NOTICE TO AUTOMOBILE OWNERS

Laws governing the Assessment of Automobiles.

FOR NEW MACHINES:

For the first year's assessment there shall be a deduction made on the cost price of 15 per cent; for the second year's assessment a deduction of 35 per cent off of the original cost price, and for the third year's assessment a deduction of 35 cents of the original cost price, and for the fourth year's assessment and all subsequent years, the full cash value of the same as any other property.

For second hand machines: the value of all second hand machines for the first year's assessment shall be the price paid by the purchaser, and for the second and third and all subsequent years, the same per centage shall apply.

In order to get the correct per cent allowed for depreciation, the owners of Automobiles and trucks are requested to give the exact date of the month and year when their car was purchased, as these values are fixed from application for license by the owners themselves Respectfully,

F. X. BOURG, Assessor
