BROTHER OF MRS. JAMES ROGERS ACCIDENTLY KILLED

Thomas O'Brien, 925 Thalia Street, a clerk, was almost instantly killed Thursday morning when a bale of cotton toppled over on him in section "G" of the new cotton warehouse at Lyon and the river. O'Brien's neck was broken and he died almost instantly.

O'Brien was superintending the moving of cotton at the time. The bale fell over from a stack eight bales high...N. O. American.

Mr. O'Brien was a brother of Mrs. James Rogers of Bogalusa.

Council Meets Tuesday

The regular monthly session of the Commission Council will be held on next Tuesday afternoon at 4 p. m. It is expected that the water and light ordinance will be passed upon at this meeting, which will give the citizens a big reduction in these necessities.

Miss Esther Cooley spent a few days in New Orleans last week with her parents.

Police Jury Meeting

The regular meeting of the Police Jury will meet on next Tuesday May 2. The two new members, J. R. Leslie and J. M. McCabe will hardly have time to qualify to set in the May meeting.

Give The Folks A Ride

These are dandy days and fine evenings to give the family a nice auto ride. The streets are good and you will enjoy a trip as much as they.

The cost is little and the outing twice worth the price I ask. When you need a car for the day, week or trip and want a new car with a careful driver ask for Lonnie Moak at 300 or phone 119.

PUBLIC HEARTILY FAVOR NEIGHBORHOOD MEETINGS

For Public Questions as Suggested in Enterprise Last Week

The citizens of every section of the city have heartily endorsed the suggestion made in the Enterprise last week of holding mass meetings in the various parts of the city hereafter, to discuss public questions instead of holding them at the Y. M. C. A. Columbia street residents were the first to express their approval of such meetings and stated that there would be one hundred per cent more citizens of that section represented at such meetings than have been attending the Y. M. C. A. Mass meetings. Richardson is also enthusiastic about the plan and state that many would take an active part that heretofore could not attend the meetings on account of the distance.

By holding the neighborhood meetings in each section of the city everyone would then have an opportunity to attend and not only ask questions, but possibly suggest good things for the city.

As soon as Mayor Sullivan returns from the North the matter will be presented to him and the Commission Council. It is believed that at least two meetings could be held each night and without any inconvenience to the citizens in any section of Bogalusa.

SMALL KIT USED BY VARDON

Too Many Implements Are Confusion to Players and Lead to Hesitation, Says Englishman.

Harry Vardon, the great English golf expert, in describing his equipment says: "In addition to my mid-iron I carry a driver and two brassies. Of the latter one is straight-faced, while the other is lofted so as to help in cuppy lies. I have a cleek and a driving iron. The former makes the greater distance, but the driving iron is useful when the shot is of a length which does not demand the use of a cleek.

"There are the two mashies, which I have already recommended the golfer to use, the one for ordinary approaches and the other for odd jobs, especially in long grass or against the wind, and a niblick and a putter complete the armament.

"I think it is just about sufficient for anybody. An undue profusion of implements often leads to hesitation in the selection of a club for a particular shot, and a general state of confusion."

STAR FINDS FUN IN PLAYING

Baseball Game to Ty Cobb is a Picnic — Mathewson Gets Much Amusement Out of Sport.

When a man is a star at any sport you can wager your last rupee that he gets a bale of fun out of his play, writes Grantland Rice in the New York Tribune.

A ball game to Ty Cobb is a picnic. Mathewson has been in professional baseball for fifteen years, and yet he gets as much fun out of a game today as he did around 1901, when he was just getting under way.

"It will be the toughest day of my life," said Matty recently, "when I turn in my uniform for good."

This rule is general, but not without exceptions. Jim Thorpe was one of the greatest football players that ever lived—if not actually the greatest for all around value. Yet Thorpe was never keen over football as a sport. He told us one day that he would rather play baseball for a week than to play football for a year. If Thorpe had only started baseball when a kid he would have been another Cobb, to employ a highly original phrase. But he was over twenty-five before he ever gave the summer game any serious attention.

Losses of British Soccer. It is estimated the professional soccer players of Great Britain have suffered a loss of $1,112,730 through the war this year.

JAMES ENTERS RACE FOR SPEAKERSHIP OF HOUSE

Baton Rouge, La., April 20...Democratic leaders of East Baton Rouge have started a movement to boost T. Sambola Jones for the speakership of the house in the incoming Legislature. Capt. O. B. Steele, former state treasurer, is at the head of the Jones boom.

"We feel that Baton Rouge has a splendid chance to land the speakership this time," said Captain Steele tonight. "Col. Jones is well qualified for the post because of his intimacy with political affairs of the state, acquired while serving as Governor Foster's private secretary and in the Legislature before."

The Jones backers believe that Jones, speeches in the Pleasant campaign should give him a strong claim for the speakership.
