A Garbage Cart.

This town needs the services of some man whose duty will be to haul the garbage out of the town. As it is, people have no means of getting rid of the refuse from their kitchens, and the result is that there is an accumulation of offensive matter in the yards and in the streets. A man who owns a horse and a cart could be engaged to do this work. When not occupied in the removal of garbage, he could be employed in repairing the streets. The gutters should not be used as a dumping place for the refuse of the town. A councilman, who has done excellent work as a member of the street committee, expressed himself as being very much in favor of employing a man to haul the garbage and to keep the streets in a cleanly condition. One day in each week could be occupied in doing the hauling. A dumping ground would have to be selected for that purpose. To facilitate the work of the garbage cart it would be well to have the people gather the refuse from their yards and place it in the street from where it can be easily taken. The Gazette hopes that the Council will give its attention to this matter.

APPROPRIATION

Made by City Council to Better Equip the Fire Department.

As may be seen in the proceedings of the City Council, published in this paper, that body has appropriated $360 to better equip the fire department of the town. The improvements are to be made along the lines suggested by Mr. F. V. Mouton in the following address to the Council. Mr. Mouton, who was spokesman appointed by the three fire companies, said:

"Your Honor and Gentlemen of the City Council—I have the honor to appear before you this evening as the representative of the fire department of Lafayette to request an appropriation for the purchase of more new equipments for the fire department. On account of the growth of our city it has become a necessity to increase the means of fighting fire. With this end in view the three fire companies appointed three committees composed of the following citizens: Dr. G. A. Martin, Jerome Mouton, Gus Schmulen, George DeClouet, A. E. Mouton, George DeBlanc, Abram Hirsch, Paul Castel, Arthur J. LeBlanc and myself. At a meeting of these committees plans were discussed and an agreement reached by which the present Hook and Ladder Company will become a hose company and a new hook and ladder company formed from contingents of firemen from Home Fire Company and Fire Company No. 1, bringing the ladders in a more central and thickly settled part of the town. In order to effect these changes and bring about this necessary and important increase in the fire department and after reducing the cost to the strictest lines of economy consistent with the good of the service, we will need and respectfully request of you an appropriation of $360. This amount is to be placed in the hands of one or a committee of your Council for its proper disbursement.

"The history of our fire department should receive the highest commendation from every citizen of Lafayette. On two notable occasions, the Ross Lumber Yard fire and the Veazy Stable fire, the prompt and splendid service of the fire boys averted serious calamities. We want to keep up the record. "We want to prepare and equip ourselves to meet any emergency. We can not do so without your help. We hope, therefore, that you will make the appropriation we request and thereby secure for Lafayette the fire protection which it should have."

A CARD.

YOUNGVILLE, LA., JAN. 7, 1903.
There is a rumor being circulated here with something like pride and great satisfaction by a few dearie-friends (?) that I am to retire from the practice of medicine to go and live in Lafayette. Now, I make this a point to inform my many friends, clients and the public generally that that is not so, for once and all time! I shall remain right here, my office will stay where it is now and has been for the past twenty-seven years, and all fees and charges will be exactly the same as heretofore and not a change will be made in that line. My family will live in Lafayette for educational reasons. I thank my people for their support and the many favors shown me in the past, and I now simply ask for a continued share of their patronage in the future. I am, very humbly,
Your servant,
