Dr. J. C. Chapman has purchased the stock of the Crescent Drug Company from Dr. E. B. Gray and Earl Roberts. For the present the business will be run in the same building as heretofore, but we learn Dr. Chapman has contracted with Mr. R. M. C. Dunan to build him a store next to the postoffice, and as soon as it is completed he will move the stock of drugs into it and conduct a first-class drug store.

Attention, Woodmen.
Colfax Valley Camp No. 144 will hold their regular meeting to-night, February 16th. A full attendance of the Camp is urged, as matters of importance are to be disposed of, among them being the organization of a degree team.
J. C. McKNIGHT, C. C.
A. B. PERKINS, Clerk.

Dr. R. O. Simmons, of Alexandria, came up on Tuesday morning's train, in order to hold a consultation with Drs. R. E. Jackson and W. J. Roberts, over the case of Miss Maude Dunn, daughter of Dr. Milton Dunn, who was in a critical condition, but is now improving. They determined it to be a case of appendicitis, but that an operation at this time was not necessary or advisable.

Messrs. E. A. Mathis and Sam L. Wells were business visitors to Natchitoches last Monday. Mr. Mathis went as a witness in the matter of final homestead proof for John I. Roberts at the land office in that city. Two other Grant parish citizens also made final proof at the same time. Mrs. Adeline A. Fletcher and Mr. Irven C. Dyson.

You should by all means try a planting of that Oklahoma 1 1/2 inch staple cotton seed that J. H. McNeely has for sale. On recommendation of the Cotton Planters' Association he is going to give it a liberal trial himself, but having bought a car load of the seed, he also wants to give the general public a chance to try it.

Best and Cheapest.
Panol Liver Regulator keeps the stomach and bowels working just right. That means to be well and to keep well. And it makes your money go the furthest. Tin box, 15 cents. Money back if you want it. For sale by Dr. W. J. Roberts and Crescent Drug Co.

An impromptu dance at the McKnight & Wells skating rink was gotten up last Monday night, at which refreshments of cake, chocolate and coffee were sold for the benefit of the Catholic church. A large number of the young folks were in attendance and the neat sum of $15 was raised for the church.

Mr. J. Q. Long has sold his residence on Fourth street to Mr. Emanuel Ethridge, taking in exchange in the trade a 70-acre farm near Phillips station. Mr. Long has bought another lot in Colfax, a short distance north of the J. W. Duncan store, and will build a residence on it.

A number of the young folks were out masquerading Tuesday night. The skating rink was the principle scene of their antics and escapades and their grotesque, picturesque and ludicrous costumes afforded great merriments for the onlookers.

Willie wailed and Winnie wheezed, while wintry winds whined weirdly, Willie wriggled while Winnie wheezed wretchedly. Wisdom whispered, winter winds work wheezes. Wherefore we write, "Use Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup." Nothing else so good. Sold by H. B. Faraldo.

Early Oklahoma storm-proof cotton seed—car load just received by J. H. McNeely. Also a limited supply of King's improved cotton seed for sale.

A business and social meeting was combined at the home of Mrs. W. A. Browlee last Tuesday, and after the regular business the members of the Woman's Home Mission Society tackled a comfort to sell for the benefit of the Methodist parsonage. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

At a meeting of the Colfax Woodmen of the World held last week, Mr. J. C. McKnight was elected as a delegate from Valley Camp No. 144 to attend a meeting of the head Camp officers, which meets in Monroe next month. Mr. Wm. LaCroix was elected as alternate.

Use a little Kodol after your meals and it will be found to afford a prompt and efficient relief. Kodol nearly approximates the digestive juices. It digests what you eat. It is sold on a guaranteed relief plan. Sold here by H. B. Faraldo.

Mrs. J. Q. Long, Mrs. L. H. Johnston, Mrs. E. H. Blackwood, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kelsoe, Mr. and Mrs. N. Kennedy, and Messrs. Earl Roberts and R. E. McKnight have returned from New Orleans, where they went to witness the carnival.

Mrs. Lily Carmichael and Misses Lela and Willie Johnson arrived from Bienville last Sunday night, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bayne until Thursday of this week, when they returned home via Shreveport.

Early maturing cotton seed is now all the go for planting. A car of the early variety of storm-proof seed from Oklahoma has just been received by J. H. McNeely. Also a limited supply of King's improved seed will be sold.

Piles of people have piles. Why suffer from piles when you can use DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve and get relief. Nothing else so good. Beware of imitations. See that the name is stamped on each box. Sold by H. B. Faraldo.

Messrs. Frank E. Lemoine and C. Marshall have formed a partnership butcher business and are occupying the O'Quinn building near the depot as a market.

River farm of 51 acres, 27 cleared and cultivated, 2 houses, cistern, stable, crib, sheds and cotton house, only $1650, one-third cash, balance 1 and 2 years. See Goodwyn.

The Harris & Eberhart Amusement Co. pitched their show tents in Colfax this week according to announcement and their street carnival has been drawing good crowds at night.

We have to cut short on locals and comment this week in order to make room for the list of delinquent taxpayers, which will be found on our first page.

The latt Lumber Company received their new delivery wagon this week, and is now prepared to deliver all purchases to any part of the town.

Mr. W. C. Williams and family left on last Thursday for Texas, where they will spend several months and probably locate in that State.

Dr. R. Lee Roberts came up from Alexandria last Tuesday and remained here until yesterday to do some dental work.

Good four-room house with cistern, on lot 100x110 feet, in town of Montgomery, will be sold cheap on liberal terms; half cash, balance 1 and 2 years. See Goodwyn.

Rev. J. T. Sawyer, presiding elder, arrived in Colfax last Saturday morning and remained over until Monday morning holding quarterly conference Saturday night, and preaching Sunday noon and night. The Colfax and Montgomery charge was assessed $1000 for ministerial support, divided on the work as follows: Colfax $400; Montgomery, $275; Atlanta, $100; St. Maurice, $100; Clarence, $75; Ebenezer, $50. Of this amount $200 was estimated as necessary for Rev. L. I. McCain's railroad and traveling expenses.

A sign painter struck Colfax last week and proceeded to "paint the town," but in a way that is pleasing and attractive to the eye. A number of windows and glass fronts were embellished with catchy phrases in a combination of colors, as well as plain signs being painted for several business houses. Among those having work done were Bank of Colfax, Drs. Goode & Gray, Drs. E. H. Blackwood, Valley Drug Store, Colfax Mercantile Co., Grant Parish Democrat Latt Lumber Co. and Tammuello Bros.

Hunting for Trouble.
"I've lived in California 20 years, and am still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains, or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure," writes Charles Walters, of Alleghany, Sierra county. No use hunting, Mr. Walters; it cures every case. Guaranteed by Crescent Drug Co. 25c.

The Chronicle is in receipt of an invitation to attend the marriage of Miss Rosa Stewart to Dr. Frank Oliver Maxwell, the happy event to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stewart, in Pollock, at six o'clock in the evening of February 20th, 1907. Both parties are quite popular and their numerous friends will join the Chronicle in offering congratulations in advance and wishing them joy and prosperity in their venture on the matrimonial sea.

Sour Stomach
No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.
Mr. S. S. Bell, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."
Kodol Digests What You Eat.
Relieves indigestion, sour stomach, belching of gas, etc.
