The Mission at Carenero.

The mission which is being conducted at the Catholic church in Carenero by Jesuit priests from New Orleans has been very well attended, notwithstanding the bad weather which has prevailed. In order to give those who were unable to attend, a chance to hear the eloquent sermons, the closing of the mission will take place Tuesday instead of Sunday as was originally intended.

Type-writer supplies are sold at the Moss Pharmacy.

Opening of the State University.

The next session of the Louisiana State University, A. & M. College, will begin on Wednesday, Nov. 30. Col. Boyd, the president of this popular institution, informs us by circular that the delay occasioned by the quarantine has not been wholly lost. Much work has been done in the way of repairs and improvements, notably in the departments of chemistry and mechanics. Several of the professors have taken advantage of the unusual vacation to visit leading colleges and universities in other States which can not fail to result in much good to the Louisiana University.

Our people should send their boys to this university, not only because it is a home institution, but on account of the superior advantages it offers to young men desiring a thorough, modern education, along either literary or scientific lines.

Extreme good taste is displayed in the trimming of ladies' hats in the millinery department of Moss & Co. Hats and bonnets are trimmed to order on short notice and at most reasonable prices.

Death of a Negro Politician.

Naco Paddio, who was at one time a prominent negro politician in this parish, died this week and was buried in the Catholic cemetery. Paddio wielded great influence among the voters of his race during the palmy days of negro suffrage and gumbo politics. When the cause of white supremacy asserted itself and the negro was relegated to the rear as a political factor in this parish, Paddio ceased to be a conspicuous figure in local politics. He was rather intelligent and spoke the English language with unusual correctness for one of his race. He was, up to a few years ago, prominent in the State politics of the Republican party, having been sent as a delegate to the last nominating convention held at St. Louis.

To Receive Lieut. Moss.

Preparations have been made to give a fitting reception to Lieut. Jas. A. Moss when he will arrive here. A meeting will be held at the court-house where addresses will be delivered by Judge Debaillon and Mayor Caffery. The local camp of United Confederate Veterans will attend in a body and the Lafayette Orchestra has offered to furnish the music for the occasion. It is not known positively when Lieut. Moss will arrive, but he is expected during the first part of next week.

Wanted to be Arrested.

A man who had evidently been on a protracted spree, walked up to Marshal Veazey the other day and implored that official to lock him up for the night. He said he was not feeling well and wanted to be taken charge of lest he should commit some rash act. The man was given lodging in the town jail, and was released the next morning.

KILLED

While Moving one of the Cane Cars at the Refinery.

A. Camp, a workman at the Lafayette Sugar Refinery, was accidentally killed by being run over by cane cars last Tuesday night at about half past eleven o'clock. It appears that Camp and other workmen were engaged in moving some cars on the refinery's switch and it is believed that while trying to cog the wheels of a car the poor fellow fell on the track with the above results. His neck and several ribs were broken and his back and face were bruised. From all accounts the man died almost instantly. Owing to the darkness of the night and the noise of the machinery it was impossible for any one to know exactly how the accident happened, but from the evidence adduced at the coroner's inquest, which was held the day following, there is no doubt that the killing was accidental. Coroner Trahan, who held the inquest, had the man's body interred in Potter's Field.

A health certificate found upon the unfortunate man's person is dated St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 15, and signed by Max C. Starkloff, health commissioner of that city. Dr. Trahan has written to the authorities of St. Louis to ascertain if Camp had any relatives living there.

To Build a Tramway.

A stock company has been organized to build a tramway from the main line of the Southern Pacific railroad to Octave Bertrand's farm in Berlecheau's cove, for the purpose of affording the farmers of that locality an opportunity to raise sugar cane. The capital stock is $25,000 of which a third has already been subscribed. The following board of directors has been selected: Jno. Whittington, C. Girard, J. B. Peres, Octave Bertrand and C. O. Mouton. There is reason to believe that the tramway will be built in time for next year's crop.

Ladies Tea Club.

The Ladies Five O'clock Tea Club after being discontinued during the heated season has resumed its pleasurable meetings with renewed energy and interest which was attested by the delightful afternoon spent at Mrs. N. P. Moss' on Thursday, November the tenth. There was a full attendance, and Mrs. T. N. Blake was welcomed as a charming acquisition to the club.

The following program was thoroughly enjoyed: Quotations from the immortal poet, Thos Moore; "The Origin Of The American Woman," a prose reading by Mrs. T. M. Blossat; instrumental solo by Miss Lea Gladu; a selection from Moore by Miss L. Parkerson, and a vocal solo by Miss L. Mudd. Animated discussions on "the present state of affairs now existing in France" were participated in by the whole club and much benefit derived therefrom by the different views expressed. When this highly interesting subject was fully discussed the guests repaired to the dining room where most delightful refreshments were served amid a gleam of snowy linen, china and silver and it was not until "Night had dropped her sable curtain down and pinned it with a star" that the "goodbyes" were said and all departed charmed with the opening of the season.

Scientific cutting and stitching is what makes the BUCKSKIN BREECHES the best jeans pants that can be had at any price. The seams are carefully and strongly made, the buttons are riveted on. The pockets won't rip or tear and they are the best in fit and finish. They are cheaper by far than the common grades. In actual price they cost the same.

A Bad Man.

Billy Stephen, who was evidently anxious to impress upon the minds of the people near the depot that he was an all around bad man from the remotest regions of Bitter Creek, was nabbed by Marshal Veazey last Wednesday and placed where he could do no one any harm. Stephen started out by firing his revolver and making himself generally obnoxious to the good people of that peaceable locality. As Stephen carried a concealed weapon he was turned over to the parish authorities and given lodging in Tom's cosmopolitan hostelry.

The six unfortunates registered at the City Hall as Ed Stone, Geo. S. Hughes, Thomas Jones, Bert Sepheno, Joe Burns and Joe Prince respectively. Some of them are too badly crippled to earn a living while the others are able to work. They remained in jail until Thursday when they were released.
