MAKING GREAT PREPARATION FOR ANNUAL MUSICAL PLAY

Great preparations are being made by the "Wee Ten Music Club" for their annual musical, and judging from the manner in which everything has started, they are going to have a beautiful affair and an enormous success. There are about 75 in the cast and it will probably be the most elaborate affair even given in Bogalusa.

Some of the best talent of the town are enrolled, and every one is very enthusiastic over the event.

The Club recital will start at 6:30, good pictures at 7:30 and at 8:30 the Japanese fete will be a dream of oriental splendor. Assisted by the L. S. N. G. in uniform, and a chorus of 25 of the best looking girls in town in evening costume—making a most pleasing picture to the eye—embracing the most popular music of today, and forming a most beautiful chorus and color scheme.

No expense is being spared on this scene and a list of principals and chorus will be announced later. Thursday Jan. 27, 1916, Magic City Theatre, 10 and 25 cents.

Orpheum Theater

The Four Marx Bros., musical comedy, with a company of fifteen principals and no chorus, as a headline attraction, and three "extra features," form the Orpheum's program this week. Thomas Egan, the favorite ballad singer of Ireland on his initial vaudeville tour of America is one the features. Another is "Tango Shoes," the dancing novelty produced by Billie Burke, and still another is Chas. E. Evans, the former star of "A Parlor Match," assisted by Helena Phillips in "A Forgotten Combination," a one-act farce. With the accessory acts, the above numbers are said to constitute one of the most elaborate bills of recent weeks. The other acts are Meehan's Canines, featuring his leaping hounds; Willie Solar, a whistling, singing and dancing comedian, late feature of the London Hippodrome, and the Flemings, in alabaster poses.

"EVERYWOMAN" PLEASING CROWDS AT N. O. TULANE

With Edna Porter, a New Orleans girl, in the title role, "Every woman" opened for a week's run at the Tulane Theater Sunday night. From the beautiful and very capable Miss Porter to the most insignificant "supe," the offering is equal in every respect to the former presentation of the play here three years ago, on which occasion it was hailed as a dramatic triumph.

While it scarcely can be classed as a play—it is rather a dramatic spectacle—"Everywoman" is one of the few great theatrical productions of the last twenty years. It has beauty, vital force and humanity; it is founded upon human nature and the cardinal passion, love. "Everywoman" will live.

Those in Sunday night's audience who had seen the play previously sat through the performance with the same delight and even greater appreciation of the skill and beauty of the dramatic artistry. And there were those who felt that they could go back again with both profit and pleasure.—Times-Picayune.

The New Arrival

A young wife wishing to announce the birth of her first child to a friend in a distant city, sent the telegram, "Isaiah ix, 6," beginning, "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given."

Her friend, less familiar with the Scriptures, read the message and said to her husband:

"Margaret evidently has a boy; but why on earth did they ever name him Isaiah? He must be healthy, though, for he weighs nine pounds and six ounces."

Those Grip Devils

With mallet and chisel they're at it again,
A tapping away at the base of my brain;
They're prying things loose all over my back;
My arms and legs they've got on the rack.

My nose is stopped and I'm sneezing the while;
Maybe no mortal could longer stand the strain;
In misery like this we'd all be insane.

"Shut that window, I'm cold; no, open, I'm hot!
Surely no one ever has had such a lot—

What you say, like that with you? Shake, then, and order for two!"

DRIVE TURKEYS LIKE SHEEP.

The biggest turkey drive ever known here brought 500 to a produce house. They came 20 miles, and were herded and driven along the road as sheep are, and it took from noon Wednesday until noon Sunday to make the trip. They, with thousands of others, were slaughtered and rushed to city markets for the Thanksgiving trade.

Seventy-six possums, caught in six weeks by Mack Vinson and Austin Williamson of Caldwell county, and 39 raccoons, caught by Mike Hayes, are the high marks in this line this season.—Hopkinsville (Ky.) Dispatch, New York World.

A CASE IN POINT.

"Newdad is on the water wagon, pledge."

"I always heard that marriage affected a man's spirits."

SOME SHAVE.

Witticus—What do you think of this theory that insects have souls?
Cynicus—Don't doubt it. I suppose Bill Smith has one.

NO USE.

"I don't want to go to such a hair-raising play as this is said to be."

"Now, uncle, that is but a bald objection."
