WARM SESSION OF O. D. A.

LOUIS MUNSTERMAN AS WARD LEADER; HENRY ACKER ELECTED PRESIDENT.

One of the warmest meetings (in fact it was a hot one), was held a few nights ago in the Pythian Hall, called by the O. D. A.'s for the purpose of ousting Mr. Louis Munsterman as president of the organization and as leader of the Orleans Democratic Association. The meeting was opened by vice president Burmaster, after which Mr. Charles Donner gave some of the reasons for calling the meeting as follows: He stated that the O. D. A.'s did not want a Rip Van Winkle at the head of the organization. We presume he had reference to Mr. Munsterman. Mr. Donner stated that Mr. Munsterman had done nothing for the ward since he took his office, that he did not go out of his way to accommodate his constituents. Mr. Donner urged that a new leader be elected and that he was not an applicant for the position. Mr. John E. Collins also pointed out during the meeting the great number of positions that had been lost in Algiers, mentioning the city electrician and his assistant, council clerk, and fifteen or twenty other jobs that had been refilled by city men. Mr. Wm. Smith was also very severe on Mr. Munsterman, and in common political parlance Mr. Smith gave Mr. Munsterman a good rolling. During the heat of the arguments, pro and con, mostly pro, John Mathews gave vent to his feelings in the following statement: "Well gentlemen, the ring was bad, but not as bad as the bunch you have now." This expression received some applause. Mr. W. R. Hafkesbring, who defended Mr. Munsterman read some excerpts from the Herald. He stated that he did not know anything about the meeting being called, and the first information he had received was when he found a postal with his own name printed on it calling a meeting. Mr. Wm. Smith also stated in answer to some of those present that the party was badly split. "Yes, we are badly split, but 98 per cent of those that are split do not want Munsterman." Vote of Confidence Not Given. Some one in the audience after hearing what Mr. Hafkesbring had to say about not supporting Mayor McShane offered a resolution that the meeting give a vote of confidence to Mayor McShane. The motion was seconded, but never was put up to a vote. Mr. Nelson Covell offered the resolution. Nominations in Order. Fully 95 per cent of the one hundred or more present were in favor of reorganization and were in favor of going ahead with that reorganization at once. Vice-chairman Burmaster then called for nominations, and Mr. Louis Acker was nominated, as was also Mr. Frank Killen. Neither one of the candidates were present at the meeting. It seemed that the votes were overwhelming in favor of Mr. Acker, which the vote finally showed. We feel reasonably sure that had Mr. Killen been present he would have withdrawn in favor of Mr. Acker. After the tallies were counted Mr. Acker was unanimously elected president of the 15th Ward Orleans Democratic Association. The following other officers were also elected: Wm. Burmaster, first vice-president; Mrs. Lilly Yalets, second vice-president; H. R. Hafkesbring, recording secretary, and C. J. Donner, treasurer. There were also several precinct captains elected. Who Is Henry Acker. Henry Acker is one of our substantial citizens. He is entitled to be the president of the reform organization for the fact that he like Louis Munsterman has always been a reformer. Mr. Acker is a big tax payer, and as such knows the needs and protection

Men Abandon Truck With Alcohol On It

On Monday night, Supernumerary Evans noticed a truck in the darkness and two men standing near by at the corner of Vallette and Newton streets. One of the men ran off on the approach of the policeman and his mount, the other remained. Evans questioned the man and learned his name was Charles Dubret, 739 Elmira avenue. Dubret explained the truck contained 13 five gallon jugs that smelled strongly of alcohol, but all were empty. There was one ten gallon can, however, that Evans asserts contained a small quantity of alcohol. Examination of Dubret resulted in the arrest of Peter Danos, 1415 Whitney avenue, the man who ran. Further investigation revealed the truck is the property of Davis A. Adams and was taken out of a garage by Danos without the consent of Mr. Adams. Both men were taken to the Algiers Station where they are being held pending investigation by federal authorities. Danos is also charged with the act relative to taking an automobile without the owner's consent. Police believe the truck was engaged in the transfer of alcohol.

Intended To Make Husband Tatrage

With the arrest of Mrs. Frances Petrie, 28 years old, of McDonoghville, the police of the Algiers station said they had averted the shooting of her husband, G. Petrie, 441 Seguin street. "Yes, I intended to kill him," Mrs. Petrie is reported by the police to have said, "because he has failed to support me and my children." Mrs. Petrie, who was charged with carrying a concealed weapon and paroled by Judge Dowling, was arrested in front of her husband's home in Algiers by Sergeant Hadley and Patrolman Farley. In the handbag Mrs. Petrie carried, the police say they found a fully loaded pistol. Sergeant Hadley and Patrolman Farley went to the home of Mr. Petrie in response to an anonymous telephone call, which said a woman was waiting there to kill her husband. Mrs. Petrie said she has been separated from her husband and that she now is living with her mother, Mrs. Adam Bourlet, in McDonoghville.

LOUIS MUNSTERMAN.

In concluding this article about the change in the heads of the local O. D. A. we have a word to say for Louis Munsterman. He, too, has always been a public-spirited man. As to whether or not he has been a successful politician we will leave to his friends and enemies. As his friends say, and as we all know, Mr. Munsterman is with the McShane minority in the city council, and in that situation he was not able to do for Algiers as Mr. Acker will be able to do being with the majority members of the council. We are satisfied that Mr. Munsterman would do anything in his power to help our district, and because he did not satisfy the organization this should be no reflection upon him as a man or as a citizen. Political differences should go no further than politics. We trust that for the good of the entire Democratic party and the O. D. A. that the two factions now in the city hall will join hands for the good of old New Orleans. If the City of New Orleans ever needed cooperation for all sides, it is now. We feel reasonably sure that, notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Munsterman has been put out of office, that he will help the O. D. A. to get the improvement we are entitled to.

$$$ DAY BARGAINS AT KAHN BROS. STORE No. 3.

Their large advertisement on Page 10 quotes the offerings for Dollar Day Thursday, but it is well to keep in mind Kahn Bros. Store No. 3 every day in the year.

Mr. Munsterman Pays Respects To His Algiers Opponents.

Louis Munsterman, deposed head of the O. D. A. in the fifteenth ward, sent The States a warm statement Saturday in answer to attacks made on him at the meeting of those he calls his enemies. The statement said: "In reference to the action taken at the meeting held at Pythian Hall, Algiers, on the night of August 11, in justice to myself I wish to say that I was not present at the meeting, nor were my friends, as the admittance to the meeting was by card. Although I received a card, the majority of my friends did not, and I am told a number of them were refused admittance to the meeting because of the fact that they did not have an admit card—a new procedure in politics!" "Mr. Burmaster in opening the meeting stated that I ignored 'our' re-

Officer Evans Dodges Bullets

POLICE OFFICER IN HOT CHASE AFTER LAW VIOLATORS.

From out of the darkness in the quiet river front section of Algiers, near the United States Marine Barracks early Wednesday morning, came a flash of fire. Patrolman Evans had just dismounted from his horse and was about to enter the barracks and use a telephone when ambushed. The flash of the pistol illuminated the spot for the fraction of a second and Patrolman Evans saw an automobile with several men. The shot came from that machine as it rapidly sped by, and the bullet whizzed close to the head of Evans' horse. The automobile sped away. Leaping into his saddle Patrolman Evans gave chase. Out Newton St. to Elmira avenue the chase led. In Elmira avenue two more shots whistled dangerously close to horse and rider. Undaunted, Evans urged his mount, and the gallant animal responded with an added burst of speed. Into Opelousas avenue the gang turned, almost overturning the machine. Evans was nearly a square away, and when the policeman made the turn into Opelousas avenue, the machine was out of sight. It is believed it had entered one of the many garages in that section operated by William Harper. Mr. Harper willingly opened all his garages and showed the police around. No trace of the automobile could be found. Monday, agents of the "whiskey ring" doubtless read of the wonderfully keen sense of smell which Evans' horse possesses. They read of how Evans tried frantically and unsuccessfully to urge his horse on when the animal came to a dead stop on the Newton street viaduct; of how the animal snorted and breathed heavily, and of how the policeman, awakening to a sense that something was wrong, caught the odor of alcohol, and of how the horse, unguided by his rider, turned toward Vallette St.—a square away and of how Evans came upon a man by an automobile, in which were several five-gallon demijohns which had contained alcohol, and one smaller can in which there was still a quantity of alcohol. The man gave his name and address as Charles Dubret, 739 Elmira avenue. From him the police learned the name and address of Peter Danos, 1415 Whitney avenue, who had been with Dubret, but who ran off upon the approach of Evans. Do the whisky runners fear the keen nostrils of the "hooch horse" of the police department? And was the bullet fired Wednesday morning aimed at the horse or its rider? Perhaps the murderous whisky bandits have sworn to kill both. Meantime, the eyes of the entire police department are wide open.—Daily States.

Platt, who won the nomination on last Friday over his two opponents with the lucky majority of thirteen, and if a black cat doesn't cross Mr. Platt's path between now and the time he takes his office, he will be our next Judge. Mr. Platt had the support of the Regular Democratic Association on this side of the river, which has always been in power here with large and safe majorities. The only time it was materially cut down was at the last election, when Mayor Behrman met his defeat. Judge Platt's many friends were jubilant over his election and he has been receiving congratulations and best wishes, not only from the regular voters, but from the O. D. A. as well. LOCAL MEN WILL INSTALL BATTERY FACTORY. The concern which purchased the structure at 601 North Rampart street for the purpose of installing a modern battery factory and distribution plant is composed entirely of local capital. It will make extensive changes in the building and initiate the industry on an important scale.

RUUSSEL PARDONED.

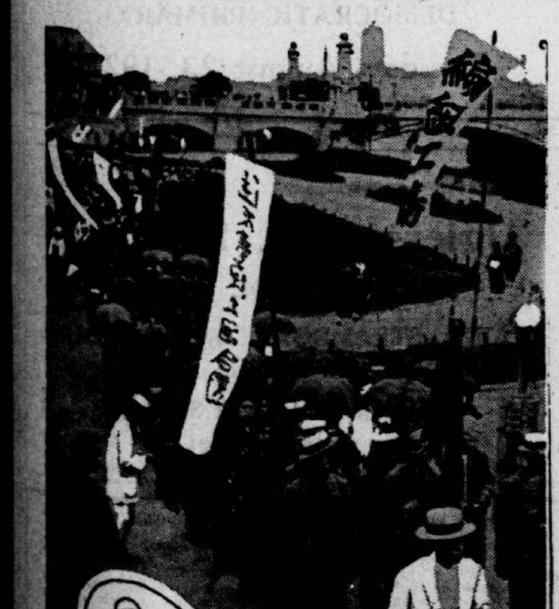

John C. Schuermann and George A. Roussel, former members of the New Orleans police department, convicted and sentenced to not less than three years in the penitentiary in 1919 for attempted extortion of a bribe from Mrs. Ola Yarbrough, were pardoned Wednesday last by Governor Parker. After asserting that former Sergeant Schuermann and former Corporal Roussel were part of a vicious system which preyed on the unfortunate members of the underworld, Governor Parker declared that he believed these men had paid their debt to society and he, therefore, approved the pardon recently recommended by the Board of Pardons.
