

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE. Entered as second-class mail matter at the Postoffice at Colfax, La.

SATURDAY, MARCH 25, 1899.

LOCAL DOTS.

Mr. C. M. Brannon, of Pollock, was in town yesterday.

Mr. J. M. Dufflho is having a house built on the lot just in the rear of the Catholic church.

No other medicine builds up and fortifies the system against miscarriage as well as Simmons Squaw Vine Wine or Tablets.

Capt. C. C. Nash came down on last Tuesday and spent about three days in Colfax and vicinity.

The curative properties, strength and effect of Dr. M. A. Simmons liver medicine are always the same. It cannot be equalled.

Dr. E. W. Gill is having the room next to the LeSage hotel fitted up for an office and apothecary shop.

Easter Bonnets, Trimmed Hats, and Fancy Millinery, latest styles and finest goods, at Compere & Calhoun's.

BORN.—To Mrs. J. H. McNeely, at 12:30 p. m. on Thursday, March 23, 1899, sixth son, and the ninth child of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Phillips, of Vilas, were in Colfax on Thursday, calling on friends and doing a little spring trading.

Mrs. L. B. Price, who went down on the Scovell last Saturday, to visit Boyce and Alexandria, returned home Wednesday.

We were pleased to meet Mr. A. C. Teddlie, of Montgomery, on last Monday, who was here on a trade for some land.

Miss Lizzie Dyson, of Montgomery, arrived in Colfax on last Saturday, and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Long for a couple of weeks.

Flushed cheeks, throbbing temples, nausea, lassitude, lost appetite, sallow complexion, pimples, blotches are warnings. Take Dr. M. A. Simmons liver medicine.

The colored people expect to have a big time of it at Union Rigolette Baptist church on Easter Sunday, April 2d. The funeral of Pinkney Chambers will be preached.

Miss Louise Teal, who has been away on a trip to New Orleans for more than a month, returned home on Tuesday, improved in health and spirits from her outing.

Mr. E. N. Evans, who was down with the grippe last week, came down town last Monday, and has been attending to business all the week and getting stronger every day.

Mr. W. B. Harper was in town on Monday, to look after his homestead contest. He had his horn along and incidentally tooted it with variation sounds for the amusement of the boys.

Mr. Jno. A. Williams, who has been attending court at Winnfield, returned yesterday by way of Montgomery, and brought home with him Dr. R. E. Jackson, who will remain on a visit until the next boat passes up.

The season has been splendid for planting for the last two weeks, and our farmers have made good use of the time. Quite a number have got in all their corn, and some have begun planting cotton.

Mr. C. W. Williams, of ward seven, came down on last Monday, expecting to take Mr. Rube Garrett home with him on Tuesday, but Mr. G. was so weak Dr. Jones would not consent for him to risk the trip home.

We were pleased to meet Mr. Rube Garrett at the court house on Thursday, just out from a two-weeks spell of a grippe, which has left him in pretty thin order and quite weak, but in fair shape to recover rapidly.

Latest styles in Spring Hats and Fancy Millinery have just been received by Misses Compere & Calhoun, Second street, opposite court house. Also Ribbons, Flowers and Notions in great variety, at best city prices.

Mrs. M. M. Duffy and her two daughters, Mrs. Ada Hawkins and Miss Mary, have had a portion of their household effects moved to Pollock, and expect to leave with the balance to-day, with the expectation of making their home at that place for some months. The house Mrs. Duffy is having built on the lot just below Mr. Easterbrook's will be rented for the summer.

An 8-horse Engine and Boiler, will be sold for $250, on good terms to responsible party. For particulars apply to T. M. Wells on Grant's Point, or at the Several ladies formed themselves into a "zobo" band this week, and spent an hour or two one night serenading their friends by the light of the silvery moon. One young benedict is said to have got wrathly because the melody of their trumpeting waked the baby and he had to sing it to sleep again. Nothing like a bit of philosophy on such occasions, partner. A little affair like that at our house wouldn't cause a ripple.

If you want pasturage for horses or cattle, call on Dr. M. A. Dunn. See his advertisement in this column.

Constipation of the bowels may be easily cured by a few doses of Dr. M. A. Simmons liver medicine.

MARRIED.

EVERETT-CHAFFER—At the home of the bride, about one mile north of Colfax, on Monday, March 20, 1899, at 7:30 p. m., Mr. N. W. Everett was united in marriage with Mrs. Chaffer, widow, Magistrate W. L. Richardson officiating.

The CHRONICLE wishes them success and happiness, and congratulates them upon their union of hopes and endeavors.

DIED.

BUCKNER—On Monday, February 27, 1899, Carrie Irene Buckner, little daughter of W. F. and Ella Buckner, born in Grant parish, La., January 6, 1896, departed this life aged three years, one month and twenty-one days.

She was taken with congestion of the brain and only lived six hours, and although faithfully nursed it was of no avail. She leaves a mother, father, two brothers, and a host of other relatives to mourn her loss. She was buried Wednesday, March 1st, at the Coleman graveyard, on Hudson Creek. The usual services at the grave were held by J. G. L. Brown. Many friends and relatives were present to witness the last scene of our loved one.

Go to thy rest fair child! Go to thy dreamless bed, While yet so gentle, undefiled, With blessings on thy head.

E're sin has seared thy breast, Or sorrow marked a tear, Rise to throne of changeless rest, In yon celestial sphere!

Because thy smile was fair, Thy lip and eye so bright, Because thy loving cradle-care Was such a dear delight,

Shall love, with weak embrace, Thy upward wing detain? No! gentle angel, seek thy place Amid the cherub train.

Written by her auntie, I. V. B.

To Confederate Soldiers.

Colfax, La., Nov. 2, 1898.

I offer my services free of all charges to any Confederate soldier or soldier's widow who desires to apply for a pension.

The amount set apart for pensions is small; and the distressed condition of a large number of these old soldiers, and their widows, calls for every dime allowed them by law.

Widows whose husbands died since June 1st, 1865, do not come under the law. W. L. SHACKELFORD, Clerk District Court.
