British Columbia's Greatest Opportunity

British Columbia is the largest Province in the Dominion of Canada, and the richest in natural resources. It has never been exploited as have the other Canadian Provinces. A great development has just begun. Over two thousand miles of new railways are under actual construction. Now is the opportunity to invest on the ground floor.

The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Township of Fraser Lake is right in the center of thousands of acres of the finest agricultural, grazing and forest lands, timber lands, highly mineralized areas and vast coal deposits. It is the head of navigation for over 400 miles of navigable inland waterways; huge water-powers within two miles; finest situation on the railway for a pleasure and health resort; good hunting, fishing, etc.; splendid climate; station site and standard No. 1 station approved by Canadian Board of Railway Commissioners; every contract for site issued direct to purchasers of lots by Land Commissioner of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway.

Illustrated literature and full information free on application.

Farm, grazing and fruit lands, timber areas, etc., for sale in all parts of British Columbia.

Only A Touch

By REV. PARLEY E. ZARTMANN, D. D.

Secretary of Extension Department Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—Who touched me?—Luke 8:46. The story of this nameless woman and the miracle of her healing is found in each of the synoptic gospels, and it is especially prominent in that of St. Mark; in fact, it is one of the striking cartoons which this evangelist uses in describing the work of Christ. Of all the characters in the gospel this nameless woman is the most touching, and her attitude toward Jesus, his treatment of her, and the gracious results serve as encouragement to anyone who doubts his fitness for approach to Christ or his worthiness to receive anything from Christ.

It is the story of a miracle by the way. Jesus had been requested by Jairus to come to his house and heal his daughter. As he was going on his way and much people followed him and thronged him, a certain woman, seriously ill for twelve years, suffering many things of many physicians, and growing worse instead of better, came in the crowd about Jesus and touched the hem of his garment. She was a great sufferer from her disease and disappointment.

Recognition.

Jesus noticed her touch; "And Jesus immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?" He knows the slightest movement of the soul toward himself, he feels the burdens we bear, for he is touched with a feeling of our infirmities. Like the father in Luke 15 he goes out to meet the returning wanderer. What an encouragement it is to the sinner to realize this approachableness and responsiveness of the great Savior. Sometimes we are in doubt about the character and love of God, but every revelation of the tenderness, compassion and thoughtfulness of Jesus is also a revelation of the fact that God is like him. He knows our reaching out after him; let us be sure of that. "I waited patiently for the Lord, and he inclined unto me and heard my cry." Get close to Jesus in love and faith, and touch him. His heart and love and power will respond.

"The healing of his seamless dress is by our beds of pain; We touch him in life's throng and press And we are whole again."

Jesus rewards the woman, though she had mistaken ideas about his character and his work; but one thing she knew—she was sick and there was a healer; she touched him and that brought blessing and benediction. Jesus did not stop to raise questions as to her character or criticize her for her conduct. He responded to the weak faith and the earnest desire of the woman, "And said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague." The story shows that faith is personal allegiance to a personal Christ. Many of us need simpler ideas and teaching about saving faith. Christ saves, not a creed; Christ saves, not a church; although creed and church are important and must find their place in the life of the saved sinner. The woman got more than she asked; the experience of every believing, loyal, trusting soul is, "My cup runneth over."

Confession.

Who touched me? Christ waits for the answer, although the disciples said unto him, "Thou seest the multitude thronging to thee, and sayest thou, who touched me?" And Jesus waits until the woman tells him all the truth and goes away not only with a healed body but with her sins forgiven and the affectionate approval of Jesus. There is a vast difference between thronging about Christ and touching him; the supreme thing is to get at him. Having received blessing from Christ it is our duty to make his will our life and to confess him before others, because we love him and because we want to help others.

Has there been disease, disappointment, despair in your life? Reach out and touch Jesus. Think of his power until you say, God can save; think of his love until you can say, God will save; then the touch of faith will bring a change—conscious, complete, confessed. Jesus meets the peculiar need of each soul: pardon to the penitent, justification to the guilty, cleansing to the impure. You should come to him waiting for nothing; so coming Christ will receive you. God's mercy is greater than all the sins of the world; there is salvation for you if you will have it.

"She only touched the hem of his garment. As to his side she stole: Amid the crowd that gathered around him, And straightway she was made whole. Oh, touch the hem of his garment, And thou, too, shalt be free: His saving power this very hour Shall give new life to thee."

"All the fitness he requires Is to feel your need of him."

BLUE AND DISCOURAGED

Mrs. Hamilton Tells How She Finally Found Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Warren, Ind.—"I was bothered terribly with female weakness. I had pains and was not regular, my head ached all the time, I had bearing down pains and my back hurt me the biggest part of the time, I was dizzy and had weak feelings when I would stoop over, it hurt me to walk any distance and I felt blue and discouraged.

"I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now in good health. If it had not been for that medicine I would have been in my grave a long time ago."—Mrs. ARTIE E. HAMILTON, R. F. D. No. 6, Warren, Ind.

Another Case. Esmond, R. I.—"I write to tell you how much good your medicine has done me and to let other women know that there is help for them. I suffered with bearing down pains, headache, was irregular and felt blue and depressed all the time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and commenced to gain in a short time and I am a well woman today. I am on my feet from early morning until late at night running a boarding house and do all my own work. I hope that many suffering women will try your medicine. It makes happier wives and mothers."—Mrs. ANNA HANSEN, Esmond, Rhode Island.

Wanted Burden Lifted. Leonard is only four years old, but he frequently uses expressions amazingly mature. The other day, for instance, he appealed to a devoted young aunt to remove from his sphere of existence the new little baby sister of whom he had become jealous. The tiny lad was at some pains to explain that while he didn't want baby himself, she was so sweet and dear that plenty of other people would.

"But why don't you want to keep her, Leonard?" asked auntie, divided between surprise and amusement. "Oh, she's such a bother, an' mamma has to fuss with her so much, an' she makes me just suffer," the youngster gravely explained.

Women Won Honors at Cambridge. Women have distinguished themselves this year at Cambridge, England. In the mediaeval and modern languages trips first class honors were gained by 14, 8 of whom were women and 6 of whom were men. In Class I 35 passed, of whom 24 were women and 11 were men. In Class II, 13 men and 8 women passed. Five of the women who gained first class honors were from Girtton, 2 from Newham. In Part II of class I, 3 Newham women gained first class honors. In history, Part I, a Girtton woman, Miss N. G. Smith, shared highest honors with men. And a Girtton woman, Miss T. Day, took a second class in Part II. of the theological trips. This trips has been taken by only one other woman besides Miss Day. That was back in 1882.

NOT YET THE SINLESS WORLD

Spanish Penology Expert Illustrates Point With an Appropriate "Watermelon" Story.

Senor Fernando Cadalso, Spain's inspector general of prisons, said recently in New York that he thought the time had not yet come for the abolition of capital punishment. "The world is not yet civilized enough for this advance," he continued. "The world, you know, is still a good deal in the state of the colored people in the watermelon story. I heard this story from one of your clever southern editors. He said that a man was a good deal troubled by thieves in his watermelon patch and so he called up his old gardener and began:

"Uncle Eli, I'm trying an experiment with Doc Sawyer in the south watermelon patch. The melons there are a poison variety, and if any of your colored friends touch them they'll be killed, sure. You'd better warn them, hadn't you?"

"Sartently I had, sah," said Uncle Eli. "I'll warn 'em, sah. Trust me."

"And do you think your warning'll have any effect? Do you think it will protect the south patch from theft?"

"What I thinks, sah," said Uncle Eli, scratching his head, "is dat there'll be a lot o' dade niggers round dat patch, dat's what I thinks, sah."

BOUND TO HAVE EXCITEMENT Without Proper Materials for Gambling, "Germany" Schaefer Proposes to Utilize Household Articles.

"Germany Schaefer, the Senators' clown-coach, just can't resist gambling. He once attended a party given by a friend, and as everything was convivial, Germany suggested that a little gambling be done. "Have you any cards in the house?" he asked the lady of the house.

"No, Mr. Schaefer, we don't have card playing here."

"Well, have you got some dice?" Schaefer insisted.

"I tell you," said the lady, a little testily, "we don't allow gambling of any sort."

"Well, have you got any wash-tubs in the cellar?" inquired the persistent Schaefer.

"Certainly we have. There are half a dozen tubs down there."

"Well, for the love of mud," belted Herman, "get me three tubs and a watermelon, and I'll work the three-shell game."—New York American.

Rathenow. Rathenow—where King George broke his journey to Berlin in order to inspect the squadron of Ziethen Hussars commanded by the royal bridegroom, Prince Ernest of Cumberland—is a sleepy little market town in the mark of Brandenburg, about forty miles from the capital and only a few from Schonhausen, the ancestral seat and birthplace of Bismarck. It was at Rathenow where Otto von Bismarck, a bearded young Junker, presented himself for election to Prussia's first approach to a parliament. The electors showed their presence by stoning the man who was destined to create the new German empire.

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS, TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without your or your physician's knowledge of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Alexander Stephens as a Lawyer. In his own profession of the law Alexander H. Stephens' fine intellectual sincerity stands out fully, and well proves that success requires neither dishonesty nor shuffling. "What business do you follow, Alex?" said his uncle to him in the early days. "I am a lawyer." After an ominous silence the uncle spoke again. "Alex, don't you have to tell lies?" Alex did not have to tell lies. Hear what he says, reviewing his career in old age: "No advocate should ever assert as matter of fact in his client's case what he knows is not such; any code of morals justifying him in this does not deserve the name." And again, more personally: "My rule from the time I was admitted to the bar was: First, to investigate a case submitted to me to inquire into the facts and the law applicable to it; then, if I did not believe the party entitled to success before the court, I told him so and declined to appear or prosecute the case."—Gamaliel Bradford, Jr., in the Atlantic.
