

HOT FLASHES ALMOST GONE

Woman in Aurora Gets Relief from Troubles by Taking Cardui, the Woman's Tonic.

Aurora, Ind.—"I was suffering from the change and had those hot flashes and severe backache all the time. At times I could hardly straighten up.

"I read about Cardui and got a bottle from our druggist and it helped me at once. Now the hot flashes have almost gone and I feel much better.

"I have recommended Cardui to several lady friends."

You need not be afraid to take Cardui, whenever you feel that you need a tonic. Its use will not interfere with that of any other medicine you may be taking. Its action is very gentle and without any bad after-effects. Being purely vegetable and non-intoxicating, Cardui can safely be taken by young and old, and can do nothing but good.

Cardui acts on woman's constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up womanly nerves, regulating womanly organs. Half a century of success, with thousands of cures, similar to the one described above, amply prove its real, scientific medicinal merit.

You are urged to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. It will help you.

NOTE—The Cardui Home Treatment for Women, consists of Cardui ($1), Theford's Black-Draught (25c), or Veivo (50c), for the liver, and Cardui Antiseptic (50c). These remedies may be taken singly, by themselves, if desired, or three together, as a complete treatment for woman's ills. Write to Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

PAUL ON SELF DENIAL

Sunday School Lesson for Nov. 28, 1909
Specially Arranged for This Paper

LESSON TEXT.—Rom. 14:10-21. Memory verses 18, 20.
GOLDEN TEXT.—"It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything whereby thy brother stumbleth."—Rom. 14:21.

Suggestion and Practical Thought.

One.—The School of Self-Control. Temperance means the control of all the lower parts of a man's being by his reason, his conscience, and his will. It is "keeping the soul on top." The all pervasive thought in this verse of the lesson for to-day is this self-control, the basis of temperance.

Why are we all, even the youngest children, placed in the midst of so many temptations, to lie, to steal, to gamble, to drink intoxicating liquors, to be selfish, and disobedient?

Because there is no other way of opening the door to man's highest possibilities, his fullest development, his purest holiness, his greatest happiness, his largest usefulness. All who would become strong and useful must gain their power largely through victory over temptation. It is thus that the soul "builds itself larger mansions." It is a chief factor in education. Men cultivate courage through things that test courage. They grow in faith through the things that try their faith. They learn business by taking the risks of business. People without trials and temptations are always failures.

Why are we so full of impulses and passions, of faculties and powers that may be used for good or for evil? Because the question of life with every man is the question of self-control, of temperance. Prof. Thomson in his Brain and Personality says that "the Will creates the man." "We make our own brains" by repeated choices which are acts of Will. "The Will is the ranking official of all in man."

Why then do we pray, Lead us not into temptation? Because there are plenty of temptations for our education without our seeking for more. Because our only true attitude toward temptation is that of a fighter, a conqueror. Whosoever goes willingly, with desire, into temptation is already more than half fallen. The mad man, described in the Greyson Letters, had an illusion that he was acquainted with the devil. "They say the devil is very busy in tempting men; but he maun hae an easy time o't, I'm thinking. All of them meet him more than half way. Ilk ane seems to gang to him and say, 'Haena ye some dainty temptation for me to-day, now, Daddy Satan? I'm sair wracked for a coaxing temptation.'"

A learned professor wrote the other day that people ought to drink a little wine moderately, in order to train themselves in self-control. But that is to throw open the castle of your life to the enemy. It gives him every advantage. For the tempter is like those people who go in a large band to haze a simple freshman, or as was once the custom in a national military school to make an untrained newcomer fight an athlete of an upper class. Two.—Away with the Stumbling Block of the Saloon. Hon. Neal Dow was lecturing, one summer evening, and the flies and gnats gathered in such swarms around the lamp near him that he took his handkerchief and waved them away. They went for a time, but soon returned. He repeated his movements with his handkerchief, with the same results. Finally, he turned around and blew out the light; and henceforward the insects were no longer attracted, and kept away. So warning people away from saloons will not be enough; you must extinguish the saloons themselves.

Three.—The Only Safe Way. Don't Begin.—A little couplet, written for children, holds weighty wisdom: From drink, with its sorrow and ruin and sin, I surely am safe if I never begin. Said a young man to me once: "When I feel a thirst coming on that brings visions of the delight of its slacking, I drink all the water that I can—a great deal more than I want—and then think of something else." "But," one asks, "must I not use wine because others abuse it?" Does every one who drinks wine become a drunkard?

By no means. But no one ever becomes a drunkard who refused to take the first glass. Several times men have tried to sail across the Atlantic in a very small boat. It was very dangerous and some succeeded.

But if you cross in one of the great liners, which can carry more than 2,000 persons, and can laugh at and sport with the waves that would overwhelm the little boat, you are as safe as you are at home. When I cross the Atlantic I take the great liner. If some millionaire should offer me $1,000,000 in gold on condition that with it I should take a drunkard's craving appetite for strong drink, and run my own risk, I would refuse it instantly, though I went to the poorhouse the next day.

Don't begin, because it is easy to go down into the depths, but very hard to return, one of the hardest victories ever won by man. I heard Mr. Edward Carswell, in a lecture, tell of a magician who offered to change any bright boy into an idiot. A mother consented to have him try his power on her son. The boy went forward; the magician made his passes; soon the bright look fades away from the boy's face, a vacant stare takes its place, and the boy becomes an idiotic fool. At length the mother asks the magician to change him back again. But this he could not do.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT VICTORY FOR THE CARTER MEDICINE COMPANY IN THE UNITED STATES COURT.

The United States Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York—sitting in New York City—has just awarded to the Carter Medicine Company a decree which again sustains the company's exclusive right to use the red package for liver pills.

By the terms of the decree, it is, among other things:

Adjudged that the Carter Medicine Company is the owner of the sole and exclusive right to the use of red colored wrappers and labels upon said small, round packages of liver pills of the style described in the bill of complaint; said right having been acquired by the prior adoption of said style and color of package for liver pills by the complainant predecessors more than thirty years ago, and established by the continuous and exclusive use of the same in constantly increasing quantities by said predecessors and by the complainant, the Carter Medicine Company, itself, from the time of their said adoption until the present day.

The decision just announced is perhaps the most important and far-reaching of all, by reason of the character of the tribunal which rendered it. No Court in the country stands higher.

"I am seventy-seven years old, and some years ago I was taken with eczema from head to foot. I was sick for six months and what I suffered tongue could not tell. I could not sleep day or night because of that dreadful itching; when I did sleep it was from sheer exhaustion. I was one mass of irritation; it was even in my scalp. The doctor's medicine seemed to make me worse and I was almost out of my mind. I got a set of the Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent. I used them persistently for twenty-four hours. That night I slept like an infant, the first solid night's sleep I had had for six months. In a month I was cured. W. Harrison Smith, Mt. Kisco, N. Y., Feb. 3, 1908." Pettey Drug & Chem. # One Was Enough for Johnny.

The Sunday school lesson was from that scripture which teaches that if your brother strike you on one cheek, you should turn the other also and endure even for seventy times seven. Johnny had listened to his teacher very attentively, while she emphasized this fact, and after the lesson the enquiring teacher rose to make a few remarks.

"Now, boys," he said, "how many times ought another boy to strike you before you hit him back?" "Just about once!" promptly answered Johnny.—Delineator.

REPENTANCE CAME TOO LATE

Small Boy Had Taken Drastic Action to Avoid Being Invited to Party.

A small boy had something to say to his father at the dinner table the other night, says the Philadelphia Record. "Papa," he said, "Johnnie Burton is going to have a party next week, an' he said he'd invite me. An' I got to take a present." "A present? What's that for?" "It's for Johnny's birthday. All the kids take presents." Things hadn't gone just right during the day with the boy's father. He was not in an agreeable humor. "That's all nonsense," he declared. "Every day or two it's a present here or a present there. If you can't go to a party without taking a present you might as well stay at home." The boy's lip trembled, but he made no reply. The next day the father regretted his hasty words and that night turned to the boy. "George," he said, "there are a couple of new books in my overcoat pocket. You can take them to your friend Johnny's party." "It's too late," said George, gloomily. "I licked him to-day so that he wouldn't invite me."

Procrastination is the thief of many a good time.

It was in this very cottage in Brookside, 15 miles from Birmingham, Ala., that three Italians nearly died of Fever. They had been sick 3 months. Johnson's Tonic cured them quickly—read letter below:

Brookside, Ala., May 4, 1903. The two physicians here had 5 very obstinate cases of continued Malarial Fever. All were Italians and lived on a creek 60 yards from my store. These cases were of three months standing, their temperature ranging from 100 to 104. The doctors had tried everything in vain. I persuaded them to let me try Johnson's Tonic. I removed all the printed matter and let the medicine go out in a plain bottle as a regular prescription. The effect in all three cases was immediate and permanent. They recovered rapidly and there was no recurrence of the Fever.

As to the Hessian Fly.

The Hessian fly is a German product which was conceived in iniquity and born in sauerkraut. It is a long, rangy fly with a bite like a steel trap, and it lays a pale blue, oblong egg at the rate of 20,000 an hour. The Hessian fly will eat anything from decayed custard pie to a glass inkwell, but its favorite dish is the double neck of a fat gent. This bird can perform a two-step on sticky fly paper without crooking its toes, and is proof against rough on rats, the daisy fly killer, and a strychnine hypodermic. No Hessian fly was ever known to die of anything but old age, which accounts for the color of its whiskers. If it ever fastens upon your jawl, it will stay until removed by the undertaker.—Manchester (Ia.) Press.

Gratitude is the sweetest music that flows from the human heart.—Henry Lee.

HAS ITS GOOD POINTS.

"One nice thing 'bout shootin' pheasants durin' 't' open season is that you kin bring 'em home in broad daylight, and you don't have to divvy up with no game constable so's he'll keep his mouth shut."

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so? The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.
