TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Mr. Emile Gueble, a brother of Mrs. Raoul Gentil of this town, died in New Orleans on Oct. 28, at the age of 33 years.

Judge Debailon returned Sunday evening from Vermilion parish, where he was invited to make a speech at a Democratic meeting.

While at Carencro last Sunday we were informed that preparations are being made by Father LaForest to give a grand fair for colored people on the 17 and 18th of November.

Charles Harnish, who is breaking on the Alexandria road, came near being the victim of a fatal accident while at work last Tuesday, but fortunately received only a slight injury on the foot.

The Pilette troupe of amateurs played at Falk's Saturday night to a small but appreciative audience. The entertainment consisted of short comedies in French and English and the creditable way in which all the actors acquitted themselves should be a source of pleasure and pride to their instructor, Prof. Alex Meaux.

The Police Jury has accepted the bridge recently built over Vermilion river by Mr. Fred Mouton. The Gazette compliments the contractor upon this splendid piece of work.

The revival which had been going on at the Methodist church for two weeks, closed last Sunday after a very successful session. Eighty persons were converted and thirty-two joined the church. Rev. T. S. Randle conducted the ceremonies; he was assisted by Revs. Beard, Manly, Neal, and Ross Randle.

Last week fire destroyed five bales of cotton in the ginney of Emile Arceneux near Carencro. It was thought to be the work of an incendiary and the circumstances surrounding the case led to the arrest of Portalis Martin, a negro woman and her son, Pierre, who were brought to town and turned over to Jailer Billaud.

Sheriff Broussard never fails to catch his man and unless the niggers behave themselves he will have an unusually large number of them to take to the pen at the next term of court. It will be remembered that Mr. Benton was shot on the highway by a negro. As soon as he heard of the occurrence the sheriff immediately started to work to discover the culprit and soon secured sufficient proof to justify the arrest of a young negro named Alexandre Navarre, who is now charged with the commission of this crime.

Since the visit to Lafayette of Louisiana's junior senator we have noticed that a certain well-known young man is making desperate efforts to raise "a crop of whiskers" similar to that which gives such a distinguished look to the Caddo gentleman. We have warned him of our intention to make a note of it, but he persists in his determination to wear whiskers that will put to shame the flamboyant growth which covers the face of Senator Pfeffer of Kansas.

Meeting at Carencro.

About 250 white voters met at Carencro last Sunday to hear Democratic speakers discuss the issues involved in the present campaign. Mr. A. C. Guilbeau called the meeting to order and nominated Mr. V. E. Dupuis as president and Mr. H. E. Toll, as secretary. Hon. Wm. Campbell was the first speaker who addressed the meeting. He made a straight-forward talk, denounced the attempt of the bolters to Africanize this State and proceeded to excoriate the Republicans in the latest approved style. The speaker then paid his respects to Prof. Knapp, a leading Republican. When the name of this worthy was mentioned, the deafening applause that followed showed how well he is remembered by his former neighbors.

The next speaker was E. G. Voorhies, Esq., who spoke in simple, chaste French, entertaining the audience in his usual pleasing style. He made a very effective address, full of unanswerable logic and spiced with witty and appropriate anecdotes. The last speaker was Judge O. C. Mouton, who handled facts and figures and made a very convincing speech.

The speakers were applauded in a manner that unmistakably showed that old Carencro had not yet decided to "flop."

THE REPUBLICANS.

The much advertised Republican meeting has come and gone and with it has left most of the enthusiasm. If the speakers succeeded in converting one solitary voter to the Republican faith of protection and bounty he has been so quiet that we have failed to hear of him. There was a brass band, and fortunately for the speakers the music attracted a number of boys who helped to fill the seats, thus avoiding the orators the unpleasant task of orating to an audience composed mostly of unsympathetic Democrats and empty seats. In the rear of the hall could be seen a crowd of 40 or 50 negroes, who presented a somewhat unusual scene, for, since several years the colored man here has been, politically speaking, simply "not in it." All in all the audience numbered about 160 people, who without exception, behaved very well, perfect order prevailing throughout the meeting.

The assembly was called to order by Mr. F. Otto, a leading Republican, who made a few appropriate remarks and requested Mr. J. M. Jones to preside, and asked Dr. H. D. Guidry to act as secretary. After being called the following gentlemen took seats on the platform and served as vice-presidents: Andrew Cayard, Hugh Hutcheson, Ben F. Flanders, Jr., Aurelien Primeaux, Judge J. G. Parkerson.

Chairman Jones introduced Col. Gus. A. Breaux as the first speaker. The colonel spoke in French. He said that he had always been a protectionist, but was forced to remain in the Democratic party by the negro. In his opinion the negro had ceased to be a dangerous factor in politics and he would hereafter vote the Republican ticket. How the negro had so suddenly dwindled into utter insignificance the colonel failed to explain. The colonel said that come what may the white man had the brains, the heart and the strength and would rule, but he did not say how the negro, Henry Demas, bossed the sugar-teats in the Second district and nominated Coleman against the expressed wishes of the sugar-planters, who according to the colonel, possessed the brains, hearts, etc. The distinguished gentleman spoke of the right of voting guaranteed to the negro by the laws, and said that this right should be respected. Col. Breaux's address, though of undoubted ability, was a repetition of the exploded arguments of the bolters.

Judge Beattie, the congressional candidate was the next and last speaker. Owing to the bad condition of his throat his address was brief. The judge uses some very forcible English and handles everything Democratic without gloves. He showed the utmost disregard for the feelings of the Democrats who were present. If the judge keeps on at the rate he was going here he'll not have a single vial of wrath left for after the election, when it will be in demand. Judge Beattie is a good speaker and though suffering from his throat kept the audience interested throughout his speech.

The committee on resolutions composed of Messrs. P. Demanade, Will Cayard, T. J. Breaux, Emile Romero, Dr. H. D. Guidry, J. G. Parkerson, reported the following which was adopted.

Resolved, That we citizens of the parish of Lafayette do hereby ratify and endorse the nomination of Taylor Beattie for Congressman from the Third Congressional district and pledge him our undivided support. The meeting then adjourned.

Judge Bowen went to Algiers Wednesday.

Mr. Martial Billaud's refinery commenced operation last Saturday. A large crop will be ground at this mill.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill. was told by her doctor she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Wm. Clegg's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

Those who talk about the "rights" of the negroes are the very men who will get these poor people into serious trouble. The negro's best friend is the white man who advises him to let politics alone, and it is he, who will help him, and not the unscrupulous politician who wants his vote. What did Kellogg and Warmoth ever do for the negroes? They got him in trouble and skipped with the boodle. That is exactly what those who are talking about the "legal rights of the colored man" will do.

AT ROYVILLE.

Happenings in the Busy and Thrifty Town—Reported for the Columns of The Gazette.

—Fourth ward voters, buckle on your armors, and cast a solid vote for Price and good times, next Tuesday.

—Price is booked for a heavy majority over Beattie in Lafayette, and all voters interested in the welfare of their families, should help to give it to him next Tuesday.

—With Beattie and his Republican allies in power a serious conflict between the races is inevitable. Louisiana has had an overdose of negro rule, and unless we are in error wool will fly before a mongrel government is established in this State.

—Do not forget the grand barbecue at Royville tomorrow Sunday. Come all of you to enjoy the juicy steaks of a Democratic beef. Speeches by eloquent speakers will convince you that notwithstanding all the slander and lies the Republican party is using in this campaign that the Democratic is the only party whose principles are honesty, white rule and good government. Therefore it is the only white man's party in Louisiana and in the South.

—Negro bull-dozing is dead several years now. The ignorant black has been taught his inferiority. He is aware that he figures as a "dead head" in Louisiana politics; he already knows that he'll be again made a target of, and by great Jehovah! why don't he keep company to his faithful mule. Take your chances, blacks, but do not say you have not been warned in time!!

—Judge Greig, of the fifth ward, administered, last Monday, the oath of office to our lately appointed post-master, Mr. A. A. Mouchet. Friend Albert is a thorough gentleman, fully competent to conduct the office with satisfaction to all.

—Hon. Judge Debailon and Arthur Greig, Esq., of Lafayette, passed through town Saturday en route to Erath station and Mauriceville.

—Mr. Clemile Landry was a pleasant visitor to our town Saturday.

—Dr. Scranton is on the sick list this week. We hope to see the doctor up and well 'ere shortly.

—Mrs. Duplex, we are happy to state, is better. Latest report from the attending physician pronounces her out of danger.

—Mrs. Hilaire David, mother of Mr. J. H. David, died suddenly Sunday morning from failure of the heart. The aged lady was drinking her morning coffee, when she was seen to reel and drop dead in her rocking chair. To the relatives and friends in this great hour of their bereavement, we offer our sympathy.

—Messrs. Parkerson, Judice, Girard and Nickerson, were late visitors to Royville.

—Those faithful Democrats and firm adherents of white supremacy, Marcel Melancon, J. Langlinais, Sr. Belony Trahan, Nap Napoleon, Eupemon LeBlanc, Jules Landry and others, were pleasant callers the past week. Come often, gentlemen. A hearty welcome always awaits you.

—The tax-payers of Lafayette are not again willing to pay extra taxes to the government in order to meet heavy payments out of the United States treasury to the rich sugar planters. It stands for reason that every 2 cents for every pound of sugar raised in the State, is that much money taken out of the pockets of the people. The poor white man is the sufferer. He is not in one iota benefited. Two-thirds of the sugar planters prefer negro labor, knocking out of employment the poor white laborer. Had the bounty existed only ten years, Louisiana would have become the property (including people and all) of the sugar planters. They would have adopted a new constitution, framed from their ingenious and scheming brains; a crown and royal court, with king, princes, etc., would have been duly installed according to their rank and financial position. Their game is nipped in the bud, and the only means of preventing these autocrats from selling Louisiana to the Republicans, is by casting an open ticket next Tuesday for Price and Democracy. CHEROKEE.

sentation, and repeated it in all the leading cities of the union afterward contributes a striking and valuable paper to the November Arena called "Effective Voting the only Effective Moralizer of Policies." Miss Spence has a clear and judical grasp of all the political problems besetting modern democracy and this paper is a clear and convincing exposition of the moral benefits to be reaped from proportional representation. Such literature will not appeal strongly to the sympathies of ward heeled, but all self-respecting and intelligent Americans will be interested in a reform that guards the security and sanctity of the ballot and means the downfall of the boss and the tough in politics.

"These beautiful, cool moonlight night sreamid us of 'auld lang syne', when we sat on the front steps and held her little brown hand in ours, and felt that indescribable electric thrill as she returned a little timid, trembling pressure, turned her head and said: 'There, I smell that darn bread burning again.'—Exchange
