What is the Cost?

How much has our Christianity cost us? That is the question which Lent and the great coming days of Holy Week put to us with searching emphasis. How much has our Christianity cost us? We know what it cost Stephen, what it cost Paul. We do not know so well, we cannot be so sure of what it is costing this generation, where many seem to be asking how little rather than how much they can do; where religious observances have a slight and insecure hold on the community; where pleasure too often takes precedence of worship and the Sabbath is spent without a single thought of God.

Now the Master says, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross." The cross does not stand for suffering alone; it also stands for service. The cost of cross-bearing is agony of soul for the sin of the world; it also means running to lift the load from hearts which have been crushed under its weight.

There is no better test of religion than service and sacrifice. It is not enough to be just good, we must be good for something and good to somebody.

Just because a man goes to church on Sunday, says his prayers, does not steal or slander anybody and is generally known as a good neighbor does not prove his love for Christ. What does it cost? That is the question. Perhaps if he did not go to church on Sunday he would find it quite lonesome alone, with everybody else at church.

If our service to God costs us nothing, it is worthless. We should endeavor to show our love for Christ day by day through service that costs us something. A gift to missions that entails no sacrifice is not of much value, but if it is the curtailment of pleasure for the sake of the needy, that proves one's love for God.

The Trinity Junior Society will meet at the home of Magdalene Meyer, 609 Verret Street, this Friday night at 7:30. All members are urged to be present. If you can bring a new member do so by all means.

The pastor has received a new supply of envelopes for our Synodical Building Fund collection. If you wish to have some ask for them.

The attendance at Last Thursday night's service was good. There is one thing which comes to my mind when I see the good attendances at these Lenten services. It is this: If people can manage to come for services during the Lenten season, why can't they come during the rest of the year? Answer: They can but they don't care enough for God's word. But is that not a dreadful state of affairs? Is that not a very serious indictment against many of us, "He that is of God heareth God's word." Let us remember this. If a person earnestly desires to hear God's word he can find ways and means of getting to church. Let us not be Lenten Christians, but all-the-year-round Christians.

In our voting members meeting last Friday night, Mr. Eugene LeCron, brother of Pastor LeCron was received into membership of our congregation. Mr. LeCron was a former member of Zion congregation, but recently moved to Algiers. We heartily welcome our new member. There are quite a number of our young men who have reached the age when they are eligible for membership. We would exhort these young men to join the voting membership and help to take care of the business of the congregation.

TROOP NO. 32, BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA.

Without calling any names, one has to take off his hat to a Boy Scout leader. A man who has devoted his time to give the coming men of America the right start at the age when their minds are open for conviction is the man in the community you look up to and not be afraid. Few services for your country are more important.

Methodist Church Notes

Rev. C. C. Wier, Pastor, Residence 236 Olivier, Phone Alg. 138.

Last Sunday was full of interest and joyful service. At the morning hour, there was a beautiful anthem. The Pastor's subject was the "Mystery of Godliness," using as a text Colossians 1:26-27. "Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you the hope of glory." At night, the Pastor's subject was Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." The anthems by Mizpah Choir were very pretty. A beautiful duet was sung by Meses. Summers and Hebert.

PERSONALS.

At the morning hour, Earl and Doris Ainsworth were received into the Church by baptism. They were to have been admitted to Church membership with the other children, but on account of the removal of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ainsworth, to Lafayette, La., and desiring to be admitted to the Church where they had been instructed, this ceremony was advanced a little. This estimable family will be greatly missed and they carry with them the good wishes of a host of friends that they have made in our community. We pray God to bless them.

The prevailing sickness has invaded the medical fraternity as Doctors King, Riley, and Burgis have all been on the sick list, but all are better. It is bad for the ordinary person to be sick, but when the physician is sick-it touches many lives. Glad you are better gentlemen.

The many friends of the Rev. J. D. Harper, Pastor at McDonoughville, will regret to know that he has pneumonia. He has the best of care and is resting nicely.

Mr. Roy Hicks has gone to accept a position as pilot on the steamboat Superior of which Capt. Boyle is in charge.

Mrs. L. P. Black has recovered from her recent illness.

Last Sunday night, after services, Mizpah Choir quietly went down to the new church to have an experience with the new pipe organ. The Pastor and some of the members learned of it and quietly followed to hear how it sounded. The choir invited us to leave, which invitation was accepted. We will get to hear this pretty instrument on the opening day.

Last Sunday the Epworth League went to the Bonner Home to hold services. The devotionals were led by Mr. E. H. Cayard.

PRINCESS AT IMMIGRATION STATION CLAIMS DEPORTATION MEANS HER DEATH

The claims of the Princess Tschernitschew to American citizenship were forwarded for decision to the Department of Labor at Washington Saturday by Commissioner William T. Christy of the Algiers Immigration Station, where the woman, who says she is American-born and the widow of a murdered Russian prince, arrived from Antwerp three weeks ago.

Piqued over the delay in clearing her case, the princess Saturday said her deportation to Antwerp will mean her death. She declared she was trailed by a strange man she believes is an agent of the Bolsheviks before she sailed as a guest of a kind-hearted captain to this country.

A letter received Saturday by Commissioner Christy from Ellis Island failed to substantiate the princess' citizenship claims. The case is closed as far as he is concerned and the decision of the commissioner of labor, expected this week, will settle the question of whether the woman will be permitted to remain in this country or be deported, said the commissioner.

The princess stands firmly by her story told on her arrival here, that she is the daughter of Frederick Schlick of New York and that she was born in Louisville, Ky., where her parents visited forty years ago. Her father and mother are dead and she has no relatives or friends she knows of in the United States.

BIRTHS. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hunn, of Atlantic avenue, a boy. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Seaward of 342 Pacific Avenue—a girl.

SAILBOAT UPSETS IN LAKE DURING SQUALL

Running into a squall which came up suddenly Sunday afternoon on Lake Pontchartrain, the sailboat Indiana, owned by Andres Duciv, 21, of 1469 Moss street, capsized, throwing Duciv and two of his friends, William T. Tierney and Adolph Erickson, into the water.

The men, according to the police report, were clinging to the sides of the boat, which was then rapidly listing and drifting helplessly, when discovered by Frank Davis of 2191 Milan street, who went to the rescue of the men and picked them up.

Outside of a ducking, the men are reported to be none the worse for their experience. The lake was very rough Sunday and a stiff gale was blowing practically all afternoon. Duciv is said to have been steering the boat when the squall hit him and he was unable to right it before it turned over. All three were catapulted into the water.

Either Coat or Cape in This Garment

Back of every radical fashion is a fundamental idea which when traced to its source has some particular appeal to woman. Arrival of spring fashions shows the major idea this year to be "two-in-one" garments. The cape-dress and cape-suits are among the newest showings. The idea offers woman a bargain of two garments for the price of one. The newest offering is the coat shown here, which is convertible either to a cape-coat or a smart raglan sleeve sport coat. When sleeves are unbuttoned they form a cape. When buttoned as shown on the left, a raglan sport model is obtained.
