

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

By Mrs. D. E. Brown, Jr. Telephone No. 34

Miss Luda Reynolds visited Shreveport last Saturday.

March 1st is the last day of our big sale.—Peoples Hardware Co., Arcadia.

Dr. Curtis Williams is in Atlanta, Ga., taking a special course in Dentistry.

Miss Maude Harkness, of Minden, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Addie Houston.

Mrs. J. T. Fisher, of Shreveport, is visiting in the home of her mother Mrs. Frank Taylor during the latter's visit to Baton Rouge.

Mrs. S. A. Honaker, who has been in Shreveport for several weeks in the interest of her health has returned to her home here, very much improved.

FREE! FREE! FREE! a "Range Eternal"—the best range on earth.—Peoples Hardware Co., Inc., Arcadia.

Mrs. J. A. Bryan and children have returned from a visit to relatives in Bryceland. Mr. Bryan was also making a business visit to New Orleans.

Mrs. F. T. Taylor, president of the Methodist W. M. S., and Mrs. H. N. Brown left Sunday to attend the State Conference of Woman's Missionary workers in Baton Rouge, which meets this week.

The insurance firm of Daniel, Bryan & Turner are making extensive improvements in their office, in the way of installing commodious filing space for the many different forms the business requires.

You and your friends are invited to be present next Tuesday, March 1 at 3:30 p. m. to see the "Range Eternal" given away.—PEOPLES HARDWARE CO., Inc.

Miss Leechman, of Dallas, Texas, was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Tooke and family. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Tooke and Miss Mary Lou, to New Orleans on Sunday.

Friends of Mrs. T. M. Byrd are glad to know of her recovery after a serious attack of rheumatism. One pleasant thing about it however, was the fact, that her friend, Mrs. Harrison, of Dubach was with her and being an excellent nurse she had the best care.

Mr. Fugua and little daughter, from Kansas, were guests on Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Pollard Williams. Mr. Fugua's friends extend their deepest sympathy on account of the irreparable loss he has recently sustained in the death of his wife.

Come in and look over the many bargains I have to offer, and you will be thoroughly convinced that I am selling everything in my store at a great saving.—Wilson Williams.

Mrs. C. T. Cook, of Ringgold, arrived Monday and is the guest for the week of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cook. She was accompanied by her husband who stopped over Monday night while enroute to points in Arkansas, where Mrs. Cook expects to join him within a few days.

Dr. A. B. Nelson, of Shreveport, has a large number of friends here who are much concerned about the serious condition of his health. He and Mrs. Nelson have been in Albuquerque, N. M., for some time and he has recently suffered a relapse after an attack of pneumonia. It is very much hoped that he will soon be convalescent.

Dr. Collins, of Delhi, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rammelsberg, who are new residents of our town, having recently moved into the home vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson. Mr. and Mrs. Rammelsberg have been living in Delhi for the past 4 years, but are originally from New York.

If you want to buy Dry Goods, Shoes or Groceries cheap, then come to my store.—Wilson Williams.

Mr. C. C. Travis has sold his home to Mr. McDowell, who will move into it next week. We are glad to welcome Mr. McDowell with family, a permanent addition to Arcadia. Mrs. Travis and Paula Catherine will visit their friends and relatives in Shreveport until they are located again. They do not intend to leave Arcadia.

Miss Vera Jones left Saturday to join her father, Mr. R. M. Jones, who is visiting relatives at Oakliff. To-day she left this week to visit her father in Florida. Mr. Jones had a young son, who died and was buried in Florida many years ago, after going there in search of health. Mr. Jones had never visited the place of his brother's burial (Baton Rouge), and now he has carried out a very natural and great desire to pay a visit to the hallowed spot.

The good ladies of the Alabama Church, announce that they will entertain the W. M. U. of the Bethlehem Association, at an all-day association meeting of the 4th of March (Friday week), at the Alabama church. They hope that a large crowd of visitors and delegates will be present. The Baptist W. M. S. of Arcadia, have appointed a transportation committee, who will see that a conveyance will meet the out-of-town visitors and carry them to the Alabama church.

One of the Large Old Line Life Insurance Companies desires to secure the service of a good representative in Arcadia and vicinity. This is a wonderful opportunity to increase your income. If interested write Box 300, Shreveport, La., giving your age and occupation.

W. B. and William Barnett, 607 1/2 BARNETTE, Shreveport, La.

The biggest stock of Hardware and Farm Implements in North Louisiana on sale at reduced prices.—Peoples Hardware Co., Inc., Arcadia.

The Gounod Club, which is composed of Mrs. Howell's music class, enjoyed a delightful valentine party last week. The details of this delightful occasion were written up by Mrs. D. E. Brown, who edits the Democrat's social column and sent down with other matter last week, but this item was lost before reaching this office, and therefore did not appear in last week's paper. This was through no fault of Mrs. Brown nor ourselves, and only came to our notice as we are about to go to press. It is needless to say how ever, the occasion was a delightful one and thoroughly enjoyed by all who participated, and was in every way deserving of special mention in these columns.—Editor.

Last Friday the Baptist W. M. S. held an interesting meeting in the home of Mrs. John Smelley. Mrs. Bert Davis presided and made a very inspiring talk. She also made an eloquent plea in behalf of the Sunday School, asking the cooperation of the society. Mrs. Caskey then took charge of the Bible lesson and conducted it in a very able and interesting manner. The lesson was from the New Testament and histories of the different books on Epistles from St. Paul were discussed. Mrs. Caskey's remarks were both timely and sincere. The hostess served hot chocolate with whipped cream and a variety of cake, assisted by her sisters, Mrs. Garland Howell, Misses Ermine Allen and Mary Lee Ozley.

Just a few more days left in which you have an opportunity to buy Hardware and Farm Implements at reduced prices.—Peoples Hardware Co.

The friends here of the Goff family sympathize very deeply with them in their sad bereavement, which they have suffered in the death on Sunday of their sister and aunt, Miss Alice Goff, of Simsboro. She passed away at the home of her brother, Mr. Robt. Goff after an illness of many months. She was in Arcadia, however, only a couple of weeks. A good many Arcadia relatives and friends accompanied the remains to Simsboro, and went later through the country to attend the funeral, which was conducted at the home of the deceased by the pastor of the Baptist church at that place. There was a large concourse of Simsboro friends present. The remains were interred in the cemetery at that place. The friends and relatives who attended the funeral were her brother, Mr. Robt. Goff, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Goff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goff, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Davis, Mrs. Joe Reeves; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bryant, Mrs. Madden, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Theus, Mrs. Ida Williamson, Mrs. B. A. Brewer, Mrs. J. B. Herring, Mrs. D. E. Brown, Mr. Bertram Barnett, Mr. Seary McGuire, Miss Jewel McGuire, Mr. Ira McConathy, Mr. A. P. White and Miss Lillian Goff, of Shreveport.

The best musical treat of the season will be the "Swiss Bell Ringers"—coming March 10th. Get tickets early.

ARCADIA HIGH SCHOOL NOTES
Mr. Trudeau, the Assistant High School Inspector, spent Monday visiting the Arcadia High School. He investigated carefully every phase of the work throughout the whole school. Mr. Trudeau spoke in complimentary terms of our school, for which we are duly thankful. We are always glad to welcome to our midst, Mr. Trudeau or any other member of the State Department of Education. Most anxiously do we await the report of Mr. Trudeau, hoping that he found conditions such that would be conducive for one of which we can be justly proud.

Before the end of the week, there will be hanging on the walls of this school building, some beautiful pictures. These more than anything else will add to the appearance of the building as a whole and also to the individual rooms. It was our purpose to have these up before the institute, but there was some unavoidable delay which prevented it being done. We hope to give to those about us a greater appreciation of art, and instill in the pupils a love for beautiful and attractive pictures that were originally the work of the hand of an artist.

Let us not forget that we are to have a rare treat on the evening of March 10th, when we see and hear the Swiss Bell Ringers.
On Wednesday afternoon the boys' baseball team will play their first game for the spring season. The fact that our worthy firemen will meet the school team on the base ball

Mrs. Jack Davis Entertains
On Monday night, Feb. 14th Mrs. Jack Davis entertained in honor of the Senior Class of 1921.

The game of the evening was "Hearts," and as the guest arrived they were given a box containing 12 "Hearts." Every time one heard "yes" or "no" the offending parties had to forfeit a heart to the one first calling his or her attention. This contest lasted throughout the evening. Other interesting games, such as literary contest, blowing out candles, guessing names, etc., added to the pleasure of the evening.
The house was attractively decorated with hearts and cupid, the emblems of St. Valentine. This idea was carried out in the delicious refreshments of brick cream and cake.

The courtesies of the evening were expressed by the class officers, Ulysses Brunston, president; Price Aycock vice-president; Esther Belle Moseley, secretary, and Mr. Wagner. The senior class wishes to express their appreciation to their gracious hostess, Mrs. Davis for this evening's pleasure. Others who assisted Mrs. Davis in making the evening most enjoyable were Mrs. Henry Butler, Mrs. J. P. Wagner, Misses Farmer and Davis.

SWISS BELL RINGERS TO PLAY HERE THURSDAY, MARCH 10

The people of Arcadia are looking forward with much anticipation to the coming of the Swiss Bell Ringers, which is the last number of the Lyceum Course for this season, and we may safely say the best that has yet been offered us.

A more popular company would be hard to find, and the Swiss Bell Ringers attract large audiences wherever they go. The hearty receptions accorded this organization all over the country are due not only to the fact that they are skilled musicians, but to the personal magnetism of each member.

Their program will consist of something of interest to all classes, ranging from the popular songs of the day through the familiar old folks songs.

and Southern melodies to classical composition and grand opera, and the different instruments they will use consist of Organ Chimes, Mariambophone Saxophone, Xylophone, Musical Aluminum Tubes, Hungarian Dulcimer Violin, Mandolin, Banjo, Swiss Hand Bells, Violinello, Musical Roses, Ocarina, Harp and others in various combinations. Truly this will be a rare treat to all music lovers.
The Bell Ringers will give their musical recital at the Arcadia High School Auditorium on the evening of March 10th.

PERSONAL MENTION

I. E. Sutton, one of Bryceland's prominent citizens, was at the parish capitol Tuesday transacting business for the Bryceland Potato Curing Plant.

Mr. F. C. Burnette, constable of Mt. Lebanon, was here this week on business.

J. H. Pumphrey, of Gibsland, was among the out-of-town citizens who visited the courthouse this week.

BENEFIT PROGRAM BY CASTOR HIGH SCHOOL

A benefit program will be given by pupils and members of the Castor High School faculty on Saturday evening February 26th, the funds to be derived will be used in the interest of the school.

The program will consist of music, readings, vocal solos, and a play in three acts, entitled "Mrs. Brigg's Poultry Yard," the latter to be staged by the faculty.

An admittance fee of 25 cents will be charged and will doubtless net the school a substantial sum.
