The next meeting of the police jury will be on November 6th.

An invaluable strengthener for the nerves, muscles, and digestive organs, producing strength and appetite, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

Wednesday night was cold and stormy, and Thursday it continued to shower and drizzle nearly all day. Plenty cold for it, but no frost yet.

The unusual phenomenon of a cow giving birth to two calves at once has just occurred at the place of Jesse Fredrick, a colored man living in Grant parish, about five miles south of Colfax. At last accounts the twins were two days old, and mother and calves doing well.

For several weeks past cows belonging to citizens of Colfax have been coming home out and mutilated in other ways. Until yesterday there was no clue to the perpetrator. On that day a valuable cow belonging to Dr. Deal came home with Isom Littleberry's hatchet sticking in her head. Isom now takes his meals with Mr. Lacroix.

An enricher of the blood and purifier of the system; cures lassitude and lack of energy; such is Brown's Iron Bitters.

River low and boats charging card and a half rates. Since the rains of the past two or three days it is probable that the river will come up and freights go down pretty soon. In fact we understand, the river has already risen over a foot. The fall in freights, of course, will not take place so suddenly as the change in the river. That is a different matter, you know, and it would not be dignified for our steamboatmen to act precipitately.

The following joint card shows the manner, and by whom, the different terms of the court in the 12th district are to be held:

It is hereby understood that Judge Barbin will be present at the district court in Rapides on the first Tuesday of said term and all the recesses of said term will be held at the residence of Judge Blackman to open and hold the term, and try all other cases. Judge Blackman will hold the December term in Avoyelles; Judge Barbin the November term in Grant, and Judge Blackman the term in Rapides in January.

W. F. BLACKMAN, ARISTIDES BARBIN, Judges 12th District.

The impostor, T. F. Ball, stuck his finger into Mr. Wiley Futrell's eye for a $125 male. As a guarantee to Mr. Futrell that he was perfectly able to pay for the male, Ball exhibited a note for several hundred dollars, nearly due, on a business firm of Carrollton, Carroll county, Ga. It seems to us that Mr. Futrell, as a business man, ought to have inquired into the matter more before trusting an entire stranger. But then Mr. F. is no more to be censured than are the good people of Bethel Baptist church, who received this upstart adventurer with open arms, without once inquiring who he was or where he came from. Since he has skipped with a fine male, leaving a young wife to mourn his perfidy and her own lack of discretion, and various other persons to bewail their trustfulness in this "nice young man," at the request of the members of Bethel church, Mr. S. B. Newman of Colfax has written to the sheriff of Carroll county, who answers and says that no such person as Thomas Franklin Ball is known to him or to any of the inhabitants of the town of Carrollton. The conclusion is final that Ball is a fraud, and if he ever was in Carroll county, he went by the name of Jones or some other alias.

Bailey's Balm is rapidly coming into general use throughout the United States. It is a white powder, and when placed in water, forms, sparkles and tastes just like soda water. It is very cooling and pleasant, acts gently upon the bowels, relieves constipation, cures sick headache, sour stomach, heartburn.

Personal.

Our old time friend, Judge A. Cahat, has spent the past week in Colfax. We hope he will take such a liking to his old home that he will move back from Terrebonne parish, his present location.

We were pleased to have Mr. A. Jarreau, of Pineville, call on us last Saturday. Mr. J. has lately formed a copartnership with Mr. W. J. Calvit, under the firm name of Calvit & Jarreau, for the purpose of doing a warehouse and commission business. Mr. Jarreau is the agent for George Plant & Co's, celebrated flour mills of St. Louis, and we understand sold about a hundred barrels of flour to the merchants of Colfax during his stay in our town.

Many young girls are unfit for active life, and thousands of mothers drag out a miserable existence on account of a peculiar female weakness which they absolutely refuse to cure. They are full of aches and pains, are poor, weak frail creatures, irregular each month—with pale faces, glaring eyes, shattered nerves, and almost worn out constitutions. A powerful combination has been prepared by the medical profession, for the cure of these serious female complaints, and its action is pronounced wonderful. It is known as Dr. Dromgool's English Female Bitters.

A Committee With Power.

The Republican Congressional convention met in Shreveport Oct. 10th, in the United States court-room, all the parishes being represented by regular delegates and proxies. Isaac Bell was elected chairman and a full Congressional executive committee elected. Resolutions were adopted appointing a committee of five with power to place a candidate in the field, should the same be deemed expedient and for the interest of the Republican party. From this it may be deemed certain that Mr. Blanchard will have an opponent in the 4th Congressional district.

Lingering leucorrhoea or whites, so common among females all over the South, are immediately cured by the use of English Female Bitters.

Many smart people make the mistake of supposing that satire and repartee are conclusive when used in reply to argument. If they were to take a sober thought they would discover satire is not always sense, nor is repartee a sensible reply to a well founded argument.

LAYSARD—At his father's residence in Grant parish, La., on Monday, October 16, 1882, CHARLES HENRY LAYSARD, aged six years 9 months, son of F. E. Laysard.

LACROIX—In Colfax, La., at 7:45 on the evening of Monday, October 16, 1882, MRS. LACROIX, aged 6 years 10 months and 10 days, daughter of S. M. and Susan Lacroix.

If there is a reward for innocence in the bright Heaven above, then that reward is Little Meme's portion. If Death is an eternal sleep, then has Little Meme gone to a long rest ere her joyous life had grown weary with the trials and disappointments incident to our sojourn on earth. Accepting the belief in God and Heaven, then have the sorrowing parents a strong alibi cord entwined within their heartstrings to draw them to the loved one gone before.—Ed.

PRICKLY ASH BITTERS. The majority of the ills of the human body arise from a derangement of the Liver, affecting both the stomach and bowels. In order to effect a cure, it is necessary to remove the cause. Prickly Ash and Sassafras Bitters, the only medicine that cures the Biliary, Hemorrhoidal, Rheumatic, Pains in the Back and Limbs, etc., indicates that the Liver is at fault, and that nature requires assistance to enable this organ to throw off impurities.

Prickly Ash Bitters are especially recommended for this purpose. They are mild in their action and operate as a cure; are pleasant to the taste and taken mostly by both children and adults. Taken according to directions, they are a safe and pleasant cure for Dyspepsia, General Debility, Biliousness, Constipation, Biliary Colic, Headache, etc., etc. As a blood purifier they are superior to any other medicine, and cleaning the system thoroughly, and imparting new life and energy to the invalid. It is a medicine and not an intoxicating beverage.
