Vote For Price.

Because:
First—You are a white man.
Second—He is a white man.
Third—He was nominated by white men.
Fourth—H'N' be elected by white men.

Vote For Price.

Defeat Beattie and Republicanism in the Third District is dead.
Every white man who understands his duty as a citizen will go the polls Tuesday and vote for the Democratic nominee, Hon. Andrew Price.

The man who says that protection protects the cotton farmer is either a fit subject for a lunatic asylum or he is a fit rival of Joe Mulhatten and Col. Tom O'Chilltree.

Parkerson, Wilkinson and the other bolters have spoken so sweetly to the negroes, that Sambo now believes that he has the world in a sling with a down-hill pull.

For a time it looked as if the good old parish of Lafayette would prove recreant to her duty, but now that the Republican misrepresentations have been exploded, the bounty-grabbers don't stand the ghost of a show.

In St. Martin, the banner white Democratic parish in the State, negroes were not allowed to enter the hall where Judge Beattie was speaking. In New Orleans, Demas, the negro boss, forced the nomination of Coleman. This is consistency with a vengeance.

Down in St. Mary, planters are importing negroes by steam-boatloads to vote them against the white people. These National Republicans have adopted methods that are strikingly similar to those in vogue in the days of Kelloz. And yet they are only National Republicans.

What would they do if they were plain Republicans?

David B. Hill said "I am a Democrat." In four short words the great New Yorker told you exactly where he stood politically. But when you ask a bolter how he stands, he tells you something like this: "I am a National Republican, but a State Democrat. On parish matters I can't exactly say where I stand, and at a municipal election it depends."

We look upon the present fight as one between the negro party and the white man's party. The first and foremost issue is whether this State is to be Jamaicaized, Haytized and mongrelized, or whether it will remain a free, sovereign government, in the hands of the white race. That is the question that will be decided next Tuesday. That is the fight of the day. Whether it is to be a government of white men, or a mongrel government of whites and negroes.

A Western editor has become penitent—the first case we ever knew. He says:

"The undersigned resigns from the editorial chair with complete conviction that all is vanity. From the hour he started his paper to the present time he has been solicited to lie upon every given subject, and can't remember ever having told a wholesome truth without losing subscribers and making enemies. Under these circumstances of trial, and having a thorough contempt for himself, he retires in order to recruit his moral constitution."

We know of no editor who is dealing more telling blows at the bounty-bolters than Hearsy of the States. He possesses both the pluck and ability to handle the great questions which will be settled at the polls next Tuesday. A few more editors like Major Hearsy would produce such a ferment in this State, as would make the National Republicans believe that they were sleeping on earthquakes.

We regret to notice that some Democratic papers call the new "dispensation" in this State the Protection party. We prefer to call it what it is, the Republican party. We don't intend to help the bolters make their work respectable by adopting their cunning dodges to sink the negro out of sight in this new movement. We do not wonder that Republicans should seek to hide their bad deeds in new and less odious names. Let us show a sufficient regard for truth to call things by their right names; and above all let us not assist the bolters to make their work respectable.

A SCATCHING ANSWER.

The following able letter appeared in the Times-Democrat a few days ago. It purports to be an answer to the "open letter" written by Mr. McCall to Gov. Foster. It is well worth reading and we regret not being able to print it all:

"No power on earth, no party beneath the sun, could fasten a system so undemocratic, so unrepresentative, so un-American, upon the people of this country. Think of it, a single individual, Leon Godchaux, received in a single year a crisp government check for $437,744.45! For what? Because he raised a crop for which he received upon the open markets of the world at 3 1/2 cents approximately $766,052. His individual gift from the national government represented in amount 33 1/3 per cent of the entire revenues of the State of Louisiana from its 6 mills constitutional tax.

"You claim it as a matter of equity. He who seeks equity must do equity" is a maxim as old as the common law itself. I find upon examination, that upon your sworn statement your plantation is worth $100,175. You raised upon it last year 7,555,800 pounds of sugar, for which the government gave you a check for $451,116 11 and in addition your product upon the market yielded, at 3 1/2 cents, $264,453 and about the same approximate figures maintained for the balance of your sugar planters. The banker at Monte Carlo scarcely realizes higher returns on his investment in the wheel of fortune or upon the turn of a card. But let us make another calculation. Estimating the crop of the present year upon the basis of that of last year (and it will be so much larger), you leave for seed 20 per cent of the cane of each year. That you may go out of the business and not prove false to your people, your party and yourself, I propose that the government purchase your entire plantation outfit at the sworn valuation fixed by yourself. Then let the government grind up this seed cane and sell upon the market, and it will yield $66,133. Add to this the same rate of bounty which we hope and believe it will pay upon your other crop raised, $37,779, and we have for your seed cane $103,912. Now for propose to make you a present of the live stock and farm outfit and turn your plantation back into the national land department, to be sold at not less than six bits an acre, with buildings and improvements thrown in for lagniappe, the only restriction or prohibition being that the purchaser shall never again raise another pound of sugar upon it.

"Now my good fellow, I know you have been maltreated by the Democratic party, but if you accept the proposition I present, all will be well. My surprise is not that you forwarded your resignation, for as an honorable man you would resent the idea of holding goods under false pretenses, but my surprise and mortification knows no bounds that one whose past life had been such as yours, who had made the glorious fight for the honor of his State as you did against the corrupt and corrupting influences of the Lottery Company, should have given himself, and his fortune and great abilities, to such a scheme. The lottery leaders never so boldly and defiantly undertook to control our elections and our people; it asked for quarter alone, it plead for life, and dared not to deliver us bound hand and foot to our relentless enemies. Its bribe was to be applied to public charities and necessities. The bargain you expect for delivering the manacled form of your precious State to the demons, who in times past, have plundered her; and picked and pinched her almost lifeless carcass for the last scant morsel of flesh and blood, is for private gain, for individual benefit, for hard, personal cash. The logic of your position is that we have lived a lie, that Colfax and the 14th of September and all the fierce and fearful ordeals of the past are blots upon our civilization, and all the charges, all the accusations of injustice, of humanity, of persecution and outrage made by the blood-thirsty orators of the North, all the charges of the enemies of the past are true and confessed.

By the provisions of existing law your people will receive the benefits of 1-22 1-2 cent duty on sugar, unless the wild and senseless action of your friends causes the repeal of the law. Did you realize that one cent duty means $25 per acre protection? This amounts to more than the entire revenue received, per acre, by the poor cotton planter, and still you are not happy. The Democratic party, or even the Republican party, might afford to pay the price offered for the good society and political support of the sugar planter 400; but the trouble is they will not stay bought. Eleven millions in '93, twenty-two millions in '94, and so one year after year is too rich for the blood of the politician of even the Me-

Kinsley kidney. Do you imagine that the leaders, Demas, Coge, Pinchback & Co., and the rank and file of stronger odor, care a snap for your bounty of duty? Not a bit of it. But they will unloosen themselves and pillage and destroy our State, if again they are permitted to taste of this tree of political life. You are now driving them by the wagon loads to the registration office—later they will be riding you bareback, with whip and spur.

Sir, we love you; we have known you and your colleagues (not your new ones) as good men and true, and we yearn to save your great sugar industry, but we would rather see every sugar plantation in Louisiana beneath the briny waters of the great ocean, where the tide regularly ebbs and flows, than witness a return of the negro to power; and it would not vary the horrors of the situation one whit if the leader were Henry McCall instead of Henry Warmoth, or William Pet Kernochan instead of William Pitt Kellogg.

I received the reigns of government from the hands of the peerless Nicholls clean and untarnished; McEnery, the loyal and sagacious, had so entrusted them to him. If I fail to keep them so, and finally to transmit them unsullied to other hands it will be because God has failed to give me strength not courage. Yours truly,
JURPHY FAY MOSTER.

Clegg.

Two or three more meetings like the one held by the Republicans at Falk's hall will make this parish almost solidly Democratic. Some of our people may believe in the doctrine of Protection, but very few of them are willing to see the negro brought back into politics. This parish has passed through a terrible ordeal to secure the blessings of white government, and the people naturally look with suspicion at the demagogue who prates about the "legal rights of the negroes."

Professor Thomas E. Will A. M., contributes a paper to the November Arena on "Political Corruption: its Methods and who to Defeat it," which will interest all who are concerned for good citizenship and a pure ballot. There is a growing revolt against the rule of the Boss and self-respecting intelligent American citizens will find much that will be news to them in this paper written by a professor of political economy and a close student of American politics and government.

The speeches of the Republicans last Wednesday was all that an honest white man wanted to be convinced that he had no business in that party. Everybody who loves peace and decency will profoundly deplore the effort of the Republicans to induce the negroes to re-enter politics in this parish. If these men knew, and they doubtless did, the condition that exists in this parish, they were guilty of the grossest indiscretion, if not of a serious crime against society. Exterminate such dangerous doctrine at the polls next Tuesday.

The supporters of Mr. Price have used every question without effect and now they are harping upon the rag-tag, bob-tail, care-worn, thread bare subject of white supremacy.—Vindicator.

We may be mistaken, but it strikes us that some time ago the esteemed Vindicator had a great deal to say about "white supremacy." Perhaps we do you an injustice, brother, but is it not a fact that once "white supremacy" was your favorite hobby. But you might retort and say like Ben Butler: "that's when I was a Democrat."

Hon. Chauncey Depew is a very versatile gentleman, but he rather got the worst of it the other night when he undertook to bandy witticisms with the Hobbes of the Bowery. The rank humor and picturesque slang of those classic precincts were intirely too much for the famous full-dress orator, and he has cancelled all other dates in that part of the town.—Commercial Appeal

There are some people who have the impression that the world is conducted by their individual management. These selfsame people haven't sense enough to blow hot and cold. It would be a good idea for them to quit corking. Somehow or other the world was made to run by the masses instead of the classes. These self-appointed controllers of the country had better first measure their strength before going about telling people what they shall do. We are an American people, born under the flag of independence, and if the Lord is willing and the creeks don't rise, the American people who made this country will come pretty near controlling it.—Optic.
