AGENTS.

Mr. A. A. Goodwin, of Alexandria, is an authorized agent of the CHRONICLE, and will contract for advertisements and receive subscriptions.

LOCAL DOTS.

Some cotton on hand yet. Several gins in this vicinity were kept busy all the week.

Ten spring chickens or eight full grown fowls will pay a year's subscription to the CHRONICLE.

The only iron preparation that does not color the teeth, and will not cause headache or constipation, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

A gentleman who has ridden over some of our roads lately gives it as his opinion that about half our road overseers ought to be indicted, while the other half should be hung.

The Marksville papers speak of a beaver, killed near Cottonport, as if they are very rare animals in that region. Hundreds of them are to be found in the lakes and bayous of Grant parish.

For all chronic female weaknesses and irregularities, the English Female Bitters stands at the head of the list.

Ten days ago, Felix Miles and another negro named York Johnson got into an altercation at a church, and the former out Johnson severely, ran away and has not yet been caught up with by our officers.

All subscribers who pay a year's subscription to the CHRONICLE in advance will be presented with the American Farmer, a 16-page monthly published at Ft. Wayne, Ind., for one year, free of cost.

Mr. McKnight will go to the city on business to-day. He has timed it pretty well, and will be able to combine pleasure and profit, by taking in the Mardi Gras festivities, which will be in full blast next Tuesday.

Master Thomas Newman, who has for the past year graced the position of "devil" in this office, has gone to Alexandria to attend school. Tom, like the balance of his species, is a good boy—when he is asleep.

The Louisiana Press Association meets in New Orleans on next Monday, Feb. 5th. Would like to meet with you, gentlemen, but it is impossible. A press of office work and the accumulation of babies demands our attention at home.

Dr. J. W. Gibson, of Ark., writes: "For many years my wife was a sufferer from a terrible female complaint that baffled the skill of all physicians around me. There seemed no hope for her. I was made acquainted with the composition of Dr. Ross's English Female Bitters, and knowing these to be good, I procured several bottles and placed her upon it. They cured her sound and well, and I do not hesitate to say they saved her life."

A rural philosopher is described by the Capitolian-Advocate thus: "Some one was complaining to him about the wet weather and the mud, when he replied: 'I'm glad of it—glad of it, sir! Never saw a wet winter yet but what we had fine crops the next summer. Glad, sir—let her rain!' And he shook the growler's hand in a spirited, joyful way and moved on like he was making preparations to harvest that fine crop."

When you take a trip you are frequently troubled with constipation, headache, pain in the stomach, indigestion, a feeling of weakness or general lassitude, heartburn, acid or sour stomach, etc. You do not wish to strain your stomach with a lot of nauseating pills; but if you wish a pleasant and satisfactory remedy, procure one bottle of Bally's Saline Aperient, which will cost only 50 cents. It is exceedingly pleasant, always ready, acts promptly.

Buffalo Bill, the negro convicted of murder at the last jury term of the district court and sentenced to be hung, has had his sentence commuted by the governor to imprisonment for life. Attorney Wickliffe is correspondingly happy. In fact, he appears to appreciate the Executive's clemency more than does the negro his own good fortune. When told that the Governor had commuted his sentence to imprisonment, Buffalo indignantly remarked he was "much obliged," and when some one asked if that wasn't better than hanging, he replied, "It don't make much difference, anyway."

The associate and venerable editor of the Grafna Courier, has been singularly unfortunate within the past sixteen months, having in that time buried four grown sons. His youngest son, aged 29 years, died recently at Thibodeaux, leaving a wife and two children. Only those who have suffered the loss of children in the prime of life can appreciate the sorrow of a father who sees his pride cut down in manhood's noon.

Mrs. Langtry, the English actress known as the "Jersey Lily," about whom so much unwarranted scandal has been written by sensational reporters, has been acting this week at the St. Charles theater in New Orleans. While not considered a great beauty in this country of beautiful women, still she is graceful and attractive to a degree seldom equaled by women on the stage.

A New York doctor has been figuring for the last twenty years, and has reached the conclusion that very small feet on a woman means a temper like unto cayenne pepper, and a tongue to match it. The N. O. States says this is a noble effort to console women with big feet, but it's no go.

The world's greatest musical wonder, the negro Blind Tom, is giving a series of concerts in New Orleans. He was born blind and learned to play without being instructed.

The letter "h" is only a breath, yet six of the sweetest words in the English language begin with it. They are—heart, hope, home, health, happiness and heaven.

Not an experiment or cheap medicine is Brown's Iron Bitters. It is prepared by one of the oldest and most reliable chemical firms, and will do all that is claimed for it.

LIST OF JURORS. Drawn to Serve at the Term of the District Court to be Held on the 6th Day of March, A. D. 1883. STATE OF LOUISIANA, PARISH OF GRANT.

BE IT KNOWN AND REMEMBERED, that we the undersigned Jury Commissioners of the parish of Grant, duly appointed and qualified according to law, met this day in the Clerk's office, in the court house in said parish, to draw a jury to serve at the next term of District Court, to be held on Tuesday the 6th day of March, A. The clerk of the court, S. B. Shackelford, then furnished the jury commissioners with a list of the jury who had served at the last term of the District Court, when the Jury Commissioners with the assistance of the Clerk of the District Court and Ex-officio a member of the jury commissioners, proceeded to open the general venire box, and after revising the same by striking from the list and taking from the box all those who had removed from the parish, died, etc., then proceeded to replace a like number of names in the general venire box taken from the Registration books of said parish so as to supplement the number of names taken from the general venire box, to its original number three hundred, when Mr. H. McKnight drew from the general venire box in the presence of the undersigned commissioners one at a time the following fifty names to serve for the first week:
