Brewer entertained on Saturday. The principal feature, and quite a spirited

Shreveport consequently has to spend his time there.

Another enjoyable Halloween party was given by Miss Esther Belle Mosely, whose guests enjoyed a lively game of Bunco. Apples, bananas, etc., were served, after which the young folks went up to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alwyn Hightower and spent a short time pleasantly.

Miss Dorothy Deas entertained about thirty members of the younger set on Halloween night. All kinds of Halloween games were enjoyed, such as "bobbing for apples," toasting marshmallows, etc. Miss Stella Crowson dressed as a witch, told fortunes. The guests were all masked and everybody had bushels of fun. Stick candy, peanuts, apples and muscadine punch were served.

Heartburn, heaviness in the stomach, bloated feeling, coated tongue, bad breath, dizziness and vertigo (blind staggers) can be quickly relieved by Prickly Ash Bitters. Men who have used it say they can eat heartily without misery, where before they tried it the most healthful food seemed to get them out of fix. Price $1.25 per bottle. Death of Mrs. Mary Goff.

The friends of Mrs. Mary Goff were deeply grieved when they learned on Wednesday morning that she was no more. The announcement of her death did not come as a surprise for she had been in failing health for some time. Her strong will power and courageous spirit would not succumb to disease however, and she refused to take her bed, until just a short time before her end. She suffered much, but bore it with patience and resignation. Death came as a sweet release from her suffering on Tuesday night. Her daughters, who survive her, are Mrs. Harvill of Sibley, Mrs. Clarence Rudy of Shreveport, and Misses Winnie and Amy Goff all of whom were at her bedside when she died. She has several grand children. Rev. Jordan conducted the funeral service at the residence, in the presence of a large assemblage of sorrowing relatives and friends. Many beautiful floral offerings were the tribute of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Harvill and children, Mrs. Rudy and Mrs. Madden of Simsboro, were the out-of-town relatives present. To the bereaved family, the sympathy of Arcadia friends is extended.

The musical program given on Saturday afternoon at the High School building by Mrs. Effie Howell's junior music pupils—the Gounod Club members, assisted by Misses Stella Crowson and Nita Auld, was splendidly rendered, as given, sometime ago, and which had to be postponed on account of the inclement weather. A special feature of the music, was that all piano solos were rendered without the music. The audience was heartily pleased with the entertainment and the patrons with the splendid progress of the pupils, which speaks for Mrs. Howell's efficiency as a teacher.

Mrs. W. D. Goff entertained the young friends of her daughters, Louise and Mildred on Halloween. Quite a number of little folks, all dressed as ghosts and hobgoblins, were present, and a very hilarious time followed. Refreshments appropriate to the occasion were served after the various Halloween games were enjoyed. Mrs. Jos. Andrews and Mrs. J. B. Hering assisted Mrs. Goff in entertaining the young folks.

Quite the most elaborate and beautiful social function given in Arcadia for some time was the Halloween party, which had for hostesses Misses Addie Houston, Jewel McGuire and Gladys Conger. In keeping with the mysterious associations of Halloween, the place of meeting was kept secret, the only clue being given in the appropriate invitation to meet, where the lighted lantern was hanging out. The young people, after an interesting search over town were led by the lantern to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goff. The young ladies were in mask, but not the young men except two of our most popular boys, boys who were so cleverly masked, as to lose their identity entirely and were supposed to be charming maidens. These were Messrs. Lamar Taylor and Malcolm Currie and the little ruse caused quite a bit of fun. The young men then selected their "partners" and all went to the home of Miss Addie Houston where most elaborate preparations had been made for the occasion. The entire house presented an air of mystery and gloom being inhabited by hobgoblins, witches, owls and black cats. Miss Gladys Conger in a most complete witch's costume, served the guests on arriving, a most delicious fruit punch from her seething cauldron, (departing from the usual custom of serving salt water.) There was a fortune telling booth which was a very amusing feature. Mrs. C. A. Tooke, quite unknown to any, so complete was her disguise, told everybody's fortune, also giving them written fortunes. Then they played

"bobbing for apples" and other Halloween games. The table out on the broad screened porch was really a most artistic success. Above the table was suspended a lighted lantern from which fringed ropes of black and yellow were suspended to the table corners. The center piece was a huge pumpkin, with a light inside, around which was a border of black cats. The favors were pretty little conceits of yellow owls. Table napkins also carried out the idea of cats and owls. The refreshments served were chicken salad, crackers, pickles, olives and lead tea. About 25 guests were present.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF
Girls! Try It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life and if it is not overcome produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knoviton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
