LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

O. D. A. MAN SAYS, "NO BOOKS." One day last week, a member of the Morality League called at the City Hall to examine the city ordinance prohibiting indecent dancing.

What do you suppose the gentleman told him? Why we have no books in which the city ordinances are printed, because we would have to have a book as large as the city hall.

The League members replied, you mean to tell me you have't a book where the city ordinances are recorded as they are passed? The supposed to be public servant replied, "No Sir."

We should certainly feel proud of our present administration, our member remarked, as he walked from the O. D. A. palace.

Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church

Corner Olivier and Eliza Streets, W. H. Hafner, Pastor. 438 Olivier St. Phone Algiers, 240.

Due to the absence of the pastor the Trinity Church notes failed to appear in these columns.

The pastor wishes to extend his hearty thanks to all who have so kindly sympathized with him and his family in their recent bereavement. Especially would he thank the Helping Hand Circle in the name of the bereaved family for the pretty floral offering.

The 41st Anniversary of our Bethlehem Orphan Asylum will be observed by special services on Sunday afternoon, July 9. The Rev. M. LeCron will deliver the sermon and the superintendent of the home the Rev. M. W. H. Hollis will speak on the subject of Orphan Homes. Everybody is heartily invited to attend this festival. After the conclusion of the services supper will be served at reasonable prices. The Ladies' Auxiliary is sending out a plea for volunteers. Ten Ladies are desired from Trinity. Who is willing to help along in this work? Two ladies have already expressed their willingness to serve. Volunteers may give their names to Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Vanderrinden or to the pastor. Refreshments will also be served. Fancy work is also desired. Anyone who is able to do some fancy work for this booth will be helping the orphans by doing it.

The envelopes for the Anniversary Offering are ready for distribution. Take one along the next time you come to church. Also take one for your friend or neighbor who has not attended church lately. You may drop the envelope in our collection plates at any time.

We have noticed that the attendance at Sunday School is not what it should be. That may be partly due to vacation trips, but to a great extent it may also be due to neglect. Let us all remember our Sunday School and attend regularly. Especially the teachers should be faithful. If you cannot be there yourself secure a substitute. We must have a full teaching force or our work will be hampered.

The attendance at church services could also be better. Don't let the heat keep you from attending our services. Our church is one of the coolest spots in Algiers since we had our fans installed. Don't let a little inconvenience keep you from attending services regularly.

CHIEF CLERK IS JAILED.

Mr. Louis Munsterman, the mayor's chief clerk, has demonstrated recently, without a doubt, that you must not revile the police. It doesn't make any difference what position you hold, whether state or city, you must not revile the police. Not even the new uniforms subdued the passion of the patrolman who told Louie he must go with him. So Mr. Munsterman became a full fledged citizen the other day when he landed behind the bars for violating the traffic rules and refusing to be guided by whistles. His many friends sympathize with him in his recent ordeal. More than one hundred offered to become bondsmen for his appearance, but he was paroled by the big chief.

CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING.

Judge Nicholas E. Humphrey, after all his experience as judge of the criminal court, said Thursday night that he had thought women could not keep secrets, but the party in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his and Mrs. Humphrey's wedding was such a complete surprise to him that he had to admit silver wedding parties were unlike murder in that they will not "out."

Miss Rita and Alton Humphrey decided on a fitting celebration for their parents' wedding anniversary, but they knew they could never carry out their plans without the co-operation of the mother, so they let her in on the secret.

It's one thing to arrange a surprise party for a man that stays in the court room all day, but it is an entirely different matter to arrange one for a man that is home on his vacation. As Judge Humphrey is on his vacation, he was very much in the way of party preparations, but Thursday he ventured away from his home in Algiers and went to New Orleans. Mrs. Humphrey met him there, accompanied him to a show, and by other means of amusement contrived to keep him away from home until 8:30 or later, but she had some work to do it.

When the "bride and groom" reached their home, 818 Opelousas avenue they found electric lights strung from the gallery to the gate and a houseful of guests—old friends, court members, policemen and new friends.

Musical numbers, echoes of the Policemen's minstrels, gave Judge Humphrey time to recover from his surprise, then Arthur Charbonnet, assistant district attorney for the criminal court, in behalf of many friends of the couple, made the speech of presentation that went with a large chest of silver.

There was a shower of rice, and with rice caught in his hair, Judge Humphrey responded. He referred to the long time he has known many of the guests, for the last day of this month he would have been in Algiers, thirty years, and during all those years has lived in the house that was the scene of the silver wedding celebration. Besides the chest of silver, many other silver gifts were received by the couple.

Miss Josephine LeBoeuf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. LeBoeuf, and Nicholas E. Humphrey were married June 22, 1897, in Holy Name of Mary Church, by Father Dempsey. The bride, who was born in Houma, La., had lived in Algiers several years before her marriage and the bridegroom, who is a native of Louisville, Ky., had lived in Algiers about five years. Miss Bessie LeBoeuf, sister of the bride, now Mrs. H. Martinez of this city, and Edward Seymour, formerly of Algiers, were the attendants at this quiet wedding. The Tennessee Centennial Exposition was going on in Nashville the summer of the wedding, so the honeymoon trail led to Nashville.

Seven of Judge and Mrs. Humphrey's eight children were with them for the celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Miss Estelle, the second daughter, is visiting relatives of her father in Louisville. The others are Miss Rita, Hugh, Alton, Julian, Edith, Lawrence and Lorraine. The couple has one granddaughter, their son Hugh's daughter, June Marie, who was born June 16.
