiers Church for this, your fifth year. The token came as a surprise, but was very highly appreciated."

Miss Ethel Rhoades, after spending the holidays in Shreveport, La., with her sister, Mrs. Colomb, has returned home. Little Miss Halcyon

SCHOOL DAYS

Colomb returned with her to spend a few weeks with her grandmother and other relatives.

Miss Norwood of Hope, Arkansas, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. King, 395 Vallette.

Mr. F. B. Flanders, Scout Master of Troop No. 36, B. S. A., is critically ill at his home, 117 Vallette.

The Boy Scouts of Troop No. 18 and Scout Master Burnell, are planning a trip to the Chalmette Battle Grounds on Jan. 8.

Mrs. Blakeman entertained the Choir Tuesday night; Mrs. Wier the Woman's Home Missionary Society. Both meetings were interesting.

The Junior League met last night with Mrs. Hafkesbring.

The Misses Loudon and Miss Edith McGuire of Baton Rouge spent the holidays with their aunt, Mrs. J. U. Melancon.

On Dec. 29, 1920, Mr. J. C. Steele and Miss Leleta Miller, two well known young people of McDonoghville, were united in marriage at the Parsonage, the Rev. C. C. Wier officiating.

Mr. W. T. King, brother of Doctors A. C. and E. L. King, whose home is in Centreville, La., is dangerously sick at Hotel Dieu.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Prayer Meeting tonight at 7:30. We want this meeting to be somewhat in the nature of "Echoes from the Holidays." Come and tell of some great joy you have had during the Holidays.

Services next Sunday at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m.

September strews the woodlands o'er
With many a brilliant color;
The world is brighter than before—
Why should our hearts be duller?
Sorrow and the scarlet leaf,
Sad thoughts and sunny weather
Ah! me! this glory and this grief
Agree not well together.
—T. W. Parsons.

Food for the Family.
A bran bread which is wholesome and easily made is a recipe which should be found in all households. The following is a good one:

Bran Bread.
Take one pint each of flour and bran, one cupful of buttermilk, or sweet milk will do, a teaspoonful of soda, a half teaspoonful of salt, three tablespoonfuls of molasses. Mix and bake one hour to one hour and a quarter.

Graham Popovers.
Take one cupful each of graham flour and white flour, one cupful each of milk and water, a teaspoonful of sugar and a half teaspoonful of salt. Beat the flour and the milk together then add the water and other ingredients, beat well with an egg beater, pour into hot gem pans and bake in a hot oven. These are light as a feather.

Prune Bread.
Wash a cupful of prunes and soak over night in water to cover. In the morning remove the pits and chop the prunes, add one quart of flour, one pint of graham flour, a teaspoonful of yeast, a tablespoonful of sugar, one yeast cake dissolved in lukewarm water and enough warm milk to make a soft dough. Allow it to rise, stir briskly, put into a well buttered bread pan. Let rise again and bake in a moderate oven. This is a very healthful bread and one the children like.

Eggs in Baskets With Bacon.
Separate the whites and yolks of as many eggs as desired, being careful not to break the yolks. Beat the whites until stiff enough to stand. Turn into a buttered baking dish, make small depressions for the yolks and carefully drop them in. Dot with butter, sprinkle with salt and bake a medium brown. Serve garnished with crisp, fried bacon.

Cabbage and Apple Salad.
Chop together one cabbage head, four tart apples, season well with salt and cayenne and mix with a good mayonnaise dressing. Serve at once.

Thousand Island Dressing.
Take one cupful of mayonnaise dressing, one cupful of whipped cream, one-half cupful of chili sauce or catsup, two tablespoonfuls of minced red pepper, one tablespoonful of chopped cucumber, one tablespoonful of Worcester'shire sauce. Mix in the order given and serve at once.

Pecan Pralines.
Boil together one pound of brown sugar, one tablespoonful of butter, and four tablespoonfuls of water; when the mixture begins to boil add one-half pound of pecans, when it begins to bubble, remove from the heat and drop by spoonfuls on buttered dish or marble slab. Stir constantly while cooking.

BUNKER HILL MONUMENT.

Phone Algiers 9182.

THE elevation known as "Bunker Hill" is situated in Charlestown Boston harbor. On this spot, on June 17, 1775, was fought the famous Battle of Bunker Hill, between the British and American forces. Here the gratitude and patriotism of the American people have caused to be erected a great granite obelisk as a memorial.

Located in the center of a four-acre square and surrounded by an iron fence, this monument is 221 feet high and 30 feet in diameter at the base. Within the shaft is a circular stairway leading to a chamber, 11 feet in diameter and 17 feet high, at the top, from which is visible a view that thrills the heart of every American, who has been fortunate enough to witness it.

It is an interesting fact that the corner stone was laid by General Lafayette, a son of glorious France, during his famous visit to America in 1825. The monument was dedicated in 1842, on which occasion Daniel Webster spoke these famous words: "It looks, it speaks, it acts, to the full comprehension of every American mind, and the awakening of glowing enthusiasm in every American heart. Its silent but awful utterance; its deep pathos, as it brings to our contemplation the 17th of June, 1775, and the consequences which have resulted to us, to our country, and to the world, from the events of that day, and which we know must continue to rain influence to the destinies of mankind to the end of time."
