

Suppose Your Wife and Children Were Without Food or Clothing? HOW WOULD YOU FEEL?

There are thousands of Jewish families in Russia, whose only home is a rude cart, open to the snows and rains. They must face the wintry blasts without hope of medical aid, without heat, without shelter, yes, without food, unless the people of Bogalusa help them. You would not let anyone near at hand suffer such tortures. Surely, the fact that these people, with hearts and feelings just like your own, are separated from you must not lessen your sympathy. There is only one thing you can do to help them. You can but give. This is a trifling sacrifice. Who cannot spare something for those who have nothing at all?

Three Million Human Beings Are Suffering the Tortures of Disease, Hunger and Death in the devastated war zones of Russia, Galicia, Rumania, Lithuania and Palestine. The pitiful plight of these poor unfortunates is no fault of theirs—they are the innocent victims of German outrages—a harmless, industrious, and as a rule, frugal race of people who have been deprived of all means of support and are now dying by the thousands for the want of food and shelter. Americans—red-blooded, charitable, humanitarian—Americans of every religion and creed are asked to join with their Jewish brethren in saving these human lives and remedying the horrible conditions that now exist.

Open Your Heart—And Your Pocketbook

Give as much money as you can possibly afford. Remember the most beautiful thing in life is charity—and money is only good for the happiness it buys. What better use could you put your funds to than saving lives, feedings the hungry, clothing the naked and freezing peoples who have suffered the hardships and brutalities of war? Be ready for the solicitor when he comes around to see you this week—open your heart and your pocketbook.
