In reply to a man who signs his name "taxpayer" and desires to know the condition of the roads between Bogalusa and Sun we beg to report that Dr. Amacker has kept them in excellent condition.

Anxious New Orleans Friends: In reply to your wireless we will say that we have been unable to find out why S. Lacy Dickerson did not come down Saturday. Ask him?

Friend of the Babies: In reply to your question we are glad to state that the cows can run lose and they are not affected by the goat and hog ordinance. Furthermore they can eat all the flowers they can get.

To Hog Owner: What difference does it make to you whether Mayor Sullivan or the Chief of Police Cassidy arrests your hog? All you have to do is to identify him and pay the charges.

Covington Inquirer: No we cannot say that it is a positive fact that the trains are going to be replaced but if you have any money we will bet you ten dollars to a salted peanut that the trains are running in a few days. Thats how we are willing to back our judgment.

To Overdrawn depositor: From the best information we could secure you are right. A woman was told that her bank account was overdrawn and she proposed to make the overdraft good by giving them another one of her checks.

Oh, yes, Chlorinda, the young man who takes his best girl to a motion picture show every night should be classed as a "reel" sport.

Tom Byrum.

Tom Byrum, foreman in the G. S. L. Co., planing mill, died in the city hospital on the 2nd inst, after suffering for about a week with pneumonia.

Tom was born in Robertson county, Texas, September 15, 1881. He was left an orphan when quite young, and was reared by an older sister. He professed faith in Christ when sixteen years of age, and united with the Henry Prairie Baptist church. He leaves, besides a host of friends to mourn his departure, two brothers and three sisters, all of whom live in Texas. Mr. Byrum came to Bogalusa some six years ago and entered the employ of the G. S. L. Co.

The funeral was conducted at the home of Arthur Bass where Mr. Byrum was boarding at the time of his death. The service was conducted by Rev. W. E. Watkins, pastor of the second Baptist church. The high esteem in which the deceased was held by those who knew him was well attested by the large number who attended the funeral. Among the number was one brother from Texas. The burial took place in the city cemetery.

Her maiden name was Partridge, her first husband was named Robins, her second Sparrow, the present Quale. There are two young Robins, one Sparrow and three little Quales in the family. One grandfather was a Swan and another a Jay but he's dead now and a bird of Paradise. They live on Hawk avenue, Eagleville, Canary Island, and the fellow who wrote this is a Lyre and a relative of the family."

Southerners will receive about $2,000,000 in old war claims under the omnibus claims bill passed on the last night of the session, and which Representative Gregg of Texas, chairman of the house war claims committee, says is the first bill of the kind to get through in twelve years.
