Cash Receipts.

We will continue to publish under this heading the names of those who each week pay up their subscriptions. This list is intended as a memorandum for the protection of subscribers against possible errors in our books: T. J. Whitehead, 2 00

Advertisers should take notice that all advertisements should be left at the GUARDIAN office by noon on Tuesday, else they must lie over until the next issue of the paper. An observance of this request will be of mutual advantage to the GUARDIAN and the advertiser. Persons who desire extra copies of the GUARDIAN should leave their orders with us on Saturday before noon. This rule is imperative.

The purifying influence of AYER'S SERRA-PARELLI beautifies the complexion.

W. H. ELLINGTON has lately received some rare and peculiar additions to his stock. Description is difficult. Call on him and see for yourselves.

Mr. HARRIS has Dickens' works, other valuable books, notably, Destruction and Reconstruction, by Gen. Dick Taylor. All the old soldiers of the 26th Louisiana Regiment should own a copy of this work.

In the show case at DR. WEBB'S drug store, presided over by T. H. Kortum, will be found a choice lot of the most elegant jewelry and watches at reasonable prices. Mr. Kortum will also repair all articles brought to him in his line.

A new sign hangs from the building on the South-West corner of the public square, informing the public that there is the hotel. And a right good hotel it is too. W. W. Brown knows exactly what is requisite to satisfy the public, and always keeps it.

At J. B. Moreland's mill, 3 1/2 miles South of Homer, wool is carded into rolls, corn is ground into meal, and cotton ginned and packed at reasonable rates. Satisfaction is given to all parties.

We are under obligations to our good friend, J. W. Sherrard, for a frame of beautiful honey comb. We are informed by a lady friend that the honey was as sweet as pretty. Mr. Sherrard uses the Golden Bee Hive, and testifies to its surpassing excellence. All persons should have the right to use this hive. Let them see Mr. Sherrard and purchase the privilege.

Mr. W. R. PYWELL, the photographer, at the earnest solicitations of his numerous friends and patrons, has determined to remain in Homer until the 25th day of June. His business is continually increasing and he finds that he cannot leave Homer without disappointing many who wish photographs. His terms are moderate and his work cannot be excelled in the South.

All persons who want a quick and ornamental method of marking visiting cards; who wish to mark clothing instantaneously and indelibly; who wish to print their names and business, should procure the Patent Rubber Hand Stamp with ink &c., from H. T. HARRISON, at the Guardian office. All styles, plain and ornamental, with different colored ink, sold at low prices.

Mr. A. K. CLINGMAN furnishes us with several peaches grown at his orchard and nursery 1 1/2 miles west of Homer. Mr. Clingman has had ripe peaches for several weeks.

J. C. DREW'S saloon, on the east side of the public square, may be known in the day by the throng of respectable people who flock thither for refreshments—for food, lemonade, beer, and other beverages. At night the saloon may be known by the clear white light in front. Go to this popular saloon by all means, if you must patronize a bar-room, and for a reasonable price get something pure and good.

We refer to the mill advertisement of Messrs. Sanders & Gill. A first-class grist mill and gin has been a necessity in Homer for some time. We hope that Messrs. Sanders & Gill will receive a full share of patronage. We will publish an account of the peculiar engine in use by this firm soon, as it is the intention of Capt. Russell the agent to advertise them.

Will. A. Ogilvie, of the Shreveport Standard, spent several days in Homer last week. Mr. Ogilvie is canvassing for his paper, and we are pleased to learn he met with much success. The Standard is an excellent paper and deserves the patronage of the people of North Louisiana. Mr. Ogilvie is a genial gentleman who makes friends wherever he goes.

The distance between Shreveport and Monroe, by the line of the proposed railroad, is ninety-two miles. It seems to be generally believed that now, as a good title can be made to this road under the sale ordered, that a purchaser may be found who will complete the gap between Monroe and Shreveport at once.

Mr. B. L. Carr, of Webster parish, died on Thursday last. Mr. Carr leaves a large family. The Minden Democrat declares Mr. Carr to have been one of the oldest, most useful and highly respected citizens of Webster.

New York has received the first barrel of flour of the new wheat crop. The wheat was grown in Sumter county, Ga.; was cut on April 30th and thrashed and ground on May 2nd. It will be sold for the benefit of a church in America.

We are glad to know that our friend Will. A. Ogilvie has been received so cordially by our people. He is pleased with our town, speaks in glowing terms of our hospitality and finds particular delight in the large number of new subscribers he has received.

We cannot yet inform our readers what will be the final action of the Democratic Congressmen in the contest with the President. Our element, and a very respectable one, favors the extension of the current appropriations over until December. The other insists on a dead lock, if necessary, to force the President to accede to the demands of the majority.

Rev. Robt. Randle, who will preach the commencement sermon at the Male College, is an old citizen of Claiborne parish, and was educated in this place. He has been presiding elder of the Shreveport District for many years.

We are in receipt of the Cherokee Herald, published at Murphy, N. C. We place this journal on our exchange list and will be glad to submit it to the inspection of any of our friends who hail from the old North State.

Only four papers in the city of Texas. Is not the market overcrowded? The supply greater than the demand? One of the uninitiated would think so; yet Texas is a city with a great future. Three railroads there already, the Tyler and others to be completed to that point, and other lines spoken of in the near future. We know of no point in the southwest that is so likely to be a great city as the Gate City. There are thousands there now and there is room for thousands more.

The State has brought suit against the North Louisiana & Texas R.R., otherwise, Luling & Co., for $1,123,032, with interest, and prays that all the property of the said road be seized and sold to satisfy said demand. A writ of injunction is prayed for to restrain the company from disposing of the judgment lately rendered in their favor in the U. S. Supreme Court for about $4,000,000.

We learn that R. B. Howell, Esq., of Bienville parish, will deliver the Annual Address at Homer College. Mr. Howell was educated in Homer and will be remembered favorably by many of our citizens.

The parish Judge has gone fishing; the Clerk of the Court has gone fishing; eighteen clerks ditto; so likewise the editor and publisher of the Guardian. The same may be said of two merchants, the Parish Recorder and quite a number of others.

Among the most reliable and popular houses in Shreveport is that of HENRY DREYFUS & SON, successors to Raphael Kahn & Co. They are dealers in dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, hats, gent's furnishings, goods, carpets, ladies dress goods, staple and fancy goods of all descriptions. We personally know both the partners in this house, and it is with special pleasure that we recommend them to the public as honorable gentlemen and good merchants, who will give satisfaction. Their place of business is on the corner of Texas and Market Streets. 35:6t

The Kentucky Cane Mill, Evaporators, Sugar Kettles and Pans, Sheet Copper, and Galvanized Iron, for sale by CONWAY & BUCKLEW, Shreveport, La. Also Iron Pipe and Fittings, Machinists' Supplies, Belting and General Hardware, Hoes, Nails, Iron, Steel, Woodwork. April 16, 1879. 35:4m

SEE HERE! I have been in the Saloon business for several years and have endeavored to be just with all men. I have trusted them until my books show large amounts due me by good men. These amounts must be paid to me or I shall sue right and left without mercy. I can't live if I pay cash for my goods and sell them on a long and uncertain credit.

To all who owe me I address these last words—If settlements are not made at once my papers will be placed in the hands of an officer, and if the suits he brings force you to pay cost it will be your own fault. You force me to this course and you must pay the freight. J. FERGUSON. January 29, 1879. 24:tf

MISS M. A. FILES, DEALER IN Millinery & Fancy Goods,

DIBBONS, SILKS, STRAW AND FELT Goods, French Flowers, Black Crapes, Shoes, &c. Millinery and Fancy Goods a specialty. First quality custom work at low prices.

Agent for Mme. Demorest's Reliable Patterns and Fashion Books. Subscriptions received for Demorest's Monthly Magazine. No. 25 Milam street, Shreveport, La. April 16, 1879. 26:6m

FOUND AT LAST. A BLESSING TO THE FARMER. Mercer's Planter, For Corn, Peas and Cotton.

This cut is descriptive of the above named valuable Agricultural implement, for which letters patent were issued to W. J. Mercer and J. S. Young, on the 11th day of March, 1879.

Several of these Planters are in use in Claiborne parish and were thoroughly tested in the planting of last year's crop. We claim for this Planter that it will give satisfaction on rough ground, where any plow will run.

State and County Rights for sale. For particulars, address, MERCER & YOUNG, Homer, La. 31:6m
