

STATE OF LOUISIANA,
PARISH OF TERREBOUNE.
BEFORE ME, Notary Public, on this Fourth day of the month of April in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Three, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the One Hundred and Twenty-seventh.

Before me, Edwin Clarence Wuzlow, Chief Deputy Clerk of the 20th. Judicial District Court, ex-Officio Recorder and Notary Public, duly commissioned and qualified in and for the Parish of Terrebonne, State aforesaid, and in the presence of Messrs. Jules Levron and Henry Deschamps Levron, lawful witnesses residing in said parish.

Personally came and appeared—the several persons whose names are hereinafter subscribed, who severally declared, and availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of this state relative to the organization of corporations, they have contracted and agreed, and do by these presents agree and bind themselves, as well as each other persons as they hereafter become associated with them, to form and constitute a corporation, to be known as the "H. G. BUSH PETROLEUM COMPANY," and under this name said corporation shall have power and authority to exist and enjoy succession for the full term and period of ninety-nine years after the day and date hereof to contract, make and use a corporate seal, and the same to break or alter at pleasure; to acquire, receive, purchase, lease, hold, sell, convey and alienate, property of any kind, real, personal and mixed by any title whatsoever, whether gratuitous or onerous; as well as to mortgage and hypothecate and pledge any property to which it may acquire title; to acquire and dispose of rights, options, leases and franchises of any nature or kind whatsoever; to name and appoint such managers, directors, officers, agents and employees as the said corporation may require, and to make and establish such rules, regulations and by-laws for the proper management and regulation of the affairs of said corporation as may be necessary and proper, and the same to change and alter at pleasure; and generally to do and perform any and all acts and things requisite and necessary or convenient in order to carry out the objects and purposes of said corporation.

ARTICLE II.
The domicile of said corporation shall be in the town of Houma, Parish of Terrebonne, State of Louisiana, in the presence of the President, or in his absence the Vice-President, or in his absence the Secretary, shall be the officer upon whom citation and all judicial process shall be served.

ARTICLE III.
The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and established and the nature of the business to be carried on by it, are hereby declared to be to hold, own and lease lands and mining lands, and oil and gas wells; to prospect, develop, lease, bore, and mine lands for oil, gas, minerals of any kind, or any valuable natural deposits; to own and operate any mines, oil wells, gas wells, refineries, manufacturing, warehouses, railroads, steam and sul vessels, barges, wharves, pipe lines, pumping stations, telegraph and telephone lines; and generally to do and perform all such acts as may be necessary or convenient to successfully carry out the objects and purposes of this corporation.

ARTICLE IV.
The Capital Stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at Seven Thousand Dollars, to be represented by twenty-eight shares of the par value of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars each. The said stock to be issued by the Board of Directors of this corporation at such time and in such amount as they may see fit and proper, and to be paid for in labor done or money, or property actually received, provided that Five Thousand Dollars of the Capital stock shall be subscribed for before this company shall commence business.

ARTICLE V.
All shares of stock, when issued, shall be signed by the President and the Secretary of the corporation. No share of capital stock shall be transferred upon the books of the corporation until the certificate of the shares to be transferred shall have been delivered to the corporation, (or satisfactory proof made of its loss or destruction, according to law) and duly canceled. All shares of stock of this corporation held by any stockholder shall be non-assessable as to the holders or owners thereof. Any owner of stock in this corporation wishing to dispose of same shall first offer his said stock for sale to the other shareholders of the corporation, or his desire to sell; and the shareholders of this corporation shall have the first option of purchasing any shares of stock issued subsequently to the first issue.

ARTICLE VI.
This act of incorporation may be changed, amended, modified or altered, and said corporation may be dissolved, with the assent of three-fourths of the stock of said corporation, had at any general meeting of the stockholders convened for such purpose, by the Board of Directors or by the President, or by the stockholders representing one-third of the stock after thirty days previous notice of said meeting shall have been given in writing, addressed to the stockholders at their places of residence. The said Commissioners shall remain in office until the affairs of said corporation shall have been fully settled and liquidated, and in case of the death, absence or incapacity of one or more of said commissioners the survivor or survivors shall continue to act until a successor shall be elected by the stockholders at a special meeting called for that purpose after ten days notice in writing addressed to the stockholders at their places of residence.

ARTICLE VII.
Whenever this corporation is dissolved either by limitation or from any other cause, its affairs shall be liquidated, settled by three commissioners to be appointed for that purpose by the stockholders of said corporation at a general meeting to be convened for that purpose by the Board of Directors or by the President or the stockholders representing one-third of the stock after thirty days public notice shall have been given in writing addressed to the stockholders at their places of residence. The said Commissioners shall remain in office until the affairs of said corporation shall have been fully settled and liquidated, and in case of the death, absence or incapacity of one or more of said commissioners the survivor or survivors shall continue to act until a successor shall be elected by the stockholders at a special meeting called for that purpose after ten days notice in writing addressed to the stockholders at their places of residence.

ARTICLE VIII.
Messrs. Henry G. Bush, James M. McBride, John D. Minor, Joseph A. Robichaux, Claiborne A. Duval, Jr., Clifford P. Smith, and Albert M. Dupont, have been chosen and elected as the first Board of Directors to serve as such until the first Monday of April, 1904, or until their successors shall have been elected. Henry G. Bush is declared to be the President; Joseph A. Robichaux, Vice-President; Claiborne A. Duval, Jr., Secretary and Treasurer.

Thus done and passed at my office in the town of Houma, La., on the day, month and year first above written. In Faith Whereof, the parties, witnesses and I, said D'y. Clerk, have signed these presents after due reading thereof.

CHARTER
"The Gibson School Association, Limited."
STATE OF LOUISIANA,
PARISH OF TERREBOUNE.
BEFORE ME, Notary Public, on this Twelfth day of the month of March in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Three.

Before me, Edwin Clarence Wuzlow, Chief Deputy Clerk of the 20th. Judicial District Court, ex-Officio Recorder and Notary Public, duly commissioned and qualified in and for the Parish of Terrebonne, State aforesaid, and in the presence of Messrs. Alexander Vogel and John Walther, competent witnesses residing in said parish.

ARTICLE I.
The name and title of this corporation shall be "THE GIBSON SCHOOL ASSOCIATION, LIMITED," and under this name said corporation shall have power to contract, sue and be sued; to make and use a corporate seal and the same to break or alter at pleasure; to hold, receive, purchase, convey, pledge and mortgage under its corporate name property, both real and personal, to lend or borrow on security; to name and appoint such officers, agents and employees as the said corporation may require; to make and establish such By-Laws, rules and regulations for the proper management and regulation of the affairs of said corporation as may be necessary and proper to carry out the objects and purposes of said corporation; and said corporation unless sooner dissolved under the provisions of this charter, shall exist for the period of twenty-five years.

ARTICLE II.
The domicile of this corporation shall be at Gibson in the Parish of Terrebonne, La., and all citations and other legal processes, shall be served upon the President of said corporation, or, in his absence upon the Vice-President, or in his absence of both of these officers, upon the Secretary.

ARTICLE III.
The object and purposes for which this corporation is formed are declared to be to establish and maintain at Gibson, or near vicinity of a school for the education of the white children between 6 and 18 years of age; to obtain by subscription, donation, appropriation, taxation or otherwise, the funds necessary to erect requisite buildings and meet the legitimate expenses of conducting said school; to make the management and conduct of said school strictly non-sectarian both in theory and practice; to turn said school and property over to the parish or town, whenever, in the judgment of this association, the material interests of the institution and community will be subserved by so doing.

ARTICLE IV.
The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars, represented by twenty-five hundred shares of the par value of One Dollar each, payable in cash.

ARTICLE V.
The corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of Directors, composed of five share holders; the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer shall be selected by the Board of Directors from its members. The office of Secretary and Treasurer may be held by one and the same person. Three members of said Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and their actions shall be valid, corporate acts. The first board of directors shall be and is hereby composed of Messrs. Benjamin M. Talbot, Lionel J. Fleury, Henry Walther, William E. Mount and Edwin F. Morgan; Benjamin M. Talbot is hereby declared to be President, E. F. Morgan, Vice-President, Lionel J. Fleury, Secretary, Henry Walther, Treasurer. Said Board of Directors and officers shall continue in office until the fifteenth day of March, 1904, on which date, as well as annually thereafter a Board of Directors shall be elected. The election for Directors shall be held by the majority in amount of stockholders voting, whether present or by proxy, shall select the person or persons for whom they may be cast. Each share of stock voted upon to be counted for one vote, and the majority based thereon. After each election the Board shall elect from their own number the officers above mentioned. All officers filling the above offices shall serve without compensation.

ARTICLE VI.
This charter may be amended, modified or altered, or this corporation dissolved, at a general meeting of the stockholders convened for that purpose, with the assent of the majority in amount of the stock which may be issued, present or represented at such meeting. Thirty days notice by mail shall be given of the time and place of such meeting, and the liquidation of its affairs shall be conducted by three commissioners selected in like manner, and by like vote, and assent, at a meeting called as above for that purpose.

ARTICLE VII.
No stock holder shall ever be liable or responsible for the contracts or debts of said corporation for any further sum than the unpaid balance due on the shares of stock subscribed for or owned by him; nor shall any informality in organization have the effect of rendering this charter null or of exposing a stock holder to any liability beyond the amount of his subscription to the stock.

ARTICLE VIII.
The capital stock of this corporation may be increased to an amount not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars in the aggregate, on complying with the requirements of law and such by-laws, consistent with law, as may hereafter be adopted.

Thus done and passed in my office, in the town of Houma, State and Parish aforesaid, on the day, month and year first above written. In Faith Whereof, the parties, witnesses and I, said D'y. Clerk, have signed these presents after due reading of the whole.
