

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Reynolds were visitors to Alexandria on Tuesday.

Mr. J. J. Payne, of Winnfield, was among the visitors to Colfax on Thursday.

Spring time is painting time. Get your paints, oils and varnishes from the Dixie Drug Co.

Clothes and furnishings to fit every man's taste and purse at Sackman Brothers, Alexandria, La.

Mr. W. E. Faraldo returned on last Saturday from a trip of several days to Atlanta.

A new stock of box paper, envelopes and legal and fool's cap paper just received at the Dixie Drug Store.

Mr. H. L. Graham, our efficient depot agent, made a business trip to Shreveport last Saturday.

Mr. R. M. Dunn, of Montgomery, was among those attending court this week as talesmen jurors.

If it's worth having in men's clothing or furnishings we have it. Sackman Brothers, Alexandria, La.

Mr. T. O. Hart, of the Hart and Adams Lumber Co., at Bentley, was among those attending court this week.

Play ball! And don't forget that the Dixie Drug Co. have a full line of base ball goods, bats, balls, masks, gloves, etc.

Miss Eva Davis came down from Camp last Sunday and visited Colfax relatives and friends, returning Monday evening.

Miss Vera Jones, of Arcadia, arrived on Tuesday, and is the guest of her brother, Dr. W. A. Jones, who went to Shreveport to meet her.

Rev. Father Blain will hold mass at the Catholic church at 9:30 a. m. on Sunday, and will lecture on "Socialism" at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The editor of the Chronicle had a mess of green peas from his garden on Saturday, April 10th, the 59th anniversary of the editor's birthday.

A fresh lot of Jacob's candies, "made last night," just received at the Dixie Drug Store. Price ranges from 5c to $1.50 per box.

Niagra Falls was frozen over and its roaring avalanche of waters still for the second time within the last hundred years on the 10th of April.

Preparations for commencement have begun at the Colfax high school, and "big doings" for its closing exercises in May are reported to be in progress.

There is a town ordinance against playing base ball on the streets, but there is nothing to prohibit you from buying your base ball outfit from the Dixie Drug Co.

The baptistry at the Baptist church in Colfax is about completed, and Mr. G. N. Givens this week finished painting it on the outside with a coat of white to correspond with the body of the church.

Mr. Victor Vallery on last Monday bought a lot and small house in Colfax from Mr. Frank Lemoine for the price of $230. The house is situated on the second lot north of Mr. C. D. LaCroix's residence.

Deputy C. H. Compton came in last Saturday evening with two prisoners, Ed. Beulah, a white man, charged with selling liquor without license, and Tootsie Jones, a negro woman, charged with selling liquor without license.

We have them. You'll want them. The best ideas and styles in men's clothing and furnishings. Up-to-the-minute in style, down to rock bottom in prices. Men's clothing and furnishings at Sackman Brothers, Alexandria, La.

Deputy S. M. LaCroix started to Fayette, Alabama, last Saturday, in order to bring back the party in jail there supposed to be John W. Green, the man wanted for insurance frauds in this parish. Deputy LaCroix managed to find out that it was the wrong party, and turned back after going as far as Baton Rouge.

Mr. P. L. Clark and family we understand are moving to Rock Island, and will live with Mrs. L. McNeely in her residence, which she reserved in the late sale of her Rock Island place to Mr. C. W. LaCroix. Mr. Will Stallings and wife will occupy the residence of Mr. Clark.

The section hands will in a few days finish the "Y" being built at Colfax, and Mr. H. L. Graham the depot agent, tells us that as soon as it is finished the L. R. & N. trains from Winnfield will run into Colfax, instead of stopping at Aloha Junction as at present.

Mr. J. B. Roberts left for Baton Rouge on Wednesday, to attend the meeting of the State Board of Appraisers, of which he is a member. His absence will be determined by the amount of business that may come before the board.

FOUND.—A very nice lady's white coat was found on Sunday, April 11th, in the road between Colfax and Fairmount, which the owner can have by calling at the Chronicle office, describing property and paying for this notice.

Alpha Grove Woodmen Circle. The ladies of the Woodmen Circle of Colfax, Alpha Grove, U. D., request us to announce that their charter will be open until the 2d day of May, for the reception of applications for charter members. All are invited to take advantage of the reduced rates for this occasion.

At a meeting Friday night, April 2, 1909, the following officers were elected, viz: Guardian, Mrs. Emma Clark; Advisor, Mrs. C. H. Compton; Clerk, Mrs. A. A. Willett; Banker, Mrs. F. B. Cole; Attendant, Mrs. Lela Long; Chaplain, Mrs. G. N. Givens; Inner Sentinel, Mrs. R. M. C. Duncan; Outer Sentinel, Mr. C. H. Smith; Managers, Mrs. M. Williamson, and A. A. Willett and R. M. C. Duncan; Physicians, E. B. Gray, E. H. Blackwood.

On Friday evening of last week Mr. Will B. Few and Mr. Chas. T. Barr left for Texarkana, Ark., on a mysterious trip. It now develops that on Sunday Mr. Few was married to Miss Pearl Duffot, a beautiful and popular young lady of Texarkana, whom he brought back to Colfax with him on Tuesday. The happy couple are at home with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Johnston, and we congratulate them and welcome them as citizens and wish them great success and happiness in life.

Mrs. A. R. Hoffpauir, of Belle City, arrived this week, and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Waltman. Mrs. Hoffpauir is the wife of the minister of that name, who has been quite ill for some time, and is now with his people in South Louisiana with the view of resting up and recuperating his health, while she also rests and recovers from the fatigue of her long vigil as nurse.

Mr. J. C. Goulden, the well known painter of Alexandria, came up on Tuesday and remained over to Wednesday. He was accompanied by his sons, Ed. and Sam, who will make their headquarters in Colfax for a while, in order to do some painting for the Union Mercantile Co., and for others having painting to be done.

Mrs. J. W. Duncan and other ladies of the Baptist Sunday school gave their pupils and a number of children guests an Easter egg hunt on last Saturday. The hunt was given on the vacant lot adjoining Dr. W. A. Jones' residence, and the number of "rabbit's eggs" found by the little folks was remarkable and gave them great pleasure.

Capt. C. H. Teal on Tuesday attended the regular quarterly meeting of the board of directors for the Pineville Insane Asylum. The meeting was held in the Bentley Hotel, and was attended by Gov. J. Y. Sanders and other members of the board, who attended to the regular routine business necessary for the care of the insane.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duncan went to Alexandria on Thursday to attend the laying of the corner stone of the city hall, the ceremonies of which were to be assisted in by the Knights Templars, of which order Mr. D. is a member. They remained over night in order to participate in all of the celebrations.

Deputy S. M. LaCroix started to Fayette, Alabama, last Saturday, in order to bring back the party in jail there supposed to be John W. Green, the man wanted for insurance frauds in this parish. Deputy LaCroix managed to find out that it was the wrong party, and turned back after going as far as Baton Rouge.

Mr. P. L. Clark and family we understand are moving to Rock Island, and will live with Mrs. L. McNeely in her residence, which she reserved in the late sale of her Rock Island place to Mr. C. W. LaCroix. Mr. Will Stallings and wife will occupy the residence of Mr. Clark.

The section hands will in a few days finish the "Y" being built at Colfax, and Mr. H. L. Graham the depot agent, tells us that as soon as it is finished the L. R. & N. trains from Winnfield will run into Colfax, instead of stopping at Aloha Junction as at present.

Mr. J. B. Roberts left for Baton Rouge on Wednesday, to attend the meeting of the State Board of Appraisers, of which he is a member. His absence will be determined by the amount of business that may come before the board.

FOUND.—A very nice lady's white coat was found on Sunday, April 11th, in the road between Colfax and Fairmount, which the owner can have by calling at the Chronicle office, describing property and paying for this notice.

Alpha Grove Woodmen Circle. The ladies of the Woodmen Circle of Colfax, Alpha Grove, U. D., request us to announce that their charter will be open until the 2d day of May, for the reception of applications for charter members. All are invited to take advantage of the reduced rates for this occasion.

At a meeting Friday night, April 2, 1909, the following officers were elected, viz: Guardian, Mrs. Emma Clark; Advisor, Mrs. C. H. Compton; Clerk, Mrs. A. A. Willett; Banker, Mrs. F. B. Cole; Attendant, Mrs. Lela Long; Chaplain, Mrs. G. N. Givens; Inner Sentinel, Mrs. R. M. C. Duncan; Outer Sentinel, Mr. C. H. Smith; Managers, Mrs. M. Williamson, and A. A. Willett and R. M. C. Duncan; Physicians, E. B. Gray, E. H. Blackwood.

On Friday evening of last week Mr. Will B. Few and Mr. Chas. T. Barr left for Texarkana, Ark., on a mysterious trip. It now develops that on Sunday Mr. Few was married to Miss Pearl Duffot, a beautiful and popular young lady of Texarkana, whom he brought back to Colfax with him on Tuesday. The happy couple are at home with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Johnston, and we congratulate them and welcome them as citizens and wish them great success and happiness in life.

Mrs. A. R. Hoffpauir, of Belle City, arrived this week, and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Waltman. Mrs. Hoffpauir is the wife of the minister of that name, who has been quite ill for some time, and is now with his people in South Louisiana with the view of resting up and recuperating his health, while she also rests and recovers from the fatigue of her long vigil as nurse.

Mr. J. C. Goulden, the well known painter of Alexandria, came up on Tuesday and remained over to Wednesday. He was accompanied by his sons, Ed. and Sam, who will make their headquarters in Colfax for a while, in order to do some painting for the Union Mercantile Co., and for others having painting to be done.

Mrs. J. W. Duncan and other ladies of the Baptist Sunday school gave their pupils and a number of children guests an Easter egg hunt on last Saturday. The hunt was given on the vacant lot adjoining Dr. W. A. Jones' residence, and the number of "rabbit's eggs" found by the little folks was remarkable and gave them great pleasure.

Capt. C. H. Teal on Tuesday attended the regular quarterly meeting of the board of directors for the Pineville Insane Asylum. The meeting was held in the Bentley Hotel, and was attended by Gov. J. Y. Sanders and other members of the board, who attended to the regular routine business necessary for the care of the insane.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duncan went to Alexandria on Thursday to attend the laying of the corner stone of the city hall, the ceremonies of which were to be assisted in by the Knights Templars, of which order Mr. D. is a member. They remained over night in order to participate in all of the celebrations.

Deputy S. M. LaCroix started to Fayette, Alabama, last Saturday, in order to bring back the party in jail there supposed to be John W. Green, the man wanted for insurance frauds in this parish. Deputy LaCroix managed to find out that it was the wrong party, and turned back after going as far as Baton Rouge.

Mr. P. L. Clark and family we understand are moving to Rock Island, and will live with Mrs. L. McNeely in her residence, which she reserved in the late sale of her Rock Island place to Mr. C. W. LaCroix. Mr. Will Stallings and wife will occupy the residence of Mr. Clark.

The section hands will in a few days finish the "Y" being built at Colfax, and Mr. H. L. Graham the depot agent, tells us that as soon as it is finished the L. R. & N. trains from Winnfield will run into Colfax, instead of stopping at Aloha Junction as at present.

Mr. J. B. Roberts left for Baton Rouge on Wednesday, to attend the meeting of the State Board of Appraisers, of which he is a member. His absence will be determined by the amount of business that may come before the board.

FOUND.—A very nice lady's white coat was found on Sunday, April 11th, in the road between Colfax and Fairmount, which the owner can have by calling at the Chronicle office, describing property and paying for this notice.

Alpha Grove Woodmen Circle. The ladies of the Woodmen Circle of Colfax, Alpha Grove, U. D., request us to announce that their charter will be open until the 2d day of May, for the reception of applications for charter members. All are invited to take advantage of the reduced rates for this occasion.

At a meeting Friday night, April 2, 1909, the following officers were elected, viz: Guardian, Mrs. Emma Clark; Advisor, Mrs. C. H. Compton; Clerk, Mrs. A. A. Willett; Banker, Mrs. F. B. Cole; Attendant, Mrs. Lela Long; Chaplain, Mrs. G. N. Givens; Inner Sentinel, Mrs. R. M. C. Duncan; Outer Sentinel, Mr. C. H. Smith; Managers, Mrs. M. Williamson, and A. A. Willett and R. M. C. Duncan; Physicians, E. B. Gray, E. H. Blackwood.

On Friday evening of last week Mr. Will B. Few and Mr. Chas. T. Barr left for Texarkana, Ark., on a mysterious trip. It now develops that on Sunday Mr. Few was married to Miss Pearl Duffot, a beautiful and popular young lady of Texarkana, whom he brought back to Colfax with him on Tuesday. The happy couple are at home with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Johnston, and we congratulate them and welcome them as citizens and wish them great success and happiness in life.

Mrs. A. R. Hoffpauir, of Belle City, arrived this week, and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Waltman. Mrs. Hoffpauir is the wife of the minister of that name, who has been quite ill for some time, and is now with his people in South Louisiana with the view of resting up and recuperating his health, while she also rests and recovers from the fatigue of her long vigil as nurse.

Mr. J. C. Goulden, the well known painter of Alexandria, came up on Tuesday and remained over to Wednesday. He was accompanied by his sons, Ed. and Sam, who will make their headquarters in Colfax for a while, in order to do some painting for the Union Mercantile Co., and for others having painting to be done.

Mrs. J. W. Duncan and other ladies of the Baptist Sunday school gave their pupils and a number of children guests an Easter egg hunt on last Saturday. The hunt was given on the vacant lot adjoining Dr. W. A. Jones' residence, and the number of "rabbit's eggs" found by the little folks was remarkable and gave them great pleasure.

Capt. C. H. Teal on Tuesday attended the regular quarterly meeting of the board of directors for the Pineville Insane Asylum. The meeting was held in the Bentley Hotel, and was attended by Gov. J. Y. Sanders and other members of the board, who attended to the regular routine business necessary for the care of the insane.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duncan went to Alexandria on Thursday to attend the laying of the corner stone of the city hall, the ceremonies of which were to be assisted in by the Knights Templars, of which order Mr. D. is a member. They remained over night in order to participate in all of the celebrations.

Deputy S. M. LaCroix started to Fayette, Alabama, last Saturday, in order to bring back the party in jail there supposed to be John W. Green, the man wanted for insurance frauds in this parish. Deputy LaCroix managed to find out that it was the wrong party, and turned back after going as far as Baton Rouge.

Mr. P. L. Clark and family we understand are moving to Rock Island, and will live with Mrs. L. McNeely in her residence, which she reserved in the late sale of her Rock Island place to Mr. C. W. LaCroix. Mr. Will Stallings and wife will occupy the residence of Mr. Clark.

The section hands will in a few days finish the "Y" being built at Colfax, and Mr. H. L. Graham the depot agent, tells us that as soon as it is finished the L. R. & N. trains from Winnfield will run into Colfax, instead of stopping at Aloha Junction as at present.

Mr. J. B. Roberts left for Baton Rouge on Wednesday, to attend the meeting of the State Board of Appraisers, of which he is a member. His absence will be determined by the amount of business that may come before the board.

FOUND.—A very nice lady's white coat was found on Sunday, April 11th, in the road between Colfax and Fairmount, which the owner can have by calling at the Chronicle office, describing property and paying for this notice.

Alpha Grove Woodmen Circle. The ladies of the Woodmen Circle of Colfax, Alpha Grove, U. D., request us to announce that their charter will be open until the 2d day of May, for the reception of applications for charter members. All are invited to take advantage of the reduced rates for this occasion.

At a meeting Friday night, April 2, 1909, the following officers were elected, viz: Guardian, Mrs. Emma Clark; Advisor, Mrs. C. H. Compton; Clerk, Mrs. A. A. Willett; Banker, Mrs. F. B. Cole; Attendant, Mrs. Lela Long; Chaplain, Mrs. G. N. Givens; Inner Sentinel, Mrs. R. M. C. Duncan; Outer Sentinel, Mr. C. H. Smith; Managers, Mrs. M. Williamson, and A. A. Willett and R. M. C. Duncan; Physicians, E. B. Gray, E. H. Blackwood.

On Friday evening of last week Mr. Will B. Few and Mr. Chas. T. Barr left for Texarkana, Ark., on a mysterious trip. It now develops that on Sunday Mr. Few was married to Miss Pearl Duffot, a beautiful and popular young lady of Texarkana, whom he brought back to Colfax with him on Tuesday. The happy couple are at home with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Johnston, and we congratulate them and welcome them as citizens and wish them great success and happiness in life.

Mrs. A. R. Hoffpauir, of Belle City, arrived this week, and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Waltman. Mrs. Hoffpauir is the wife of the minister of that name, who has been quite ill for some time, and is now with his people in South Louisiana with the view of resting up and recuperating his health, while she also rests and recovers from the fatigue of her long vigil as nurse.

Mr. J. C. Goulden, the well known painter of Alexandria, came up on Tuesday and remained over to Wednesday. He was accompanied by his sons, Ed. and Sam, who will make their headquarters in Colfax for a while, in order to do some painting for the Union Mercantile Co., and for others having painting to be done.

Mrs. J. W. Duncan and other ladies of the Baptist Sunday school gave their pupils and a number of children guests an Easter egg hunt on last Saturday. The hunt was given on the vacant lot adjoining Dr. W. A. Jones' residence, and the number of "rabbit's eggs" found by the little folks was remarkable and gave them great pleasure.

Capt. C. H. Teal on Tuesday attended the regular quarterly meeting of the board of directors for the Pineville Insane Asylum. The meeting was held in the Bentley Hotel, and was attended by Gov. J. Y. Sanders and other members of the board, who attended to the regular routine business necessary for the care of the insane.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duncan went to Alexandria on Thursday to attend the laying of the corner stone of the city hall, the ceremonies of which were to be assisted in by the Knights Templars, of which order Mr. D. is a member. They remained over night in order to participate in all of the celebrations.

Deputy S. M. LaCroix started to Fayette, Alabama, last Saturday, in order to bring back the party in jail there supposed to be John W. Green, the man wanted for insurance frauds in this parish. Deputy LaCroix managed to find out that it was the wrong party, and turned back after going as far as Baton Rouge.

Mr. P. L. Clark and family we understand are moving to Rock Island, and will live with Mrs. L. McNeely in her residence, which she reserved in the late sale of her Rock Island place to Mr. C. W. LaCroix. Mr. Will Stallings and wife will occupy the residence of Mr. Clark.

The section hands will in a few days finish the "Y" being built at Colfax, and Mr. H. L. Graham the depot agent, tells us that as soon as it is finished the L. R. & N. trains from Winnfield will run into Colfax, instead of stopping at Aloha Junction as at present.

Mr. J. B. Roberts left for Baton Rouge on Wednesday, to attend the meeting of the State Board of Appraisers, of which he is a member. His absence will be determined by the amount of business that may come before the board.

FOUND.—A very nice lady's white coat was found on Sunday, April 11th, in the road between Colfax and Fairmount, which the owner can have by calling at the Chronicle office, describing property and paying for this notice.

Alpha Grove Woodmen Circle. The ladies of the Woodmen Circle of Colfax, Alpha Grove, U. D., request us to announce that their charter will be open until the 2d day of May, for the reception of applications for charter members. All are invited to take advantage of the reduced rates for this occasion.

At a meeting Friday night, April 2, 1909, the following officers were elected, viz: Guardian, Mrs. Emma Clark; Advisor, Mrs. C. H. Compton; Clerk, Mrs. A. A. Willett; Banker, Mrs. F. B. Cole; Attendant, Mrs. Lela Long; Chaplain, Mrs. G. N. Givens; Inner Sentinel, Mrs. R. M. C. Duncan; Outer Sentinel, Mr. C. H. Smith; Managers, Mrs. M. Williamson, and A. A. Willett and R. M. C. Duncan; Physicians, E. B. Gray, E. H. Blackwood.

On Friday evening of last week Mr. Will B. Few and Mr. Chas. T. Barr left for Texarkana, Ark., on a mysterious trip. It now develops that on Sunday Mr. Few was married to Miss Pearl Duffot, a beautiful and popular young lady of Texarkana, whom he brought back to Colfax with him on Tuesday. The happy couple are at home with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Johnston, and we congratulate them and welcome them as citizens and wish them great success and happiness in life.

Mrs. A. R. Hoffpauir, of Belle City, arrived this week, and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Waltman. Mrs. Hoffpauir is the wife of the minister of that name, who has been quite ill for some time, and is now with his people in South Louisiana with the view of resting up and recuperating his health, while she also rests and recovers from the fatigue of her long vigil as nurse.

Mr. J. C. Goulden, the well known painter of Alexandria, came up on Tuesday and remained over to Wednesday. He was accompanied by his sons, Ed. and Sam, who will make their headquarters in Colfax for a while, in order to do some painting for the Union Mercantile Co., and for others having painting to be done.

Mrs. J. W. Duncan and other ladies of the Baptist Sunday school gave their pupils and a number of children guests an Easter egg hunt on last Saturday. The hunt was given on the vacant lot adjoining Dr. W. A. Jones' residence, and the number of "rabbit's eggs" found by the little folks was remarkable and gave them great pleasure.

Capt. C. H. Teal on Tuesday attended the regular quarterly meeting of the board of directors for the Pineville Insane Asylum. The meeting was held in the Bentley Hotel, and was attended by Gov. J. Y. Sanders and other members of the board, who attended to the regular routine business necessary for the care of the insane.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duncan went to Alexandria on Thursday to attend the laying of the corner stone of the city hall, the ceremonies of which were to be assisted in by the Knights Templars, of which order Mr. D. is a member. They remained over night in order to participate in all of the celebrations.

Deputy S. M. LaCroix started to Fayette, Alabama, last Saturday, in order to bring back the party in jail there supposed to be John W. Green, the man wanted for insurance frauds in this parish. Deputy LaCroix managed to find out that it was the wrong party, and turned back after going as far as Baton Rouge.

Mr. P. L. Clark and family we understand are moving to Rock Island, and will live with Mrs. L. McNeely in her residence, which she reserved in the late sale of her Rock Island place to Mr. C. W. LaCroix. Mr. Will Stallings and wife will occupy the residence of Mr. Clark.

The section hands will in a few days finish the "Y" being built at Colfax, and Mr. H. L. Graham the depot agent, tells us that as soon as it is finished the L. R. & N. trains from Winnfield will run into Colfax, instead of stopping at Aloha Junction as at present.

Mr. J. B. Roberts left for Baton Rouge on Wednesday, to attend the meeting of the State Board of Appraisers, of which he is a member. His absence will be determined by the amount of business that may come before the board.

FOUND.—A very nice lady's white coat was found on Sunday, April 11th, in the road between Colfax and Fairmount, which the owner can have by calling at the Chronicle office, describing property and paying for this notice.

Alpha Grove Woodmen Circle. The ladies of the Woodmen Circle of Colfax, Alpha Grove, U. D., request us to announce that their charter will be open until the 2d day of May, for the reception of applications for charter members. All are invited to take advantage of the reduced rates for this occasion.

At a meeting Friday night, April 2, 1909, the following officers were elected, viz: Guardian, Mrs. Emma Clark; Advisor, Mrs. C. H. Compton; Clerk, Mrs. A. A. Willett; Banker, Mrs. F. B. Cole; Attendant, Mrs. Lela Long; Chaplain, Mrs. G. N. Givens; Inner Sentinel, Mrs. R. M. C. Duncan; Outer Sentinel, Mr. C. H. Smith; Managers, Mrs. M. Williamson, and A. A. Willett and R. M. C. Duncan; Physicians, E. B. Gray, E. H. Blackwood.

On Friday evening of last week Mr. Will B. Few and Mr. Chas. T. Barr left for Texarkana, Ark., on a mysterious trip. It now develops that on Sunday Mr. Few was married to Miss Pearl Duffot, a beautiful and popular young lady of Texarkana, whom he brought back to Colfax with him on Tuesday. The happy couple are at home with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Johnston, and we congratulate them and welcome them as citizens and wish them great success and happiness in life.

Mrs. A. R. Hoffpauir, of Belle City, arrived this week, and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Waltman. Mrs. Hoffpauir is the wife of the minister of that name, who has been quite ill for some time, and is now with his people in South Louisiana with the view of resting up and recuperating his health, while she also rests and recovers from the fatigue of her long vigil as nurse.

Mr. J. C. Goulden, the well known painter of Alexandria, came up on Tuesday and remained over to Wednesday. He was accompanied by his sons, Ed. and Sam, who will make their headquarters in Colfax for a while, in order to do some painting for the Union Mercantile Co., and for others having painting to be done.

Mrs. J. W. Duncan and other ladies of the Baptist Sunday school gave their pupils and a number of children guests an Easter egg hunt on last Saturday. The hunt was given on the vacant lot adjoining Dr. W. A. Jones' residence, and the number of "rabbit's eggs" found by the little folks was remarkable and gave them great pleasure.

Capt. C. H. Teal on Tuesday attended the regular quarterly meeting of the board of directors for the Pineville Insane Asylum. The meeting was held in the Bentley Hotel, and was attended by Gov. J. Y. Sanders and other members of the board, who attended to the regular routine business necessary for the care of the insane.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duncan went to Alexandria on Thursday to attend the laying of the corner stone of the city hall, the ceremonies of which were to be assisted in by the Knights Templars, of which order Mr. D. is a member. They remained over night in order to participate in all of the celebrations.

Deputy S. M. LaCroix started to Fayette, Alabama, last Saturday, in order to bring back the party in jail there supposed to be John W. Green, the man wanted for insurance frauds in this parish. Deputy LaCroix managed to find out that it was the wrong party, and turned back after going as far as Baton Rouge.

Mr. P. L. Clark and family we understand are moving to Rock Island, and will live with Mrs. L. McNeely in her residence, which she reserved in the late sale of her Rock Island place to Mr. C. W. LaCroix. Mr. Will Stallings and wife will occupy the residence of Mr. Clark.

The section hands will in a few days finish the "Y" being built at Colfax, and Mr. H. L. Graham the depot agent, tells us that as soon as it is finished the L. R. & N. trains from Winnfield will run into Colfax, instead of stopping at Aloha Junction as at present.

Mr. J. B. Roberts left for Baton Rouge on Wednesday, to attend the meeting of the State Board of Appraisers, of which he is a member. His absence will be determined by the amount of business that may come before the board.

FOUND.—A very nice lady's white coat was found on Sunday, April 11th, in the road between Colfax and Fairmount, which the owner can have by calling at the Chronicle office, describing property and paying for this notice.

Alpha Grove Woodmen Circle. The ladies of the Woodmen Circle of Colfax, Alpha Grove, U. D., request us to announce that their charter will be open until the 2d day of May, for the reception of applications for charter members. All are invited to take advantage of the reduced rates for this occasion.

At a meeting Friday night, April 2, 1909, the following officers were elected, viz: Guardian, Mrs. Emma Clark; Advisor, Mrs. C. H. Compton; Clerk, Mrs. A. A. Willett; Banker, Mrs. F. B. Cole; Attendant, Mrs. Lela Long; Chaplain, Mrs. G. N. Givens; Inner Sentinel, Mrs. R. M. C. Duncan; Outer Sentinel, Mr. C. H. Smith; Managers, Mrs. M. Williamson, and A. A. Willett and R. M. C. Duncan; Physicians, E. B. Gray, E. H. Blackwood.

On Friday evening of last week Mr. Will B. Few and Mr. Chas. T. Barr left for Texarkana, Ark., on a mysterious trip. It now develops that on Sunday Mr. Few was married to Miss Pearl Duffot, a beautiful and popular young lady of Texarkana, whom he brought back to Colfax with him on Tuesday. The happy couple are at home with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Johnston, and we congratulate them and welcome them as citizens and wish them great success and happiness in life.

Mrs. A. R. Hoffpauir, of Belle City, arrived this week, and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Waltman. Mrs. Hoffpauir is the wife of the minister of that name, who has been quite ill for some time, and is now with his people in South Louisiana with the view of resting up and recuperating his health, while she also rests and recovers from the fatigue of her long vigil as nurse.

Mr. J. C. Goulden, the well known painter of Alexandria, came up on Tuesday and remained over to Wednesday. He was accompanied by his sons, Ed. and Sam, who will make their headquarters in Colfax for a while, in order to do some painting for the Union Mercantile Co., and for others having painting to be done.

Mrs. J. W. Duncan and other ladies of the Baptist Sunday school gave their pupils and a number of children guests an Easter egg hunt on last Saturday. The hunt was given on the vacant lot adjoining Dr. W. A. Jones' residence, and the number of "rabbit's eggs" found by the little folks was remarkable and gave them great pleasure.

Capt. C. H. Teal on Tuesday attended the regular quarterly meeting of the board of directors for the Pineville Insane Asylum. The meeting was held in the Bentley Hotel, and was attended by Gov. J. Y. Sanders and other members of the board, who attended to the regular routine business necessary for the care of the insane.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duncan went to Alexandria on Thursday to attend the laying of the corner stone of the city hall, the ceremonies of which were to be assisted in by the Knights Templars, of which order Mr. D. is a member. They remained over night in order to participate in all of the celebrations.

Deputy S. M. LaCroix started to Fayette, Alabama, last Saturday, in order to bring back the party in jail there supposed to be John W. Green, the man wanted for insurance frauds in this parish. Deputy LaCroix managed to find out that it was the wrong party, and turned back after going as far as Baton Rouge.

Mr. P. L. Clark and family we understand are moving to Rock Island, and will live with Mrs. L. McNeely in her residence, which she reserved in the late sale of her Rock Island place to Mr. C. W. LaCroix. Mr. Will Stallings and wife will occupy the residence of Mr. Clark.

The section hands will in a few days finish the "Y" being built at Colfax, and Mr. H. L. Graham the depot agent, tells us that as soon as it is finished the L. R. & N. trains from Winnfield will run into Colfax, instead of stopping at Aloha Junction as at present.

Mr. J. B. Roberts left for Baton Rouge on Wednesday, to attend the meeting of the State Board of Appraisers, of which he is a member. His absence will be determined by the amount of business that may come before the board.

FOUND.—A very nice lady's white coat was found on Sunday, April 11th, in the road between Colfax and Fairmount, which the owner can have by calling at the Chronicle office, describing property and paying for this notice.

Alpha Grove Woodmen Circle. The ladies of the Woodmen Circle of Colfax, Alpha Grove, U. D., request us to announce that their charter will be open until the 2d day of May, for the reception of