MR. BRYAN'S TRIBUTE.

He Speaks in High Terms of the Dead President.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 17.—A tribute from W. J. Bryan to the dead president was given to the Associated Press to-day.

"The terrible deed at Buffalo, rudely breaking the ties of family and friendship, and horrifying every patriotic citizen, crowns a most extraordinary life with a halo that cannot but exalt its victim's place in history."

"The members of the local alumni association are to be congratulated upon the hearty enthusiasm with which they have already undertaken this work."

H. M. Durke will sell you some fine mules at very reasonable terms.

Richard—I don't see you going to see Miss Dovelet lately.

Robert—No, the fact is, the last time I was there, I borrowed a silk umbrella.

Richard—Well, what of that?

Robert—If I go there again, of course, I shall have to return the umbrella. It's a nice one. I have about decided to give up the girl.

Eminently Appropriate.

St. Louis Republic. It will be extremely appropriate for the local association of alumni of the University of Virginia to lead the movement for the erection of a permanent memorial to Thomas Jefferson on the site of the World's Fair of 1903.

The University of Virginia, as does the Louisiana Territory itself, stands in living testimony to the wisdom of Jefferson as a builder for American greatness.

The members of the local alumni association are to be congratulated upon the hearty enthusiasm with which they have already undertaken this work.
