Red Cross Christmas Seals. The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis will this year for the first time be national agent for the American Red Cross in handling the sale of Red Cross seals. A new national office has been opened in Washington, and an initial order has been placed for 50,000,000 seals, although it is expected that double that number will be sold. The charge to local agents for the seals will be 12 1/2 per cent. of the gross proceeds, the national agent furnishing the seals and advertising material, and taking back all unsold seals at the end of the season. Postmaster General Hitchcock has approved of the design of the seal. Owing to the fact that many people last year used Red Cross seals for postage, the post office department has given orders that letters or packages bearing seals on the face will not be carried through the mails.

SILENCE IS GOLDEN.

Mrs. Roley—Poor dear, he hasn't said a word for three weeks. Dr. Bull-Frog—Well, you don't want him to croak, do you?—Exchange.

The Old Love Possible. Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay, at a garden party at Hamstead, praised the working girl.

"How much nobler," she said, "to work than to marry for money. I know a pretty girl who gave up a good position to marry a man of sixty-eight. 'I am marrying for love,' she told her chum.

"And the old fellow," said the chum, disgustedly, "is worth $7,000,000!" "Yes," was the reply. "It's the $7,000,000 I'm in love with."

FOOD AGAIN A Mighty Important Subject to Every One.

A Boston lady talks entertainingly of food and the changes that can be made in health by some knowledge on that line. She says:

"An injury to my spine in early womanhood left me subject to severe sick headaches which would last three or four days at a time, and a violent course of drugging brought on constipation with all the ills that follow.

"My appetite was always light and uncertain and many kinds of food distressed me. 'I began to eat Grape-Nuts food two or three years ago, because I liked the taste of it, and I kept on because I soon found it was doing me good.

"I eat it regularly at breakfast, frequently at luncheon, and again before going to bed—and have no trouble in sleeping on it.' It has relieved my constipation, my headaches have practically ceased, and I am in better physical condition at the age of 63 than I was at 40.

"I give Grape-Nuts credit for restoring my health, if not saving my life, and you can make no claim for it too strong for me to endorse." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek Mich.

BEST FIDDLERS IN OZARKS

Carpenter Sixty-Three Years of Age Wins First Prize in Arkansas Fiddling Contest.

Little Rock, Ark.—Probably more than 100 fiddlers were on the ground for the annual Ozark contest at Monte Ne, Ark., the other night, but only about 40 were on the stage to join in the general concert of fiddlers, and from that number just 14 had enough nerve to enter the final contest. The contestants were fiddlers of great reputation and against whom the others had no show; men who could play the fiddle to perfection, wonderful fiddle music, and as between whom it was hard to judge.

The contest began with a chorus of "Turkey in the Straw" and "Dixie." They played pieces of their own selection, such as "Arkansas Traveler," "Leather Breeches" and "Fisherman's Hornpipe." The judges put them through a severe "Money Musk," "Devil's Dream," and "The Soldier's Joy" were called for and played.

W. M. Day of Casville, Mo., shown at the right in the picture, was declared winner of the first prize and was crowned king fiddler of the Ozarks. The crown is shown in the picture. He is 63 years old, a carpenter by trade, was born on a farm in Tennessee, lived 12 years in Arkansas and has played since thirteen years old and won many prizes. Norman Ingersol of Monte Ne was selected as the second best fiddler. He is a farmer, and is shown on the left in the picture. Jim Mains of Hickory Creek, a lad of fourteen, was declared prince regent of fiddlers, and winner of the boy's fiddling contest, which was also part of the big show.

STATUE IS LIKE A REAL DOG

Unwelcome Visitors and Neighbors' Cats and Dogs Give This Yard a Wide Berth.

Boston, Mass.—Unwelcome visitors do not bother "Bill" Irwin's house in Cotuit, neither do neighbors' cats or dogs play about his house, and it is all because of a statue of a big dog that sits on the front lawn. Mr. Irwin was presented with the statue by the late John Simpkins, and for a number of years it has been on the front lawn standing guard over the grounds. When the "dog" was first set out on the lawn the small boys of the village believed it to be a real dog, and they avoided going anywhere near the place. "Bill" has lots of fun at the expense of some of his invited guests who are shown the big mastiff for the first time.

The statue is a work of art, and was imported from Germany by the late

Mr. Simpkins and presented to his friend, Mr. Irwin, to guard the latter's home during his absence.

Mr. Irwin has conducted the stage line from Cotuit to West Barnstable for many years, and he says that he does not hesitate to be absent from his home as long as the dog is sitting out on the front lawn. The "dog" appears to be a live one, and once seen it is not strange that cats and other animals avoid trespassing on the lawn.

TEN YEARS OF HORRIBLE HEADACHE

Husband Tells Story of Mrs. Guthrie's Long Illness and Is Glad She Is Relieved.

Beaufort, N. C.—Mr. Luther Guthrie writes as follows: "My wife suffered with horrible headaches for ten years, and I spent Three Hundred Dollars for doctor bills for her, but nothing did her any good.

I had read about Cardui for years back, but never tried it, until last October, when I decided to get it for my wife.

Now she has taken two bottles, and it has done her two thousand dollars worth of good.

She is entirely well, and has not had another attack of headache since she commenced to take Cardui.

Just as long as the medicine is made, I shall have Cardui in my home. I can't praise it half enough."

Cardui has cured sick women, after other medicines have failed. It is made of ingredients that act specifically on the womanly constitution. It is not a cure all. It is a medicine for women, and only for women.

For more than 50 years, it has been in widely extended use, by women of all ages, and has given perfect satisfaction, as a remedy for rebuilding womanly health and strength.

Try it yourself. It will help you.

HANDS BURNED LIKE FIRE

"I can truthfully say Cuticura Remedies have cured me of four long years of eczema. About four years ago I noticed some little pimples coming on my little finger, and not giving it any attention, it soon became worse and spread all over my hands. If I would have them in water for a long time, they would burn like fire and large cracks would come. I could lay a pin in them. After using all the salves I could think of, I went to three different doctors, but all did me no good. The only relief I got was scratching.

"So after hearing so much about the wonderful Cuticura Remedies, I purchased one complete set, and after using them three days my hands were much better. Today my hands are entirely well, one set being all I used." (Signed) Miss Etta Narber, R. F. D. 2, Spring Lake, Mich., Sept. 26, 1910. Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere, a sample of each, with 32-page book, will be mailed free on application to "Cuticura," Dept. 2 L, Boston.

Buying Legislators in Joblots. One day, writes Sloane Gordon in Success Magazine, a former member of the Ohio house displayed, inadvertently, a large roll of bills in the Nell house lobby. A fellow member gazed in awe at the show of wealth.

"I just sold a drove of hogs," explained the former member rather hastily and confusedly.

The observing one was thoughtful. He did not reply for the half-minute usually essential to the full-measured beat of his mental processes. And then—

"Yaas," he drawled, "and I'll bet I'm one o' them haws."

Plenty 'of Biz. "How is your son, the young doctor, making out?"

"First rate, since he learned to adapt himself to circumstances. He started out as lung specialist, but he's a green apple specialist now."

WHAT THEY THOUGHT OF HIM

Remark by No Means Complimentary Made by Constituent of Representative Underwood.

Representative Underwood, chairman of the ways and means committee in congress, represents what is known as a "manufacturing district," because it contains all the factories and smelters in and about Birmingham, Ala. But he also has among his constituents a lot of farmers—of which fact he is now painfully aware.

He drove out to a settlement in Bibb county one afternoon to persuade the farmers they ought to vote for him. As he stepped up to the porch of a little store an old man rushed up to him with the request:

"Please sign this paper. It's a petition to Congressman Underwood to have a young lady postmistress here."

"I'd be glad to sign it," said Underwood politely; "but as I'm not a resident of this community, my name wouldn't help you."

"Oh, yes, it would," the old farmer assured him. "We're getting everybody to sign it, strangers and all. Go ahead and put your name down! That fool congressman will never know the difference!"—The Sunday Magazine.

Secretive Family Bible.

Tommy was a venturesome lad, but nobody had ever credited him with sufficient courage to shake his head in contradiction when the Sunday school visitor, who wished to show off his knowledge of Biblical history, asserted that Sarah, Abraham's wife, was the only woman whose age was recorded in the Bible. Seeing the disapproving motion of the little head in the front row the visitor reiterated: "Sarah was the only woman whose age is recorded in the Bible." Then Tommy spoke right up: "There are three more that I know of," said he. "Who?" asked the astonished visitor. "Mother, grandmother and Aunt Lucy," said Tommy.

A Great Grace.

It is no great matter to associate with the good and gentle, for this is naturally pleasing to all and every one willingly enjoyeth peace and loveth those best that agree with him. But to be able to live peaceably with hard and perverse persons, or with the disorderly, or with such as go contrary to us, is a great grace, and a most commendable and manly thing.—Thomas a Kempis.

Folly of Vain Regrets.

The late John W. Gates, an incurable optimist, harped continually on the futility of pessimism. One of Mr. Gates's epigrams, still quoted on the Chicago Stock Exchange, ran:

"He who nurses foolish hopes may be an ass, but he is not such an ass as he who nurses vain regrets."

SHE GOT WHAT SHE WANTED

This Woman Had to Insist Strongly, but it Paid

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a female weakness and stomach trouble, and I went to the store to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but the clerk did not want to let me have it—he said it was no good and wanted me to try something else, but knowing all about it I insisted and finally got it, and I am so glad I did, for it has cured me.

"I know of so many cases where women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I can say to every suffering woman if that medicine does not help her, there is nothing that will."—Mrs. JANET KEEL, 2908 Arch St., Chicago, Ill.

This is the age of substitution, and women who want a cure should insist upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just as this woman did, and not accept something else on which the druggist can make a little more profit. Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
