

THE HERALD EIGHTEEN YEARS AGO

Cleanings From Algiers News And Happings During The Second Week In March 1904, When This Paper Was A Husky Infant

Believing that Herald readers, new ones as well as the faithful old-timers, will be interested in a glimpse of Algiers events as recorded in this newspaper exactly eighteen years ago...

BIRTHS. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Fousseca of 116 Olivier Street—a boy. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carter (nee Frances Hughes) of 717 Pacific avenue, a boy.

OBITUARY

SCHROEDER—On Saturday at 4:45 o'clock p. m., Mrs. John Schroeder, nee Eliza Jane Guy died at the age of seventy-four years. Deceased was born in Louisville, Ky., and had resided here for the past twenty years.

SPENCER—On Saturday, at 7 o'clock a. m., Mary Spencer, widow of the late Capt. George Spencer died at the age of sixty-two years. Deceased was a native of Ireland, but had resided here for many years.

HIDDEN—On Sunday at 6:30 a. m., Hidde R. Hidden, husband of Mary J. Colletti died. Deceased was born in North Switzerland, Germany, seventy-eight years ago, but had resided here for the past sixty-five years.

JORDAN—On Tuesday at 7 p. m., Theresa Schnell, wife of Sidney Lee Jordan died at the age of fifty-two years and nine months. Deceased was a native of Algiers.

GUYNEMER—On Saturday, Feb. 25th, Mrs. Alice Fry Gynemer died at her home in Shreveport, La. Deceased was born in New Orleans on March 29, 1838, and was the daughter of the late George Washington Lewis.

On Wednesday, March 9, 1904, an act of secession was consummated and a permanent organization was affected when the members of Orient Encampment No. 16, Knights of Temperance voted to withdraw from the Grand Encampment's domain and organize on an independent plan under the name of Orient Council.

The contract for sewerage work in Algiers was recently adjudicated to A. L. Patterson & Co., of Alabama, and the work is to begin according to the terms set forth in the contract, within the period of 60 days.

It is to be hoped that many of the men of Algiers, who are out of work, may be given employment and doubtless the contractors will give the preference to local men.

Writers Got Money In Advance. The Seventeenth or Eighteenth century author traded their more on the trustfulness of the public than does the new school, for he peddled his book before it was written and sometimes spent the proceeds before he had completed half a dozen chapters.

Known by Their Hats. All the various tribes of Persia are to be distinguished and recognized by their headgear. So, at the capital, Teheran, there is to be seen a greater assortment of hats and headgear than in any other place in the world.

"Playful" Indeed! In his book, "Flashlights From the Seven Seas," the Rev. William L. Stidger, of Detroit, says the Battaks of Sumatra have what he refers to facetiously as a "playful" custom of getting rid of their old men.

Belief Has a Foundation. Idea That Seventh Child of a Seventh Child is "Gifted" Not Altogether a Fallacy. The seventh child of a seventh child (sometimes "the seventh son of a seventh son") is supposed to be gifted with the power of curing headaches and more serious ailments by the laying on of hands, and to have other magical powers.

How Man Spills the Air. "Windows open more would keep doctors from the door." A very large quantity of fresh air is spoiled and rendered foul by the act of breathing. A man spoils not less than a gallon every minute. In eight hours' breathing a full-grown man spoils as much fresh air as seventeen three-bushel sacks could hold.

BURKE OF N. D. LOSES IN WALL STREET

John M. Burke, three times governor of North Dakota and later treasurer of the United States until last year, is reported to have lost his entire business and personal fortune in the failure of the New York firm of Kardos and Burke announced this week.

REFUSE TO ACCEPT "SMITH"

Members of That Family Have Hard Work Convincing Strangers That the Name is Real.

"It isn't the fact that Smith is such a common name that I dislike it," said Miss Smith, according to a New York Sun writer, "but the fact that every one who wants to give a fictitious name just says she's Miss Smith. Every time I have to introduce myself somebody sort of snickers about it and supposes my name is Gugenheimer or Caferney or something else. Take my sister and myself, for instance. We often go out together to the rink or down in the village for supper."

"There's always some nice boys around who want to dance with us or skate around a couple of times. Of course, you don't need any official introduction these days and the boys know it. So they come over and in a little while they're telling us where they work and their telephone number and how we look like their sisters, and all that. It's all right, too, because you get used to that way of getting acquainted, and it's much better than some funny guys, who try to hand you a line that they're in the movies or doing fiction writing."

"Well, anyway, pretty soon, if they like us, they say, 'You're a pretty nifty little dancer. I'd like to see you again. You know all about me, so tell me your name, will you?' Then when I say Miss Smith, they say: 'Come on, quit your kidding. That doesn't mean anything to me. Tell me your real name.'"

"When I insist my name is Smith, they say, 'What's the matter? You're married or something.'"

"So we don't tell our real names any more. We say we're Miss Cooper or Stuyvesant or something else, and since we don't look like sisters we each have to use different names to be believed. Funny, isn't it?"

BELIEF HAS A FOUNDATION

Idea That Seventh Child of a Seventh Child is "Gifted" Not Altogether a Fallacy.

The seventh child of a seventh child (sometimes "the seventh son of a seventh son") is supposed to be gifted with the power of curing headaches and more serious ailments by the laying on of hands, and to have other magical powers. In other words, he is supposed to have a "gift."

Among the later discoveries in eugenics was that the younger children of very intelligent men inherited more of their father's intelligence than did the older children; or, as sometimes happened, that the children of a younger son were supremely gifted with intelligence. The reason for this—according to eugenic theories—is that talented men or women, like many others, usually marry when fairly young if they marry at all.

But supposing that the talented man, as is usually the case, continues to develop amazing mental qualities, then if he has children when his brain is completely mature, those children will probably inherit their father's matured mentality; or, if they do not inherit it, their children (the clever man's grandchildren) receive the inheritance.

Mount Olivet Church. Pelican Ave. at Olivier St. Rev. S. L. Vall, Acting Priest, in Charge. Phones: Office, Jackson 1215; Residence, 2327.

LENT—AN ANNUAL REVIVAL

From the very first ages of Christianity, it was customary for Christians to set apart forty days as a season of revival in preparation for the great festival of Easter. It is therefore a custom of great antiquity. It was a season observed by the primitive Christians. Devout Christians today likewise observe it. Why not you? If for some reason you have not been regular in your attendance at the services of the church you have neglected your duty. You have certainly missed much, for worship is as necessary to your soul as food is to your body. We have missed you also especially when we were in need of encouragement. Lent is an annual revival of historic Christianity. Why not make this present Lenten season a time of revival?

Revive your loyalty to your Lord. Revive your Devotions at home. Revive your regularity in church attendance. Revive your penitence. For your own soul's sake, and for

Church of the Holy Name of Mary

Baptisms. Gloria Elizabeth, daughter of Charles Diket and Elizabeth Strauss, of 313 Sillid avenue. Sponsor: Camille Thomas. Elizabeth, daughter of William P. Laughlin and Ethel Stone, of Paradis, La. Sponsors: Nicholas P. Laughlin and Maud Lizen. Henry Hayes, son of Charles Deming and Helen Schmuck, of 444 Belleville street. Sponsors: Francis Lyncker and Elizabeth Dalton.

Church of the Holy Name of Mary

Among our sick mention is made of Messrs. L. P. Back and B. H. Blakeman, Willie Entwistle, Little Frank Flanders, George Frisch, Mrs. Fay and Miss Orrie Summers; Dear- ro Trotter has been in the Hospital for a week; Grandpa Labit has been sick, but is convalescent. Miss Irva Daniels, who has been in Denver, Colorado, some months was sick recently, but is out again. She and her sister Miss Inez have greatly improved during their stay in that city.

The Junior League met at the Church Tuesday night in business session with Miss Bertha Albrizzi and Mrs. L. T. Dunn in charge.

Mr. Williams is putting the final touches on the pipe organ, being installed at the new church on Opelousas Avenue.

The catechism class will meet at 3:30 Friday. The more advanced ones will stand a written examination at this time.

Next Sunday should give us a crowded house, as it is the time we have set for the last service in the old Church, for if nothing unforeseen occurs, we will go to the new building March 19, at 3 o'clock.

On Thursday night of this week Mrs. Cayard's class will meet at her home for the purpose of organizing. All members are urged to be present and give their help. A jolly time will be had by all who attend so if you are a member, remember this tonight at 7:30 at Mrs. Cayard's.

To-morrow night at the Salem Evangelical Church the first meeting of the Orleans Jefferson Older Girls Conference will be held which will be a banquet at 6:45. The delegates of our Sunday School were elected last Sunday and we trust all of them will be able to make all of the meetings. On Sunday afternoon the session will be for all the girls of the Sunday School between the ages of 15 and 25. We would also like this meeting to be well attended by our school members.

Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church

Corner Olivier and Eliza Streets, W. H. Hafner, Pastor, 438 Olivier St. Phone Algiers, 240.

It often happens that one of our members is sick and the pastor does not know it. Still such sick members often expect the pastor to come and visit them. The pastor is quite humane and therefore will not know of anyone's sickness unless he is told. If there is any one sick in your home and you would like the pastor to call on him, please, inform him.

In this season, of Lent we conduct special Lenten services in which we dwell on the great passion of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. All our Christians should attend these Lenten services regularly.

To-night holy Communion will be celebrated. Confessional service begins at 7:30. A collection will be taken at the doors for Synodical treasuries. Let us not grow weary in well doing.

Friday night the voting members meet at the Parsonage. All members are requested to be present at 7:30. The Trinity Junior Society will meet Friday night next week at the home of Magdalene Meyer, 600 Verret Street. All the members are urged to be present.

The Junior societies of the city Waltham League enjoyed a hike to the Bonner Home. A good time was reported. Such joint excursions of our young Lutherans are of great benefit to our young members. It is hoped that another hike may soon be realized.

Methodist Church Notes

Rev. C. C. Wier, Pastor, Residence 236 Olivier, Phone Alg. 138.

Last Sunday was an interesting day for us. Mizpah choir had good music, though we missed some of our members. There were several anthems. At the morning hour, Mrs. Hebert sang the solo part for the anthem, while at the evening hour the solo to one of the anthems was sung by Mrs. Summers. The Pastor used for the text in the morning Matt. 5:9, "Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God." The text at night was Joshua 24:14, "Now therefore fear the Lord, and serve him in sincerity and in truth." The last talk was largely addressed to the new members who were received at the evening service; these members as follows: Mr. T. W. Angelo, Mrs. Julia Angelo, Mrs. Lillian B. Smith, Miss Catherine Galinhouse and Mmes Chapman and Leddy. After the service the congregation had been dismissed there was a welcome by the individual members to these new members. We welcome them and pray that they may be of much service in the Kingdom of our Lord and Savior.

Saturday, March 4, 1922, Christy Henry, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Burnell, 401 Verret street, was baptized, Rev. C. C. Wier officiating, and grandmas and grandpa Bur-of the board of directors through absence, death, resignation, or inability to act. ARTICLE V—The corporate powers of this corporation are expressed and set forth in Section Seven of the Charter of the Louisiana Legislature of the year 1914 and shall be duly employed by and through the board of directors. The duties of the several officers shall be set forth in the by-laws which shall be adopted by the board of directors and amended or altered at their will. ARTICLE VI—No stockholder of this corporation shall ever be held liable for any debts of the corporation other than the amount of his or their unpaid subscription to stock, and no liability herein shall render them liable in the premises.

CHARTER

ARTICLE VII—Amendments of this charter or liquidation of this corporation shall be subject to the provisions of Article Number 267 of the Louisiana Legislature of the year 1914. Thus done, passed and signed on the day and date first hereinbefore written, in the City of New Orleans, in the presence of competent witnesses who have signed hereto together with said notary public and a notary, after a due reading of the within premises. Witnesses: F. M. Mitchell, F. E. De-

(ORIGINAL SIGNED): F. Otway Denny, 1239 Canal St., New Orleans, one share; William Baden, 1000 Poydras St., New Orleans, one share; Geo. H. Hodges, 1000 Poydras St., New Orleans, one share; John J. Jennings, La., one share; Warren V. Miller, 200 White Bay, New Orleans, one share. (Signed): GUS A. LAMBLER, Notary Public. Meh. 9—Apr. 13 (Signed): GUS A. LAMBLER, Notary Public.

ARTICLE VIII—The name and title of this corporation is hereby designated as the Harahan Realty Company, Inc., and its domicile shall be in the City of New Orleans, Louisiana. It shall enjoy and have succession for a period of ten years from this date and shall continue in business at once; it may have, hold, acquire, sell, lease, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, convey, and otherwise dispose of real and personal property, movable and immovable, and be sued and to have a seal of such description and device as may be selected by the board of directors and to alter same at its pleasure.

ARTICLE IX—The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are declared to be: buying, selling, leasing, mortgaging, and pledging of all kinds of real and personal property, movable and immovable, and the stipulations hereinafter set forth which they hereby adopt as their charter to-wit:

ARTICLE I—The name and title of this corporation is hereby designated as the Harahan Realty Company, Inc., and its domicile shall be in the City of New Orleans, Louisiana. It shall enjoy and have succession for a period of ten years from this date and shall continue in business at once; it may have, hold, acquire, sell, lease, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, convey, and otherwise dispose of real and personal property, movable and immovable, and be sued and to have a seal of such description and device as may be selected by the board of directors and to alter same at its pleasure.

ARTICLE II—The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are declared to be: buying, selling, leasing, mortgaging, and pledging of all kinds of real and personal property, movable and immovable, and the stipulations hereinafter set forth which they hereby adopt as their charter to-wit:

ARTICLE III—Citation and other legal process must be served upon the president and in the event of his absence or inability to be served upon the vice-president.

ARTICLE IV—The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars, divided into five hundred (500) shares of the par value of fifty ($50.00) each.

The amount to which the capital stock of this company may be increased is hereby fixed at the sum of fifty thousand dollars. Each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote at all elections either in person or by proxy; the shares of stock shall be transferred as provided in the by-laws of the corporation and shall be subject to the provisions of the Louisiana Code of Commerce.

ARTICLE V—All the corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in a board of directors consisting of not less than three nor more than seven directors, who shall be elected by the stockholders at a general meeting called for said purpose of which fifteen days' previous notice in writing shall be sent to each stockholder.

ARTICLE VI—Each share of stock shall be subject to an assessment up to thirty per cent of its par value per annum and the board of directors are hereby vested with authority to declare said assessment and all outstanding stock shall be liable therefor.

ARTICLE VII—At the termination of this charter by limitation or otherwise the affairs of this company shall be liquidated by two commissioners who shall be chosen by the stockholders at a general meeting called for said purpose of which fifteen days' previous notice in writing shall be sent to each stockholder.

(ORIGINAL SIGNED): J. Ricker, 516 Perdido Street, New Orleans, La., for 45 shares; Maude D. Krider, 816 Perdido Street, New Orleans, La., for 1 share; A. S. Chenet, 516 Perdido St., New Orleans, La., 1 share; August Christina, per A. H. Jophess, Kenner, La., 3 shares. Witnesses: Thomas Scallih, W. J. Adolph.

JOHN C. DAVEY, Notary Public. I, the undersigned Recorder of Mortgages, in and for the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing Act of Incorporation of the Harahan Realty Co., Inc. was this day duly recorded in my office at Book 1268, folio 68.

(Signed): JOHN C. DAVEY, Recorder of Mortgages. A true copy: JOHN C. DAVEY, Notary Public. Meh. 9—Apr. 13.

LET US remedy your battery troubles. Service Battery 250 per cent. We test your battery and electric system FREE. Battery Recharging 250 per cent. Service Battery 250 per cent. ALGIERS BATTERY STATION 715 Elmira Avenue

KNOWN BY EXPERIENCE

Niece—Violet and I are never going to marry. We are going to live in the country and keep pigs. Aunt—You'll find it very much the same thing, my dear.—London Mail.

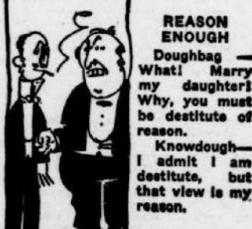

YOU MAY CALL AGAIN

Messenger—My employer has requested me to present you this bill for settlement. Lieutenant Briggs—Well! Well! May I congratulate you on having obtained a steady job?

A HIGH MARK, BUT "An egg of the great auk will bring $500 today." "A high mark, but the hen isn't out of the running by any means."

REASON ENOUGH — Doughtab — What! Marry my daughter! Why, you must be destitute of reason. Knowdough — I admit I am destitute, but that view is my reason.

PERTINENT QUESTION "Which would you rather be, a knave or a fool?" "I don't know. What has been your experience?"

How Man Spills the Air. "Windows open more would keep doctors from the door." A very large quantity of fresh air is spoiled and rendered foul by the act of breathing. A man spoils not less than a gallon every minute. In eight hours' breathing a full-grown man spoils as much fresh air as seventeen three-bushel sacks could hold. If he were shut up in a room seven feet broad, seven feet long and seven feet high, the doors and windows fitting so tightly that no air could pass through, he would die poisoned by his own breath, in a very few hours; in twenty-four hours he would have spoiled all the air contained in the room, and have converted it into poison.

Vote for a REDUCTION OF TELEPHONE RATES by voting for The only candidate who has come out squarely for a reduction YOUNG CAPABLE VIGOROUS RELIABLE FRANCIS WILLIAMS FOR PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSIONER PRIMARY MARCH 24, 1922 Paid for by friends of Francis Williams.