THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN WHY ARE YOU LEAVING US SO EARLY TO-NIGHT ALBERT? I DON'T LIKE TO BE A NERVOUS WHEN MY SISTERS' GENTLEMEN FRIENDS

Methodist Church Notes

Rev. C. C. Weir, Pastor, Residence 236 Oliver St. Phone Algiers 138. Last Sunday morning, we did not have a large congregation, but at night we had a splendid congregation. Besides the grown folks, we were glad to see mothers and their children. The music was splendid, though we missed some of our good members. The pastor's subject was Psalm 40:8, "I Delight in Thy Will, O My God; Yea Thy Will is within My Heart."

The text put the matter upon a very high plane of experience and activity, where it was a delight to do the will of God. It placed it upon a happy plane, where there was joy in doing the will of God. It also gave us a great motive for doing right. In fact, the highest conceivable motive for doing right, viz: For the sake of Him, who maketh right. We are now passing through a period of time where the world does not seem to be doing right for the joy of pleasing him, who makes it right. Indeed, one of the dangerous indications of the times in which we live is the appeal that is made to legislate for everything that is wrong. Everywhere we turn, we see an attempt to make man better by legislation. It is the one great appeal at present. The pet subject for this is woman's attire. With all of the light we have on the subject, there is an effort to pull down skirts towards the ground and to make them pull their collars a little nearer their throats. It is indeed a hard task to legislate modesty into womanhood. The text would indicate that there is a higher ground that should make us move towards that which is right and holy. We have to have laws to protect us, but we should not need laws to make us do right. Every lock and key is an announcement that the text of the evening is not the working principle of humanity—to respect the rights of others. Every policeman we see would indicate that there are those who are governed from without and not from within. Mr. Arthur Babson, the well-known statistician, has recently said: "The need of the hour is not more factories or materials, not more railroads or steamships, not more armies or more navies, but more Christian Education."

The prosperity of our country depends on the motives and purposes of our people. These motives and purposes are directed in the right course only through religion. Legislation, bounties and force are of no avail in determining man's attitude toward life. Religion, like everything else, must be taught. It is possible to get more religion into industry and business only through the development of Christian education. We are willing to give our property and our lives when our country calls in time of war. Yet the call of Christian education is today of greater importance than was ever the call of the army or the navy. I say this because we shall never see America attacked from without, but we may see at any time our best institutions attacked from within. I am not offering the Christian education as a protector of property. Nearly all of the great progressive and liberal movements of history have been born in the hearts of Christian educators. I do, however, insist that the safety of our sons and daughters, as they go about the streets this very night, is due to the influence of the preachers and teachers rather than to the influence of the policemen and lawmakers. Yes, the safety of our nations, including all groups, depends on Christian education. Furthermore, at no time in our history has it been more needed. Mr. John D. Rockefeller found himself under obligation to dispense the earnings that were so enormous and went about it in a systematic way to determine the best channel of distribution, and engaged an expert, who studied and observed in this country and in Europe, and made the report that it was in education, and he further recommended the small denominational college, though he did not say which college. In our own communion, that is only attempting to do her share of the work, we find that last year we added 136,000 members or profession of faith. More than 500 young men have been licensed to preach and 4,000 more have solemnly dedicated themselves to whole-life service. These must be educated and properly equipped, and to do this we will be compelled to enlarge and increase our institutions of learning, which are so badly overcrowded. Every one should see the importance of this branch of the Lord's work.

Every teacher will take care of his class. In case the teacher is not present such children should come to the superintendent, Mr. Chas. Hantel, Jr., or to the pastor. If any of the parents or guardians take some of the children home before the evening they are kindly asked to inform the respective teacher of this fact, to avoid worry and confusion. If everyone will be mindful of the others comfort, this request which is so easily carried out will be heeded by all.

It is hoped that we may secure a wagon to take over the baskets, but to date we are not in position to assure this convenience. All friends of our Sunday School are cordially invited to attend this picnic.

Mount Olivet Church Cor. Pelican and Olivier, New Orleans, La., Rev. Thomas Bennett Clifford, Rector. Telephone Alg. 312. Services for next Sunday as follows: 7:30 a. m. Celebration of the Holy Communion (full choral) and sermon. 9:30 a. m. Sunday school. 7:30 p. m. Evening prayer and sermon.

Notice. Sunday School Picnic. All persons expecting to attend the picnic will please meet in front of the Parish House Saturday morning at fifteen minutes before eight. This is important as the truck will be there at that time to take the baskets and other packages. It is hoped that the weather will be favorable and that it will be a day of much enjoyment for all who attend. The committee have made all the necessary arrangements, having secured Trees No. 43 and 44 at the City Park.

Church of the Holy Name of Mary Meeting tonight at 8 o'clock of the Catholic Ladies Benevolent Association. Tomorrow and Saturday are Ember Days, days of fast and abstinence. Confirmation next Sunday at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rt. Rev. Bishop Leval, D. D., will be the minister on this occasion. Last Sunday, 250 children made their Solemn Communion. This was the largest class the church ever had. The children were well instructed and trained by the Fathers and Sisters. The church was crowded to capacity and it was a beautiful and touching sight to see so many boys and girls going up to and returning from the altar rail. This was one of the happiest days of their lives, as was evidenced by the heavenly smile on each child's countenance. The boys were dressed in white and wore the badge of St. Joseph. The girls were also dressed in white and wore wreath and veil. Sunday afternoon they again assembled in church and renewed their Baptismal vows. Monday morning they were enrolled in the blue and brown scapulars. Next Sunday the same class with the addition of a few adults, will receive confirmation. Father Hayes, accompanied Willie Sehr, "Happy" Littleton and Martin Burke up to Jefferson College last Friday night. The Jefferson College Athletic Association staged a boxing bout for the benefit of athletics. Father Hayes arranged for these boxing idols of New Orleans to take part in it. The Algiers boys at Jefferson College are making great progress. We were sorry to see our Boy Scouts lose first place in the meet held at City Park last week. We congratulate the individual boys who did win and hope that from now on the troop will stick together and win back the position where they belong—first place.

Announcements. Prayer meeting tonight at 7:45. Every one should enjoy this privilege. Tomorrow, at 12:15, the Education campaign will have a luncheon at First Church. Do your best to attend. Notify the pastor and obtain free tickets. Services next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. At the morning hour the Junior choir will have charge of the music. Tell your friends. Sunday School. Sunday School Day will be observed on Sunday the 29th. We trust every member of the school will be present on that day and bring some one with him. Let's make the attendance be 200 or more. The picnic held last Saturday was a grand success, everyone having a delightful time. Thanks are due Mr. Lester Dunn for the manner in which he handled the affair. Epworth League. At the monthly meeting held Tuesday, Mr. Lester Dunn was elected Vice-President, and Roland Cayard treasurer for the present year. Miss Roberta Hafkesbring, our President, was elected as the delegate to the Mansfield Assembly to be held in June. After the meeting a very sociable time was had and refreshments served.

Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church Corner Olivier and Eliza Streets, W. H. Hafner, Pastor. 438 Olivier St. Phone Algiers, 240. Tonight Holy Communion will again be celebrated in the service. All those who wish to attend and have not already announced their intention to the pastor are requested to do so during the course of the day and not to wait to the last minute. The confessional service begins at 7:30. The voting members will meet in special session Thursday night after the regular service. All the voting members are requested to remain. Saturday our Sunday School will celebrate its annual picnic. This picnic will be held at City Park. Trees Nos. 23 and 25 have been chartered. All those who wish to go in a body are requested to meet on the church lawn at 8:00 A. M. Every one is asked to bring his ferry tickets and street car fare. A free passage across the ferries causes more trouble and delay than it is worth in the end. We are sure that the Ferry Co., would grant the passes, but it is too much inconvenience to Sunday School force, especially on the return trip in the evening.

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE X.—VIRGINIA THE EARLY history of Virginia revolves about the name of Capt. John Smith. It was his indomitable spirit which enabled the settlement at Jamestown to survive the privations and difficulties that encompassed it during those first years. There in 1607 was made the first permanent English colony in America. The charter given by King James I to what was known as the London company, under whose auspices Jamestown and the later Virginia settlements were founded, designated that this colony should extend 200 miles north and 200 miles south of Old Point Comfort and stretch westward to the sea. Under the reign of Charles II it was considered such an important colony that it was called the fourth dominion of his empire, that is, England, Scotland, Ireland and Virginia. From this Virginia was often called the Old Dominion. The name Virginia itself means the virgin land and was so called after Queen Elizabeth, the "Virgin Queen." The early government of Virginia is of great interest. At first communism was tried, under which system the land and all property was owned in common and all profits were divided equally. This proved a disastrous failure. In 1619 the first real representative government in the colonies was established, called the house of burgesses, which continued in force under varying fortunes until Virginia joined the Union and became the tenth state in 1788. Much might be written of the character of the early Virginian settlers and their great influence on American life. From Virginia has sprung two other states, Kentucky and West Virginia. Even so, the state's present area is 42,627 square miles. Politically the Old Dominion state is entitled to twelve presidential electors. This is about the average of the southern states. No Room for the Incompetent. Much of the work done in this world has to be undone. Incompetency is the greatest drawback to progress. Incompetents are the most costly members of society, and always will be. That's why there is always a premium on brains and skill, which combine to produce efficiency.—Exchange.

English Titles of Nobility. The rank of earl was introduced into England at the time of the Conquest and succeeded the Saxon earldom. It continued the highest rank in England until Edward III created dukes in 1337 and Richard II created marquesses in 1385, both being superior to earls.

Mistake Made by Many. Too many people take themselves too seriously, and can't understand why their estimates of themselves are not accepted by others. Consequently they "take it out" on others when they might do much better by taking some things out of themselves. There's too much personal "inflation."

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY THE GREAT ORGAN OF THE MORMONS. MUSIC and song long have played a prominent part in the expression of religion. The Latter-Day Saints are no exception to the rule. President Brigham Young believed it impossible to preach the gospel without good music. In the early sixties plans were laid for the building of a suitable organ for their great tabernacle in Salt Lake City. The forests of the state were searched for the most satisfactory woods. Proper tools had to be devised and made. Glue had to be obtained. There were no railroads in Utah in those days. The problem was not an easy one. It developed that the best wood grew three hundred miles or more south of the city. It was hauled the entire distance, over rough roads and through the wilderness, by ox teams. Glue was made by boiling strips of cow hide over fire pots. About one hundred men were employed. Some of the immense pipes of the great instrument were 32 feet long. But music was what they wanted and have it they did. The organ is said to be the sweetest-toned and the largest save one, in the world. The original organ has been re-built and enlarged until it now has seven divisions, the main organ being 60 feet wide, 28 feet deep and 55 feet high, having over 7,000 pipes. The mechanism is electrically driven, nearly two thousand magnets being employed in the control of the vast tonal resources of the instrument. It hasn't a rival in America. It's music is beyond description. You must hear it for yourself.
