

Fall Clothing For The Entire Family

We have a most wonderful assortment of Ladies' Suits, Coats, Dresses, Middy Suits, Shirts and Waists. We invite you to inspect our line before the best numbers are sold. If you are not ready to buy, come and look any Way.

Men Young Men and Boys

See our Suits, Hats Overcoats, etc. A wonderful line to select from. Come see us.

—at McConathy's

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

By Mrs. D. E. Brown, Jr. Telephone No. 34

All items of interest for this page are solicited. Communications to reach us Tuesday by noon.

Mrs. Ware has as her guest, her mother, Mrs. Adams of Bryceland.

Mrs. J. B. Herring is at home again from a visit to Asheville, N. C.

Miss Susie Ferguson is visiting Jonesboro this week.

Mrs. B. A. Brewer and George Arrived at home last week from their delightful visit to Alto.

666 has more imitations than any other Chill and Fever Tonic on the market, but no one wants imitations in medicine. They are dangerous. 10-2.

Mr. J. L. Lyons of Homer, is the honored guest of his son, Mr. Y. M. Lyons and family.

Mrs. Searcy McGuire and baby Jack, returned from Shreveport on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Atkins and daughter, Margaret, motored over from Ruston on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown and son, Hollis, of Homer, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Aycock on Sunday.

Miss Mary Helen Key, is welcomed back in the high school. She is in the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Jordan.

The meeting adjourned subject to call by the president, when the organization will be perfected.

Mr. Lawton Whitlow of Leesville was a guest of Miss Inez Baker on Sunday.

Mrs. H. E. King and daughter Myrtle, of Eunice, are visiting Mr. King's sister, Mrs. W. J. Murphy and family.

HERBINE is the medicine that cures malarial fever and constipation. The first dose makes you feel better, a few additional doses cures completely. Sold by the Modern Pharmacy, Inc.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ozley have returned from Dallas, Texas. They were accompanied home by Miss Lucile Galloway.

Miss Verdine Robinson, who has had a business position at Dallas, Texas, for several months, is at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Robinson.

Miss Drew Noland of Shreveport, and brother Clyde Noland, of Homer, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Madden.

Mr. R. M. Jones and Miss Vera reached home on Tuesday night from their western tour, which was full of interesting events.

Miss Frances Davenport, of Mer Rouge, after a pleasant visit to Miss Jessie Fay Sherard, has returned to her home.

Ruby-My-Tism is a great pain killer. It relieves pain and soreness caused by Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sprains, etc. 10-2

Capt. and Mrs. J. C. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Andrews and children have returned from Hot Springs where they spent sometime.

Mr. Eugene Houston, who is taking his vacation; also Mr. Elmo Houston are guests of their mother, Mrs. Houston and sister, Miss Addie Houston.

Supt. E. H. Fisher, went to Shreveport on Monday to accompany Mrs. Fisher home from the sanitarium. She is feeling much benefited.

FURNISHED ROOMS.—Two nicely furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Apply at Democrat office.—(MF) 9-11-10.

Mr. Clyde McConathy's friends are glad to know that he is so much improved. He is allowed to sit up for a short time.

Mr. D. E. Brown returned home Saturday from a business trip to West Texas. He was accompanied by his son, Henry Brown, who has spent the entire vacation working in the wheat harvest.

Mrs. W. D. Goff and children spent last week-end very pleasantly with Mrs. Mitchell in Simsboro. It was the occasion of a pleasant reunion of the entire family.

The habit of "putting it off" has caused the loss of many lives. A dose of Prickly Ash Bitters at the first sign of indigestion, constipation and kidney trouble wards off sickness and saves money. Men who are good managers should always keep a bottle on the shelf at home. Price $1.25 per bottle. City Drug Co., Special Agents.

Mrs. G. L. Shields, of Shreveport came over to re-entree her daughter Elizabeth in the Arcadia high school. They are for the present in the home of Mrs. S. L. Houston.

Miss Alys Bond is at her post of duty again in the domestic science room, and her friends extend her cordial welcome. She is with Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Baruette.

Friends here of Mrs. Cora Jones Leary, are interested to know that she has accepted the position as matron of the L. I. I. at Ruston. Mrs. Leary is one of the most popular and efficient teachers at L. I. I.

Messrs. J. S. McConathy, Dr. Mosely, Julius Williams, Dr. Curtis Williams and P. E. Brown went up to Homer in Mr. McConathy's car Tuesday afternoon to see the new big oil gusher that is causing such excitement there.

If you feel bad; if you are "blue," tired and discouraged, without apparent reason, you need Prickly Ash Bitters, the system purifier. It restores action in the torpid liver, cleanses the stomach, helps digestion, drives out gas and fermented matter in the bowels, and brings back that fine feeling of strength, vim and cheerfulness which only men in perfect health enjoy. Price $1.25 per bottle. City Drug Co., Special Agents.

Miss. Friends of Mr. Claud Booth are glad to know that he is back home again, from the army of occupation in Germany.

Messrs. James and H. R. Singleton, who have been frequent visitors to Arcadia, this summer, in the home of their uncle, Mr. Blanton Theus, are among the early departures for school. James will attend Washington University, and H. R. will be a student at Tulane University at New Orleans.

A telegram from Lieut. (Dr.) Beeson Conger, who has recently arrived from overseas, informs his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Conger, that he is going through the usual procedure of discharge, and expects to leave very soon for home. His brother, Mr. Ed Conger, of Shenectady, N. Y., has been spending several days with him. His many friends here as well as his parents anxiously await his home-coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grigsby and Mr. and Mrs. Blanton Theus, chaperoned a party of young people on a camp at Black Lake, near Salles. They went down on Wednesday and remained 'til Friday. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grigsby and children; Mr. and Mrs. Blanton Theus and little daughter; Misses Gladys Conger, Lada Reynolds, Jessie Fay Sherard and her visitor, Miss Frances Davenport; Mr. and Mrs. Will Dumbly of Shreveport; Messrs. Floyd Brewer, Dr. Billy and Henry James, James and H. R. Singleton, Clint Rogers, Dr. Curtis Williams, Messrs. Elmer Davies, Lorris Wimberly, Will Sam Kendall, of Ruston.

The Methodist W. M. Society convened on Monday in a called session for the purpose of reviving their organization, which during the heated term has had no meetings. Mrs. Ber Ferguson, the president, conducted the session. They decided to meet weekly at private homes and continue the study of "training for service," and the 1200 Bible questions. The fourth meeting of each month will be social. These ladies have done good work and

Brooke & Grigsby OIL LEASES

Room 6 Tooke Bldg. Phone 60

NOTICE
Automobile riding is strictly cash. Pay when you get out of the car. F. J. Roberson. 23-21.

Major (Dr.) Charles Mosely, who was stationed during the war period at the Army and Navy Hospital, Hot Springs, is the guest this week of his brother, Dr. J. M. Mosely. His family are also visiting homefolks in North Louisiana.

Mrs. R. D. Sims visited Ruston relatives last week. While there she had the pleasure of attending the big barbecue on Wednesday given for returned soldiers of Lincoln parish. It was a great occasion for Ruston and every one enjoyed it to the fullest.

Oil Leases
IT WILL BE TO YOUR INTEREST TO SEE ME BEFORE LEASING YOUR LAND.
H. J. Giddens
Ringgold, La.

Miss Annie Laurie Cook of Ringgold, was a guest on Friday night, of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cook, en route to Lake Providence where she is a member of the high school faculty.

Miss Effie Ragan, who spent the arrivals in Natchitoches, is one of the arrivals to resume her school duties here. She is with her sister, Mrs. Pollard Williams.

If your child is pale and sickly, picks at the nose, starts in the sleep and grinds the teeth while sleeping, it is a sure sign of worms. A remedy for these parasites will be found in WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE. It not only clears out the worms, but it restores health and cheerfulness. Sold by Modern Pharmacy, Inc., Druggist.

Miss Hattie D. Caldwell expects to leave the latter part of the week for Tallulah, where she will enter upon her responsibilities as Parish Supervisor of Schools.

Miss Lena Durrett, of the Zion Hill neighborhood, is attending the Pineville School. Miss Bell Williams also of Zion Hill is a student at the State Normal.

Mrs. Ella Scott is expecting her niece, Miss Lois Tarbutton, who has been spending some time at home, to arrive this week to re-enter the high school.

Mrs. Cecil Thomson, (remembered by her many friends here, as Miss Jessie Boyd) and baby girl, and sister, Mary Louis Boyd, of Monroe, have been visitors to their grandmother, Mrs. S. L. Houston, this week.

A wire was received on Monday by Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jones with the glad news of the arrival from overseas of their son, Mr. Alf Jones. They hope that he will be at home in a very few days.

Rev. W. H. Jordan left on Monday with his daughter, Miss Bessie to enter her in the Martha Washington College in Virginia. Miss Bessie will be very much missed by her friends, whose best wishes accompany her.

Mr. J. E. Wemple arrived home Saturday morning from a month's stay in Mineral Wells, Texas. Other arrivals from Mineral Wells, are L. M. Tooke and daughter, Miss Mary Louis, Mrs. Tooke and Lou Annie will remain a while longer in Mineral Wells.

Miss Katie Dumbly of Shreveport was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Blanton Theus, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Dumbly also of Shreveport, came on Sunday. The latter also were members of the camping trip at Black Lake.

Mrs. James Stone and handsome little son, James Howard, of Mansfield, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyons' family for a short time this week. Mrs. Stone (Mary Head) went on Tuesday to Mt. Lebanon to visit her mother, Mrs. J. D. Head, who is with her sister, Miss Ila Hardy.

Mrs. Thomson from Nashville, Tenn. is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Wagner for the winter. Principal Wagner and Mrs. Wagner also had Sunday guests. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Dewees and children, Eddie May and Jack from Bienville. The children spent the day and their parents came for them in their car in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a little daughter in their on Monday morning, who will be called Lucile. She weighs about 8 pounds and is a very bonnie looking lassie. Her grandmother, Mrs. Wade, arrived on Monday night to make the acquaintance of the little lady. Both mother and daughter are doing nicely.

Mrs. Clara Yarborough, who has been in Shreveport for some time with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Barriette is now with Mrs. B. Capers and family. Mrs. Capers has also as her guest, her sister, Mrs. Tom Booth of West Point.

we are sure that much interest will be revived after a short vacation—especially with such live plans.

Community Betterment Club

At the close of the Chautauqua program on Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Cross after her very interesting lecture requested the men and women present to meet her in a brief conference to discuss home and community problems, etc. A club was organized, called the "Community Betterment Club," which proposes to take in the men, women and children (above 12 years old) in town, who will work for the building up and progress of Arcadia, whose purpose it will be to improve the town.

Officers elected, were as follows: President, Leo Daniel; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. D. E. Brown; 2nd Vice-President, Rev. W. H. Jordan; 3rd Vice-President, Mrs. Pollard Williams; Secretary, Mrs. B. A. Brewer; Treasurer, Mr. P. A. McGuire.

Committee chairman: Civic, Mr. J. S. McConathy. Sanitation, Mrs. Y. M. Lyons. Playground and recreation equipment, Principal Wagner. Enrollment and Finance, Miss Jewel McGuire.

Rest-room, Mrs. V. C. Pipes. Constitution and By-Laws, Mrs. S. A. Cook.

Monday evening the official board met in the president's office for a brief business session and other steps were taken in the interest of the organization.

RENEW YOUR SUBSCRIPTION TO THE DEMOCRAT.

J. S. WILLIAMS
Notary Public
Office in
J. S. McConathy's
Arcadia, La.

J. T. REEB
Attorney at Law
Office on Courthouse
Arcadia, La.

R. L. WILLIAMS
Attorney at Law
Arcadia, La.
Will practice in all courts.

FOSTER & TAYLOR
Lawyer and Surety
Office on Court
Arcadia, La.

W. D. Goff
Lawyer and
Attorney at Law
Practice in State
Federal Court
Office near Court
Arcadia, La.

THE HIGH COST OF LIFE

Is rather aggravating now. BUT THINK of the HIGH COST OF DYING would mean your folks if you should leave them without protection.

It's such an easy matter to join our company,

Bienville Parish Mutual Protective Association

by paying $2.75 to join and no other until a member dies. Our death rate been only nine deaths in three years.

P. E. BROWN, Secretary

GOOD GROCERIES AT POPULAR PRICES

It is not necessary to pay fancy prices for good reliable quality in Groceries.

You will find our stocks representative of the best qualities and our prices most reasonable.

ELTON BARNETTE

Phone 123

School Books Sold For CASH ONLY

OWING to the fact that Schools are handled at a very small profit, made even smaller by marked increase in freight rates, we find ourselves compelled to ask our customers to pay CASH for all school books in the future.

Remember that this drug store is the headquarters for all kinds of school books, school supplies, such as pencils, pens, tablets, composition books, rules, etc.

City Drug Company

Phone 76.