Methodist Church Notes

Rev. C. C. Wier, Pastor, Residence 236 Olivier, Phone Alg. 138.

Last Sunday our services were interesting. Perhaps there was a larger percentage of young people in the morning congregation than at any previous service. The music was good at both services, but we would call attention to the duet at the night service by Mrs. Sanford Hebert and Miss Orrie Summers. The communion of the Lord's Supper was administered at both services.

PERSONALS

Methodism has recently suffered a great loss in the death of Bishop Lambuth, who died in China. He died in that land while in the duties of the Episcopal office. He was born in China and was finally elected to the office of Bishop and given charge of the supervision of the Mission fields. He was one of our best loved men. Algiers had the privilege of having him visit here several years ago, and he greatly impressed our people.

Last Monday the Rev. W. W. Holmes, now Pastor of our Church at Lake Charles, but who was the Presiding Elder of the New Orleans District, when the old Church was destroyed and who helped launch the movement for the new work, and who has been greatly interested in the Church, while in New Orleans, came to see the new Church being built on Opelousas Avenue. He was the guest of the Pastor while in town. He thinks we will have a splendid Church.

On September 21, 1921, Miss Henrietta Miller received her diploma from South Business College. We congratulate her and wish her success.

Mr. Horace B. Rickey, one of the teachers in the manual training, has put his Church letter in with us, even though residing in the city.

Misses Roberta and Ruth Hafkes bring have returned from an Eastern trip. They went to various points in the United States, but a large part of their time was spent in Canada. Part of the time was spent with the Gibsons, one time residents of Algiers.

By far the most interesting event of the week was the reading of the report of Dr. King, treasurer of the Board of Stewards. He read the list of cash collections that have been raised during the past few weeks to secure the remainder of the amount we needed to go into the new church. It was very interesting and we were glad that the report, made from the meeting of the board of stewards of Friday, October 1, showed that we needed only $551.00 to have the entire amount for the building and this is secured by subscriptions from such honorable men that we feel easy on this point and we may proceed to look after the furniture. We feel that the names on this last amount are men whose promise is worth what it means. Thank you, friends.

Some folks say that religion is very expensive. It is, but it is worth it.

The Choir has been appointed a sub-committee to help in the furniture of the new Church.

Our folks are hoping that the new Church will be ready for Christmas services.

Our Mizpah Choir went over to resume practice in the N. O. Choral Class, which resumed work Monday night.

News comes from Misses Inez and Irma Daniels that they are still improving in health. They have been in Denver a little more than a year.

Last Sunday night Miss Emma Guesser, State Superintendent of the Junior League, was the guest of our Juniors and gave an interesting talk. She also worshipped with the Senior League, which met at 7 P. M. The league was led by Philip Saleeby.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tonight at 7:45 our Prayer Meeting will be held by the Presiding Elder for the ensuing year. This is very important. All departments will be prepared to make reports. Officers for next year will be elected. The Catechism class will meet at the Church, at 3:30 Friday.

The Junior Choir will resume work Friday night at 7:30.

The Board of Stewards will meet in stated session at 7:45 at the Parsonage.

Services next Sunday, at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Come see what we are doing and help us do it.

The committee on the celebration of our Tenth Anniversary of the New Church Building met Monday night at the parsonage. It had been decided in the former meeting to serve coffee and sandwiches to the assembly after the service. The committee was divided into various sub-divisions to take care of the various phases of work to be done in preparation for the festival. The committee once more appeals to the members of our congregation for donations. If possible to the members, the committee would prefer to receive cash donations, but any other donations such as sugar, coffee would certainly be gladly accepted. The cash donations would be preferable since in that way uniformity is far more easily attained. All cash donations should be given to the pastor. Furthermore the committee would ask all who have lawn benches to inform any one of the following members of the committee: M. R. Biehler, F. Gegenheimer, Chas. Hantel, Jr., or the pastor. Those who wish to donate edibles should inform any one of these: Mrs. Chas. Davis, Mrs. L. Newman, Miss C. Kristensen, Miss N. Weber, or Mrs. W. H. Hafner. The festival is to be held on October 16, so every one is urged to act promptly.

Next Wednesday night the Trinity Lutheran Society will meet for the regular meeting. Place of meeting will be announced in the services.

Our pulpit light which was donated by the last confirmation class is on the way and will be installed as soon as possible.

We are in need of a few bass voices for our choir. We would appreciate very much if some of our young men would help us out in this matter.

AS MISS ALICE EXPLAINED IT

Oklahoma Congresswoman Cited Indian Custom Concerning Proper Order of Precedence.

Not long ago the congressional delegation from Oklahoma went to pay its respects to President Harding, the Philadelphia Ledger states.

When it entered the chief executive's office the men came first and Miss Alice Robertson, the congresswoman, brought up the rear.

"This is a fine how-do-you-do," said Mr. Harding. "What's the idea of all you men preceding your distinguished woman associate?"

But Miss Robertson came to the rescue with her explanation. The men went first in submission to her will, she said. It was a custom peculiar to Oklahoma, a holdover from the old Indian days. When Indian men and women entered any building the men went first and the women followed. It was not that the men were given precedence. Quite the contrary. The Indian woman furnished the will that guided the movements of such parties. When cattle are driven down the road by cowboys, they go first, not as a matter of precedence, but because of a stronger will behind which impels them.

Protecting National Forests.

Lightning often strikes more than once—even frequently—in the same place or vicinity and experts of the United States Agricultural department are considering the possibility of mapping the lightning zones in the national forests, and for such zones providing fire lines, regulating grazing, and cleaning out of dead trees with fire-protective measures. It is believed that the mapping would show these zones closely related to certain types of topography and more or less localized sections of many forests. The importance of the matter is shown by the fact that lightning causes 90 per cent of the national forest fires, and in the very unusual season of 1920 set over half of the 5,973 fires.

Women in Scotland Yard.

Conservative Scotland Yard is finding women of decided value on its detective force, especially in ferreting out the intricacies of certain sorts of crime, writes a London correspondent. The talent of these feminine sleuths, it is said, is due largely because of their greater success at practicing deception. And it has been found that they can keep a secret.

Many of the women detectives cover assignments at social events where it is necessary for them to wear evening gowns and jewels and to display the social graces. Women detectives were employed first in London, but now their activities have extended to the provinces.

New Building Material.

An all-mineral substitute for wood, composed of Portland cement, sand and asbestos fiber, has been found to serve excellently as a base for walls, floors, etc., as being cellular in structure, it takes nails easily and holds them firmly. The new material, says Popular Mechanics Magazine, has the advantages over wood of being fire and war-proof. This latter quality makes it especially suitable for use as a subflooring when composition floors are used, as cracking of the latter is said to be eliminated. As it has the property of holding nails well, interior wood trimming and shingles may be nailed directly to the new base material. It is also said to possess good insulating qualities.

Says Women Take More Chances.

"Women are more reckless than men when it comes to dodging traffic," said a policeman at Forty-second street and Fifth avenue, New York. "Since we got the new street beacons, you know, it's our job to hold back people until the flow of vehicles is through on the street and starts on the avenue. The women are worse than men at darting in front of motors and street cars and trying to get across despite orders. The men are pretty easy to handle under the new system, but the women take all the joy out of our jobs."—New York Sun.

crowds in front of a hotel waiting for somebody to come out indicate that the expected person is either a champion pugilist or the President, according to the size of the crowd.

"There are natives of Central Africa who can jump five feet to the air from a standing position," observes a contemporary. Of what use then would universities be in the dark continent?

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE
XXX.—WISCONSIN

THE many cities in Wisconsin with French names show the French influence in its early settlement. The first white man to penetrate this region was Jean Nicolet, who was sent out in 1634 by Champlain to open trade with the Indians. He landed at Green Bay and probably traversed the country to Chicago. Fur traders and missionaries followed and the latter built a mission where Ashland now stands. This was the first church erected in the state and around it sprang up the first permanent settlement. Joliet and Father Marquette descended the Wisconsin river, and La Salle explored a great deal of Wisconsin before he took his famous trip down the Mississippi. Among the fur traders to come to Wisconsin shores was Daniel du Lhut, after whom the city of Duluth, Minn., was named.

During the Revolution Wisconsin remained loyal to the British and though Wisconsin became a part of the United States by the Treaty of Paris in 1783, it was not until 1816 that federal troops really established authority there. Indian uprisings continued for some time ending only with the Black Hawk war in 1832. Then followed extensive immigration from the New England States.

Wisconsin had formed a part of the Northwest territory until 1800, when it became a part of Michigan territory, under which jurisdiction it remained until 1836, with the exception of nine years, when it was considered a part of Illinois territory. With the admission of Michigan as a state, the Wisconsin territory was created, which included also the present states of Iowa and Minnesota and portions of North and South Dakota.

In 1814 Wisconsin was taken into the Union as the thirtieth state. Its area is 56,006 square miles and it has thirteen electoral votes for president.

The state is named after the Wisconsin river. This is an Ojibwa phrase which means "gathering waters." It is sometimes called the Badger State. (© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)
