

Methodist Church Notes

Rev. C. C. Wier, Pastor, Residence 236 Olivier, Phone Alg. 138.

Last Sunday we had our usual services. The Junior Choir furnished the music, giving two special anthems. The Pastor's subject was one of the slogans of the Gipsy Smith meeting, "Give God a Chance." The text used was Mark 6:5: "And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk and healed them." Men have to give God a chance, otherwise his hands are tied in saving them. Men are not saved against their wills. They must put themselves in touch with the Divine to get his healing and salvation. At the morning hour the following new members, who are strangers in town, were introduced: Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Kerr and Mr. Joseph Kempner. Mr. Kempner is from the Marine Barracks and his church letter is from the Marine Memorial Church, Quantico, Va.

Just after the service the Pastor and many of the members repaired to the L. & N. depot to meet the remains of Mr. A. S. Daniels, who died in Biloxi on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1922. His remains were laid to rest in the Daniels plot in Greenwood Cemetery. The Christian burial service was read by the Pastor and the Masonic rites were under the auspices of Sts. John Lodge, F. & A. M., of which body Brother Daniels was a Past Master. Mr. Louis Acker acted as Master and recited the ritual in an impressive manner. The Pastor paid respects to the memory of the deceased in telling of his labors in the community to make it better, and of his years of service as a member of the church. He referred to the long years of devoted and sacrificial service that had begun when he was but a very young man. He was a loyal and capable officer of the church. He was an ardent superintendent of our Sunday School in Algiers until he left for a new home in Biloxi, Miss., in 1915. He was greatly missed in his work. He helped mould the character of many of our members and they all loved him.

Brother Daniels helped in many ways to make the history of our church. He was a friend of the widow and the orphan, and the distressed could always call on him. During the Pastor's first year as pastor here he had one widow to say: "The church people were all good to me, but I do not know what I would have done but for Brother Sid Daniels." This was but an indication of the manner of man he was. It is a great thing to be a burden bearer, and our Saviour said: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these, my brethren, ye did it unto me." Our church not only sympathizes with the family in their bereavement and sorrow, but there is a personal loss in his taking away. We pray God to comfort and give that peace that the world can neither give nor take away—the peace that the disciples were promised by the Saviour of men.

PERSONALS

Mrs. P. E. Heard of Bunkie, La., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wier, and is enjoying the Gipsy Smith meetings.

Mrs. Tisdale Daniels has been sick for a couple of weeks, but is now convalescing.

Reserved seats to the Young People's Meeting, Tuesday night at the Tabernacle, were in great demand. Our church had more than two hundred tickets for distribution and these were used.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tuesday and Thursday Mrs. Young will speak to the High School and College girls at the Tabernacle, and to the Grammar Grades Wednesday and Friday at 3:30. All are invited to attend these meetings.

The past week has been "pay up week" on educational subscriptions. This meant a hardship to some. The Pastor knows at least one member who paid and it took all his money. Men who have made church obligations consider them the most sacred.

There will be only one service next Sunday. We will call off the night service to attend the Gipsy Smith meeting. Do your best to attend this service.

Mount Olivet Church

Cor. Pelican and Olivier, New Orleans, La., Rev. Thomas Bennett Clifford, Rector. Telephone Alg. 312.

Services for next Sunday as follows:

- 7:30 a. m., celebration of Holy Communion (full choral) and sermon.
- 9:30 a. m., Sunday School.
- 7:30 p. m., This service will be omitted during the month of January.

NOTICE

Attention is again called to the fact that during the month of January the night service will be omitted in order that those who desire may have an opportunity of hearing the world-renowned preacher, Gipsy Smith.

Church of the Holy Name of Mary

Father Lorvey was a visitor to Algiers. Father Larvey is treasurer of Jefferson College.

There will be a euchar party on Feb. 4 at the H. N. G. C. Hall, under the auspices of Children of Mary.

Rev. Father De La Chapelle, provincial of the Marist Fathers, will arrive in Algiers next Saturday.

The Children of Mary gave a boat ride on the steamer "Capitol" Wednesday. A good time was had by all who attended.

MOVIES THEATERS

SHUBERT THEATRE.

"Irene," the smart musical comedy by James Montgomery, with lyrics by Joseph McCarthy and music by Harry Tierney, which the Vanderbilt Producing Company so successfully produced some two years ago and which has just finished its long run at the Vanderbilt Theater in New York, playing there just twenty consecutive months, will be the attraction at the Shubert St. Charles Theater on Sunday, Jan. 22.

There were seven English-speaking companies of this perennial idyl of the musical comedy world last season; while the play was delighting New York audiences, there was another company in Chicago at the Studebaker Theater, where it enjoyed a run of nine months; two other companies touring the Eastern and Western cities, while at the Empire Theater in London a fifth company played an engagement of something over a year, and two other companies were located in Sydney and Melbourne, Australia, enjoying runs there of over six months each. During this time productions were made in Paris, South Africa, Belgium and Austria Hungary, these latter being in the native tongue, and it is safe to say there is not a large center in the civilized world that has not been covered by this time.

That there must be a reason for the enormous success of the play,

During the past days you have received a copy of the "Trinity Monitor," and we trust that you have read it from cover to cover. A little parish paper, issued at regular intervals, would do much to encourage a livelier interest in our church work and to keep in touch with those who are not so regular in their attendance at church. If you have not received a copy (an oversight is always possible), call for a copy. We will be glad to furnish one.

Thursday night the Rev. M. Le Cron will deliver a lecture on "Christ in the Home, State, Society and Church." Come to hear this lecture. Rev. Le Cron is pastor of Redeemer congregation and was formerly pastor in Baton Rouge, La. After the sermon the newly elected officers of the congregation will be installed, to-wit: M. R. Biehler, president; Charles Seeger, vice-president; Edward Warnken, treasurer; Fred Gegenheimer, financial secretary, and George Biegel, recording secretary.

Holy Communion will be celebrated in connection with the installation. Announcements can be made at any time before Thursday night. The confessional service begins at 7:15.

During the past year no special collections were taken at the doors, but since our Synodical Treasuries are sadly in need of support, free-will collections will be taken at the doors again at specified intervals. Such a collection will be taken after the service Thursday night. No one should feel that he must give, and certainly no one should give to please man. But we all should give, moved by the love for Christ and His kingdom.

Just one fact for your information: At the beginning of December it was estimated that Synod would have a deficit of $175,000 on Jan. 1, 1922. That is a large sum, and yet it is a small sum for a Synod of over 600,000 communicant members. Our collection Thursday night will be apportioned to the synodical treasuries.

The Trinity Junior Society meets Friday night at the home of Louis Dietrich, 407 Atlantic avenue. All members of this society are urgently requested to be present at this meeting. Let us start the schedule for the new year right.

MOUNT PILGRIM CONGREGATION SELECTS NEW PREACHER AFTER DISPUTE.

Rev. John White, pastor of the Mount Pilgrim Fourth Baptist Church negro, decided to take matters into his own hands and do a "bolting stunt" at a meeting of the board of trustees of the church January 2, the board charges in an application for an injunction to prevent him interfering with the church, filed in Civil District Court Tuesday.

Rev. White learned that the good folks of the Mount Pilgrim Church were not inclined to look with favor on his serving a second term as pastor, the petition alleges, and when the meeting was held January 2, to select his successor, he endeavored to "stampede and break up the meeting" and when he failed in this, bolted the meeting, although it is not set out that many members followed him.

The congregation of Mount Pilgrim decided it could struggle along without the assistance of Rev. White, and immediately reorganized and elected new officers and a pastor for the ensuing year.

The court is asked that Rev. White be restrained from in any way interfering with the conduct of services at the church and with the various officers.

COLORED CHURCH CLEARED OF DEBT.

The Shiloh Baptist Church (colored) gave a successful rally on Sunday, Jan. 15, and raised the sum of $51.65, which paid the last debt on the church. Brother S. Harris is deacon and Sister A. E. Young is secretary.

goes without saying; everyone who has seen it declares it to be the most delightful musical play ever written; its coherent story, romantic theme, genuine comedy and bewitching music enraptures everyone. Again has history repeated itself, this instance being the fact that the Vanderbilt Producing Company has given the play a new dress, both from a scenic and costuming standpoint. Lady Duff Gordon, in the latter respect, has created and built some amazingly alluring gowns for the ladies of the cast and ensemble, which are bound to cause a murmur of astonishment when shown.

As in the past, the company carries its own symphony orchestra.

THE RIGHT GIRL AT THE TULANE.

The most important announcement of the season with reference to the point of view of musical comedy lovers is the engagement at the Tulane Theater, beginning next Sunday night, of "The Right Girl," an entertainment with a charming story and irresistible tunes and lyrics that carry rather than halt the plot and action. The book and lyrics is by Raymond Peck, the score by Percy Wenrich, and it is staged by David Bennett.

The action starts in an office in New York on a Saturday afternoon and culminates in the Sunny South land. The story of "The Right Girl" has to do with a young man who falls in love with a girl whom he hardly knows. In his infatuation he writes his name in a marriage certificate which falls into the hands of her father. The amusing complications that ensue are of an interesting and diverting nature.

The musical numbers provide a wide variety of solos, duets and concert numbers by the principals and the beauty chorus. Those that have swept into popularity are "You'll Get Nothing From Me," "Old Flames," "Girls All Around Me" and "Love's Little Journey," in which the chorus gives a most entertaining and amusing imitation of a moving train.

The management has provided a specially selected cast with scenery and costumes direct from New York run of six months at the Times Square Theater. The company includes Jay Manners, Charles P. Mor-

ORPHEUM THEATRE.

The most important dancing act thus far this season leads the Orpheum's bill beginning Monday matinee. It is the Wright Dancers, a group of young girls trained by Anita Peters Wright, of California. Two members of the group, Helen Pachaud and Nita Susoff, are featured. There is a tenor soloist, Walter Peterson, and a musical director, Dexter M. Wright.

Anita Peters Wright, who trained these dancers, has for years created the dancers for the Greek Theater in Berkeley, Cal., and has arranged the big outdoor pageant which is an annual feature at the Natural Theater at Santa Cruz.

A quartette of acts on the program deserve special emphasis, according to the Orpheum booking office, Frederick V. Bowers, the musical comedy star and song writer, offers his latest song review with a company of six. Zuhn and Dreis, comedians of the most eccentric type, who call themselves "Dementus Americanus," are featured. An act that the children can enjoy as much as can the grown-ups will be Schlicht's mannikins. These little wooden men and women will enact some amusing scenes when Mr. Schlicht pulls the string. The fourth featured act will be that well known pair of comedians, Moran & Mack, known as "two black crows."

A big musical feature of the bill will be the singing of Fred Hughes the Welch tenor, formerly with Al G. Field's and Dockstader's minstrels. The show opens with Hurio, noted for his strength.
