The river is at low boating stage, and freights are high in proportion.

A pleasant little hop was indulged in by our young folks on Thursday night, at the Lacroix house.

The weatherboarding has been put on the frame of the new Catholic church this week, and the steeple is beginning to assume symmetrical shape.

Mr. J. A. Duckworth is to become a resident of Colfax, and has already commenced preparations to build himself a house on Mr. Teal's Acme addition.

IF YOUR BACK ACHES Or you are all worn out, really good for nothing is in general supply. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It will cure you, and give a good appetite. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

The long-expected rain came on the night of Friday, 14th, breaking the longest drouth known in this region for ten years, no rain having fallen for fully ten weeks.

Mr. Joe Kouns has moved back to Colfax, and occupies the house in which Mr. L. C. Sers formerly lived, the latter having moved into his new house near the Catholic church.

Mr. A. L. Grow, who has been in a bad state of health for several months, and has been confined to his bed for the last eight weeks, continues at about the same stage of weakness, with little abatement of strength or evidence of improvement.

The institute meeting for last Saturday was a failure, owing to the heavy rains. Mrs. Armstrong, of Alexandria, and Miss Eva McCain, of Montgomery, accompanied by her brother Clarence, were among those who came to Colfax only to meet with disappointment.

"What a whopper!" That's the exclamation of everybody who is told that Mr. B. H. Williamson raised a potato weighing 12 pounds. If you don't believe it, just come to this office and we will show you the "spud," and it is the biggest you ever saw, just about filling a peck measure.

Editor Colfax Chronicle: Please make notice in your local dots in behalf of our church, that on October 30th, there will be a grand rally from the old church to the new church, on Col. E. G. Randolph's plantation, known as the Union Baptist church. We have built a new church and will let the old one remain for a school house. Hope you will do the best you can for us. The old church was too small for our congregation. Both white and black are invited to be with us on the 30th, and we trust our white friends will do all they can to help us. Very respectfully, LORENZO SMITH.
