Man and Woman

Jointly Govern "Home."

Quoted from Pictorial Review—November, 1913.

"Together, men and women have made a mighty success of the home where equality exists, and a near-success of the school and the church where equality is less perfect, but still extant.
Why not in government?"

Lawmakers, political officials high and low, hire women to assist them in the work of the government as stenographers, as clerks, yes, as confidential secretaries —I almost said "advisors." They turn over to these women all the intricacies of their office routine. But they will not entrust them with the ballot. They make the women custodians of office secrets. But they are not brave enough to admit openly the office equality which exists in secret. They are not strong enough to acknowledge the existence of sex dependence, the great motive power of society.

We are passing through a curious evolution in economic relations between men and women. Through the invention of machinery, man drove woman out of the home into the industrial world.
When he discovered how efficient she was, he became afraid of her. He said to himself:

"Look at this creature to whom I gave the chance to become self-supporting.
Her independence is going to her head.
She thinks she is as smart as I am, with a machine; with figures, with business routine. She is becoming aggressive. If I don't curb her, she will be running my business and ME!"

We are suffering from a regular sex panic. It is disconcerting to the man and nerve-racking to the woman. The true woman, in business or in the home, in politics or in the church, does not really want to run things. She wants a man to help her run them. The aggressive woman is the exception, not the rule.
She is abnormal, not normal.
And almost always she is secretly unhappy. The true woman demands interdependence. She knows that she needs male companionship, spiritual male support, as much in success as in failure.

Maroon a hundred modern men alone on an island and they will soon be cutting each other's throats. Maroon the same number of woman and they will soon be cutting their own. Maroon the two hundred, together and what happens? After running up a flag of distress, they will calmly set about organizing a form of government, establishing a church, marrying, building homes, and establishing a civilization of their own!

Man deprived of the companionship, physical and mental, of woman becomes a brute. Woman deprived of all comradeship with men becomes either insane or aggressively masculine and coarse.
Neither is truly happy without the other.
They may not admit this, but in their secret hearts they know it.

And yet we are afraid that given the ballot, woman will defy man and learn to get along very nicely without him.
How little we understand her! She may shout for the right to govern, but directly she gets it she will demand that man help her at the task and then she will make sure that he helps her in the most effective way."

The New Canning Factory.

A cement floor is now being put down in the new canning factory building and the machinery is all on the ground, and it is probable that the factory will be in operation in the course of two or three weeks.
Sweet potatoes, pumpkins and syrup will be canned there this season.
The management is very anxious to have the many farmers call and see them and make arrangements for growing produce for the factory.
Mr. J. O. Hughes is in the office and will be glad to have the farmers call and get in touch with the plans of the business.

As Soon as All Resign, the Resignations will be Forwarded to the Governor, who will Order Elections in the Different Wards.

Felix Leleux, first ward, tendered resignation Tuesday.
Ernest Brasseux, president, second ward, tendered resignation Thursday.

Belizaire Broussard, fourth ward, tendered resignation Thursday.

Jules J. Simon, sixth ward, tendered resignation Tuesday.
Geo. W. Stansbury, seventh ward, tendered resignation Thursday.

Caesar Broussard, eighth ward, tendered resignation Friday Rom. P. Lenlauc, secretary, tendered resignation Wednesday, to take effect when successor is chosen.

The one from the fifth ward, E. B. Hoffpauir, is expected in today, and it is thought will tender his resignation.

Indignation Meeting Scheduled for Today---To Be Held at Court House

As a result of the meeting of the citizens and tax payers, held Saturday, there is scheduled for today, at 2 p. m., a big indignation meeting, to be held at the court house. Circulars telling of the meeting have been mailed broadcast over practically the entire parish.

There seems to be a strong determination of the citizens to have the members of the police jury step out of office, and it is hinted that resolutions will likely be passed demanding the members of the police jury to resign, and that in case the members would not do as requested, they will ask that impeachment proceeding be brought against them.

Just how the indignation meeting today will turn out, and as to what steps will be taken is hard to say, as already, members of the police jury have resigned, in fact all but one has resigned, and that one is expected to come in today and give in his resignation.

Citizens Assemble.

Quite an interesting assemblage of the citizens and taxpayers of this parish assembled here Saturday afternoon, and interested themselves in the affairs of the parish.
There were about fifty or more present.

The purpose of the assemblage was to protest against the manner in which the affairs of the parish have been managed, and it was evident that those present at the meeting will look toward the improvement of the condition of the parish, financially.

The report of the supervisor of public accounts was read, after which they adopted a resolution endorsing the action of the district attorney, John Nugier in the course he has pursued, in asking the governor to send an auditor here to examine the books and records of the parish police jury, and of the action Mr.
Nugier has taken thus far in the matter.

There will be another big meeting this afternoon at the court house.

Mr. W. D. Gooch was made chairman of the meeting, and Mr.
W. E. Villemez secretary. Among the present were H. C. Ewing, J.
B. Becker, E. Erath, Camille Toups, Robert Toups, H. J. Stansbury, Bernard Touchet, J. P. Jones, Adonis Dronet, M. L. Eldredge, W. B. Richardson, J. L. Ledet, Westley Schriever, H. W. Schriever, Felix Chauvin, Jos. S. Ewell, Joe Stansbury, Adrien Choate, Henry Moss, Jesse McPherson, Arthur Rendall, Zack Griffin, Ensebe Ledet, Ovey Broussard, Melien Lebeouf, Paulin Lebeouf, Arthur Trahan, Harry Durke, H. B. Sere and others.

Adopts Resolution.

The following resolution was adopted by the executive committee of the Southwest Louisiana Development Bureau, Lafayette, La., Oct. 22, 1913.

"Whereas an embargo under the national quarantine laws prevents the importation of cattle to this district through the port of New Orleans and Morgan City, and,

"Whereas this district consumes approximately 45,000 head of cattle annually upon which a saving in freight of over $100,000 per annum could be effected were these ports opened, and,

"Whereas this district could easily feed 500,000 head of cattle and there is a movement on foot to stop off Mexican and South American cattle for feeding here and finishing for the primary markets, a movement which must inure to the great profit of the farmers here; and,

"Whereas, we believe this embargo to be unjustly and unnecessarily discriminative not only to the above ports but to the people of this district and state, therefore,

"Be it resolved that the management of this bureau be, and hereby is instructed to make thorough investigation, and to urge upon our congressmen and on the senators from this state the necessity of removing these restrictions either by departmental order or emergency legislation as may be necessary."
