Methodist Church Notes

Rev. C. C. Wier, Pastor, Residence 236 Olivier, Phone Alg. 138.

Last Sunday morning we missed many faces from the service; some of these were from the Men's Choir and other prominent workers. Some are out of the city and some have had sickness and some bereavement and sorrow. There was, however, good music, consisting of an anthem, and a solo by Mr. H. Wynn Rickey. At night, we had a splendid congregation, though a large part of the congregation was made up of guests. Mizpah Choir had some very beautiful music. There was a splendid anthem and a very pretty duet by Mmes. B. H. Blakeman and T. J. Orrell, Jr. The congregation appreciates the splendid work done by our Choirs, which adds so much to the interest in the service.

PERSONALS.
 Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Lynch are giving a house party at their home at Clear Creek, Rapides Parish, near Lecompte. Among those from here that we know as being included are Capt. and Mrs. C. J. Zatarain, the family of Mr. J. P. Walters, Mrs. Rooney. To this number will be added some other from Morgan City and Lafayette, making a total of about twenty-two.

On Friday, July 13, occurred the death of Mr. Henry Krohn, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Wm. Senat, 308 Olivier street, and from which place he was buried the following day in McDonogh Cemetery with Rev. C. C. Wier officiating. Mr. Krohn had been sick and confined to his room for about nine months, a victim of the great white plague. He died at peace surrounded by his loved ones, who had ministered to him so tenderly during his sickness. He has three sisters, who survive him, Mmes. Wm. Senat, J. T. Ramos and W. J. Nash. His pall bearers were his six nephews, who with other loved ones mourn his taking.

On July 13, Mr. Nathan Johnson, eighty-eight years died. He was buried from the home of his grandson, Mr. A. Suberville, 725 Patterson street, the following day, Rev. C. C. Wier officiating. He had been a resident of Algiers for sixty-eight years, having moved here from his home in Jackson, Ill., when he was twenty years of age. He had only one son, Mr. Nathan Johnson, Jr., who with his nine grand children survive him. To these we express sympathy and pray that God may comfort. At the close of the burial services, taps were sounded by a retired army man.

On Tuesday, July 18, 1922, occurred our first wedding in the new Church, when Mr. T. J. Williams of Memphis, Tennessee, and Miss Ida Louise Harvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McKron, were united in marriage, the Rev. C. C. Wier officiating. Miss Harvey touched our Church life at many points, being an officer of the Epworth League and one of our Sunday School teachers and a member of Mizpah Choir. While we congratulate Mr. Williams and wish for the young couple, in their future home, all of the blessings possible, we acknowledge our loss and pray the blessings of God upon them.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Bell of Americus, Georgia, were recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. T. P. Bell, 237 Bermuda street.

Miss Beatrice Hebert, who has been employed in the city for some months, has resigned and will return to her home in Raceland, La. The Epworth Leaguers gave a fine truck ride and watermelon party last Saturday night.

Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church

Corner Olivier and Eliza Streets,
 W. H. Hafner, Pastor.
 438 Olivier St. Phone Algiers, 240.

Once more the pastor makes the request that all members interested in a Lutheran High School or College, return the cards given out at our church recently. If the members do not respond the committee cannot tell whether the people want such an institution or not. If you do not even return these cards, it will be useless to continue any such plans. The lack of interest will be sufficient warning that such an institution will not receive the proper support. If you are interested in such a Lutheran High School or College, sit down now and fill out that card.

The Trinity Junior Society meets at the home of Blanche Vanderlinden Friday night. The newly confirmed members of our church are kindly urged to come and join our Junior society.

TROOP No. 32, GOING TO C-M-P.

Troop No. 32 will carry its flag for the first time into the N. O. C. B. S. Council Scout Camp, followed by Scouts Richard Stenhouse, Roy Drumm, Alvin Covell, Frederick Kramer, Vincent Trauth, Joseph Koenig, Christie Babin, William LeBlanc, Edward Miller, Wellman Bond and August Wolverton.

This will be troop 32's first real summer camping trip, it having just been organized last fall. The New Orleans Council Boy Scout Camp is located at Covington, Louisiana, situated on the banks of the Bogue Falaya river and surrounded by numerous pine trees. It is considered by health experts to be the healthiest location within the State of Louisiana.

Self-preservation which a Scout learns in his campfire and in making use of the things in which he is instructed, makes him far more useful to himself and to his community. Instructions in First Aid, Life Saving as well as Cooking are among the many things which are carefully taught a Boy Scout in his Camp life.

Happened At Meeting

"Gee, but won't we have fun" Scout Roy Drumm said as he looked upon the face of Scout "Fat" Stenhouse and "Fat" replied "You tell em boy! It is only we scouts than can enjoy such things as camping trips."

Little Joseph Koenig while all was silent said, "They, Stenhouse and Drumm tell us that there is at the present day a special attraction at the Boy Scout Camp. I have been wondering ever since what they really mean."

ROY YKEENAN, Scribe.

TROOP NO. 33, BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA.

Meeting was held last week with a large attendance. Scoutmaster Hughes was in charge.

Among the many interesting subjects discussed was the forming of a football team, Elmer Grundmeyer was elected captain and John Brechtel, manager.

Meetings have been suspended until school opens. The troop will then reorganize and celebrate with a macaroni supper given by Scoutmaster Hughes.

DATES BACK TO STONE AGE

English Industry, Still Carried Estimated to Be Nine Thousand Years Old.

While science and invention have blotted out many of the old and honored industries in the centuries, some still exist which not only rival their own against their competitors, remarks London Times.

Perhaps the oldest and yet most known surviving industry is that on in Brandon in East Angles. The and Neolithic ages discovered the ground in this district was flints, which they proceeded to earth and fashion into polished and weapons.

That was at least 9000 years ago. Today the industry still flourishes and it is believed that the "flint-knappers" are the descendants of those oldtime workers. In their work they use various shaped iron picks, closely resembling reindeer's horns, which, as a matter of fact, were the tools used by Stone age workers.

The flint is found in large blocks which are left to dry and then broken into pieces six inches long. These, in turn, are shaped with flintknappers live to be old men. The particles of the material that are thrown off enter the lungs and are consumed.
