

LOCAL DOTS:

The Catholic church is being treated to a coat of new paint.

District court meets next Monday, to hold a two weeks' session.

See notice of meeting of the stockholders of the La. Railway Co.

Mr. F. B. Dean, of Walnut Grove, was in town a short while Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. E. N. Evans went to Natchitoches last Sunday, to be gone about two weeks on a visit to relatives and friends.

Eczema, salt rheum, tetter, chafing, itchy poisoning and all skin troubles are quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the certain cure. J. A. Hyde.

Mr. W. N. Creed, merchant, of Black Creek, was in Colfax on Wednesday, and carried out a dozen barrels of flour, shipped to this point for him.

Mr. James Brown of Putnam, Va. over 90 years of age suffered for years with a bad sore on his face. Physicians could not help him. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. J. A. Hyde.

Work on the depot of the S. & R. R. V. railroad in Colfax is well along since our report of last Saturday, and in another week the building will be completed.

More than a thousand law suits, involving many millions of dollars, have been filed at Beaumont, Texas, on account of the discovery of oil in that region.

The Shreveport and Red River Valley Railway has ordered, from the American Car and Foundry Company 30 flat cars, of 60,000 pounds' capacity, and 250 miscellaneous cars.

The bilious, tired, nervous man cannot successfully compete with his healthy rival. DeWitt's Little Early Tonic, the famous pills for constipation will remove the cause of your troubles. J. A. Hyde.

The door and window frames for the Colfax High School building have been received, and several of them have been put in place, and the brick wall is being built up around them.

To Cure a Cold in One Day Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25 cents.

Mr. J. H. McNeely has had a pile of rocks heaped around the artesian well on the court house square and the mud around covered over with clean sand, adding considerably to the appearance of the locality.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Williams, of Natchitoches, came overland to Colfax on Thursday, to remain a couple of days as the guests of their son Mr. Jno. A. Williams. They came by way of Montgomery, making the trip in one day.

The town council should at its regular meeting next Monday, take some action relative to opening the streets, building bridges, establishing a fire limit, and cutting down the big pecan tree killed by the heat of the late fire.

Mr. A. A. Dean, of Fairmount was in Colfax a couple of days this week, inquiring for some stray mules and horses. Also his son, Captain Dean, was here on the same errand, and we believe most, if not all of the animals were found.

We neglected to make mention last week of a plate of nice, almost pure white honey, presented by Mrs. W. L. Richardson, for which we return many thanks. It was extra delicate in color and flavor, and a most enjoyable treat.

Mr. Joe Stewart, who was so badly hurt by falling from a railroad bridge a few weeks ago, and was reported to be dead, was in Colfax yesterday morning. He is a little stiff and sore from his injuries, but considers himself well enough to go to work in a few days.

Prof. H. B. Hines left last Wednesday evening by the Red River Valley train, to go to his old home at Brandon, Miss., via Shreveport and Monroe, on a business trip of five days. He expects to return in time to open school at Summerfield, where he has engaged to teach for the summer.

Mr. J. V. LeSage was called to Baton Rouge last Saturday, in answer to a telegram announcing the death of his brother, Capt. Bluch LeSage, in that city at 5 p. m. on the 24th inst. He was accompanied by his two sons, Andrew and Bluch, and the three of them arrived in time to attend the funeral on Monday.

Mr. Elmo Jackson, of Montgomery, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Jno. A. Williams, for the past few days. Brinker, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Williams, has been quite sick, causing several members of the family to come to see him. We are glad to announce that he is now thought to be out of danger and on the road to recovery.

The long-talked-of "removal" of the court house in Colfax is now actually under way. Mr. Ed. Stuekey, the contractor, arrived on Thursday with a wagon load of pulleys, jacks, screws, ropes, blocks and tackle, etc., and started on his job Friday morning. Last evening he had the building resting on about twenty rollers, and expects to roll it in place by this evening, and have it ready to hold court next Monday morning.

A Good Cough Medicine.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following grippe, and find it very efficacious." For sale by J. H. McNeely, Colfax, and Bush & Randolph, Fairmount.

Dr. L. Bertrand, dentist, of Cloutierville, who has been at the LaCroix hotel for the past week, will remain for another week. He invites all who are in need of dental work to call on him at once, as he proposes to leave at the expiration of another week. He has a full line of first-class instruments and is prepared to do all kinds of intricate dentistry.

A Terrible Explosion

"Of a gasoline stove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. E. Palmer, of Kirkman, Ia. "The best doctors couldn't heal the running sore that followed, but Buckley's Arnica Salve entirely cured her." Infallible for bruises, cuts, corns, sores, boils, skin diseases and piles. 25c at L. B. Price, Colfax, and Bush & Randolph, Fairmount.

A farewell sociable and ice cream supper was given to the Colfax High School class at the editor's residence last Tuesday night. Forty persons made up the party. The time seemed to be pleasant and agreeable to all, and it was well along in the early hours before they decided to break up.

Mr. Jas. Bradshaw, of Alexandria, representing the Equitable Life Insurance Co., spent two or three days here this week, looking up business.

Unnecessary Loss of Time.

Mr. W. S. Whedon, cashier of the First National Bank of Winterset, Iowa, in a recent letter gives some experience with a carpenter in his employ, that will be of value to other mechanics. He says: "I had a carpenter working for me who was obliged to stop work for several days on account of being troubled with diarrhoea. I mentioned to him that I had been similarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him, and he is again at his work." For sale by J. H. McNeely, Colfax; Bush & Randolph, Fairmount.
