Shorty Doesn't Seem to Have Had a Square Deal in the Dog Tax

Shorty is a dog. He is at his dog. The dog is worth 90 cents, and the dog tax is $1.25. Mrs. Shorty made a mess over him in the presence of the kennel keeper. The first week Shorty owned him he ran away. Shorty bought $6 worth of want ads. Seven weeks after the last want ad appeared a boy brought the dog home, claiming the $5 reward and putting in a bill for $11 for the dog's keep for eleven weeks. Shorty paid and bought a collar and chain for $1.25.

The dog lay passive on the back porch Saturday night and Sunday night. But Monday night Mrs. Shorty left the washing out on the line. Some time in the night the dog chewed the chain in two and then went out and tore all the clothes from the line, ripping to pieces what he didn't eat. That morning, before Shorty was up, the dog-tax collector came and collected from Mrs. Shorty. Then Shorty got up and went into the back yard and found the clothes torn to pieces. The dog had run away, presumably back to the home of the boy who kept him before for seven weeks. Shorty doesn't know where the boy lives, but Mrs. Shorty says he can find out with a want ad. Shorty knew that, but didn't want to suggest it. So he'll be down in the morning with another want ad. But he's sore.—Kansas City Star

BILL JOHNSON A STAR

Chicago Boy Hailed as One of Wonders of Athletics.

Meteoric Rise of Former Semipro and Basketball Player—Manager Connie Mack Orders Him to Report in the Spring.

"Keep your eye on Bill Johnson, the Philadelphia Athletics' new outfielder, next year!"

Thus hundreds of Chicago semipro baseball fans and amateur basketball enthusiasts are voicing their opinions of Connie Mack's latest find—Bill Johnson, late outfielder with the Garden City and last season star forward on the Illinois Athletic club's championship basketball squad, writes Fred A. Marquardt in Chicago News.

Johnson, whom Connie Mack signed just before the last series between the Athletics and the Browns, returned to Chicago and spend the winter with his parents. The Quaker city pilot was very much satisfied with the youngster's showing in the St. Louis games, and has ordered him to appear at the Athletics' training camp next spring at Jacksonville, Fla.

Rise in Athletic World.

Johnson's rise in the athletic world has been almost meteoric as one of his home runs or triples that within the short space of one year gave him the reputation of being one of the hardest hitting outfielders on the local semipro circuit. Although the national pastime has been his favorite sport ever since he was big enough to wield a baseball, fans first became aware of his ability in 1912.

As captain of the Doremus church baseball squad that year he led his team through the season without a defeat and succeeded in taking the senior championship of the Cook County Sunday School association. The following two seasons he played with

SO THE CALF KEPT ON.

As a train stopped at a little Ohio station the passengers heard the plaintive bawling of a calf, which was being wheeled along the platform in a crate.

"There's someone complaining, conductor," said a traveler, looking for a bit of fun.

"Not to me," answered the mild old ticket taker. "Never heard a passenger's complaint with that much sense."—Judge.

various amateur prairie teams about Chicago. Last season Pilot Billy Niesen of the Garden City—picked him up. Johnson became the mainstay of Niesen's batting order.

Baseball however was not the only sport in which Johnson excelled. Basketball took his eye when he was barely more than 100 pounds in weight. He became an ardent devotee of the floor game in 1909 as a member of the Armour Square Midgets, the team that won the city championship of its class that year.

Was Star in Basketball.

As a forward on the old Cornells he starred in the games that netted them the Central A. A. U. and National A. A. U. senior championships. When basketball was introduced at the Illinois Athletic club two years ago, Johnson became a member of the squad. The tri-color team won the Central A. A. U. title and made the trip to the coast for the national tourney.

The I. A. C. team won the central states' title a second time last spring, but was nosed out for the national championship by one point at the hands of University of Utah players.

If he falls to make good with Connie Mack it will be the biggest surprise in years for local sport enthusiasts.
