Cash Receipts.

We will continue to publish under this heading the names of those who each week pay up their subscriptions. This list is intended as a memorandum for the protection of subscribers against possible errors in our books:

Table with 3 columns: Name, Amount, Total. Includes names like P. Traylor, J. T. Otis, J. D. Pennington, etc.

MEXICAN WAR.

All soldiers who served in the Mexican War, either as officers or privates, are requested to meet, on the last day of the Fair, in Homer, to organize an Association for the presentation of their claims to the United States Government, and for mutual benefit.

Camp Hunt.

Quite a number of the mighty nimrods in and about Homer have gone off on a camp hunt. The barking of their dogs and roar of their guns may be about this time heard in the wilds of Winn parish. They have a faithful chronicler among their number, and should they perform great and wonderful feats our readers may expect in an early issue to hear from them.

Our old friend, R. M. Carr, who has been in the sorghum business, desires us to say that he has made for himself and neighbors over 1000 gallons. He made the best article of syrup from the Chinese or grey top cane, and the largest yield from the red top or African cane. He differs from Mr. Hammonds, and thinks the cane all the better for lying up several days after being cut. Nor does he think the cane damaged by the felder remaining on it. He also thinks the best time to cut the cane is when the seed has thoroughly hardened.

We have had lately a most pleasant and agreeable visit from a most accomplished gentleman, F. M. Turner, of Missouri, a minister of the Primitive Baptist Church, who is spending some time in our parish. Mr. Turner is a brother of our good friend, Dr. Silas Turner, a son-in-law of Isaiah Phipps. We had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Turner preach on Sunday night last at the residence of Rev. Josephus Barrow. And to say that we were pleased would but feebly express our gratification with the style, manner and sentiment of the discourse. Mr. Turner is a polished gentleman, most agreeable in manner, whose acquaintance is well worth cultivation. Our good friends, Lawson and Barrow, will, of course, testify to the soundness of Mr. T.'s theology. Rev. Mr. Turner has been a good Democratic member of the Missouri Legislature, and contributed in no small degree to the success of many good Democratic measures. We believe, from what we have seen of friend Turner, that his service in the Legislature did no damage to his religion. We trust that our friends will improve all opportunities to hear him preach.

We learn that several gentlemen of Minden have organized a Gun Club. Judge R. C. Drew is president of the club, W. D. McDonald vice-president, T. R. Geren secretary, and Capt. T. M. Turner treasurer. The other members of the club are S. D. Spann, Geo. McWeaver, T. M. Elliott, W. B. Avery, John Hogan, J. F. Taylor and W. M. Collins. We are rather surprised to see no notice of this organization in the Democrat, but presume that our friend Tompkins preferred to wait until he saw some actual demonstration on the part of his shooting friends. We congratulate our friends on their enterprise and hope to see and hear soon something of their skill as marksmen. Some of them we know can shoot well, because we saw Judge Drew with our own eyes break a glass ball at Shreveport lately. When we get a club organized at Homer, we dare say there will be challenges between the two clubs which will tend to develop the skill of the sportsmen of both places.

The new Shreveport paper, the Sunday Herald, has been coming to us for several weeks. We beg pardon of the editor for having failed to notice his enterprise before. The Herald is a good paper, and is conducted with a spirit and intelligence which gives promise of much good in the future.

A Washington special of the 24th to the St. Louis Times states that the Louisiana Radicals are threatening to make injurious disclosures before the Senate committee concerning the break-up of the Packard Legislature. Mr. Morey, ex-Congressman, claims to be able to prove that eight men who went over from the Packard to the Nicholls Legislature were offered a consideration by the Hayes commission, and, further, that they were paid twenty thousand dollars. Two men, Holt and Drury, were to have received $5,000 each, and the others $2,000 each.

ON TO MONROE.

The Road Across Red Chute to be Built at all Hazards.

No Fuss, but Business the Order of the Day.

SHREVEPORT, LA., Oct. 31, 1877.

At a meeting of the subscribers to the stock of the Red River and Mississippi railroad, on motion Col. R. H. Lindsay was called to the chair and F. A. Leonard appointed secretary.

The following resolution offered by Mr. McWilliams was adopted:

Resolved, That all subscriptions received, or which on or before 15th November, 1877, may be received to capital stock of the Red River and Mississippi Railroad Company by the committee appointed for purpose of soliciting subscriptions shall on the 15th, November 1877, or as soon thereafter as practicable be transferred to the capital stock of the North Louisiana Railroad Company, provided the subscribers to the Red River and Mississippi Railroad Company consider it advantageous to do so and for that purpose. Resolved, further that said committee be continued and invested with authority to carry out the spirit of this resolution.

On motion R. R. Deming, was appointed temporary treasurer.

The meeting then adjourned to meet on Wednesday, November 14, 1877, at 12 o'clock.

B. H. LINDSAY, President. F. A. LEONARD, Secretary.

Social Equality.

Yesterday about half a dozen applications were made to Superintendent Rogers at his office, in the City hall building, by colored people wishing to send their children to the white schools. Mr. Rogers replied in each case that under the rules of the City School Board he was prohibited from doing so, and therefore had to refuse the application.

It is reported, in connection with the subject that the applications were, at least, in several cases, a mere formality, and intended to bring the mixed school question before the courts in a shape that will meet the objections Judge Rightor added in his decision in the Trevigne case.—N. O. Democrat.

On the 29th of October the call of States for bills for reference to the appropriate committees occupied the House for five hours. The number of bills presented was the largest ever known in any one day before the House of Representatives. They reached 845. They might be classified into some half dozen prominent subjects: The repeal of the resumption act; the re-nomination of silver; the repeal of the bankruptcy law; the abolition of taxes on the sale of tobacco by producers; the extension of pension laws to the South; the repeal of the test oath and appropriations for works of internal improvement. Among the latter were bills appropriating $3,000,000 for the Mississippi levees and $1,000,000 for the Missouri river.

Fernando Wood, of New York, is chairman of the committee of ways and means.

Robertson, of Louisiana, is chairman of the committee on Mississippi levees.

Elam is on the Pacific Railroad committee.

The Funeral of General Forrest.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 31.—The funeral ceremonies of Gen. Forrest took place at the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. Standback, who had been a private soldier under Gen. Forrest, officiating. The streets for squares were crowded with people. Among the pallbearers were Jefferson Davis, Gov. Porter, Jacob Thompson, Col. Gallaway, Dr. Cowan, and Maj. Rimbock of Gen. Forrest's staff. The funeral cortege was composed of mounted ex-Confederates preceding the hearse, music, Odd Fellows, the Chicasaw guards, the Memphis artillery, ex-Confederate soldiers, ex-Union soldiers, civil organization, the mayor and city council, the fire department and citizens on foot. Business was suspended during the funeral.

The four planets usually visible to the naked eye, may now all be seen in the early part of the night (cloudy and rainy nights such as we have been visited with for the past several days, excepted), and will continue to be visible nearly all the remainder of the present year. Jupiter will disappear first; he may now be seen in the southwest, Venus in the west, and Mars and Saturn in the southeast. The last named are now about half an hour apart—Saturn on the left—and gradually approached each other until last night at about 8 o'clock, when they appeared to almost occupy the same place. To-night Saturn will get behind Mars and afterwards appear on the right.—Shreveport Times, 2d.
