W. O. W CHIEF SENDS CRITIC, BARRET AIDE, MESSAGE OF REBUKE

(New Orleans States.)

Despite the declaration several days ago, of Ben J. Morath, consul commander of Oleander Camp No. 74, W. O. W., that he and other Woodmen of the World placed the poster there, Barret supporters are continuing their efforts to make political capital of the finding of a Pleasant campaign poster in the Jefferson parish hall which was raided last week by the militia.

A. J. Frantz, Barret campaign manager, gave to the governor's afternoon paper Saturday a copy of a letter which he said he received from W. A. Mabry, a Woodmen of the World, of Shreveport. Mr. Mabry's letter states simply that he read in the Shreveport Times that Orleans Woodmen of the World had assumed responsibility for the poster's presence in the hall, and adds the information that the Woodmen of the World, a fraternal organization, does not take official part in politics.

Although the letter says nothing of the sort, the afternoon newspaper published it under this headline: "Woodmen Do Not Act As Posters of Political Photos Says One Leader."

The letter follows:
"A. J. Frantz, Sec. Barret Campaign, care St. Charles Hotel, New Orleans, La.:
"Dear Sir—The morning Shreveport Times contains big headlines stating, "Picture placed in Jefferson parish placed by Woodmen," which might create the impression that the Woodmen of the World of Louisiana is a political organization, and as such is supporting Col. Pleasant. I am a member of this order and have been for several years, have served my camp as consul commander and represented same at the head convention; am familiar with the constitution of the order, and I know that politics is not permitted or regarded by the order. It has nothing to do with politics and does not indorse candidates for office because they happen to be members of the order. If this were true, no doubt many of the camps would indorse Hon. T. C. Barret, who has been a member of the order for more than twelve years, as well as a few who might indorse Col. Pleasant who has been a member, so I understand, about six months.

"The great Order of Woodmen of the World is fraternal and beneficial insurance association, and stands for the highest ideals and all that is moral, good and true, and I feel confident if our great order was called upon to take a stand on political issues in any campaign that there would be no question but that it would stand solidly upon the moral side."

"Yours truly,
(Signed) "W. A. MABRY."

Ben J. Morath, who placed the poster in the hall and who is one of the most prominent Woodmen in the state, made the following statement Saturday night to The Daily States:

"In Saturday afternoon's Item appears a letter addressed to Mr. Barret's campaign manager from Hon. W. A. Mabry, of Shreveport, in which he seeks to justify the Item's exploitation of the finding of Col. Pleasant's picture in a hall raided by the militia in Jefferson parish. I have sent the following telegram, which is self-explanatory, to Mr. Mabry:
"Hon. W. A. Mabry, Shreve-

B. J. MORATH.

port, La.:
"If you either as an individual or as a Woodman, were to place a picture of Lieutenant-Governor Barret in a hall frequently used for social gatherings by Woodmen and the ladies of the Woodmen Circle, also by the Maccabees, the Druids and other wellknown fraternal and charitable organizations, would you resent this hall being characterized as the lowest dive in Louisiana? As a Woodman, as a citizen of Louisiana and as a supporter of Mr. Barret, do you give your approval to such characterization of this hall and the prominent campaign use of this incident which is being given by the organ of the Republican-Progressive candidate for governor, the New Orleans Item?
(Signed) "B. J. Morath,
"Consul Commander Oleander Camp No. 74, W. O. W."
"Owing to the fact that the hall in question is used so often by various organizations, I knew of no better place to put up Col. Pleasant's picture. I have no apologies to make to The Item or anyone else in this matter, but I, as well as thousands of other Woodmen in this city,
