

THE PICTURE PRESS

Trade Mark Registered

THE HERALD

Thursday July 21, 1921

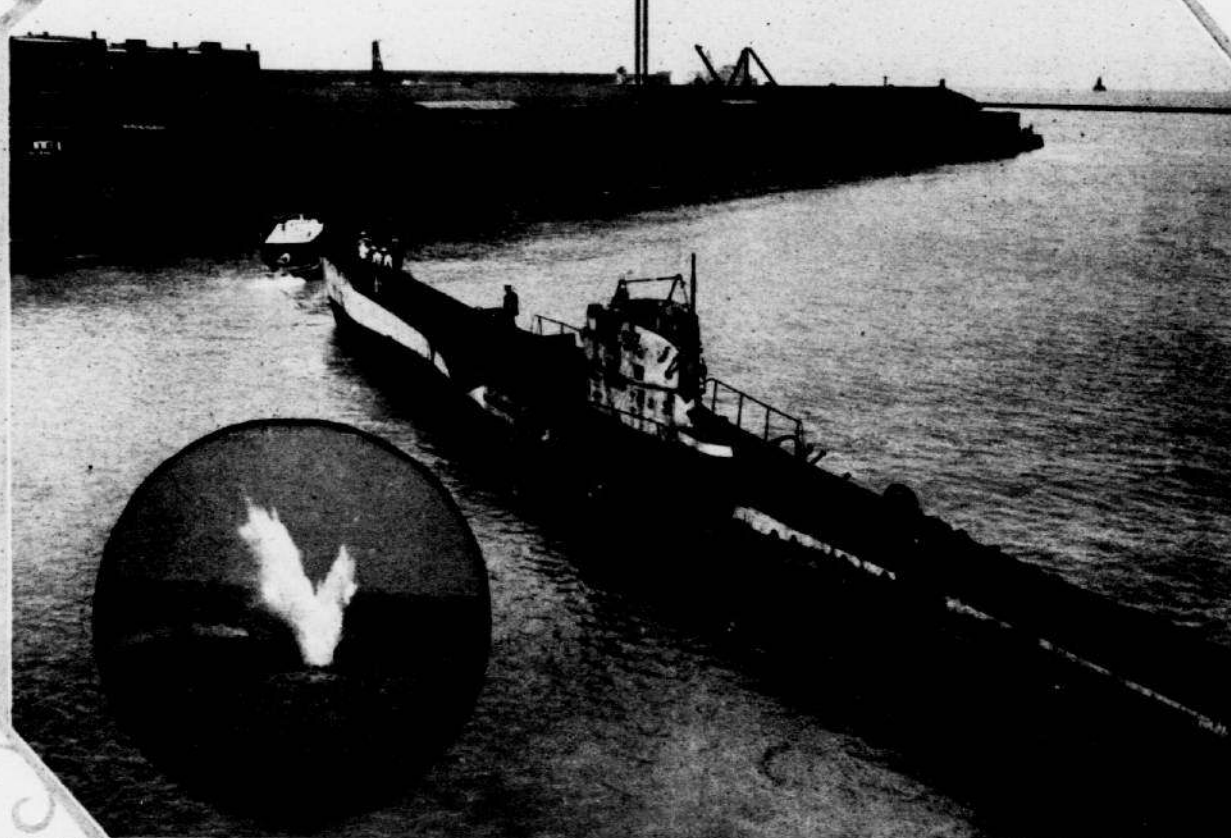

TESTING THE NEW TELEPHONE AMPLIFIER. By the use of this device, which resembles a battery of canisters, telephone officials in New York heard music being played in Chicago. Underwood & Underwood.

GEORGIA GIRLS WHO ARE CANDIDATES FOR WASHINGTON'S QUEEN OF THE FLOWER CARNIVAL. The Carnival is to be given this month at the Nation's Capital by the Georgia section of the Roosevelt Memorial Association whose object is to erect in Washington a reproduction of Bulloch Hall, the birthplace of Roosevelt's mother (c)—Clinedinst from Underwood & Underwood.

SIX MONTHS AGO HE HAD A BROKEN NECK. Franklin Bloomer, a Columbia Freshman and athlete is one of the three men known to have recovered from a broken neck. He suffered the injury six months ago in a flag rush. Today he is one of the star gymnastic performers of the University. —Underwood & Underwood.

WE ARE STILL SINKING GERMAN SUBMARINES. One of the German U-boats allocated to the United States by the Allies was sunk for good the other day after serving as a target for the naval gunners at the Great Lakes training station, Chicago. (In inset) The first shot was a direct hit. —Underwood & Underwood.

TRAINING PHILADELPHIA'S FIREMAN. Practice in the use of the life net is a part of the daily curriculum of the firemen of the Quaker City. Underwood & Underwood.

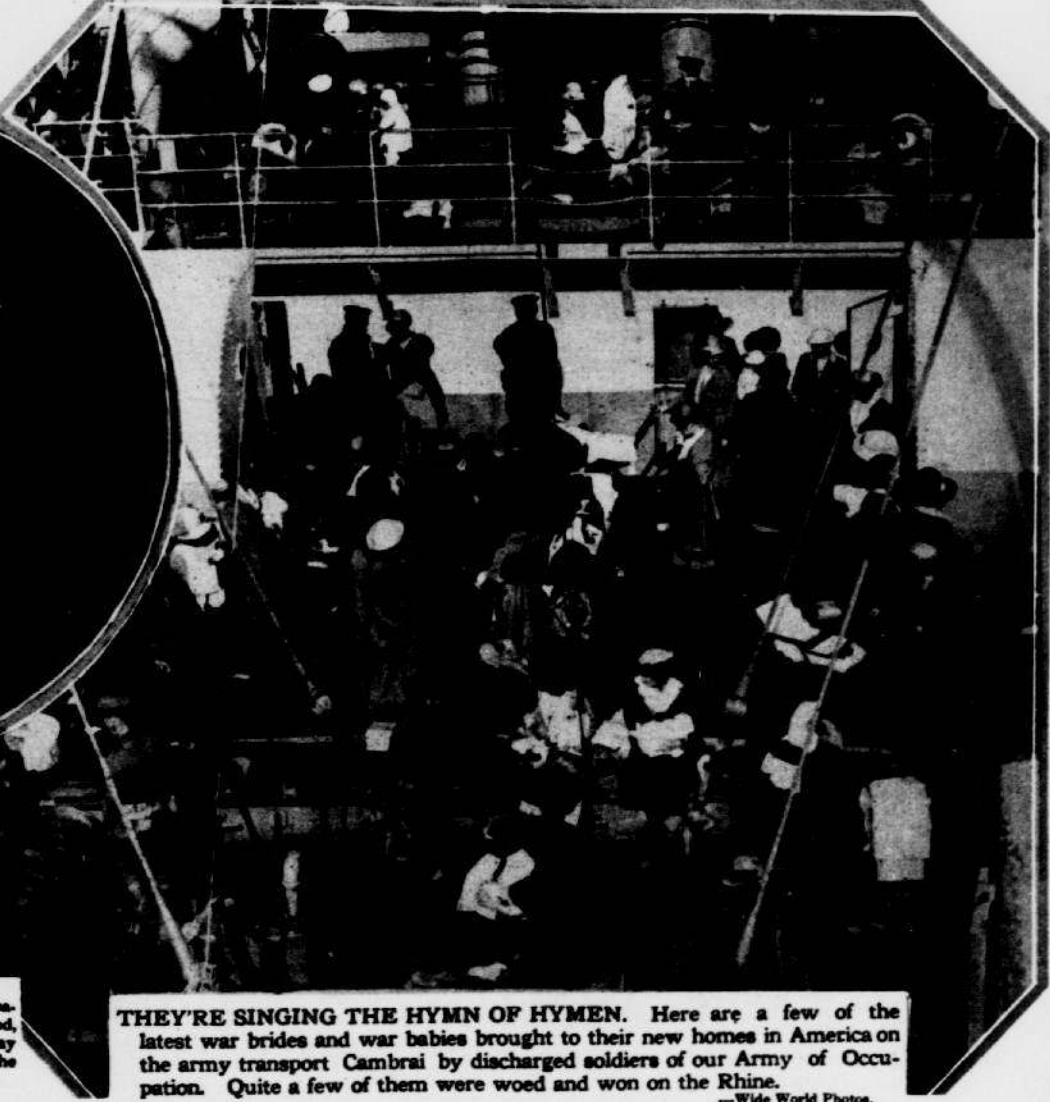

THE FUNERAL OF LAURA BROMWELL. who was killed in an attempt to better the record for women aviators, held by herself, in looping the loop. Underwood & Underwood.

JOHN T. ADAMS of Iowa, succeeds Mr. Will Hays as National Chairman of the G. O. P. Underwood & Underwood.

HERE WE HAVE THE GOLF PAPOOSE. In these days of emancipated, militant womanhood, Mother isn't going to stay at home just to mind the baby. Underwood & Underwood.

THEY'RE SINGING THE HYMN OF HYMEN. Here are a few of the latest war brides and war babies brought to their new homes in America on the army transport Cambrai by discharged soldiers of our Army of Occupation. Quite a few of them were wooed and won on the Rhine. —Wide World Photos.