TOWN AND COUNTRY.

A merry party of picnickers were out last Sunday chaperoned by Mrs. F. Rigues.

Misses Alix Judice and Lea Gladu visited Carcero Tuesday.

Mr. Jos. LeBlanc, of Royville, was a welcome visitor to our town Sunday.

We were pleased to meet our friend L. Tapissier, of Carcero, in town Monday.

Mrs. Couniff, of New Orleans, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Hahn.

Miss Estelle Gerac left Tuesday for a visit to friends in St. Martinville.

Miss Regina Romero is visiting friends and relatives in New Iberia.

Born to blush unbecomingly-colored ladies.

Cesar Mouton, of Abbeville, was in town this week calling on his many friends.

Felix Potier, a successful planter of St. Martin parish, was in Lafayette this week.

We received a very pleasant visit from Mr. B. F. Flanders Jr. of Royville, Monday.

Ladies and children haircutting at domicile. L. P. Bagarry.

Miss Lillie Broussard, of Patterson, La., has been on a visit to friends and relatives in Lafayette.

Mrs. Richard Coffey, now of Abbeville, is in town visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Neven.

Mrs. Wm. Kelly has returned from a pleasant visit to her cousin in New Orleans.

Miss Edie McConnell.

Miss Philomene Judice spent a few days in Royville, last week, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Geo. Sarant.

Miss Zaza Cornay was the guest of Miss Maude Young at Royville Friday and Saturday.

Misses Jessie Bassett, of Jeannette and Rita Rochel, of Patterson, were among the fair visitors to our town this week.

Miss Zerilda Bailey is spending some days in Broussardville with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Roy.

Mr. J. Revillon, Miss Louise, his grand-daughter, and Mrs. William Campbell, are sojourning in the Crescent city.

Mr. Ike Bendel, a popular young merchant of Lake Charles, was in town this week visiting his relatives, the Falks.

It is a standing rule in The Gazette job department to promptly deliver all work on the day promised.

A very enjoyable soiree d'amusante was given by the young people at Falk's Opera House Saturday.

The excursion to Opelousas tomorrow. Fare from Lafayette, round trip, 75 cents. Are you going?

One of the enjoyable picnics last Sunday was the one chaperoned by Mrs. Eli McDaniel.

Rt. Rev. Forge participated in the ceremonies attendant upon the celebration of the Catholic diocese of New Orleans on the 25th instant.

The High School fund has been enriched $110, being the net proceeds from the Little Diamonds entertainment. The expenses were only $15.

Remember all note and letter heads printed at The Gazette office are put up in tablet form with a blotter cover. A great convenience and saving the time of hunting up the blotting pad.

Judge G. H. Mouton is in Lafayette attending the present session of court, where he is interested in some cases. The judge, however, found time to call at The Gazette den.

Mr. Ove Savoie, one of the progressive citizens of the neighborhood of Youngsville, favored The Gazette with an appreciated call Thursday.

We are pained to hear that our good friend Alfred Hebert is on the sick list, but hope ere this number of The Gazette is printed to see him up and about and in the enjoyment of his accustomed good health.

Reports reaches this office that notwithstanding the cool spell presently experienced, retarding somewhat the growing crops, still every thing considered the outlook is very promising.

Mr. J. E. Trahan sold a piece of property in the neighborhood of the Catholic church to Mr. Walter Mouton recently, the consideration being $2500. Mr. Trahan proposes to build a residence next to his drugstore, which, when finished, will be occupied by his mother.

Through the kindness of Mr. A. Brower, the children of Mrs. H. Bailey's school enjoyed a picnic Friday. The day was spent with that boisterous merriment such as only children know how to create.

A very pleasant and enjoyable ice-cream party was given at the hospitable home of Mr. John Tierney last Sunday, in honor of her little daughter Annie May's first birthday. There were present about twenty children and as many grown persons.

We had the pleasure last evening of meeting Crow Girard, Esq., cashier of the People's Bank of Lafayette. He came up to witness the performance of "Bowler Land" by our local amateurs and was accompanied by the following ladies and gentlemen: Misses Lizzie Parkerson, Ada Moss, Lelia Nickerson, Haide and Stella Trahan, Dr. A. R. Trahan, and Mr. A. C. Ordway, editor of the Lafayette Advertiser.—New Iberia Enterprise.

Go to Bagarry for a good shave and hair cut.

The fifty odd street lamps ordered some time since by the city authorities have arrived and are being placed in different parts of town; combined with those we now have Lafayette can boast of having a first rate street light system, and one that will prove a great convenience to the public.

The suggestion of our neighbor, the Advertiser, for the calling of an immigration convention of the parishes of Vermilion, Iberia, Acadia and Lafayette, to be held in this town encompasses a splendid idea, and one to which The Gazette gives its warmest concurrence, and would further suggest that the parishes of St. Martin and St. Landry be added. We think an organization formed of representative men from each of these parishes could do a world of good.

Madame E. Mouton, as chaperone, and the Misses E. Mouton, Alix Judice, Almee Mouton, Minnie Cornay, Ada Moss, Marthe Mouton, and Nellie Bailey, and Messrs. H. H. Eastin, Henry Gerac, C. O. Couvillon, and George Guider, members of the Catholic choir, went out to Chargois' grove last Sunday to enjoy a picnic tendered them by Father Forge. They report having spent most enjoyable time.

The criminal docket at this session of court is a large one, and among the number of cases some are very serious, involving death should unqualified verdicts of guilty be returned. The trial of these cases must necessarily consume much time, but the judge, district attorney, and court officials seem to be willing to give their best efforts to expedite court affairs. Last Wednesday court opened at 10 o'clock, and continued in session, with only two short recesses, until 10 o'clock that night, and took an adjournment to 8:30 the next morning, thus demonstrating that our public officials are alive to the public interests, and for which they deserve much praise.

A Mistrial. The case of the State of Louisiana versus G. Derouen, for violation of the Sunday law was called up Tuesday and placed on trial. The best part of the day was devoted to the taking of evidence and arguments of the lawyers. The case was submitted to the jury early in the evening, and they retired for deliberation. At eight o'clock word was sent to the judge that the jury was unable to agree; the judge ordered the jury locked up for the night. At 10 o'clock next morning court was opened and the jury called in; still unable to agree the jury was discharged and mistrial entered. The jury stood eight for acquittal and four for conviction.

"Borderland." The local papers of New Iberia speak in high praise of the drama and acting of "Borderland" recently presented twice by the amateurs of the town.

The Gazette learns from its esteemed local contemporary that it is the intention of some ladies and gentlemen to put this play in rehearsal, with a view of soon presenting it to the public. We understand that it is proposed to give the proceeds to the High School fund.

The Gazette confidently predicts that those taking part in its presentation will score a hit, artistically and financially, because, we are assured, the material is at hand to insure the former, and the latter will follow. Sub rosa, (we take it), we heard the names of a few who will take part, and those, we are informed, have the ability and histrionic knowledge requisite to make their respective parts an artistic success. As soon as the full cast is decided upon—possibly it is settled now—we shall endeavor to secure it and present same to our readers.

A Lovely Spot. Situated on the beautiful Bayou Vermilion, one mile from the town of Lafayette, and owned by Major Southene Mouton, is the lovely and picturesque Beausejour park. Nature has, indeed, been lavish in her gifts to the Parish of Lafayette, and to no spot has she been more liberal in bestowing her favors than on this beautiful place.

There stands the large and umbrageous oaks, robed in silvery moss drapery, defying Ajax-like, the destructive hand of Time; the gorgeous verdure and flora of exquisite tints; and, the bubbling springs, the water of which is as clear as crystal,—the living evidence of Nature's masterful performance. To this, and which enhances very much the natural beauty of the place, is a large platform, architecturally tasty, and circular in form, for dancing; a rostrum, from which many an address has been delivered; a merry-go-round and see-saw, for the children; comfortable benches, for the weary; arbors, with growing trellis, sentimentally denominated lover's retreat; the ever-flowing spring, whose limpid, cool and invigorating water invite the thirsty; the well-arranged, neat bath-rooms, are some of the accessories that go towards making the whole the lovely place that it is. The major is contemplating some additional improvements, and on this line has already set out a number of rose bushes.

That the beauty and conveniences are appreciated is attested by the large number of pleasure seekers who throng the grounds, and it is recognized to-day as par excellence the ideal place for a recreative outing.

The water of the spring has been partially analyzed and show: The chlorides of calcium, magnesium, sodium, and potassium. Bicarbonates of potassium and magnesium.

Carbonates of calcium, magnesium and sodium. Iron and Phosphoric acid. Total solids 10,8666 grains to gallon. Organic matter 2.028 grains to gallon.

And the report adds: A very good water for ordinary purposes, and may be of value medicinally owing to the amount of magnesium carbonate and bicarbonate present. It has passed into a truism that one who employs liberally this water for drinking and lavatory purposes, can dispense with the services of a doctor, for he is not likely to suffer with the ordinary ailments of life, thus proving that this water possesses much medicinal virtue.

The major is in love with his place, and he has every reason to be. His greatest desire is to embellish it, and solely for this purpose he will make a moderate charge for bathing privileges, and the use of the park.

To those who wish to enjoy a quiet pastoral life, during the heated term, or those suffering from distressing stomach or kidney troubles, this place, and waters—proved efficacious in these afflictions—offers special advantages.

Board in the town can be obtained at very reasonable rates, and the distance to the springs is a pleasant walk, the greater part of the way being through an alley of oak trees.

The place is well worth visiting.

Jim Crow Car Law.

Judge Theard, of the civil district court in New Orleans, decided Wednesday the case of Isaac A. Broussard vs. the Louisville, New Orleans and Railroad Company. The suit was originally for $10,000 damages for having been ejected from one of the defendant's trains, but by remittitur the demands was afterwards reduced to $2000. The plaintiff, who is the sheriff of the parish of Lafayette, claimed that in June, 1894, he purchased two first-class tickets for passage from New Orleans to Ethel, for the purpose of transporting a negro named Mouton to the insane asylum at Jackson under an order of court. The plaintiff claimed his colored passenger in the first-class coach of the coach assigned to negroes, and plaintiff, being unwell, seated himself in the non-smoking division of the same coach. The conductor refused him to go into the smoking car, and ordered in the alternative that he get into the coach set apart for white passengers only. This plaintiff refused to do, and demanded the right to go into the white coach and to carry his colored prisoner with him, which request was declined by the conductor on the ground that it made no difference whether he sat in the negro coach with the negro, or the negro in the white coach with him, but the conductor again informed him that the smoking car was common place of resort provided for both races, and that if he so desired he could sit in the smoking car with his prisoner.

Plaintiff insisted upon his right as sheriff not to be separated from his prisoner, whereupon the conductor informed him that the law made no exception in such a case and that he must either get out of the train. Plaintiff at first elected to leave the train voluntarily, but upon reflection told the conductor to eject him at his peril. The train by that time had reached the Illinois Central junction within the city limits, and as usual, had come to a stop, when the conductor, without violence or undue force, ejected plaintiff and his prisoner from the train. The next day, at the personal request of the attorney general and the local counsel of the company, plaintiff was permitted, as a favor to him in the negro coach with his charge.

Judge Theard Wednesday held that under act No. 111 of 1890 railroad companies in the State are compelled upon a penalty there in imposed to provide equal and separate accommodation for white and colored passengers, whom they contract to carry, and that no person can be permitted to occupy seats in coaches other than the ones assigned to them on account of their race, and if a person refuse to accede to such rule the railroad official can refuse to carry him. The law is plain, and no exception is made in favor of a sheriff or officer of the law in charges of a prisoner. Any argument or inconvenience resulting must be addressed to the Legislature. There being other means of transportation than that by rail, plaintiff cannot claim that the enforcement of the law as to him would amount to a defect of justice. In the absence of a definite contract made at the time the tickets were purchased that he would not be separated from his charge, he has no cause of complaint against the company. Judgment is, therefore, given for defendant.

Carcero News.

From Our Regular Correspondent. Dr. Courtney and his little son, Dalton, left last Sunday to join some friends in Lake Charles, who are going on a hunting expedition in Calcasieu and adjoining parishes.

Mr. Knapp, of the Teche Railroad Company, was in town last Monday. This company asks for very little, which can be easily granted, and everything points to an early commencement of the building of the road, and the chances are very bright, that they will begin at the Carcero end. The station will be located on the property of Mr. Romain Francez, immediately opposite the Carcero Ginery buildings. By commencing the laying of track from the Carcero end of the road, the company will save a large amount of money, in the transportation of building material.

Mr. Adam Sonnier, one of our enterprising farmers, was in town this week. He showed your correspondent a sample of tobacco raised and prepared by himself. While it greatly resembles the perique, it is far superior to it both in odor and flavor.

Mr. G. H. Guilbeau has moved into the store building recently vacated by Mr. G. E. Brown. Mr. Guilbeau will continue, as heretofore, to keep a choice and large assortment of general merchandise, and do all in his power to afford satisfaction to his many customers.

Mr. Maurice Francez has returned to Carcero, and it is said that he intends establishing a business in our town. He is so popular, and his circle of friends so large, that his success is assured.

Mr. V. E. Dupuis went to Lafayette last Saturday.

Mr. Henry Crouchet has the finest and best arranged vegetable garden in Carcero. It is well worth seeing.

Mr. Geo. Seery, operator at our station, went to Cheneyville last Friday to assist at a musical entertainment given for the benefit of the High School in that town.

As our people have had no public entertainment for some time, our local board of trustees could get up something of the kind for the improvement of our public school building and grounds.

On last Saturday, our good friend and esteemed citizen, Mr. Albert Guidry, passed the 49th mile post through this journey of life. Several members of the Carcero Brass Band, of which Mr. Guidry is vice-president, learning of the fact, gathered a number of young ladies and gentlemen, and with Hon. E. L. Estillette as master of ceremonies proceeded to the residence of Mr. Guidry and serenaded him. The following were in the party of happy serenaders: Mrs. W. A. Robert, Misses Ida Crouchet, P. Guilbeau, Mary Robert, and Miss Verdine, of Ville Platte. The musicians were Professors Hiechelheim, and Armas Guilbeau and Messrs. O. P. Guilbeau, Ludovic Guilbeau and P. Broussard. Messrs. Daclene Courtney and W. A. Robert were also present. After several tunes artistically rendered, which were followed by a vocal serenade, the party were invited in and maxi-hospitably entertained by their jovial host, who, though taken completely by surprise, proved himself equal to the occasion. The toasts were bright, complimentary and to the point. "Long may he wave."

There will be a meeting at Guilbeau's Hall, Saturday, April 29, of our business men and planters interested in the Teche Railroad. Permanent organization will be effected and matters of importance discussed.

Mr. J. D. Breaux has under cultivation 25 acres of cane, 20 acres of cotton, 18 acres of rice, about 10 acres of corn, a piece of land devoted to tobacco, and vegetable, and a fine orchard of fruit trees, all under one fence. This is what is meant by "diversity of crops," and is an example that could be imitated with profit by all our planters. TOMORROW VERGAS.

Royville Items.

From Our Regular Correspondent. The verdict rendered in the Willie Foreman case was received with much satisfaction, owing to the desperate character of the man, and his heretofore lack in escaping punishment for other serious offenses.

Rev. Father Chabrier has been making some improvements, and when the white wash brush has completed its work, the looks will be enhanced.

After a fifteen day sojourn on the seacoast, our worthy post-master, D. Bonnamant returned Monday, looking as fine as a fiddle.

Messrs. R. O. Young, A. A. Mouchet, and Joe LeBlanc, were out visiting our neighboring town Sunday.

Mayor Dupuis accompanied by Dr. LeBlanc took a run over to Abbeville last week.

Mr. H. Theall, a prominent merchant of this town, was at the Creighton sale Saturday.

Miss Z. Cornay, an accomplished young lady of Lafayette, was the guest of Miss Maude Young this week.

Mrs. Latour and daughter, Ruby, were the guest of the Misses Olivier at Lafayette last Sunday. CHEROKEE.

The Black Diamonds will give one of their fine entertainments in Abbeville, May 6, 1893.

A train load of Mongolians passed through Lafayette this week in bond and direct from Hong Kong, via San Francisco en route for Havana.

The paint and white brush in active play now-a-days would not be out of order.

Say boys, what's the matter with that base ball club?

We are requested to state that services will be held at the Methodist church tomorrow at 11 o'clock a. m., and at 8 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. Armstrong. The public are cordially invited.

Remember that every dollar invested in enterprises will add to the volume of business and lubricate the wheels of trade. No one can afford himself with out helping some one else, and herein lies the essence of progress and prosperity.—Shreveport Times.

Many people are opposed to putting their capital in home enterprises, not stopping to consider that such investment increases the labor force, adds to the circulation of money, lightens the burdens of taxation, adds to the population, becomes a magnet to attract more capital, besides other benefits. Yes, factories of all kinds benefit a wide circle among both the industrial and business classes.—Ex.

St. Mary parish paid last month $3095 for colored public schools, and $960 for white. Still some people will say the negro stands no chance for even his life in the south.

A little darkey drank some machine oil the other day. Present reports are the doctors may pull him through, but there are some doubts.

There is not a town more advantageously situated than Lafayette for manufacturing enterprises. The obstacle is want of knowledge of the fact, and were it known abroad, we have not the least doubt that the money, brains and brawn that is so essential would come to us. The principal step is to reach the people we need, and how best to do this is the problem confronting us, and it should and can be solved, but it will necessitate a small expenditure of money.

School Board.

LAfAYETTE, LA., April 22, 1893.

Pursuant to call the School Board of this parish met this day in special session with the following members: Julian Mouton, president; H. Theall, D. Bernard, A. C. Guilbeau, E. O. Broussard, and J. S. Whitington. Absent: Dr. W. W. Lesly and Jasper Spell.

The reading of their minutes was dispensed with. On motion of A. C. Guilbeau, seconded by J. O. Broussard, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That, Mr. Chas. Hiechelheim who has been selected by the committee for the selection of teacher, as assistant to Mrs. E. W. Glenn's school in Carcero, he and is appointed assistant thereto, provided that an addition or extension be made to the said school at the expense of the people, and that the salary of said assistant be and is hereby fixed at $30 per month, and that said assistant enter upon his duties at once, provided that he uses Dr. J. Francez's building adjoining said school until said addition, extension or improvement be made.

Resolved further that the committee for the selection of teachers, be and are hereby authorized to also appoint teachers and assistants when in their judgment it becomes necessary, and they fixed the salary of assistants at any amount not exceeding $30 per month. A petition from the colored citizens of the town asking that the colored school be opened and that Mr. W. H. Williams be appointed teacher was received and referred to the proper committee. The following accounts were approved:

H. Theall, balance due on Royville school, $34.10; K. C. Greig, repairing school house, $200; Ed. P. L. Greig, for school house, $190; A. C. Guilbeau, director's per diem two meetings $4. There being no further business the Board adjourned.

JULIAN MOUTON, President.

H. E. TOLL, Secretary.

Mr. Faultfinder.

I desire to call the attention of whoever it was that published that very impertinent and uncalled for article in the Lafayette Advertiser of April 26, 1893, as to my having dug certain ditches about my property, and that said ditches are 18 inches and 2 feet, which is not so, they are only 12 inches deep. And I do think that this party has assumed too much power entirely, to come out in public print and condemn me for digging the proper ditches for an interest best known to myself. And pray tell me why make a target of me, when your shots are all meant for our council and city fathers. And, again, why do you single me out from all other property holders in this vast community for having such ditches which others equally as guilty. I desire to ask this party if he has ever been over in the old town; if not, he had better take a trip and see what he can there find; and not try and make himself, or the paper that could publish such an article, so very conspicuous and fault-finding with a quiet and peaceable citizen. I have been living in this community for the past eight years, and I desire to call your attention to this fact; that in all these past years I have never seen our town in such perfect order and so much improved as it stands to-day, and we can only thank our council and city fathers for it and not you or your fault-finding. Our present council is a good one, and I earnestly pray that Monday next will bring us another of the same class, and I assure you that the property-holders will have no cause to complain. And further, Mr. Faultfinder, I desire to well inform you that I have never applied to the council or parish officers for a license to obstruct the language about my property as no man of sense would make such a remark. You certainly could not have been here very long, or you would have known better than to say such to a civilized community. You have no need to dictate to our city fathers for they are running this town and not you. And now Mr. Faultfinder I desire to make known to you that Lincoln avenue will soon be lighted up with a new set of lamps, so if you have any business in the suburbs of this corporation after dark, we shall let our lights shine on thee; and we shall walk in the light with thee and if we fall into these little ditches, let us try to walk in the light still. J. T. ALLINGHAM.

Municipal Ticket.

We, the undersigned, respectfully submit our names, for mayor and councilmen, to the white voters of the town of Lafayette at the election to be held on Monday, May 1, 1893.

Our faith and steadfastness to Democratic principles cannot be questioned, and if elected we will administer the public affairs of this town in a business-like manner, without fear or favor, or prejudice against any one, and place the good name of the town of Lafayette among the first in the State for good government honestly administered.
