McDONOUGH NO. 4.
 The past week has been filled with various activities. A very interesting phase of the work of Miss Mims, the nurse, was exemplified in the lower grades. With the combined efforts of the Principal Teachers, and nurse, the result of the Tooth-brush drill showed how sadly neglected this hygienic rule has been, and unless more attention is devoted to it in the homes, the children will not have the good, strong, healthy bodies that we all wish them to have.

Our physical director, Mr. Dowling was with us during the week, for the purpose of holding an official test in running in the upper grades. The classes will now devote a great deal of their time in practicing on the chinning bar.

One morning, the school was delightfully entertained by two pupils of Mrs. Fortier's class, George Beninati and John Finley surprised us with a vocal selection, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Our Scout Troop has been very much alive during the last few days. Under the able leadership of Scoutmaster Schroder, assisted by Mr. Roy Kearns and Mr. George Jones, the Scouts have been practicing for the Field Meet, which is to take place at the Naval Station on Thanksgiving morning. May "Troop 32" carry with them on the field, the best wishes of McDonough No. 4.

The dance given by the Co-operative Club on Saturday, Nov. 19, 1921, was quite a success. Although the weather was unfavorable for the dance, yet it takes more than that to dampen the enthusiasm of young folks. Brownlee's Band furnished the music for the evening the dancers of the entertainment can best describe the work of the musicians.

The basement was beautifully decorated by our friend and Scoutmaster, Leslie Schroder. His fame as an interior decorator is well known in our town.
 Too much praise cannot be given to our Scouts, who remained on police duty until very late. When assigned a special duty, although everyone around was enjoying themselves, these boys remained at their post of duty until relieved.

We wish to make special mention of the valuable assistance rendered by Messrs. Deicazel, Lilly, Kern, our Sign Painter, and Caferio. Their efforts in our behalf are very much appreciated by the faculty of the school.

Mrs. W. Short, the new President of McDonough No. 4, Co-operative Club is to be congratulated on the excellent work of her various committees. These ladies worked diligently and it was through their unflinching efforts that the entertainment proved so successful. The work of Mrs. Pacius in supplying over two hundred mystery boxes without help is very commendable. The fancy work table of which Mrs. Henry, and Mrs. Andre were in charge brought in the largest amount of money, proving that they too were untiring in their work. Others doing their share to make the entertainment the success that it was, were Mrs. L. Acker, Wm. Short, A. Short, Delcazel, Guillot, Treadway, Hotard, Rostrup, Burton, Culver, Oertling and Weigman. Mrs. Theo Hotard made over one hundred pounds of fudge for the entertainment and since then has come to be known as the "Candy Lady," among the boys of McDonough No. 4. We wish to thank all those who sent donations and helped make the entertainment a success.

McDONOUGH NO. 5 SCHOOL.

The kindergarten of McDonough No. 5 School gave a party at the school on Friday, November 18, to raise funds for the kindergarten. There was a program in the afternoon.

Some of the pupils of the school took part.

The program was as follows:
 Welcome Speech—Ursula Johnson, Wedding March—Pupils of the Kindergarten, Song—"Peggy O'Neil"—Catherine Sunseri, Play—"The Runaway"—Wesley Babin, Ita Mae Allingham, and Fairies, Song—"Alice Blue Gown"—Erna Peterson, Fancy Dance—Ita Mae Allingham, Louise Hinderlang, Catherine Quartina, Margaret Duffy, Verna Lucas, and Catherine Guireco, Song—"Mr. Duck and Mr. Turkey"—Pupils of the Kindergarten, "The Three Bears"—Pupils of the Kindergarten, Poem—"The Gypsy"—Marie Brown, Mistress of Ceremony—Alice Hibbens.

The Wedding March by the kindergarten children was a picture to behold. The bride was dressed in white, with wreath and veil. She carried a bouquet of roses of Montana. The groom was in full dress and wearing a high-cocked hat. The priest with book in hand led the procession, then came the bride and groom, and next came the attendants. The tiny boys were in full dress, while the girls wore evening dresses, some in light blue and others in pink.

A feature which delighted the children was the dance of the fairies in "The Runaway." They were dressed in the colors of the rainbow. After the program, refreshments were sold.

We wish to make known the patriotism and school spirit displayed by little Charles North who brought a large flag for our flag pole. This act deserves much praise.

The boys of the school give to the Mothers' Club their thanks for, and appreciation of the new balls and bats.

The children of the school show by their delight in the new books how much they appreciate this gift of the Club.

Miss Dieck, the Principal, and also the teachers of McDonough No. 5 wish to thank the Mothers' Club for the beautiful pictures which help to make the classrooms more attractive.

The school will give a series of entertainments for the purpose of furnishing a library for the school.

BELLEVILLE NOTES.

The D. H. Holmes Co., presented the school with eighty doll patterns which will be used by a number of the children as an aid for their dolls' Christmas costume. The kindness of the D. H. Holmes Co., was greatly appreciated by both teachers and pupils.

Mr. Soniat, chief attendance officer, visited the school last week and noted the improved attendance.

A lossening in the tardiness of five per cent, indicated an increase of punctuality in many homes.

Mr. Schaumburg, chairman of the committee on supplies and Mr. Schlosser, inspector, visited the school and noted the parts for future repairs.

The usual Thanksgiving baskets were given out.

Mr. Richard Walls, the father of Mrs. L. W. Daniels, passed to his eternal rest on November 16th. The sympathy of all the school is extended the family.

The medical department is expected to take up dental work shortly. The parents of the children unable to pay the usual amount of the necessary supplies should notify the teachers, so that they will notify the nurse.

The Junior Red Cross drive is on. It is hoped that each school will have a large number enrolled.

THE N. O. SEMI-PRO. MID-WINTER B. B. ASS'N.

The World Bottling Co., defeated the Leaders Sunday, at Cleave Park, in the first game of a double-header, by the score of 4 to 0. Wilson held the Leaders to one hit, pitching a beautiful game and was never in danger of defeat. The Hornets retained the lead in the New Orleans Semi-Pro Baseball Association, by defeating the strong Orioles, 2 to 1, in one of the most exciting games that was ever witnessed at Cleave Park, the winning run being scored after two were out in the last inning, by Jerry Kellcher, who hit a long drive for three bases, driving in the deciding run and breaking a pitching duel between Kline of the Orioles and Perez of the Hornets. Jerry Kellcher not only won the game for the Hornets, but kept them in the lead without being defeated this season. The
